Re: Complaint No. 2025-SOC-20910 (Chelcie D. Stewart)

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF COMPLAINT

Dear Mr. Ryan Michaels:

This letter acknowledges receipt of your complaint concerning Chelcie D. Stewart, a licensee of the Board Of Social Worker Licensure.

A copy of your complaint will be forwarded to the licensee for a response. The licensee has until September 20, 2025 to respond. If the licensee responds to the complaint (and most do) we may send you a copy of the response. You will then have 15 days to reply to the response, if you wish to do so.

A complete description of the complaint process is included in the Regulatory Board and Program Administrative Complaint Procedures enclosed with this letter.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact our office at (207) 624-8660.

Sincerely,

Complaint Division

NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

Dear Ms. Stewart:

The Board of Social Worker Licensure has received the enclosed complaint against you from Ryan Michaels.

Please mail to this office, at the address above, a detailed response to the complaint by September 20, 2025. When responding, please address each of the concerns or allegations listed in the complaint. The Board hereby requests that you include with your response copies of all assessments, evaluations, psychosocial histories, treatment plans, session or progress notes, termination summaries, and any other documentation pertaining to the period of treatment. If you do not have custody or control over the requested records, please indicate this information in your response, and identify where a request for records may be directed (i.e., the name, address and telephone number of the facility, and, if known, a contact person).

This request for records pertains to a licensure or disciplinary action involving the health oversight activities of the Board and may be disclosed in response to this request without the written consent or authorization of the individual client pursuant to 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(d), 45 C.F.R. § 164.508(2)(ii), and 22 M.R.S. § 1711-C.

Unless there is a compelling reason such as the safety and welfare of a client, a copy of your response will be provided to the complainant. If you have a concern, please feel free to contact the Complaint Division before drafting your response.

A complete description of the complaint process is included in the Regulatory Board and Administrative Complaint Procedures enclosed with this letter.

In accordance with 10 M.R.S. § 8003-B(1) information received by the Board during an investigation, including the complaint and your response, shall be confidential during the pendency of an investigation. Treatment records are confidential during the pendency of the investigation and remain confidential upon the conclusion of the investigation pursuant to 10 M.R.S. § 8003-B(2-A).

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact our office at (207) 624-8660.

Sincerely,

Complaint Details: I am submitting this formal complaint regarding Chelcie Stewart's repeated failure to fulfill her legal duties as a child protective caseworker. The attached exhibit summary outlines a pattern of misconduct, including retaliation, failure to investigate abuse, ADA violations, obstruction of due process, and enabling the complete severance of my relationship with my children. I have compiled evidence (email threads, official records, audio, body cam footage, and therapist notes) showing how Chelcie ignored mandated reports, refused to act on credible safety concerns, and remained silent while OCFS staff lied to police and blocked my lawful access to public offices. This complaint is focused solely on Chelcie Stewart and her role in these events. However, it is important to note that this is part of a broader pattern of misconduct within Maine OCFS involving multiple individuals—including Christina Codere, Amy Cilley, and Bobbi Johnson—each of whom I have already filed or will file separate complaints against. While these individuals share overlapping patterns of abuse and systemic failure, each complaint is tailored to reflect the specific actions and responsibilities of the person named. My goal is not just personal accountability, but public protection and institutional reform. Additionally, I would like to note that I possess a large volume of screenshots documenting direct text message communication with Chelcie Stewart. These messages contain further evidence of serious misconduct, negligence, and disregard for mandated responsibilities. Due to file size limitations and the volume of exhibits already submitted, I was unable to include them at this time. However, I respectfully request the opportunity to submit these materials during any investigative process or as part of my sworn testimony, should the board proceed with a formal review.

Introduction to Exhibit Summary Sheet – Complaint Against Chelcie Stewart

This summary sheet has been prepared in support of my formal complaint against Chelcie Stewart, a child protective caseworker with the Maine Office of Child and Family Services (OCFS). It includes a detailed collection of exhibits that document a pattern of professional misconduct, gross negligence, retaliation, discriminatory behavior, and willful failure to protect the safety and well-being of my children and myself. Each exhibit is labeled, organized chronologically, and accompanied by a summary explaining its contents, its relevance to my complaint, and the specific statutes, laws, or DHHS policies that may have been violated.

The purpose of presenting these exhibits is to demonstrate, through clear and credible documentation, how Chelcie Stewart consistently failed in her legal and ethical obligations as a state employee and mandated reporter. The records provided illustrate how she enabled ongoing emotional abuse, obstructed court-ordered parent-child contact, ignored credible reports from mandated reporters, and remained silent or complicit during acts of retaliation and false reporting committed by other OCFS officials. These failures have not only caused irreparable emotional harm to my children and me, but have also undermined the integrity of the child welfare system in our state.

This summary sheet is not intended to be a fully exhaustive record of all misconduct or evidence available. I respectfully ask that the Board of Licensing conduct a thorough, unbiased investigation into the actions of Ms. Stewart and the systemic failures that allowed this behavior to go unchecked. I welcome the opportunity to provide further documentation and, if permitted, to deliver spoken testimony to assist in the pursuit of truth, accountability, and justice.

Exhibit 1 – Forward: Missed Phone Call – Renee Marchand to Chelcie Stewart, April 12, 2024

This email from Renee Marchand to Chelcie Stewart describes multiple incidents of escalating abuse, neglect, and intimidation involving the children's mother, Marisol Guerrero. Renee reports:

- That Maddox and Maverick disclosed medical neglect and emotional dismissiveness by Marisol, who told them to "get over it" when ill.
- A March 12, 2024 incident at school where Marisol verbally attacked Renee in front of staff and children, screamed to have Renee removed from pickup, and then stalked her by tailgating her car.
- That she filed a police report about the March 12 incident, but chose not to pursue a Protection from Harassment in the interest of the children's emotional stability.
- A March 27 incident where Marisol falsely accused Ryan of violating a PFA for simply placing Maverick's forgotten glasses in her mailbox, resulting in police presence at Renee's home and further distress for all children involved.
- That Marisol's behavior has left Renee's own children terrified of public places, believing they might encounter her.
- That Renee, a mental health student, can no longer stay silent and affirms that the children's repeated disclosures of abuse are credible and concerning.
- A March 22 forensic interview at YCAC where Maddox emotionally thanked Renee for her support—further confirming the children's need for safety and stable connection.

Chelcie Stewart received this comprehensive report and did not respond, investigate, or take documented action, despite its urgency, credibility, and volume of safety indicators.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporter Law: Stewart is legally required to act on any credible allegation of abuse or neglect, regardless of who submits it. Failure to respond violates this statute.

- OCFS Child Welfare Policy – Section IV: Requires that all allegations be assessed promptly and thoroughly. The lack of action on this report violates Maine DHHS policy on intake and investigation procedures.

- Professional Ethics and Retaliatory Neglect: Ignoring serious safety concerns due to personal bias or conflicts with the reporting parent or guardian may constitute professional misconduct or retaliatory inaction, violating both internal OCFS standards and broader ethical obligations.

- Children's Right to Protection (CAPTA Standards): The Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act outlines that child protection services must actively investigate any credible reports of risk to children. Stewart's failure to act may jeopardize the agency's compliance with federal expectations.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart received a clear, credible, and urgent report of abuse and neglect from a trusted adult—and failed to respond or act in any documented way.

Exhibit 2 – Email Summary of Phone Call Incident – Chelcie Stewart CC'd – April 24, 2024

This email exchange documents a phone call between Ryan Michaels, Christina Codere (Investigations Supervisor), and Chelcie Stewart (Caseworker), during which Ryan was contacted at his workplace (Pratt & Whitney) despite previously requesting that communication occur outside of working hours due to the high-stress and loud production environment.

- Christina Codere, in the first email, states the call had to end because of "yelling and swearing," which she claims is unacceptable.
- Ryan responds by clarifying:
    - He was not yelling—he was in a loud work environment and had made that clear in advance.
    - He had requested to speak later, yet Codere informed him on the spot that he had been substantiated for abuse while Marisol had not—an extremely triggering and damaging revelation.
    - He did not swear at anyone and only used one curse word at the end of the conversation out of frustration, not aggression.
    - He accuses Codere (and implicitly Stewart, who was CC'd) of exaggerating and misrepresenting the situation to justify retaliation and avoid accountability.
    - He closes by stating he will address the corruption and retaliation in court.

Importantly, Chelcie Stewart was CC'd on both emails and was therefore fully aware of the events and the complaint against how the situation was handled. She took no documented action to clarify, intervene, or correct the mischaracterization—despite being a caseworker responsible for neutrality, fairness, and accurate reporting.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- DHHS Code of Ethics – Respectful Communication & Accuracy of Records: By not correcting or responding to a potentially false narrative about the phone call, Chelcie Stewart may have allowed false documentation or untruthful impressions to become part of the official record. That is a serious breach of duty.

- Retaliation/Hostile Conduct – OCFS Policy Manual: Ryan was contacted during work hours without consent, received distressing news mid-shift, and then had his reaction misrepresented as aggressive. Chelcie Stewart's failure to intervene or de-escalate may constitute retaliation or professional misconduct under internal OCFS guidelines.

- Right to Due Process: Presenting someone as verbally abusive without proper context—especially in a workplace setting they asked to avoid—denies the person a fair and impartial interaction, and can result in prejudicial treatment during future reviews or investigations.

- ADA Violation (Potential): Given Ryan's known mental health disability, the agency's disregard for his request to avoid calls at work may contribute to a pattern of discrimination or failure to accommodate a known disability under federal protections.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart knowingly allowed a false narrative of aggression to stand unchallenged, supporting a pattern of retaliation, misrepresentation, and failure to act neutrally or ethically in her professional role.

Exhibit 3 – Summary of Growing Concerns – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – January 10, 2024

This exhibit is an email Ryan Michaels sent to caseworker Chelcie Stewart as a follow-up to an earlier report shared with Ashana Legeyt. It includes a summary of alarming concerns about the ongoing abuse of his two sons by their mother, Marisol Guerrero. Ryan attaches:

- A previously submitted report titled Concerns.docx, outlining a timeline of repeated abuse.
- Supporting documentation showing he has completed multiple parenting classes and taken proactive steps to be a responsible father.
- Reference contact information from multiple individuals with direct knowledge of the situation, including family members and Marisol's adopted child.

In the body of the email, Ryan details:

- Disclosures by his children about ongoing physical abuse and disturbing behavior from their mother.
- An explanation that any inconsistencies in their statements are due to developmental limitations—not dishonesty—and that the core allegations remain consistent and credible.
- Multiple third-party reports (from school staff, family, and counselors) corroborating what the children have disclosed.
- The fact that Ryan was substantiated for abuse without even being interviewed, during a time when he was recovering from an injury—further showing biased handling by OCFS.
- Marisol's past domestic violence charges and history of abuse toward the children as context for his request for a safety plan.
- A respectful and urgent request for Chelcie to allow the boys to temporarily stay with him while the investigation unfolds.

This is a thoughtful, well-documented, and non-aggressive communication that outlines the legal, ethical, and emotional stakes of the children remaining in an unsafe home. Chelcie Stewart was given direct, timely access to this information and did nothing to investigate or implement safety measures.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004(1)(A) – Obligation to Protect: This statute requires child protective services to take immediate steps to protect children when credible reports of abuse exist. Ignoring this detailed, corroborated plea violates this legal mandate.

- Mandated Reporting Law – 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A: Chelcie Stewart, as a child protection worker, is required to act on reports of abuse or neglect, even if substantiated indirectly through third-party sources. Her inaction constitutes a dereliction of duty under this law.

- OCFS Policy – Safety Assessment & Planning: Under state policy, Stewart was obligated to evaluate the danger to the children and implement a written safety plan if even minimal risk was present. Her failure to do so contradicts standard CPS protocol.

- Procedural Due Process Violations: Ryan was substantiated without interview, violating his right to a fair process. Stewart's continued disregard of his appeals or requests adds to this procedural injustice.

- Bias and Retaliation Indicators: The exhibit adds weight to the pattern that Chelcie Stewart is allowing personal or systemic bias to override her duties—especially when evidence clearly calls for child protection intervention.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart ignored a comprehensive, well-documented plea for help—supported by third parties and evidence—demonstrating a serious breach of duty, failure to protect the children, and possible systemic retaliation.

Exhibit 4 – Timeline of Events Last Year – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – January 22, 2024

In this email, Ryan Michaels submits a PowerPoint timeline to caseworker Chelcie Stewart. He acknowledges that the content may appear focused on Marisol's treatment of him, but emphasizes that this pattern of abuse and manipulation is directly relevant to how she treats the children. The tone is respectful, trauma-informed, and emotionally vulnerable. Key points include:

- The intent of the timeline is to show Marisol's pattern of lies, manipulation, and abuse, especially as it relates to the Department's historic decision to believe her uncritically.
- Ryan underscores that this documentation helps validate the children's disclosures—especially since Marisol would never admit to physical abuse, even if directly confronted.
- He offers a psychological explanation of trauma bonding, describing how victims may appear compliant to appease their abuser, a concept that is crucial when assessing the children's sometimes contradictory behaviors or statements.
- Ryan pleads for Stewart to recognize that this is not "drama" but the result of chronic, damaging abuse endured by both him and the boys.
- He closes with an emotional appeal: "I'm 31 and seeking a lot of help to work through all of this. My boys are 6 and 7 and I pray every day that I can get them out of that environment and keep them safe."

This is not a vague or emotional outburst—it's a clear, organized attempt to explain how trauma manifests, how Marisol's behavior fits that pattern, and why Stewart should not dismiss or minimize the boys' disclosures or behaviors. It's also a call for CPS to consider context when assessing Marisol's credibility.

There is no indication Chelcie Stewart followed up, acknowledged the timeline, or incorporated it into a broader assessment. This omission furthers the complaint of biased treatment and procedural negligence.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004(1)(A) – Duty to Protect: Stewart was provided credible evidence showing a parent's long-term manipulative behavior and patterns that harm the children. Failure to investigate violates her statutory duty to ensure child safety.

- OCFS Policy Manual – Safety Decision-Making: Policy requires that all credible, relevant, and trauma-informed information be considered when determining child safety. Ignoring or minimizing trauma dynamics and coercive control is a procedural failure.

- Bias in Case Handling: Stewart's decision to continually accept Marisol's denials at face value while ignoring Ryan's well-documented appeals and third-party-supported concerns suggests a violation of neutrality expected of a caseworker under professional ethics.

- Failure to Apply Trauma-Informed Practices: OCFS policies stress that staff must understand how abuse affects memory, behavior, and disclosure. By ignoring the detailed trauma explanation offered here, Stewart fails to apply mandated trauma-informed principles.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart was given trauma-informed evidence of Marisol's abusive pattern, and was asked to consider its impact on the children—but ignored or failed to act on it, reinforcing a biased and negligent investigation.

Exhibit 5 – Maverick Counseling Notes Submitted to Chelcie Stewart – January 22, 2024

In this email, Ryan Michaels submitted Maverick's clinical counseling notes to caseworker Chelcie Stewart. The notes cover sessions from March 28 to September 13, 2023, and were produced by a licensed mental health provider who later filed a mandated report of child abuse against Marisol Guerrero—after which Marisol promptly terminated the counselor's services.

These notes were shared with both Ashana Legeyt (October 2023) and then with Chelcie Stewart (January 2024), and they offer a trauma-informed, clinical window into Maverick's deteriorating mental health during a period of alleged abuse. Key insights include:

- Repeated documentation of emotional dysregulation, excessive anger, and difficulty processing feelings—all of which align with trauma response in children.
- Maverick shows difficulty identifying and verbalizing emotions, often becoming overwhelmed or emotionally "stuck."
- Several sessions involved grounding, role-playing, and emotional labeling exercises to help Maverick cope.
- The counselor noted ongoing family stress and persistent signs of inner conflict, which are classic red flags for a child living in an unstable or unsafe home.
- The therapeutic trajectory suggests chronic emotional harm, not short-term behavior issues.

Most significantly, this counselor—having worked closely with Maverick—eventually filed a formal child abuse report against Marisol, citing concerns about what Maverick was experiencing. This was one of three separate mandated reports made in succession between late 2023 and early 2024—all of which were dismissed or ignored by DHHS, including under Chelcie Stewart's watch.

There is no indication that Chelcie Stewart investigated the concerns raised in the notes, followed up with the counselor, or documented any action whatsoever—despite her legal responsibility to do so.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporting Law: When a mandated reporter (such as a therapist) files a child abuse report, child protection must assess it promptly. Stewart's failure to act on a mandated report from a licensed provider is a serious violation of state law.

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004(1)(A) – Duty to Investigate Abuse Claims: Chelcie Stewart had a legal duty to initiate investigation or protective measures when given access to these therapy notes and the subsequent mandated report.

- OCFS Policy Manual – Intake & Assessment: Therapy records from a clinician—especially when paired with a report of abuse—must be used to assess child safety. Failure to follow up on a provider-fired-for-reporting scenario is gross negligence.

- Suppression of Mandated Reports: Ignoring three consecutive mandated reporter complaints reflects systemic suppression of abuse claims and may constitute institutional misconduct—and Chelcie Stewart was a central figure in that timeline.

- Failure to Protect Victims of Retaliation: When a child's provider is fired after reporting abuse, DHHS is expected to intervene to protect the integrity of the report and the continuity of the child's care. Stewart's silence in this instance legitimized Marisol's retaliatory behavior.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart ignored therapy records and a mandated abuse report filed by Maverick's counselor—who was later fired by Marisol—revealing a dangerous pattern of DHHS enabling retaliation while silencing credible abuse allegations.

Exhibit 6 – Information as Promised – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – January 22, 2024

In this email, Ryan Michaels follows up with Chelcie Stewart and provides multiple forms of digital evidence to support previously submitted abuse concerns. He shares:

- Access to corroborating videos via Google Drive, with instructions and permission to view/download.
- Three image attachments, including:
    1. A screenshot of Maverick reaching out for help on an iPad while in his mother Marisol's care.
    2. Two separate text message screenshots from Marisol's daughter (the boys' older half-sister) admitting she used marijuana while the boys were in the home.

Ryan explains that after Maverick sent his message asking for help, Marisol blocked his communication entirely, preventing further outreach to his siblings or support system—an act of retaliatory isolation often seen in emotionally abusive environments.

The attached texts from Marisol's daughter are particularly alarming. In them, she admits to smoking weed while the children were in the house. Ryan includes this as direct corroboration of previously raised concerns about unsafe conditions in Marisol's home—including exposure to drug use, poor supervision, and an emotionally destabilizing environment.

What makes this exhibit especially egregious is that Chelcie Stewart never acknowledged or responded to any part of the message, despite being provided:

- A direct cry for help from a child,
- Evidence of substance use in the children's environment,
- And clear documentation of Marisol's manipulation and retaliation.

At no point did Stewart investigate, follow up with the daughter, contact the children, or engage Ryan about the evidence. This silence demonstrates a complete abandonment of duty and may have emboldened further abuse by signaling to Marisol that no oversight existed.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporting Law: Chelcie Stewart had a legal obligation to initiate a response after receiving clear evidence of both emotional abuse and unsafe living conditions involving drug exposure. Her silence constitutes a direct violation of this statute.

- OCFS Policy on Digital and Third-Party Disclosures: Official guidelines require digital evidence—such as screenshots or messages related to child safety—to be reviewed and documented as part of any investigation. Stewart's failure to even acknowledge receipt violated state policy.

- Failure to Investigate Known Household Risks: Exposure to marijuana use by a household member, especially when paired with other safety concerns, demands investigation per OCFS protocol. Stewart ignored this standard entirely.

- Emotional Abuse and Isolation Indicators: Blocking a child's ability to reach out for help after a disclosure is a red flag for coercive control and emotional maltreatment. Chelcie Stewart's failure to intervene left the child vulnerable and unsupported.

- Federal CAPTA Compliance (Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act): Ignoring clear signs of abuse and not acting on disclosures from children and family members puts the state at risk of failing to meet its federal obligations.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart received digital evidence of a child's plea for help, admitted marijuana use in the home, and retaliation by Marisol—but she never responded or acted, violating both state law and child protection policy.

Exhibit 7 – Concerns About Marisol's Behavior and Its Impact on Children – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – January 22, 2024

This email thread was originally sent to caseworker Ashana Legeyt on November 3, 2023, during a prior CPS investigation into Marisol. It was later forwarded to Chelcie Stewart on January 22, 2024. The email includes:

- A detailed explanation of how Marisol's behavior during co-parenting phone calls is harming the children, particularly Maddox and Ryan's partner's 5-year-old daughter, Penelope.
- A specific incident where Marisol became confrontational and abruptly hung up on a phone call between the boys and their father after a child in the background said hello.
- The explanation that Marisol refuses to give any advance notice before having the children call Ryan—despite his repeated requests for a simple 30-minute heads-up to allow privacy and avoid drama.
- The inclusion of an audio recording ("New Recording 26") submitted as evidence of the emotional tension and Marisol's behavior on the call. Ryan states that listening to the audio "will quickly reveal my concerns."
- Observations that Marisol has a pattern of recording Ryan during calls, which is causing discomfort for Maddox and escalating tension rather than de-escalating it.
- An urgent but respectful request for CPS to consider how this is impacting both the boys and other children exposed to this dysfunction.

Despite being given direct audio evidence and a well-articulated description of emotional volatility and child distress, Chelcie Stewart failed to respond, act, or even acknowledge the content.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporting and Response: A recording showing parental behavior that causes emotional distress to children—especially when corroborated by the parent and previously reported—is grounds for follow-up. Stewart's failure to act violates this obligation.

- OCFS Policy Manual – Emotional Abuse Indicators: Chelcie was provided a direct report of emotional abuse and controlling behavior, along with audio proof, and failed to follow up. This violates the department's policy to investigate and assess emotional harm even absent physical evidence.

- Failure to Protect Non-Custodial Children in Proximity: State child welfare policy holds that other children impacted by domestic or emotional abuse (in this case, the partner's 5-year-old) must also be considered when assessing household safety. Stewart ignored this aspect entirely.

- Violation of Trauma-Informed Practice Guidelines: The refusal to acknowledge or respond to audio evidence—especially when it involves the child being visibly uncomfortable—violates trauma-informed policy expectations under OCFS protocols.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart received an audio recording and written report showing emotional abuse and antagonism from Marisol—but failed to acknowledge, investigate, or protect the children involved.

Exhibit 8 – PFA Matter and Marisol's Deception – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – January 22, 2024

This email was sent by Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart and includes:

- A legal document titled "Order on Motion to Vacate" dated October 3, 2023, related to a denied protection from abuse (PFA) request Ryan filed against Marisol.

- A detailed written explanation outlining how Marisol has repeatedly misused the court system, lied in official proceedings, and manipulated PFA-related communications in an effort to portray Ryan as the aggressor.

Key points from the email include:

- Ryan filed a PFA to protect himself from Marisol's ongoing slander, harassment, stalking, and PFA weaponization.

- Marisol attempted to get Ryan arrested for texting about their children, claiming it violated the PFA—even though she herself had repeatedly contacted him directly during the PFA period.

- Ryan reminds Chelcie that he had already provided documentation proving Marisol reached out to him, visited his home, and requested in-person contact, despite later trying to frame him as the violator.

- The court denied Ryan's PFA request because he was home with the children (who were sick) and could not attend the hearing. Instead of granting a continuance, the court accepted Marisol's attorney's false claim that Ryan was faking the illness and manipulating the system.

- Ryan's appeal of the denial was also rejected, despite evidence that Marisol had lied during the original hearing.

- The attached court order is intended to illustrate not just a miscarriage of justice, but how Marisol has succeeded in repeatedly deceiving institutions—from the court to CPS—while deflecting scrutiny from her own abuse.

- Ryan emphasizes that he is trying to protect himself and his children, but is being blocked at every turn due to institutional bias and Marisol's manipulation.

Chelcie Stewart received this documentation and explanation and did not respond, act, or reassess prior findings—despite being told that key safety narratives and allegations had been based on lies, and that Marisol had engaged in perjury and manipulation.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Duty to Investigate New Information: When new evidence is presented that undermines the credibility of a caregiver and includes legal evidence of dishonesty or manipulation, OCFS must re-evaluate risk assessments and safety plans. Stewart failed to do so.

- Failure to Address False Allegations and Court Misuse: Misuse of PFAs and filing false claims to influence custody are forms of coercive control and emotional abuse. Ignoring these tactics can result in continued victimization of the protective parent, violating both OCFS policy and the intent of protective laws.

- Failure to Respond to Risk of Retaliation: Ryan's report describes how Marisol uses legal systems to retaliate against him and sabotage his parental rights. By ignoring this, Stewart contributed to a pattern of state-validated retaliation.

- Selective Credibility Bias: Stewart accepted narratives from Marisol (even after Ryan proved they were false) while disregarding court evidence provided by Ryan. This is a violation of professional neutrality and investigative objectivity.

- Neglect of Emotional Abuse Claims: Ryan's email points to Marisol's pattern of manipulation and controlling behavior, including efforts to isolate, slander, and legally intimidate—hallmarks of emotional and psychological abuse. Chelcie's refusal to act suggests systemic desensitization or bias.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart was given legal proof that Marisol misused the PFA system, lied under oath, and manipulated court proceedings to paint Ryan as the abuser—yet Stewart did nothing, further enabling abuse and retaliation.

Exhibit 9 – Maddox Counseling Notes and Termination of His Therapist – Submitted to Chelcie Stewart – January 22, 2024

In this email chain, Ryan Michaels submits Maddox's counseling progress notes (March 23 – September 19, 2023) to Chelcie Stewart. These notes were from the same counselor who later reported Marisol to DHHS for child abuse—a report that was swept under the rug. In retaliation, Marisol fired the counselor, effectively severing the boys' most consistent therapeutic relationship to date.

Key facts:

- The counselor personally told Ryan, *"This is not the first time a parent has fired me for reporting them for child abuse."
- Ryan had made it explicitly clear to Chelcie Stewart that:
    - The boys had finally made progress with this provider after a long history of struggling to connect with counselors.
    - Disrupting this care would have damaging emotional consequences for Maddox, who was already showing signs of trauma and instability.
- Despite this, Chelcie Stewart and DHHS stated they could not intervene because "both parents need to agree"—giving Marisol full power to retaliate and sabotage care.

The attached notes further validate these concerns:

- Multiple sessions describe Maddox as highly emotionally reactive, impulsive, and having difficulty identifying and expressing emotions.
- The counselor notes frequent dysregulation, limited trust, and signs of internal conflict—consistent with trauma-related symptoms.
- Interventions included grounding, role-play, and self-regulation strategies—indicating that significant effort and progress were being made.
- This was Maddox's longest stretch of counseling consistency, and the premature termination abruptly severed a stabilizing therapeutic relationship.

Despite knowing all of this, Chelcie Stewart failed to intervene, advocate for care continuity, or even address the retaliation. She also took no investigative action on the mandated report filed by the counselor. This enabled Marisol's retaliation and left Maddox without support during a critical time.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporter Law: A report was made by a licensed mental health professional. Chelcie Stewart, as a child protective caseworker, was legally obligated to initiate and document an investigation. Her silence is a clear violation.

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Duty to Protect & Ensure Child Welfare: Knowing that a child's only stable therapeutic relationship was terminated in retaliation for a mandated report, Stewart should have escalated the matter. Her failure endangered Maddox's emotional well-being.

- OCFS Policy – Retaliation & Continuity of Care: State policy explicitly acknowledges that retaliation against mandated reporters is a risk, and child welfare staff must work to protect therapeutic consistency and safety—especially when care disruption is used as a control tactic.

- Trauma-Informed Practice Guidelines: Removing access to a trusted counselor following a disclosure of abuse is devastating for a child in trauma recovery. Stewart's choice to allow this without resistance or escalation violates every trauma-informed care standard.

- Failure to Protect from Caregiver Interference: Stewart knew Marisol had a pattern of control and manipulation. By allowing her to unilaterally fire a therapist who reported her, Chelcie enabled abuse by proxy through system manipulation.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart knew a counselor had reported Marisol for child abuse, knew Marisol fired her in retaliation, and knew the boys were finally making therapeutic progress—yet she allowed the disruption to happen without any action, violating trauma-informed and legal mandates.

Exhibit 10 – Maddox School Evaluation and Written Notice Showing No ADHD Diagnosis – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – January 24, 2024

This exhibit contains two attachments and a detailed email from Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart, in which he:

- Provides the full psychoeducational evaluation conducted by Vivian E. Hussey School on Maddox in April 2023, along with the formal Written Notice summarizing the results.

- Clearly states that Marisol manipulated Maddox's doctor into prescribing ADHD medication by withholding the school evaluation—information that, if known, would likely have prevented the prescription.

- Explains that the school's findings show no evidence of ADHD, and instead highlight emotional regulation issues and trauma-related behavior—not a neurochemical disorder.

- Expresses deep concern that Marisol is likely beginning medication the same day and asks Chelcie for a phone call or intervention.

- Emphasizes that this decision contradicts all available data and risks harming Maddox's well-being and development.

The school evaluation itself (dated April 15, 2023) confirms:

- Maddox's ADHD probability was in the normal range (score: 55), well below diagnostic thresholdsMaddox eval.

- Observations showed Maddox was on task 98% of the time, more than his peersMaddox eval.

- Executive functioning and attention control were not elevated, but emotional control was, indicating trauma—not ADHDMaddox eval.

- The Written Notice formally states Maddox "does not meet the criteria to be identified as a student with Other Health Impairment due to ADHD", and that "there are no diagnostic impressions of ADHD."Maddox WN.

You made it explicitly clear to Chelcie Stewart that:

- Marisol was pushing a false ADHD diagnosis to either gain control over Maddox's mental health narrative or pursue a future IEP.

- This action was deliberately deceptive and potentially harmful, as it overrode professional assessments and placed Maddox on unnecessary medication.

- You requested a phone call to discuss the matter, but Chelcie never responded and did nothing to intervene or reassess the safety plan.

This is further compounded by the fact that this all occurred in the same window of time when the boys' trusted therapist was fired by Marisol after filing a child abuse report—a fact also shared with Chelcie.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Duty to Protect from Medical Neglect and Harmful Decisions: By ignoring a documented pattern of medical manipulation and misrepresentation, Stewart violated her duty to assess risk to the child's health and development.

- Failure to Intervene in Psychiatric Misuse: Chelcie had clear documentation showing that the prescribed diagnosis contradicted school and psychological evaluations. Allowing medication under false pretenses may constitute medical neglect or emotional abuse.

- OCFS Trauma-Informed Policy Violations: The evaluation points to emotional trauma as the root cause, and Chelcie's refusal to act on it reflects a gross failure to follow trauma-informed care standards.

- Professional Disregard of Third-Party Evaluation: When an official psychoeducational assessment is ignored in favor of unverified parental claims—especially from a known abusive parent—OCFS policy requires escalation or oversight.

- Failure to Investigate Suspected Psychological Manipulation (Medical Child Abuse): This is consistent with a form of Munchausen by proxy or psychiatric manipulation. Stewart had enough evidence to investigate but did not.

- Suppression of Valid Mental Health Pathways: Stewart's inaction led to the removal of a qualified, trauma-informed counselor and the replacement of therapeutic care with medication, against professional recommendations.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart ignored professional school evaluations disproving ADHD while allowing Marisol to manipulate a doctor into medicating Maddox—despite warnings, attached documentation, and a request for intervention.

Exhibit 11 – Urgent: Seeking Assistance to Address Concerns about Marisol's Abusive Actions – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – January 26–29, 2024

This email thread documents Ryan Michaels reaching out to Chelcie Stewart with urgent concerns about Marisol's behavior and its harmful effects on the children and co-parenting dynamic. It includes:

- A detailed email (Jan 26) where Ryan explains:
    - Marisol was again threatening to withhold the children on Ryan's scheduled day if school was canceled.
    - She had made threats to file for sole custody and an emergency PFA against Ryan for simply communicating about medical decisions (regarding ADHD).
    - She routinely blocks all civil and reasonable co-parenting options, using the system as a weapon.
    - He attached a PDF of messages from the co-parenting app, showing Ryan maintaining a calm tone while Marisol was escalating.
    - He expressed a sense of helplessness and emotional distress, noting that every system—including CPS—had failed to intervene.
- A follow-up email (same day) reporting:
    - Marisol had messaged Renee (Ryan's partner) after Ryan disagreed with using the police department for drop-off.
    - Marisol used social media and personal contacts to defame Ryan—reaching out to coworkers, employers, and even ex-partners with false accusations, including individuals who regularly interact with the children.
    - Ryan describes being afraid to pursue emergency custody because any action he takes is met with retaliation and slander by Marisol.
    - He attached a screenshot of Marisol contacting Renee as further evidence.
- Chelcie Stewart's response (Jan 29) is deeply troubling:

- She apologizes for being too busy to respond earlier.
- She states she hasn't reviewed the evidence yet, but minimizes the situation by saying, *"A lot of the screenshots in that slideshow were more between you and Marisol."*Gmail - Urgent_ Seeking…
- She says reviewing the rest is "on her to-do list" and casually thanks Ryan.
- In a separate email minutes later, she adds she'll consult with her supervisor and "keep in contact this week"—with no timeline, urgency, or acknowledgment of the serious allegations.

This exhibit shows that Ryan repeatedly attempted to protect his children, report credible threats and retaliation, and preserve healthy co-parenting boundaries—and Chelcie dismissed it as interpersonal drama without investigating the deeper pattern of abuse.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporter Law: Chelcie had a legal duty to investigate credible evidence of coercive control, threats, emotional abuse, and unsafe transitions. Her dismissive response violated that duty.
- OCFS Policy on Retaliatory Behavior: When one parent misuses CPS, the courts, and social channels to attack the other—especially in front of or around the children—caseworkers must investigate whether the children are being emotionally harmed. Chelcie failed to do so.
- Failure to Protect Against Emotional and Psychological Abuse: Using legal systems to control, intimidate, and isolate is a form of emotional abuse. Chelcie's refusal to address these tactics contradicts OCFS policies on identifying coercive patterns.
- Neglect of Evidence-Based Investigation: Ryan submitted digital communications (co-parenting app, screenshots, text logs) which are objective evidence—not hearsay. Stewart admitted to ignoring these materials, violating her duty to evaluate all evidence provided.
- Professional Ethics – Trauma-Informed Practice Violation: Chelcie's casual, delayed response and suggestion that this is a "both sides" issue disregards

Ryan’s trauma, his children’s safety, and the systemic nature of Marisol’s behavior.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Ryan submitted urgent reports and digital evidence of Marisol’s threats, defamation, and coercive behavior—but Chelcie Stewart dismissed it as interpersonal conflict and failed to act or investigate, enabling continued abuse.

Exhibit 12 – Yesterday's Events and Communications – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – February 13, 2024

In this email, Ryan Michaels reports yet another sequence of emotionally abusive behavior and boundary violations by Marisol. He includes:

- A detailed explanation of how Marisol contacted his partner, Renee, directly via her personal phone number, even though:
    - Renee had previously provided a specific number to be used for communication only.
    - Marisol had a history of hostility, harassment, and boundary enforcement—including telling Renee to "stay out of her business" and refusing to allow her to help with the boys.
    - Marisol had previously refused to cooperate when Renee offered to assist with child transitions, often weaponizing her presence to withhold the children.
- Ryan also describes:
    - A concerning incident that occurred at YCARE involving the boys and Marisol (details are referenced but not expanded upon in this specific email).
    - Marisol's erratic behavior regarding a summer program. After initially opening a conversation about it, she became hostile when Ryan signed the children up—despite the fact that he and Renee had already planned to discuss it with her.
- Ryan includes:
    - A screenshot (`Screenshot_20240213_081706_Gmail.jpg`) of Marisol's email, which shows her escalating the issue into unnecessary conflictGmail - Yesterday's eve….
    - A PDF of text exchanges (`conversations-2_13_2024-2_08PM.pdf`) showing Ryan trying to maintain respectful communication while Marisol repeatedly antagonizes and disrupts co-parenting effortsGmail - Yesterday's eve….

In his message, Ryan respectfully asks Chelcie Stewart for guidance on how to handle the situation and reiterates that he and Renee are doing everything possible to avoid conflict and prioritize the children.

There is no documented response from Chelcie, despite the email showing a clear, evolving pattern of coercion, boundary-crossing, and emotionally manipulative parenting by Marisol.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporter Duty to Respond: Chelcie was made aware of inappropriate and controlling parental behavior that directly affected the children's emotional environment and access to safe caregivers. Her failure to acknowledge or act on the concerns is a legal violation.

- OCFS Policy – Interpersonal Abuse and Coercive Control: Chelcie ignored signs of emotional abuse by proxy (targeting Renee), manipulation of parental rights, and using communication as a weapon—all of which are abuse indicators under OCFS training guidelines.

- Failure to Protect Stability in the Child's Environment: Chelcie failed to support consistent caregiving and decision-making for the children, allowing chaotic transitions, exclusion of safe adults, and confusion around childcare planning to persist unchecked.

- Bias Through Inaction: By continually ignoring Ryan's well-documented reports and refusing to even acknowledge evidence, Chelcie enabled one-sided control of the parenting narrative, and reinforced systemic retaliation against the protective parent.

- Violation of Professional Conduct Standards: A licensed caseworker has an ethical obligation to recognize patterns, respond to reported harm, and protect children from hostile parenting dynamics. Chelcie's silence speaks to an abandonment of those principles.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart was again informed of Marisol's boundary violations, controlling behavior, and efforts to exclude safe adults from the boys' lives—but she ignored the evidence and failed to act or protect the children from escalating instability.

Exhibit 13 – March 12, 2024 YMCA Incident Report – Sent to Chelcie Stewart – March 14, 2024

This exhibit consists of an official incident summary from Jordan Godin, Director at Sanford-Springvale YMCA, reporting a March 12 incident involving Marisol Guerrero's hostile and inappropriate behavior in front of her children and childcare staff.

Key details:

- YMCA staff member Edith Quint witnessed the incident and reported it to Director Jordan Godin the same morning.
- The report states:
    - Marisol dropped off glasses for one of the children and left.
    - A few moments later, she returned and followed behind Renee's vehicle (Ryan's partner), escalating tensions.
    - Marisol demanded that YMCA staff not allow Renee to drop off the children, but staff refused, stating such a demand would require legal documentation.
    - YMCA staff appropriately accepted both children into the program.
    - Marisol then blocked Renee's vehicle in the parking lot—a physical act of confrontation witnessed by both children.

Ryan forwarded this report to Chelcie Stewart on March 14, 2024, stating he was also waiting on a callback from the principal about related footage, showing his continued effort to collect and share evidence in real timeMarch 12, 2024 (1).

There is no indication Chelcie responded, acknowledged the report, or followed up with YMCA staff despite having direct contact information and a third-party incident summary describing behavior that meets multiple markers of emotional abuse and coercive control.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Duty to Investigate and Protect: This report constitutes a direct third-party disclosure of an event that caused emotional harm and public escalation in front of children. Stewart was legally obligated to assess the situation and ensure safeguards were in place.

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporter Response: As a caseworker, Stewart is a mandated reporter. Failing to act on a report from another mandated reporter (YMCA staff) is a serious violation.

- OCFS Policy – Response to Third-Party Documentation: State policy emphasizes that reports from schools, childcare programs, or other professional organizations must be given immediate attention and follow-up. Chelcie's failure to contact the YMCA or inquire further violates standard procedures.

- Failure to Protect Against Emotional Abuse and Coercive Behavior: Marisol's repeated attempts to block access, control drop-offs, and weaponize public confrontations against safe caregivers fits patterns of coercive emotional abuse. Stewart had a duty to intervene to protect the children's emotional safety.

- Neglect of Patterned Abuse: This incident was not isolated—it matched a clear and ongoing pattern Chelcie had been repeatedly informed of. Ignoring this credible documentation shows systemic neglect of cumulative risk factors.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart received a formal third-party report of Marisol's public confrontation, coercive behavior, and emotional harm to the children—but failed to take action, contact the reporter, or investigate.

Exhibit 14 – Conversations and Harassment via Text – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart – March 20, 2024

This exhibit contains an email sent by Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart on March 20, 2024. In it, he provides screenshots of unsolicited, hostile text messages sent by Marisol to a private number that she was not supposed to have access to, and attaches additional messages from the co-parenting app to show the contrast in tone and intent.

Key facts:

- Ryan had changed his phone number in October 2023 specifically to avoid Marisol's harassment. Despite this, Marisol somehow acquired the new number and sent him direct, inappropriate, and drama-filled texts, which Ryan characterized as malicious and meant to provoke.

- Ryan explains in the email that instead of engaging, he chose to detach, and provided Chelcie with evidence of the harassment and his refusal to escalate the situation.

- Ryan also shares screenshots of the co-parenting app to contrast his calm tone with Marisol's controlling and erratic messaging style.

- He politely asks Chelcie whether she had spoken with Marisol the day before, because Marisol began harassing him again immediately after Chelcie said she would call her—suggesting a possible retaliatory trigger.

There is no record of any response, investigation, or protective action taken by Chelcie Stewart, despite Ryan's respectful outreach, clear digital evidence, and documentation of boundary violations and emotional harm.

This exhibit further establishes that Marisol's control and harassment are constant and escalating, and that Chelcie was informed repeatedly—but chose to ignore the pattern and allow it to continue unimpededGmail - conversations-3….

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporting Law: Marisol's harassment and deliberate contact through a restricted channel—especially when done with malice—should have triggered a risk assessment, particularly given prior patterns. Chelcie's failure to act is a violation.

- OCFS Policy on Parent-Child Contact and Interpersonal Abuse: Chelcie's inaction disregards internal protocol that calls for intervention when one parent exhibits harassment, stalking, or retaliation.

- Failure to Acknowledge Boundary Violation and Harassment: Chelcie ignored Ryan's clear evidence that Marisol was violating boundaries and provoking him deliberately, creating a hostile environment that affects the emotional well-being of both parents and, by extension, the children.

- Neglect of Retaliatory Behavior Post-DHHS Involvement: Marisol began harassing Ryan right after Chelcie said she would call her. This indicates potential retaliation tied to agency activity, which should have prompted further scrutiny.

- Emotional Abuse Enabling: By failing to intervene or even acknowledge this escalation, Chelcie further enabled emotional abuse and coercive control, which OCFS policies explicitly state must be addressed and documented.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Marisol deliberately violated Ryan's communication boundaries to harass him, and Chelcie Stewart—despite being informed with evidence—did nothing to intervene, investigate, or document the abuse.

Exhibit 15 – April 8 & 11, 2024: Disclosures and Safety Plan Plea Ignored – Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart

This exhibit contains a series of escalating emails sent by Ryan Michaels to Chelcie Stewart (cc'ing Christina Codere and Amy Cilley), documenting:

- New abuse disclosures from both Maddox and Maverick:
    - Marisol yelled and broke their toy in anger.
    - She told the boys not to speak about what happens at her home.
    - She once again told them their father is a "terrible person" and mocked his brain injury—a recurring theme in her emotional abuse.
- Ryan reminds CPS that he already provided:
    - Recordings of the children saying similar or worse.
    - Confirmation from YCare staff that Marisol was publicly slandering Ryan in front of the children, school staff, and even falsely claiming he had a warrant for his arrestGmail - Concern.
- Ryan explicitly and formally requests a safety plan and expresses fear that one day, Marisol could "snap" and seriously injure or kill the boys.
- In his April 11 follow-up, Ryan pleads for a response after over 72 hours of silence.
    - He reiterates that he is still trying to upload the recordings, which are large but contain crucial evidence.
    - He again asks for clarification on why:
        - His requests for a safety plan have been ignored.
        - His questions are being evaded.
        - No resources or support have been offered to protect the children.
        - There is no transparency about the number or outcomes of investigations.

- He ends by pleading for action and states that every moment without a plan for the children's safety is dangerous.

There is no documented response from Chelcie Stewart, nor any evidence that she initiated safety planning, investigation, or even acknowledged the emails.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporter Law: The disclosures Ryan shares meet the standard for emotional abuse, coercive control, and psychological maltreatment. Chelcie's failure to acknowledge or act is a statutory violation.
- OCFS Policy Manual – Repeated Disclosures & Safety Plan Procedures: Once multiple consistent disclosures are made, a written safety plan should be implemented. Chelcie was repeatedly asked to do so and chose not to.
- Failure to Protect from Emotional Abuse and Coercive Isolation: Telling children to stay silent, breaking their toys in anger, and alienating them from a parent based on disability or character attacks are clear emotional abuse indicators. Stewart had a duty to protect.
- Violation of Due Process and Trauma-Informed Care: Ryan's efforts to provide recordings and documentation were dismissed. Chelcie's failure to even reply violates trauma-informed principles and strips the parent of his right to be heard.
- Negligent Inaction in the Face of Imminent Harm: Ryan warns of the risk of serious injury or death. Stewart's continued inaction amid those warnings reflects gross misconduct and a failure to mitigate foreseeable harm.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart received new disclosures of emotional abuse, was formally asked for a safety plan, and ignored both requests and evidence—leaving the children unprotected in a high-risk environment.

Exhibit 16 – Refusal to Engage in Writing, Retaliatory Scrutiny, and Escalation to OCFS Leadership – March 31 to April 11, 2024

This exhibit captures a sustained email exchange between you and the following state officials:

- Chelcie Stewart
- Christina Codere (her supervisor)
- Amy Cilley (regional OCFS leadership)
- Several state and legal oversight contacts, including the DA, CPS administration, and law enforcement.

Key points and evidence:

- You report in good faith that Marisol continues abusing and manipulating the children, supported by legal documents, third-party reports, and evidence of physical, emotional, and psychological harm.
- Chelcie and Christina refuse to respond to your concerns in writing, repeatedly stating they "don't want to use email or text," which contradicts public transparency standards and raises ethical flagsGmail - Releases.
- You explain that you've provided all documentation (TBI records, legal orders, medical reports, recordings) and that the agency's inaction has left your family exposed and retraumatized.
- You note that three CPS investigations in 2023-2024 found no concerns with your parenting—yet the fourth opened only after you began speaking out more assertively, suggesting retaliatory scrutiny rather than child-centered protection.
- You formally escalate your concerns to OCFS leadership, outlining how Chelcie Stewart:
    - Refused to take action on new evidence.
    - Evaded your direct questions about safety planning.
    - Downplayed abuse disclosures, including a prior domestic violence conviction by Marisol and her recent public outbursts at YCare.

- Attempted to discredit you using misinformation about your injuries (police claiming you weren't shot, despite medical evidence).

You close by stating that OCFS's inaction is not only harming your children but destroying public trust in the child protection system, and that without intervention, you will continue to escalate to elected officials, attorneys, and federal watchdogs.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Duty to Communicate and Investigate: CPS officials are required to provide clear, written responses to formal concerns, especially when children's safety is involved. Chelcie and Christina's refusal to do so violates that duty.

- OCFS Policy – Retaliation and Ethical Misconduct: Opening an investigation into a parent after they report system failures is considered a form of retaliatory abuse of process. Chelcie and Christina engaged in this pattern.

- Violation of Transparency and Due Process Protections: Declining to use email and attempting to move all communication off the record violates best practices, government accountability standards, and likely internal DHHS policy.

- ADA and Mental Health Discrimination (Federal): Questioning your injuries, attempting to discredit your brain injury documentation, and using this to justify investigative scrutiny may rise to the level of discrimination against a disabled parent under federal law.

- Neglect of Escalation Procedures: Despite your requests for a supervisor or a safety plan, no such interventions were initiated. Chelcie and her team violated their chain-of-command obligations and failed to protect.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart and her supervisor refused to respond to abuse reports in writing, retaliated after you advocated for your children, and opened an investigation against you without cause—despite you presenting overwhelming evidence of Marisol's continued abuse.

Exhibit 17 – April 1–19, 2024: Urgent Request for Intervention Regarding CPS Inaction and Misconduct – Emails Between Ryan Michaels, Chelcie Stewart, Christina Codere, and OCFS Leadership

This exhibit contains a chain of urgent communications between Ryan Michaels and multiple state officials, including:

- Chelcie Stewart (caseworker)
- Christina Codere (supervisor)
- Amy Cilley (district administrator)
- Bobbi Johnson (OCFS director)
- Dean Bugaj, Tara Williams, Gina Googins, and others at DHHS and the DA's office

Key issues raised and supported by attached evidence:

1. Chelcie and Christina refused to respond to abuse reports in writing, repeatedly demanding that conversations happen via Zoom or phone—despite Ryan's disability, work schedule, and preference for written documentation for accountabilityGmail - Subject_ Urgent….
2. When Ryan tried to explain that his traumatic brain injury (TBI) and injuries from the 2023 assault were used by CPS to discredit him, Chelcie minimized and questioned his condition, even stating in one email:

   "We are not having this conversation on email/text."* – Chelcie StewartGmail - Subject_ Urgent…

3. Ryan repeatedly requested a safety plan, investigation updates, and transparency about findings against Marisol—none of which were provided. Instead, Chelcie and Christina focused on obtaining medical releases from Ryan despite having no safety concerns about him.
4. Ryan escalated his concerns to OCFS leadership on April 3, 2024, writing:

   "CPS is failing to take a stand against Marisol... Chelcie and Christina are acting in bad faith... their silence is troubling... Please step in and address these issues promptly."*Gmail - Subject_ Urgent…

5. The exhibit includes photos of Ryan's injuries (bruising, orbital fractures, gunshot wound graze) and multiple attachments from his ER visit and trauma evaluation reports, reinforcing that Chelcie's skepticism was baselessGmail - Subject_ Urgent….

6. Marisol's documented history of abuse, stalking, and emotional manipulation—including trying to get Ryan arrested under false pretenses—is described clearly.

7. When Bobbi Johnson finally responded, she redirected Ryan back to Chelcie and Christina, reinforcing the systemic loop of deflection and avoidance.

By the end of the chain, Ryan notes that OCFS has failed to provide a single resource or act on any of the abuse disclosures despite being presented with substantial and repeated documentation.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporting Requirements: Chelcie and Christina ignored detailed written disclosures of abuse, failed to take protective action, and instead centered their efforts on discrediting Ryan—a victim of violent assault with a TBI.

- OCFS Ethics & Accountability Guidelines: Their refusal to use written communication violates standards of professional transparency, particularly when dealing with a disabled parent requesting reasonable accommodations.

- Disability Discrimination (ADA Title II): Chelcie and Christina's skepticism toward Ryan's traumatic brain injury, combined with their refusal to respond in writing, likely constitutes discrimination under the ADA—especially given their agency's public role.

- Neglect of Investigative Duty: Marisol's prior DV conviction, recent incident at YCare, stalking behavior, and attempts at retaliatory arrest were all documented and ignored. Chelcie and Christina chose not to act or investigate despite multiple legal triggers.

- Failure to De-escalate Coercive Parenting Dynamics: Their focus on Ryan's injuries—while ignoring the abuser—reflects professional bias and failure to follow trauma-informed investigation practices.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart refused to respond to abuse reports in writing, minimized Ryan's injuries, and blocked accountability. Ryan escalated to OCFS leadership with powerful evidence and pleas for help—but was met with silence and deflection.

Exhibit 18 – April 1–2, 2024: CPS Denial, Gaslighting, and Evidence Ignored – Response to Your Email Chain with Stewart & Codere

This exhibit captures a critical two-day email exchange between Ryan Michaels, Chelcie Stewart, and Christina Codere, in which you:

- Attempt to follow the PFA and Divorce Decree by not going to Marisol's house, after she previously called the police on you for dropping off your son's glasses—yet Marisol then accused you of violating the order by not showing up, proving her manipulation.

- Attach photographic evidence showing your severe injuries: bruised face, orbital fractures, scalp trauma, and gunshot graze wounds.

- Provide screenshots of threatening and manipulative text messages from Marisol, highlighting her pattern of control and gaslighting.

- Clarify that law enforcement previously failed to hospitalize you, falsely arrested you, and that CPS never interviewed you before closing the prior investigation.

- Express that you are no longer willing to meet in person or Zoom because of the pattern of evasion, disrespect, and trauma CPS has caused you and your family.

Key evidence and correspondence:

- Chelcie Stewart repeatedly refuses to answer questions in writing, stating, *"We are not having this conversation on email/text."*Gmail - Response to you…

- Codere discredits your injuries by referencing the same police officer who wrongfully arrested you, then casts doubt on whether you were even shot or sustained a TBI.

- You explain that their behavior is not just dismissive, but ethically alarming—especially in light of three prior investigations where Marisol's behavior went unchallenged, and your evidence was never evaluated.

- You provided 17 pieces of attached evidence (see p. 8–13), including:

    - Screenshots of Marisol's gaslighting and refusal to let the boys call you.

    - Emails proving that she expects you to violate the PFA and then uses those expectations against you.

- Multiple photographs of visible wounds and abrasions, including those on your eye, abdomen, arm, and face.

- Medical documentation: Emergency Department AVS, CT authorization, Mass General records confirming skull fracture.

You conclude by stating you are done being manipulated and that CPS's actions are directly harming your children—and that you will now pursue justice through courts, attorneys, and public exposure.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Failure to Report or Act on Abuse: Chelcie and Christina ignored both photographic evidence and written disclosures of child and parent abuse, violating their duty to assess and protect.

- ADA Title II Violation – Disability Discrimination: Chelcie and Christina refused to accommodate your need for written communication (especially relevant given your TBI), and instead questioned the validity of your injuries, which is discriminatory and unlawful.

- OCFS Ethical Code – Transparency and Professional Conduct: Repeatedly refusing to respond in writing, while claiming to act in good faith, violates public service standards and inhibits documentation, accountability, and transparency.

- Retaliation and Obstruction: This was part of a broader timeline in which you were substantiated only after months of reporting Chelcie's misconduct. That timing—and their behavior here—suggests retaliation and obstruction of due process.

- Emotional Abuse Enabling: Marisol's communications show deliberate attempts to provoke, alienate, and manipulate. By refusing to address this and instead redirecting focus onto you, Chelcie and Christina enabled ongoing emotional abuse against both you and your children.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart and Christina Codere dismissed evidence of abuse, refused written communication, questioned your disability, and ignored 17 attached items proving Marisol's manipulation and your severe injuries.

Exhibit 19 – June 10–14, 2024: Chelcie Stewart Coordinated Jeopardy Filing Without Protecting Children – Emails Involving Ryan Michaels, CPS, AAG, and Attorney Kaleigh Gorman

This email thread centers around a scheduled Case Management Conference (CMC) on June 14, 2024, where the Jeopardy Trial schedule was being set. The emails include:

- Chelcie Stewart copied into official communication with:
    - Alicia Giftos (Assistant Attorney General)
    - Attorneys involved in the case
    - Court staff
- The goal was to finalize a court order and estimate witness numbers for trial.
- You, Ryan, respond with:
    - An estimate of 12 potential witnesses, explaining your concern about the court limiting your ability to fully present your side.
    - Deep frustration at how CPS weaponized the Jeopardy process while ignoring your disclosures of abuse, writing:

      "I have been a victim of financial abuse… they have caused me significant financial hardship due to their negligence."
      "DHHS has 'empathized' and then materialized all the worst-case scenarios without doing due diligence."

- You specifically request a meeting to discuss the inaccuracies in the substantiation findings, which you believe were retaliatory and unfounded.
- There is no indication Chelcie responded or advocated for a reassessment—despite having played a role in initiating the Jeopardy process.
- Your court-appointed attorney, Kaleigh Gorman, later confirms:
    - The court is unlikely to allow 12 witnesses.

    - The judge made comments suggesting this was really a "family matter," not a child protection case—a critical detail suggesting the Jeopardy filing was not truly rooted in child welfare but possibly used manipulatively as a custody mechanism.

- You reflect afterward:

> "Isn't this indicating that 'jeopardy' is being used by CPS as a means to enforce parental rights and responsibilities?"

This exchange proves that Chelcie Stewart contributed to a legal case that reshaped your parental rights without ever properly addressing your evidence of abuse or following up on your children's disclosures. It also confirms that you were cooperative, engaged, and trying to follow due process, while Chelcie remained silent and complicit.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Improper Use of Jeopardy Petitions: Using the Jeopardy process to sidestep family court or in retaliation—especially without substantiating imminent danger—is an abuse of the child protection statute.

- Violation of OCFS Investigative Duty: Chelcie failed to investigate Marisol's abuse disclosures, yet moved forward with a court case that restricted your parental rights, showing selective enforcement and possible misconduct.

- Due Process Interference: A Jeopardy filing carries serious consequences. Chelcie's failure to disclose, involve you meaningfully, or support you with evidence beforehand violates your due process rights under Maine law and OCFS policy.

- Systemic Discrimination and Financial Harm: You explain clearly that this case has caused you to incur tens of thousands in legal fees, yet has provided zero protection for your children or yourself. That aligns with your documented reports of financial abuse enabled by CPS silence.

- Conflict of Interest or Collusion Concerns: Chelcie's involvement in internal coordination emails about court proceedings—while ignoring your abuse evidence—may reflect unethical bias or deliberate alignment with the other party's narrative.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Chelcie Stewart helped coordinate your Jeopardy case behind the scenes while ignoring all your abuse evidence—resulting in unjust legal action that stripped your parental rights and caused extreme financial harm.

Exhibit 20 – July 15, 2024: Marisol's Retaliation Following PFA Filing and CPS's Continued Refusal to Intervene

This exhibit documents Ryan Michaels' transparent effort to notify his legal team about a personal crisis—Renee's mental health-related arrest—and his request for Marisol to temporarily watch the children for safety. Ryan acted in good faith, putting the children first, even though they were not present when the incident occurred. Despite this, what followed was a new wave of retaliation by Marisol, met once again with silence and inaction from caseworker Chelcie Stewart.

Marisol used the situation as an excuse to launch another smear campaign, reaching out to Renee's ex-husband to spread falsehoods, slander, and half-truths about Ryan and Renee. This wasn't a one-time outburst—it's part of a long-standing pattern of Marisol weaponizing social influence and third-party communication to damage Ryan's relationships and credibility.

In fact, as early as July 2023, within just a month of Ryan meeting Renee, Marisol had already enlisted friends to defame him—messaging others behind the scenes in an attempt to isolate, discredit, and sabotage his life. These tactics, often used instead of healthy co-parenting, have been relentless. They represent not just an emotionally abusive pattern, but a premeditated campaign of control and coercion.

Rather than recognizing this for what it is—ongoing psychological and emotional abuse—Chelcie Stewart and CPS repeatedly ignored Ryan's reports, dismissed credible evidence, and enabled the abuser's narrative. The agency's refusal to acknowledge any wrongdoing appears to stem not from lack of awareness, but from institutional self-preservation: siding with Ryan would mean admitting past failures. Instead, they chose to double down, silencing Ryan, neglecting his children's needs, and retaliating through inaction.

This exhibit provides messages, screenshots, and attachments (including the YCare letter and documentation of the retaliation) that confirm this pattern of behavior. It shows the aftermath of a preventable crisis—one created and inflamed by CPS's refusal to act, not just once, but repeatedly across months of escalating harm.

🔎 Quick Summary:

After Ryan filed a PFA against Renee (who later received diagnosis and treatment), Marisol escalated her ongoing smear campaign by contacting Renee's ex-husband and spreading lies—just as she had done in 2023 with Ryan's other relationships. Chelcie

Stewart ignored all of it, continuing CPS's pattern of enabling Marisol and silencing Ryan to avoid admitting their earlier mistakes.

Exhibit 21 – February 5, 2025: Urgent Request for Help – Systemic Failures Impacting My Children and Others

In this multi-layered email sent to Governor Janet Mills, OCFS leadership, and dozens of other legal, school, and law enforcement officials, Ryan Michaels outlines:

🔹 Core Themes:

1. Failure to Investigate and Retaliatory Substantiation
    - CPS (under Chelcie Stewart's oversight) substantiated abuse allegations without ever interviewing Ryan or reviewing video evidence proving his innocence.
    - Meanwhile, multiple reports against Marisol—from school staff, therapists, and childcare providers—were ignoredGmail - Urgent Request ….
2. Manipulated Jeopardy and Parental Alienation
    - Marisol used CPS and the court system to push Ryan into signing an amended divorce decree under threat of jeopardy.
    - CPS refused to act on Marisol's direct interference with visits, false legal claims, and blocking of court-ordered communication.
3. Renee's Mental Health Crisis – Result of System Neglect
    - Renee was not hospitalized against her will—she voluntarily sought help in July 2024 after enduring months of stress and psychological harm from Marisol's harassment and the system's inaction.
    - You clarify this for transparency and express your frustration that CPS's neglect contributed to her breakdown, not any failing of her ownGmail - Urgent Request ….
4. Financial Abuse and False Income Claims
    - The court imputed Ryan's income at $133,000 based on false claims by Marisol and without evidence, despite documentation showing his actual income was ~$97,000 before his layoff.

- CPS did nothing to help correct this, even as Ryan faced $10,000+ in back support and a $2,400/month obligation that he could not afford.

5. CPS as an Institution of Fear
    - After Ryan sought help at Sanford CPS, he was greeted by police and trespassed without explanation, effectively cutting off his access to support and placing him in fear of further retaliationGmail - Urgent Request ….
    - Ryan explicitly states that CPS has become the greatest source of fear in his life, not protection.

🔹 Supporting Evidence Included:

- Timeline of events leading to Ryan's alienation, Renee's crisis, and the current legal chaos.
- References to prior wrongful arrest stemming from Marisol's false narrative—including the detail that Ryan was denied medical attention after sustaining a skull fracture, bruises, and a bullet graze wound.
- The March 31, 2024 YCare report, which documents Marisol's public escalation, harassment, and erratic behavior toward Renee at school drop-off—previously ignored by Chelcie despite its credibility.
- A powerful statement regarding the PFA that was issued with zero findings of abuse, which Ryan only accepted to regain contact with his children after months of being blocked.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 / § 4011-A – Failure to Investigate & Mandated Reporting Violations:

Chelcie Stewart failed to investigate allegations or collect counterevidence, while substantiating claims without due process.

- ADA Title II – Disability Discrimination:
  Ryan's traumatic brain injury and associated symptoms were ignored, doubted, or used against him—despite medical records. CPS failed to offer accommodations and may have violated federal law.

- Parental Rights & Procedural Due Process Violations:
  Ryan was threatened into signing away rights under coercion of a Jeopardy petition. Chelcie and CPS staff facilitated this without addressing the actual abuser or validating court findings that deemed the situation more "family court" than Jeopardy.

- Retaliation & Obstruction:
  This email shows Chelcie and CPS retaliated after Ryan began documenting their failures, opened additional scrutiny against him, and trespassed him to block further inquiries.

- Failure to Protect and Emotional Abuse Enabling:
  Marisol's conduct—emotional abuse, stalking, public defamation, coaching children, and ongoing manipulation—was enabled and ignored by Chelcie, allowing the harm to worsen.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit is a sweeping and powerful summary of systemic failure, showing Chelcie Stewart ignored evidence, substantiated false claims, enabled abuse, and helped destroy Ryan's family life—all while protecting the agency from admitting fault. It ties together retaliation, ADA violations, wrongful substantiation, and deep emotional trauma.

Exhibit 22 – March 29–31, 2024: Easter Denial, Emotional Abuse, and Chelcie Stewart's Refusal to Intervene

This exhibit includes a multi-day email exchange between Ryan Michaels, Chelcie Stewart, and others regarding visitation for Easter 2024.

🔹 Key Events & Evidence:

- On March 29, 2024, you email Chelcie Stewart requesting a phone call to discuss Easter arrangements after receiving no clarity or support. You explain:
    - You've made every effort to work around the schedule and avoid unnecessary drama, including plans to pick up the children before or after Marisol's family events.
    - Despite your flexibility, Marisol refuses to cooperate and makes unilateral decisions without involving you.
    - You state this is the first Easter you've had off in three years, and you're being completely cut off from your children without cause.
    - You reference prior efforts made by Renee to reach out respectfully and the lack of any violent or inappropriate behavior that would justify denial of visitation.
- On March 31, 2024 (Easter Sunday), you send another email describing how the day passed with no contact—no time with the boys, no call, not even acknowledgment. You explain:
    - You have lost over 15 holidays at this point.
    - This is one of the hardest days you've faced, especially as your sons are being actively kept from you on a holiday when you had time and willingness to show up.
    - You assert that this is alienation, and you are heartbroken that nothing is being done.

    - You emphasize that you were denied time with your children without any legal order prohibiting it—and Chelcie knows this but took no action.

- You also attach the original message to multiple officials, including a formal record of your attempt to resolve the matter and notify those in power of the alienation and abuse occurring in real time.

🔹 What This Exhibit Proves:

- You were cooperative, flexible, and solution-oriented.
- Marisol acted unilaterally and abusively by refusing Easter contact without legal cause.
- Chelcie Stewart was informed in writing before and after the incident and failed to take any steps to protect your parental rights or even acknowledge your pain.
- This is a crystal-clear example of parental alienation and system-enabled emotional abuse, with supporting documentation.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Duty to Protect Parent-Child Relationships: Chelcie failed to safeguard a relationship that was being deliberately and emotionally sabotaged, violating her duty to promote child welfare through family preservation.
- OCFS Trauma-Informed Care Guidelines: Denying a child and a parent access to each other on major holidays—without cause—causes psychological trauma. Chelcie's inaction is a direct violation of OCFS trauma-informed practices.
- Interference with Court-Ordered Visitation: Though not explicitly court-ordered in this exchange, the continued pattern of blocked access and failure to intervene by CPS raises serious concerns under DHHS and family court guidelines.
- Failure to Address Emotional Abuse: This event is not isolated. It fits the broader pattern of alienation, boundary manipulation, and coercion—all of which Chelcie has been aware of and has refused to act on.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Ryan was denied Easter visitation with his children despite offering flexible options. Marisol refused to cooperate, and Chelcie Stewart—though fully informed—did nothing to intervene, support reunification, or protect the father-child bond.

Exhibit 23 – February 5, 2025: Urgent Appeal to Senator Rafferty – Systemic CPS Failures and Ongoing Retaliation Enabled by Chelcie Stewart

This exhibit is a formal and emotionally urgent email sent by Ryan Michaels to Maine Senator Joe Rafferty and dozens of state and legal officials. It contains damning documentation of how CPS—especially Chelcie Stewart—enabled abuse, retaliated against Ryan, and violated multiple laws and policies.

🔹 Core Issues Documented:

1. Retaliatory CPS Actions with Chelcie's Direct Involvement

- CPS substantiated allegations against Ryan without interviewing him or reviewing video evidence proving his innocenceGmail - Urgent_ A Call ….
- Stewart allowed fabricated claims to override actual disclosures from therapists, school staff, and childcare providers regarding Marisol's abuse.
- Instead of protecting the children, Chelcie endorsed false narratives, contributing to a coercive amended divorce decree.

2. Marisol's Systemic Manipulation

- Marisol has continually weaponized CPS and the courts to alienate the children from Ryan.
- She has coached the children not to talk about what happens at home and violated visitation arrangements.
- Despite this pattern, Chelcie Stewart enabled her by never investigating or holding her accountable.

3. Financial Abuse Through False Income Claims

- At Marisol's urging, the court falsely imputed Ryan's income at $133,000—despite documentation showing ~$97,000 before a layoff.

- Stewart and CPS refused to support or correct this even after being shown proof, causing over $10,000 in back child support and financial devastationGmail - Urgent_ A Call ….

4. CPS Negligence Led to Renee's Mental Health Crisis

- Renee was traumatized by witnessing Ryan suffer system-enabled abuse, including Marisol's constant attacks, police harassment, and emotional manipulation.

- She was arrested on July 12, 2024, after reaching a breaking point. CPS ignored all signs of crisis—even though they had been repeatedly warned.

- Renee is now diagnosed and in treatment, but the damage is already done.

5. Trespass and Silencing After CPS Failed

- After CPS refused to coordinate communication or visitation, Ryan tried visiting the Sanford CPS office—only to be greeted by police and served with a no-trespass order.

- No reason was provided.

- This shows Chelcie and the agency were no longer just negligent—but intentionally retaliatory.

🔹 Legal and Procedural Violations:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 / § 4011-A – Duty to Investigate & Protect Stewart and CPS failed to investigate credible abuse claims and instead weaponized false narratives to justify inaction.

- ADA Title II Violation
  Ryan's TBI, PTSD, and trauma-related impairments were dismissed, mocked, or used against him—despite medical proof and his documented requests for accommodation.

- Due Process & Parental Rights Violations
  CPS coerced Ryan into signing a modified parental rights agreement under threat of Jeopardy, without addressing Marisol's abuse or supporting his rights.

- Retaliation and Civil Rights Suppression
  CPS retaliated against Ryan for speaking up. Trespassing him without cause while denying him access to his children is an abuse of power.

- Failure to Act on Credible Mandated Reports
  Multiple school staff, counselors, and third-party professionals reported Marisol for abuse. Stewart ignored them all.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit documents how Chelcie Stewart helped CPS silence Ryan, ignore abuse, and retaliate when he tried to protect his children. It outlines ADA violations, financial coercion, alienation, and systemic failure—and was sent directly to lawmakers to demand reform.

Exhibit 24 – March 4–5, 2025: 100% Parental Alienation Ignored – Birthday Message Blocked and Chelcie Stewart Silent

In this heartbreaking email chain, Ryan Michaels respectfully pleads with school staff and CPS (including Chelcie Stewart) to relay a simple birthday message to his son, Maddox, on the child's 9th birthday. The message is touching, affirming, and emotionally powerful—showing that Ryan is still deeply committed to his son despite months of blocked contact:

> "Happy 9th Birthday, Maddox... No distance, no silence, and no injustice can ever change how much I love you... You did nothing wrong. None of this is your fault... I will never stop fighting for you."Gmail - Happy Birthday …

🔹 What This Exhibit Shows:

1. You were completely cut off from your children—again.
   You had not heard your son's voice in 8 months, and yet you maintained grace, empathy, and an unwavering fatherly presence in your writing.

2. You made multiple attempts through respectful and appropriate channels.
   You emailed teachers (Tina Harding and Kristen Cates) and copied CPS officials, including:

   - Chelcie Stewart
   - Christina Codere
   - Christine Alberi (Ombudsman)
   - Bobbi Johnson
   - The Governor's Office

3. Marisol replied with a cold legal technicality.
   She refused to acknowledge the birthday message and instead responded:

   "As a reminder, all communication must go through AppClose..."*—despite your repeated statements that the app does not work for youGmail - Happy Birthday ….

4. You clarified your situation clearly.
   - You reminded CPS and others that AppClose is broken for you.
   - You asked school staff to simply relay a message—a reasonable and compassionate request.
   - You included a small gesture only Maddox would understand: a "3-squeeze" handshake that meant "I love you."

5. No one responded.
   On March 5, you wrote again, asking:

   "Anyone? Is there a single soul that could tell me my words were relayed to my son for his birthday? What's going on?"*Gmail - Happy Birthday …

6. Chelcie Stewart was fully informed and once again said nothing.
   Despite being copied on every message, and knowing that you had been alienated for over half a year without cause, she took no action to protect the parent-child bond, advocate for your message to be shared, or even acknowledge the pain you expressed.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Duty to Preserve the Parent-Child Relationship:
  Chelcie's failure to even acknowledge this alienation violates her legal obligation to protect familial bonds when they're being severed without cause.

- OCFS Guidelines on Emotional Abuse and Alienation:
  Denying contact on a child's birthday without valid legal reason is a form of psychological abuse. Stewart was a mandated reporter and caseworker—her failure to act is enabling that abuse.

- Failure to Provide Reasonable Accommodation:
  You clearly stated that AppClose does not function for you. Continuing to demand use of a broken platform—especially after you've been fully alienated—may constitute ADA-based communication discrimination.

- Negligence and Retaliation:
  The context—Chelcie's refusal to act, communicate, or advocate for a simple birthday message—supports your broader claim of retaliatory neglect after you began speaking out against OCFS.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Ryan respectfully asked CPS and school staff to pass along a birthday message to his son, Maddox. Marisol refused, and Chelcie Stewart—fully aware—ignored the request, enabling 100% alienation on a child's birthday without any cause.

Exhibit 25 – March 6, 2025: Marisol's Fundraiser Exploits Maverick's Story While Blocking Father – No CPS Intervention

This short but telling email from Ryan Michaels includes:

- A forwarded copy of a fundraising message from Marisol, using the platform MyHRT.org, with the subject line:

  "Watch Maverick's lifesaving CPR video and support him with a donation today!"

- Marisol distributed this link broadly and framed the story to gain donations—all while denying Ryan access to Maverick, failing to notify him of the fundraiser, and continuing to alienate him from any involvement in his son's life.

- Ryan notes that this was received immediately after being denied contact with his son on Maddox's birthday (see Exhibit 24). The timing emphasizes emotional cruelty and financial exploitation, reinforcing a pattern of weaponizing the children for public sympathy while cutting off their father.

- Ryan sent this to Chelcie Stewart and others as part of his March 6, 2025 "Urgent Plea for Help" email, in which he described:

  - Marisol's continued psychological abuse
  - Her use of false income claims and misleading public narratives
  - The unbearable emotional weight of being alienated while Marisol profits off their child's trauma.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Emotional Abuse and Exploitation:
  Using a child's medical emergency to raise money while cutting the other parent out of the process may constitute emotional abuse and exploitation, especially if facts are misrepresented or the child's privacy is violated.

- Failure to Intervene in Alienation:
  Chelcie was aware that Ryan had no access to his children—yet watched as Marisol publicly profited off their stories, with zero action taken to support reunification or accountability.

- Financial Misrepresentation and Abuse:
  Given Marisol's known pattern of financial manipulation (e.g., false income claims, legal threats, and court-based coercion), this fundraiser should have triggered questions about the use of funds and the accuracy of claims—but Chelcie ignored it entirely.

- Neglect of CPS Protocols on Media Exposure and Public Storytelling Involving Children:
  DHHS has internal guidance on protecting children's identities in public-facing media. There is no indication that any of these guidelines were followed, nor that Chelcie verified or addressed the situation.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Marisol launched a fundraiser using Maverick's CPR story for public donations—without Ryan's knowledge or consent—while continuing to block all contact. Chelcie Stewart was notified but took no action to investigate, protect, or intervene.

Exhibit 26 – January 19, 2025: Motion for Reconsideration Filed with the Court – Financial Abuse and Misrepresentation Enabled by CPS

This document, filed by Ryan Michaels in York County District Court, is a Motion for Reconsideration in response to the court's December 16, 2024 ruling on child support.

🔹 Key Arguments Made in the Motion:

1. Misrepresentation of Income by Marisol
    - Marisol falsely claimed that Ryan earns $150,000 per year.
    - The court adopted this figure and calculated support accordingly—even though Ryan had:
        - Been laid off
        - Previously submitted documentation proving his income was around $97,000
        - Used one-time 401k withdrawals to pay legal fees, which artificially inflated past earnings
2. Due Process Violations and Lack of Notice
    - Ryan was never properly notified of the December 16 hearing, and therefore denied his right to testify and present evidence.
    - He emphasizes this as a violation of procedural fairness.
3. CPS-Fueled Mischaracterizations

- Ryan highlights that the court's ruling was heavily influenced by false narratives—many of which were enabled or unchallenged by CPS caseworkers, including Chelcie Stewart.

- He states that Marisol has a history of using false claims and manipulation to control legal outcomes, and that CPS failed to act even when presented with evidence.

4. Financial Coercion and Ongoing Harm

    - The court-imposed support order of $2,408/month was based on false data, resulting in financial collapse.

    - Ryan argues that the order should be vacated or recalculated to reflect actual income and hardship.

🔹 What This Exhibit Adds to the Complaint:

- It documents how Chelcie's failure to correct false abuse claims or income misrepresentation directly led to unjust legal decisions.

- It shows Ryan acted appropriately through legal channels, not just emails or informal complaints.

- It reinforces the ongoing theme of CPS enabling abuse by omission—by allowing Marisol to weaponize the system through lies that Chelcie never challenged or corrected.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- False Reporting and Financial Exploitation:
  Chelcie failed to intervene or provide clarification when false income and abuse claims were presented in court. This constitutes indirect complicity in financial coercion and fraud.

- Neglect of Investigative Duty under 22 M.R.S. § 4004:
  Stewart had a responsibility to prevent harm, including emotional and financial abuse, especially when she had documentation in hand that contradicted Marisol's claims.

- Due Process Suppression (State & Federal):
  Ryan was not given proper notice or an opportunity to be heard. While the court is at fault here, CPS's failure to support him—or even acknowledge his documentation—contributed directly to the miscarriage of justice.

- Retaliatory Pattern Confirmed:
  This exhibit fits squarely within the documented retaliation timeline: after Ryan began exposing CPS misconduct and speaking out publicly, both CPS and the courts tightened their grip using financial leverage.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Ryan formally filed a motion to correct false court findings influenced by Marisol's lies and Chelcie Stewart's silence. The result: an unaffordable support order based on fake income, ignored abuse, and systemic retaliation.

Exhibit 27 – March 23, 2025: URGENT: Maine OCFS Director Caught Lying to Police – Evidence Enclosed

This exhibit is a multi-page email sent by Ryan Michaels to Governor Janet Mills, OCFS Director Bobbi Johnson, and over 150 lawmakers, agency leaders, watchdogs, and media contacts. It includes multiple attachments, screenshots, and a timeline summarizing how Jean Haynes, Chelcie Stewart, and others within Maine DHHS conspired to retaliate, silence, and misrepresent facts to law enforcement.

🔹 Key Events and Evidence Presented:

1. Jean Haynes Lied to Police About Disorderly Conduct and Calls
    - On March 11, 2025, you were issued a no-trespass order from the Biddeford DHHS office.
    - DHHS justified it by telling police that you:
        - Were disorderly
        - Made over 100 phone calls per day
    - On a recorded phone call with Officer Shortill, he confirmed there was no actual chargeable offense, and the trespass was based solely on what DHHS claimed.
    - Screenshots and phone logs show you never made that many calls, and you were calm, respectful, and transparent when asking for help .
2. This Mirrors the Pattern Behind the Sanford CPS Trespass

- On December 3, 2024, Sanford CPS also issued a no-trespass order under suspicious circumstances.

- It was later revealed (through your police conversation and email history) that there was no legal basis, and the order came only after you began publicly documenting Chelcie Stewart's failures.

3. Both Trespasses Were Retaliation for Speaking Out

    - The March 11 trespass came shortly after you:

        - Escalated complaints to leadership.

        - Posted publicly about OCFS failures.

        - Filed multiple records requests.

    - The only "evidence" cited by Jean Haynes was a single social media post from November 22, 2024, taken out of context and never threatening in nature.

    - Officer Shortill confirms this post was the entire basis for both trespasses—yet you took it down almost immediately, and it clearly posed no threat.

4. You Provided Overwhelming Documentation to Refute Their Claims

    - Attachments include:

        - Screenshots of respectful emails and voicemails.

        - A written statement left at the DHHS office.

        - Transcripts of interactions with law enforcement.

        - Prior examples of Chelcie Stewart's silence, misdirection, and failure to protect.

    - You point out that CPS never answered why you were trespassed, because doing so would force them to admit the orders were unjustified and retaliatory.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- First Amendment Retaliation:
  These trespasses followed your protected speech—including public posts, emails to government officials, and filing of complaints. Chelcie Stewart and Jean Haynes' roles in enabling or directly contributing to these retaliatory acts raise serious constitutional concerns.

- False Reporting to Law Enforcement:
  If Jean Haynes claimed disorderly conduct and 100+ calls per day—and those claims were false—she may have violated criminal statutes regarding providing false information to police. Chelcie's silence here serves as complicity.

- ADA Title II Violations:
  You were punished for persistence in reporting systemic abuse—behavior that stems from trauma and mental health disabilities. DHHS's choice to label you as "disruptive" rather than accommodate or respond equitably may constitute disability-based discrimination.

- Obstruction and Abuse of Power by CPS Staff:
  These trespasses were clearly aimed at blocking you from accessing public buildings, submitting concerns, or demanding answers. That qualifies as abuse of authority and obstruction of due process.

- Suppression of Grievance Rights and Whistleblower Protections:
  By retaliating against you for exposing misconduct, DHHS and its staff—Chelcie included—violated your right to petition the government for redress and report institutional failures without punishment.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit proves Maine OCFS leadership lied to police to justify a no-trespass order. It connects Chelcie Stewart's inaction to a broader retaliation campaign aimed at silencing Ryan after he began speaking out about abuse, alienation, and CPS misconduct.

Exhibit 28 – June 1, 2025: Alienation and Absence from the Muddy Mile Event – Ryan's Open Letter to Officials

This heartfelt email was sent by Ryan Michaels to school staff, CPS officials (including Chelcie Stewart), the Governor's Office, media outlets, and legal contacts, on the eve of the Muddy Mile school event, where his children would be present.

🔹 What the Exhibit Demonstrates:

1. You were supposed to attend the event to see your children—a rare opportunity given the months of blocked access. You had looked forward to it for weeks.

2. Despite no legal prohibition, you made the painful decision to withdraw because:

    - You feared your presence might stir emotions or confusion in your sons, given the prolonged alienation and lack of support from any adult around them.

    - You chose to prioritize their peace over your need to see them—an act of tremendous restraint and love.

3. The letter was shared with Chelcie Stewart (and her supervisor Christina Codere), clearly showing:

    - You were begging for acknowledgment and reunification.

    - You were operating with dignity, patience, and transparency, not anger or aggression.

- Chelcie once again ignored your emotional plea, showing no interest in facilitating safe, structured contact—even at public, child-focused events.

4. You directly asked that if anyone sees your children, they pass along a simple message:

"Their father loves them deeply, misses them endlessly, and hopes they have the best time at the event."Gmail - Muddy Mile

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Obligation to Support Family Preservation and Parental Bonding:
  CPS has a duty to prevent unnecessary family separation. Chelcie had multiple opportunities to help facilitate contact but chose inaction—even when it was as simple as relaying a message at a school event.

- Failure to Intervene in Parental Alienation:
  Chelcie was informed that Marisol had obstructed every other attempt at contact. Ignoring this perpetuates alienation and reflects a willful disregard for the children's emotional needs.

- OCFS Trauma-Informed Practice Violations:
  The emotional trauma of being cut off from your children for months—especially during school milestones—was made worse by Chelcie's refusal to help. Failing to respond or act violates OCFS guidelines for trauma-aware care.

- Neglect of Ethical Duty to Respond:
  This was not a vague or hostile message—it was a clear, vulnerable, and respectful appeal. Chelcie and others had every opportunity to acknowledge or assist, but didn't.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Ryan voluntarily withdrew from seeing his sons at a school event out of concern for their emotional well-being. Despite this being a peaceful, child-focused setting, Chelcie Stewart took no steps to support contact or reunification—proving her sustained role in enabling alienation.

Exhibit 29 – May 30–June 6, 2025: Formal Mandated Report Request Against OCFS Director Jean Haynes

This exhibit includes a multi-part email thread where you submitted a formal mandated report to the OCFS intake system, per instruction from their intake worker. The email outlines in detail your evidence against Jean Haynes, the OCFS District Director, for:

- Retaliation
- Providing false information to police
- Issuing an unlawful no-trespass order
- Suppressing your rights as a parent and disabled veteran
  It is sent to:
- OCFS intake
- Governor Janet Mills
- Bobbi Johnson
- Office of the Attorney General
- OPEGA
- Media outlets

- Chelcie Stewart

- Christina Codere
  ...yet no one responded, including Chelcie Stewart.

🔹 Key Points of the Exhibit:

1. Mandated Reporter Law Cited and Triggered:
   You explicitly cite Title 22 §4011-A of Maine law, explaining that every state child welfare employee—including Chelcie—is a mandated reporter, legally required to report any suspected misconduct, abuse, or retaliation affecting children or parents.

2. Chelcie Stewart Was Directly CC'd and Chose Silence:
   Despite being copied on the email—and despite your prior repeated requests for her help—Chelcie did not acknowledge receipt, follow up, or take any step to ensure accountability. This speaks directly to your complaint about her persistent obstruction, neglect, and complicity.

3. Multiple Attachments of Proof Included:
   The email references six critical documents, including:

   - Your notarized statement

   - Evidence of Jean Haynes lying to police

   - Proof of government stonewalling
     These same materials were already shared with Chelcie Stewart or were tied to earlier incidents involving her. Her continued silence in the face of such escalating concerns is damning.

4. Follow-Up Sent One Week Later with Chelcie Still Copied:
   After receiving no reply, you followed up on June 6, 2025, and demanded:

   - Confirmation the report was received

   - A case number and contact person

   - A response within 48 hours
     Chelcie still did not reply. This shows she had multiple chances to fulfill her legal and ethical duty and chose not to.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- Title 22 §4011-A – Mandated Reporter Law
  Chelcie Stewart, by law, was required to acknowledge and report suspected institutional misconduct when CC'd on a formal request. Failure to do so is a Class E crime.

- Maine DHHS Code of Conduct – Obligation to Report Misconduct
  Staff are not only allowed but required to report when their supervisors engage in unethical or illegal behavior—especially when children or families are harmed by it.

- Obstruction of Rights under ADA & Civil Rights Act
  Chelcie's continued failure to respond in a situation involving retaliation against a disabled veteran for protected activity (advocacy, speech, transparency) may implicate federal rights violations.

- Willful Negligence in a Pattern of Retaliation
  By not acting when directly notified, Chelcie engaged in willful institutional neglect, choosing loyalty to a superior over lawful responsibility to protect vulnerable families.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit proves that Chelcie Stewart was directly notified of mandated report concerns about her supervisor's misconduct and took no action, violating her legal duty as a mandated reporter and contributing to a broader culture of CPS retaliation, silence, and obstruction.

Exhibit 30 – June 18, 2025: Request for Documentation Prior to Administrative Hearing – No Response from Chelcie Stewart

In this single, concise email sent to Chelcie Stewart and CC'd to Bobbi Johnson, Christina Codere, and Christine Alberi (Ombudsman), you:

- Formally request copies of all findings and reports related to your case in advance of the July 1, 2025 administrative hearing.
- Clearly state that you are a 100% VA-disabled parent, navigating this complex legal situation without an attorney.
- Ask for assistance so that you can adequately prepare your case.
- Remain respectful, professional, and grounded in your request:

"Your timely response would be greatly appreciated."

🔹 What This Exhibit Demonstrates:

1. Chelcie was informed of your disability and lack of counsel.
   This is important because it places a legal and ethical obligation on her to respond appropriately, including offering reasonable accommodations.

2. You were asking for basic due process rights.
   Requesting documentation prior to a hearing is not just reasonable—it is your right under both state and federal law.

3. No documented reply or assistance was provided.
   There is no evidence that Chelcie ever responded to this message or fulfilled the request, even as the hearing date approached.

4. Bobbi Johnson, Christina Codere, and the Ombudsman were also CC'd.
   This further supports the pattern of institutional silence and complicity from every level of OCFS leadership.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- ADA Title II – Failure to Provide Reasonable Accommodation
  By ignoring your request (while you identified yourself as 100% VA disabled and unrepresented), Chelcie Stewart may have violated the ADA's requirement that public services accommodate individuals with disabilities.

- Denial of Due Process (Federal and State Law)
  CPS has a duty to provide parties with access to documentation used in administrative proceedings. Chelcie's failure to supply this information could be seen as obstructing your ability to prepare and defend yourself.

- Ethical Violation of OCFS Transparency Guidelines
  Staff are required to support clients in preparing for hearings and understanding their cases. Chelcie's silence violates these basic expectations.

- Neglect of Mandated Role to Assist Vulnerable Parties
  By ignoring a reasonable, time-sensitive request, Chelcie failed to meet her obligation to protect the rights of a vulnerable, disabled parent involved in CPS proceedings.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows Ryan respectfully asked Chelcie Stewart for case documentation ahead of a July 1 hearing, citing his VA disability and lack of legal counsel. Chelcie ignored the request entirely—denying him both due process and reasonable accommodation.

Exhibit 31 – June 27, 2025: Body Cam Footage Confirms Retaliation and Civil Rights Violations – Chelcie Stewart CC'd, No Action Taken

This exhibit is a formal email sent by Ryan Michaels to OCFS leadership, government officials, and media, after obtaining body cam footage from Officer Shortill's March 11, 2025 police response at Biddeford DHHS.

🔹 Core Findings and Evidence:

1. Body Cam Footage Confirms Retaliatory Lies by OCFS Staff
    - The footage directly contradicts Amy Cilley's verbal report to police, in which she falsely portrayed Ryan as:
        - "Not in touch with reality"
        - Emotionally unstable or threatening
    - In reality, Ryan was calm, respectful, and peaceful—something the footage proves conclusively.

2. No-Trespass Order Was Issued Based on False Claims
    - The second trespass order (from Biddeford DHHS) was issued without warning or due process, based solely on Cilley's false characterization.
    - This followed the pattern of the first trespass order from Sanford on December 3, 2024, which was also done without basis.
3. Multiple Constitutional and Civil Rights Violations Outlined
    - Ryan lays out specific legal violations in this email:
        - Due Process (14th Amendment) – issued a trespass without notice or ability to contest.
        - First Amendment – punished for protected speech and advocacy.
        - ADA Title II – Cilley's remarks belittling Ryan's disability and PTSD were discriminatory.
        - Maine Civil Rights Act (5 M.R.S.A. §4681) – prohibits retaliation by government agencies for exercising constitutional rightsGmail - Urgent_ Newly O….
4. Chelcie Stewart Was Informed and Remained Silent
    - Chelcie was copied on this email alongside:
        - Bobbi Johnson
        - Amy Cilley
        - Jean Haynes
        - Governor Janet Mills' office
        - The Ombudsman
        - Legislators
        - Multiple lawyers

- Despite the gravity of the footage and accusations, Chelcie said nothing and took no corrective steps.

- Her continued silence in the face of overwhelming proof and legal urgency confirms a broader pattern of complicity and retaliatory institutional behavior.

5. Ryan Requests Immediate Action, Including:

    - Review of both body cam and his own video footage.

    - Investigation of Amy Cilley's conduct.

    - Rescinding of the no-trespass orders.

    - Restoration of rights and access to services.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- ADA Title II – Discrimination Against Disabled Individuals
  Chelcie's failure to respond, despite knowing you were a disabled veteran whose rights had just been trampled, supports an ADA claim under 42 U.S.C. §12132.

- First Amendment Retaliation and Suppression of Speech
  CPS retaliated for protected advocacy. Chelcie's inaction following this email confirms she is part of the problem—not part of the solution.

- 14th Amendment Due Process Violations
  Both trespass orders were issued without opportunity to contest. Chelcie had a duty to intervene and didn't.

- Failure to Investigate Mandated Misconduct
  This email triggered yet another mandated report opportunity under 22 M.R.S. §4011-A. Chelcie, again, failed to fulfill her obligation as a mandated reporter and child protection worker.

- Obstruction and Retaliatory Neglect
  Chelcie's refusal to respond to this urgent appeal shows retaliatory indifference—especially when paired with the fact that you have exhausted every formal channel.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit proves that OCFS staff lied to police about Ryan to justify trespassing him from DHHS. Body cam footage confirms the lies. Chelcie Stewart was copied on the evidence and allegations—and remained silent, reinforcing her role in ongoing retaliation, neglect, and institutional cover-up.

Exhibit 32 – October 18, 2024 to July 15, 2025: Appeal Process Obstructed, Social Media Surveillance by CPS Officials

This email thread spans nearly 10 months, from your initial attempt to appeal CPS findings through your discovery that Chelcie Stewart and Christina Codere were stalking your Facebook page instead of responding to you professionally.

🔹 Key Events and Documentation:

1. Initial Appeal Obstructed – October 2024

- On October 18, 2024, you asked Christina Codere if you could drop off your appeal form in person at the Sanford office.
- Codere refused, stating that appeals must be mailed to Augusta—even though this caused a hardship due to your mental health, timeline pressure, and disabilityGmail - Appeal process.
- You emphasized the urgency and stress you were under, but Codere did not offer any accommodations or solutions.

2. No Hearing Notice Received – February to July 2025

- On February 21, 2025, you emailed Codere, Chelcie Stewart, the Ombudsman, and Governor's office, stating:

  "I take these matters very seriously… I would appreciate confirmation that I am being afforded due process."Gmail - Appeal process

- You received no response.
- You followed up again on March 11, 2025—still no reply.

3. July 15, 2025 – Discovery of Facebook Surveillance

- You forwarded the entire thread to your VA social worker, Zulmarie Jimenez Cruz, explaining that Codere and Stewart had ignored you all year.
- That same day, you discovered both Codere and Stewart had viewed your private Facebook Story, despite being non-followers and refusing to respond to any of your formal messages.
- The screenshots (pages 6–7) confirm both women were actively viewing your story while continuing to deny any official communication or accountabilityGmail - Appeal process.

🔹 Implications of This Exhibit:

- Chelcie Stewart was fully aware of your pending appeal, administrative hearing issues, and mental health-related requests—and refused to respond or assist.
- Instead, she chose to monitor your personal social media, which strongly suggests intentional retaliation and intimidation, especially considering you had begun speaking out publicly about CPS misconduct.
- This proves not just neglect—but an active pattern of suppression, silencing, and harassment by someone in a state-mandated protection role.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- ADA Title II – Failure to Accommodate and Retaliatory Monitoring
  You clearly asked for a procedural accommodation due to your mental health and VA disability. Stewart's failure to provide support—and simultaneous surveillance of your personal page—constitutes discriminatory behavior and retaliation.

- 14th Amendment – Denial of Due Process
  By ignoring your requests for updates on a legal appeal, Chelcie contributed to a prolonged denial of your right to a hearing and legal response.

- 22 M.R.S. § 4004 – Obligation to Serve Vulnerable Families
  The fact that CPS workers stalked your Facebook page while ignoring your urgent requests for help is a gross violation of their ethical and legal obligations to assist—not harass—those they serve.

- OCFS Code of Conduct – Abuse of Position and Inappropriate Conduct
  Monitoring personal, non-public-facing social media as a government worker without cause or communication is an abuse of authority.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that Chelcie Stewart ignored Ryan's requests for help and due process for nearly a year—then stalked his Facebook story, confirming a pattern of harassment, retaliation, and abuse of power.

Exhibit 33 – July 15–17, 2025: Formal Request for Clarification of False Statements to Police – Chelcie Stewart Silent Despite Evidence

This email thread between Ryan Michaels and DHHS/OCFS staff—most notably Amy Cilley—provides a clear account of how false and defamatory statements were made to police during the March 11, 2025 no-trespass incident at Biddeford DHHS. Chelcie Stewart is CC'd on both emails, yet takes no action or responds.

🔹 Key Documentation and Context:

1. Amy Cilley Lied to Law Enforcement
    - During the March 11, 2025 police encounter, Cilley told officers that you were:
        - "Out of touch with reality"
        - Possibly not truly disabled
        - A potential disruption or threat

- You provide in this email:
  - Official VA documentation proving you are 100% permanently and totally disabled due to PTSD, TBI, and other service-connected conditions.
  - A reference to body cam footage and audio recordings showing you were calm and respectful.
  - Witness statements (including DHHS staff) confirming you were not disruptive:

    "Even the receptionist said she would be upset being treated the way I was treated."
    Another staff member described you as "a tattooed guy who seemed harmless."Gmail - Formal Request …

2. You Request Specific Clarifications from Cilley
   - What evidence did she use to claim you were unstable?
   - Why did she misstate your federally documented disability status?
   - Why did her report contradict two other staff accounts and police observations?
3. Chelcie Stewart Was Fully Informed and Did Nothing
   - She was CC'd on both the July 15 and July 17 emails.
   - Despite being informed of a false police report and civil rights violation involving a disabled parent she was previously assigned to, she did not respond, assist, or even acknowledge the message.

⚖️ Statutes, Laws, and DHHS Policies Potentially Violated:

- 22 M.R.S. § 4011-A – Mandated Reporter Obligation
  Chelcie was made aware that another CPS worker lied to law enforcement in a way that harmed a parent and child relationship. She had a duty to report this misconduct or take corrective action—she did neither.

- ADA Title II – Discrimination and Retaliation Based on Disability
  Chelcie and Amy's failure to accommodate your disability and the implication that your diagnosis was somehow suspect may qualify as ADA-based discrimination and retaliation.

- Maine Civil Rights Act (5 M.R.S. §4681)
  Government retaliation through false reporting and unlawful no-trespass enforcement—without grounds and rooted in bias—is a violation of your civil rights.

- OCFS Code of Conduct – Misconduct and Abuse of Power
  The false statements to police and Chelcie's failure to respond both represent serious ethical failures and abuse of institutional authority.

- Suppression of Constitutional Rights (1st & 14th Amendments)
  The retaliation followed your protected advocacy and denied you access to services and facilities—all while suppressing your due process rights.

🔎 Quick Summary:

This exhibit shows that OCFS staff lied to police about Ryan's mental state and disability status to justify a no-trespass order. Despite being fully informed, Chelcie Stewart took no action—further proving her complicity in systemic retaliation and rights violations.

Subject: Missed phone call

Good Morning Chelcie,

I hope this email finds you well. I am disappointed to have missed your phone call yesterday. We are still without cable and internet at the house since the storm last week and my cell service is less than ideal. On my ride into class at the Portland University of Southern Maine campus, I noticed a voicemail on my phone from you that was made yesterday Thursday 4/11 at 8:38 am. Today Friday 4/12 At 8:59 am, I returned your call at 207-806-9418 and left a voicemail. I am on campus for most of the day but I will have my phone volume up and will excuse myself from a class if necessary to take your phone call.

As of this afternoon, Maddox and Maverick will be with their mother for the next 17 days straight. Mom's school vacation this year is April vacation week and she has requested the following week as 1 of her 2 allotted weeks of the year that Ryan and Marisol agreed upon in their divorce decree.

There are a few medical concerns that I have for the boys that I would like to speak with you about that are time-sensitive. When the boys come home after 2 days or 5 days with their mom, Ryan and I can assist them with the medical care and attention that they need. If the boys are with mom I cannot guarantee the concerns I have for them will be addressed, both Maddox and Maverick have told me that their mother has specifically told them that she: doesn't care " or to "get over it " when they come to her with a concern or illness at home. I am honestly terrified to even think of reaching out to Marisol myself and will never try to talk to Marisol ever again after the incident of her aggressively tailgating me and verbally abusing me at school drop-off on March 12 when dropping Maddox and Maverick off at school instead of Ryan.

After repeated attempts to try to communicate in a professional respectful manner, offering multiple times to meet with her just her and myself. On March 12, I had my first real experience with Marisol in person on my own. She was very loud and had a very rude and hurtful tone when she walked up to my car and asked me "Where is Ryan ?" after becoming very emotional when I told her that Ryan was at work Marisol started saying all sorts of emotionally charged statements, I did my best to keep myself and the boys composed as we tried to get out of the vehicle and into the school while was reactive.
While I was helping one of the boys get a backpack from the back of the car, Marisol said to me in a nasty tone "Why don't you leave the parenting to me, lady." At this time I made my best effort to take deep breaths and keep myself composed for the sake of Maddox and Maverick. After about 30 seconds of me not responding to Marisol's comment she asked me in an aggressive tone " Did you hear what I said to you ?"

At this time the Ycare teachers opened the gym door, This was when Marisol started raising her voice very loudly screaming " I want her off the pickup and drop off list! TAKE HER OFF NOW !"

Both Maddox and Maverick looked very confused and embarrassed by their mother's actions. There were 2 Ycare teachers and several children who were in the Ycare program witnessing Marisol's behavior. Once the boys walked to the gym door entrance I announced to the boys from the car that I hoped they had a good day and that I would see them that evening. As I got in the car and started to drive away, Marisol then quickly got into her vehicle to hurry up and tailgate me aggressively for the next 5 miles until she turned to go to work. Since this experience with Marisol, I am terrified to try to speak with her about anything at all. Her behavior is scary and intimidating and NOT s proper example of appropriate behavior. I made a police report with the Berwick police on the incident but decided to NOT move forward with a Protection from Harassment on Marisol because I would prefer to leave PFA's and PFH out of the parenting world the children deserve better.

On March 27, 2024, Maverick forgot his classes at home, when Maverick got home that afternoon with his mom, she contacted Ryan about Maverick needing his glasses. This situation instantly gave me anxiety even thinking about possibly having another experience like the one I had with Maddox Maverick and Marisol at school drop off on March 12 again at school or anywhere. Ryan and I thought it would be the best decision for all adults and kids if Ryan dropped Maverick's classes off to Maverick in the mailbox. Which is right by the public sidewalk far enough from her front door not to cause any disruption or distraction to Marisol's evening routine with Maddox and Maverick. We thought this was the safest alternative. Maverick can receive mail in the mailbox Why can't he receive his glasses? Ryan putting the glasses in Marisol's mailbox upset her so much that she contacted the Berwick police claiming Ryan was breaking the PFA that Marisol had used as a weapon to further emotionally abuse Ryan and his children.

This is now negatively affecting my children who witnessed the Berwick Police come to our home to question Ryan on the evening Marisol called the police about glasses in the mailbox. Marisol's inappropriate behavior and explosive reactions have negatively affected Ryan, Maddox, and Maverick for years. My children ages 5 and 11 are now afraid of public places in their town like the public library, the local Cumberland farms, or the park at the elementary school in thought that Marisol could be there and may react poorly. I tried to stay as neutral as possible in this situation involving Ryan and Marisol's co-parenting efforts from the beginning of my relationship with Ryan and his children. During my time developing a healthy soon to be a step-parent relationship with Maverick and Maddox, and also studying to become a mental health professional, It no longer aligns with my values to stay neutral or keep quiet about the abuse the children continuously speak to me about in confidence and with trust.

On March 22, 2024, I accompanied Ryan to the meeting and forensic interview with Maddox and Maverick at the YCAC. When it was Maverick's turn and Ryan and I were in the waiting play area with Maddox he wrapped both arms around me and said " I love you Renee, thank you for being in my life ."

Maddox and Maverick will be with Marisol until Monday 4/29. I am concerned for their well-being while they are with Mom and hope to connect with you via phone and in person very soon!

thank you so much for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
Renee Marchand

Hello Ryan,

I am following up about the phone call we just had.

We had to end the phone call due to your yelling and swearing at us. That behavior is not going to be tolerated – it is expected that everyone is treated with respect, even if you disagree with our decisions.

You will be receiving a findings letter with information about how to appeal the findings.

I will be reaching out to you to schedule a Family Team Meeting to talk about your family plan and expectations moving forward.

Thank you,

Christina

I was not yelling. I was in a production environment at pratt and whitney, to which I told you. You then decided to tell me you sibstantiated me and not matisol, after I specifically asked to talk later as I was at work.

I then civilly spoke my mind and you became condescending. And you're right, I did let out one cuss at the end when I asked if you were kidding with me. But thank you for joining the club and over exaggerating and manipulating to make it seems like I yelled at you. Because I certainly never swore AT you.

What won't be tolerated is the corruption in the cps system. I will address this clear reprisal is court.

Thank you.

Summary of growing concerns

Good afternoon, Ashana,

I hope this email finds you well. I am reaching out to you today to offer more insight into the struggles my boys are currently facing in their living situation with their mother. I have attached a document that provides a detailed account of my concerns, which I believe should be taken into consideration when evaluating their overall wellbeing and safety.

I want to make it clear that I have remained silent on these matters for a significant period of time. I acknowledge that I am not a perfect individual and that I have made mistakes in the past. However, it is essential to emphasize that I have never done anything with the intention of hurting anyone, particularly my children, whom I love deeply and care for immensely.

My decision to break my silence and share my concerns with CPS stems from my unwavering commitment to ensuring the best possible environment and conditions for my children. Their wellbeing and safety are of paramount importance to me, and I believe that a candid and open discussion of the issues outlined in the attached document is vital in this regard.

I kindly request that you and your team take the time to thoroughly review the content of the attached document, as I believe it contains critical information that can assist in making informed decisions for my children's welfare. By considering the facts presented in the document, I hope that CPS can play a pivotal role in ensuring the wellbeing and safety of my boys.

I understand that this is a challenging and sensitive situation, and I am fully willing to cooperate and work together with CPS to find a suitable resolution that prioritizes the best interests of my children. Your assistance and guidance in this matter are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I look forward to the opportunity to discuss these concerns further with you and your team.

Sincerely,

Ryan Michaels

Dear Chelcie,

I've attached the PFA and the Divorce decree as requested. Additionally, I've included the email I sent Ashana during the recent investigation into Marisol's conduct.

In that correspondence, I highlighted some, though not all, of the concerns I've meticulously documented over time. I've offered substantial proof, including video recordings, texts, and emails, to substantiate these concerns should it aid in illustrating the gravity of Marisol's behavior.

The core of my distress lies in the well-being of my two boys. Their persistent cries for help due to physical abuse and concerning actions by Marisol trouble me deeply.
They've disclosed ongoing abuse for months, which aligns with Marisol's history of physical aggression toward both me and the children.

During our discussion, you mentioned discrepancies in the boys' accounts. I believe this may stem from their limited grasp of time concepts, causing confusion between past and recent events. Though their articulation might falter due to their age, I firmly believe in the truthfulness of their claims.

Multiple parties, including school authorities, counselors, and various family members, have been approached by the boys with openness about distressing incidents at Marisol's residence.
Despite my being "substantiated" without being interviewed during last year's investigation due to the incident that caused my injuries,I'm actively appealing this decision, armed with substantial evidence disproving Marisol's deceitful actions.

Marisol's history, including prior DV charges against her and factual evidence of child abuse, compounds my concern for the boys' safety under her care.
I earnestly believe they're safer with me. I've witnessed her abuse firsthand and have never faced legal repercussions for any accusations she's made against me.

Given the gravity of the situation, I implore you to consider implementing a safety plan. Temporarily allowing the boys to stay with me until the investigation concludes seems crucial, especially with recent reports from multiple sources furthering the concern.

I want to emphasize my dedication to responsible parenting. I've proactively sought education, attended parenting classes, and engaged in extensive discussions to ensure the best upbringing for my children, who are currently grappling with the trauma inflicted by their mother. All of this was done on my own accord and with the intent to provide my children with the best upbringing possible.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you need additional information or have any concerns. For further insight, I've provided contact details for individuals who can offer character references and share their perspective on the situation.

Contacts for reference:

My mother: 207-554-9984
Marisol's adopted child, Lorelei: 207-698-0000 William Knorr (Lorelei's father): Contact details unavailable
My dad: 207-227-2840
My cousin: 207-768-1611
My cousin's wife: 207-227-1517
My partner: 207-730-3955

Thank you for your attention to this pressing matter. I trust your consideration will prioritize the safety and well-being of my boys.

Best regards,

Ryan Michaels

Good morning,

This PowerPoint may seem odd at first glance as it may seem to be entirely focused on what Marisol has done to me versus the kids. However, I wish to show you this to give you a small amount of insight as to what kind of deception, manipulation, and abuse Marisol delivers to others.

I believe this is important as the department has taken her words seriously in the past. She will never admit to the abusive things she does to others, most importantly to my kids. You can also see through reviewing this PowerPoint just how much her actions directly affected the kids. You can also get more of a glimpse into why her constant demands for PD transitions are not needed as she is only doing so to push her false narrative even if it's at the detriment of our kid's health and wellbeing.

Again, I only offer this for some perspective, and I do believe it's very important to see and understand as it will shed light on her behaviors and allow you to understand my concerns regarding why it's terrible for our kids. If she's lied about all of these things, she certainly wouldn't choose to be honest and admit she has hit the boys when they speak up stating that she did.

I hope this helps. I truly hope you see that even though this can be perceived as drama, as I know it is, the boys and I are all victims of serious mental and physical abuse. Those who endure trauma for extended periods of time can develop a lot of issues hindering judgement, and ability to process emotions, and can cause the victims to seek comfort with their abuser. This may seem odd, but in a victim's mind, they sometimes resort to going back to their abuser due to life being "Easier" when their abuser is appeased. I'm 31 and seeking a lot of help to work through all of this. My boys are 6 and 7 and I pray every day that I can get them out of that environment and keep them safe.

Kind regards,

Ryan

Client and clinician were present. Clinician offered supportive and active listening as the client spoke about how things have been going. Client reported that he is struggling with not being able to see his dad as he misses him. Utilized play therapy to explore client's current emotional state including triggers, automatic thoughts and coping strategies. Client stated that he is not allowed to see his dad because, "Mommy's friend had a gun". Explored client's sense of safety. Client reported feeling safe but also stated that he wants to go live with his daddy, but "mommy won't let him go". Utilized CBT, focusing on client's thoughts, feelings and behaviors. Will continue to do weekly therapy with client.

Session with Maverick.

Maverick presented with a neutral mood; affect congruent, well-groomed.

Session began with continued rapport rapport and providing Maverick with a therapeutic space to process thoughts and emotions through child-directed play therapy. Themes today of building, fighting, a dragon and 2 sharks, verbally expressed feelings of anger. He lunged toward clinician toward end of session for a hug, repeatedly stated he wanted to stay in session forever and at the very end stated "I love you." Provided reflection and validation of feelings and positive encouragement.

Plan: Meet in two weeks, continue to build rapport and gather information for assessment and goal planning.

Clinician sent confirmation text to Marisol yesterday and didn't hear back. This morning at approximately 6:21am clinician heard from Ryan, Maverick's father needing to cancel due to Maverick and his brother both being sick and asking to reschedule. Clinician provided a few different options for next week to see either one or both of the boys and is waiting to hear back.

Session with Maverick. He was brought in by his father, Ryan. Clinician was supposed to see his brother, however, session last week was missed with Maverick due to him being sick and his father thought he needed it more than his brother today. Clinician met with Ryan first without Maverick. Ryan expressed concerns that Marisol hasn't been responding to him regarding visits, that she gaslights the children, that there is a new guy coming around a lot.

Maverick presented with a sad mood; affect congruent, crying, well-groomed.

Maverick was in the waiting room with his brother. When clinician went out to get him, he was crying because he thought his father took too long with clinician. His father hugged him, rubbed his back, offered him his stuffie, and asked him what he could do for him. Maverick eventually stopped crying and was ready to go back with clinician. Provided reflection and validation of feelings. Maverick went in for a hug and told clinician "I love you". Clinician acknowledged that he felt safe in session and needed a hug. By the end of session clinician set boundaries and let him know that those kind of hugs are for moms and dads, however, he could high five clinician, fist bump, side hug. Today he stated "My mom is mean to me" and "she lies" "I'm mad at her."

Plan: Meet in two weeks, continue to build rapport and provide Maverick with a space to process thoughts and emotions.

Session with Maverick. He was brought in by his father, Ryan.

Maverick presented with a neutral mood; affect congruent, well-groomed.

Supported Maverick in goal of developing emotion regulation skills and in processing life changes in a therapeutic setting. He stated the following during session without any prompting or questions "mom says mean things" and "she threw her earrings on the ground and said she didn't." Provided reflection and validation of feelings, positive encouragement. Clinician worked on boundaries with him asking him if he needed a fist bump or a high five today and he high fived clinician. He also expressed feeling angry almost every day about his brother. We had a discussion about feelings and the different sizes of feelings we can have using waves/ocean/tsunami as an anology. Themes in play today were of hiding items, weapons.

Plan: Meet in two weeks, continue to build rapport and provide Maverick with a space to process thoughts and emotions.

Session with Maverick. He was brought in by his father, Ryan. Ryan played a recording of the boys from a recent time where Maddox talked about how his mother deleted sibling contacts from his ipad and she cracked the screen. Ryan has been in touch with Caring Unlimited who told him it was "brilliant" to record the kids without them knowing and to get candid conversations. He played clinician one of them. Clinician let him know that it might be helpful for her to connect with Caring Unlimited if he is comfortable doing so.

Maverick presented with a neutral mood; affect congruent, well-groomed.

Supported Maverick in goal of developing emotion regulation skills and in processing life changes in a therapeutic setting. Clinician worked on boundaries with him asking him if he needed a fist bump or a high five today and he stated "no thank you." Themes in play today were of fighting, protection, guns. He stated "my Mom lies a lot" and "I want to be with Dad all the time". Provided reflection and validation of feelings.

Plan: Meet in two weeks, continue to build rapport and provide Maverick with a space to process thoughts and emotions.

Session with Maverick. He was brought in by his father, Ryan.

Maverick presented with a sullen mood as evidenced by him walking with his head down, eyes to the ground, sunken shoulders and hands in his pockets; well-groomed.

Supported Maverick in processing thoughts and emotions regarding life events. Themes today were of building and bridges. He was able to process feeling sad about not being with his dad right now (being in session) and worried that he wouldn't come back for him. Provided reflection and validation of feelings. He expressed feelings about wanting a new mom, because "My mom lies and she isn't nice". We talked about trust today, as well as truth and his experiences and talked about where he feels the sadness in his body. Toward the end of session he stated "I love you". Clinician replied "having warm feelings." He is opening up in therapy sessions.

Plan: Meet in two weeks, continue to build rapport and provide Maverick with a space to process thoughts and emotions.

Maverick was brought in by his father. Due to comments Maverick has made to both of his parents about wanting to die, clinician cut his brother's session short to share the time with Maverick as well. Ryan wanted to check in and he reported the following: On August 4th, Maddox woke up screaming and crying (thinks it was night terrors), and he went to the ER. Maddox reported being around a real gun recently when he was with his older sister, Mia's husband. The husband was firing the gun off on the porch (9mm). Recently, Maverick was in the car and not buckled. Ryan's friend, Renee said "Buddy, we have to buckle you up" and she helped him to buckle his seatbelt. Maverick made a comment "I want to die" and he said this three times. Drop-off/pick up yesterday was difficult, Marisol threatened the police on Maverick when he was having a meltdown over not being allowed to bring his Ipad to his dad's house. He reported recording the interactions. He noted he may be arrested soon due to Marisol filing reports with police saying that Ryan has been violating the PFA. He also noted that Marisol "loaded them with real life looking guns in the car yesterday". Ben and Marisol have grabbed the kids wrist, leading them out of her bedroom and locking the door.

Maverick presented with a sad mood; affect congruent, well-groomed.

Session focused on continued rapport building and supporting Maverick in processing thoughts and emotions - used client-centered play therapy to engage him. Explored thoughts that he has been having about wanting to die "Because everyone is mean to me". He stated he would drown himself, however, doesn't seem to have any immediate plans or means to do so. Provided reflective listening, validated emotions, provided positive encouragement for being able to share his feelings. We explored those individuals who care about him, noting he is here for a purpose and there is a plan for his life, discussed his strengths. At the end of session, clinician shared with Ryan the way that Maverick expressed wanting to die and noted the importance of keeping him supervised around water, validating emotions, helping him to understand a lot of people care for him and calling Crisis Line as needed (Ryan reported having the number). Clinician also noted the importance of providing limits, natural consequences and keeping drop off/pick up as smooth and peaceful as possible. Clinician will send an email to both parents with suggestions/ideas for managing the kids emotions & behaviors.

Plan: Meet next week, continue to provide him with a space to process emotions regarding life events.

Maverick was brought in by his father, Ryan. Ryan reported that he spoke with the school BHP, Kristin Cates who said that Maddox's appointment time for counseling on Tuesday mornings at 8am works perfectly for his school schedule. He asked if there was another day that an 8am appt time is available and clinician let him know that she now has 8am on Mondays available, however, would like to talk with Marisol about it too. He thought it might be good for clinician to communicate with Kristin and he signed releases for clinician to be able to do. Clinician will send them to Marisol to sign as well.

Maverick presented with a neutral mood; affect congruent, well-groomed.

Session focused on supporting Maverick in processing thoughts and emotions and in feelings identification - used client-centered play therapy to engage him as we talked. Provided reflective listening, validated emotions, provided positive encouragement for being able to share his feelings. Clinician also explored with him the sleeping arrangements at his father's house and we talked about safety and boundaries and being able to sleep in his own bed. He noted that he slept in his dad's bed and Renee was there, a long time ago.

Plan: Meet next week, continue to provide him with a space to process emotions regarding life events.

Maverick was brought in by his mother, Marisol.

Maverick presented with a neutral mood; affect congruent, well-groomed.

Session focused on supporting Maverick in processing thoughts and emotions and in feelings & energy identification - used client-centered play therapy to engage him as we talked about what energy is, different energy levels, how energy relates to emotions, reviewed his strengths and his supports. Provided reflective listening, validated emotions, provided positive encouragement to Maverick for his participation. Clinician shared with Marisol that we talked about energy and how it relates to emotions, reviewed his strengths and his supports - who is on his team. He verbalized a pretty good understanding of energy and different energy levels.

Good Morning,

It's been a pain to try and find ways to get the videos/information to you that I promised.

I had to download them to my Google Drive and then "permitted" you to view them (and I believe download them). After giving you permission for each one it said it would send you a notification. Can you let me know if this worked and if you received it? If not I will have to save everything to a USB drive and give it to you.

Just a reminder, those videos are there to corroborate the statements I made in the Word document labeled "concerns" that I had sent you.

attached to this email you will also find:

1.) A screenshot of what my son had sent to his siblings on an iPad while he was with his mother. He reached out for help and then Marisol ended up blocking everyone and making sure he couldn't reach out anymore.

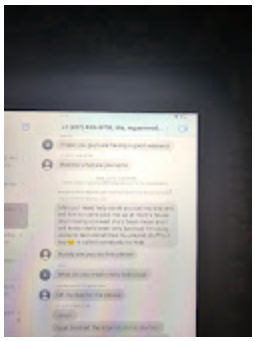

2.) texts from the boy's sister to me regarding her use of drugs with the boys in the house with Marisol. corroborating my statements made in the provided Word document.

I will send you a separate email with a couple of things I have readily available to send. remember, I'm overwhelmed with how much documentation I have and how much Marisol has put the kids through. If you have any follow-up questions please let me know so I can provide more documentation if needed.

Kind regards,

Ryan

Subject: Concerns About Marisol's Behavior and Its Impact on Children

3 messages

Ryan michaels <rtgmich@gmail.com> Fri, Nov 3, 2023 at 8:29 AM
Reply-To: rtgmich@gmail.com
To: "Legeyt, Ashana" <Ashana.legeyt@maine.gov>

Good morning, ma'am:)

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to reach out to express my consistent concerns about the behavior of the children's mother, Marisol, and how it is affecting not only my children but also my partner's children.

Over the past few months, I've observed various issues surrounding pick-up and drop-off arrangements, as well as smaller incidents like nightly phone calls. The incident I want to address specifically occurred last week when my boys called me while I was at my partner's house. Marisol's reaction to the call was troubling. My partner's 5-year-old daughter, Penelope, innocently greeted my boys, who are friends with my partner's girls. Marisol's reaction was highly confrontational, and she even hung up the phone, causing distress to both my children and Penelope. It deeply concerns me that Marisol's behavior is now spilling over to affect my partner's children as well.

In response to this incident, I requested a 30-minute heads-up before the kids call, which I believe is a reasonable request. This heads-up is essential to ensure I have a plan to be in a private room to avoid any unnecessary interactions that might lead to hurtful comments and drama. Unfortunately, Marisol has consistently refused to provide any advance notice and often calls at random times, which makes it impossible for me to ensure privacy and avoid potential conflicts.

The most recent situation occurred when Marisol had the boys call without warning while I was at my partner's house, watching her two girls. I tried to create a private space to talk with the boys, but Penelope entered the room, as she's only 5, and Maddox wanted to talk to his friend. I believe I handled the situation to the best of my ability, considering the circumstances. However, I feel that Marisol's failure to provide the requested heads-up put me in a difficult position.

I have attached a recording of the call to provide further insight into the situation, as I believe listening to it will quickly reveal my concerns about Marisol's behavior.

My primary concern is that Marisol's actions are negatively impacting both my children and my partner's children. Marisol's habit of openly recording me during these calls is also causing discomfort for Maddox. It's important to note that Marisol's actions are antagonizing him, whereas de-escalation could be a more constructive approach.

If you have any advice or recommendations to address this situation, I would greatly appreciate it. This email only touches on one example of Marisol's behavior, but I hope it sheds light on the broader issue and its effects on the children.

Thank you for your attention and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Ryan

FYI

I sent this to the caseworker during the last investigation Marisol had opened against her. This is a recording of a call I had with my boys when they were at her house. I was with my partner's kids at the time.
This is a small glimpse into how difficult she can be, and how inappropriate she acts in front of all of the children.

Kind regards,

Good morning,

I had requested a PFA against Marisol to protect myself against her constantly slandering me, lying about the PFA, using the PFA as a weapon (keep in mind she was trying to get me arrested since August 4th because I "wasnt supposed to text her, I was supposed to email"), and even stalking me.

Please note her attempt to get me arrested was purely a strategic attempt to further her agenda to make me look bad and have another leg up on me. Remember the documents I provided you showing her reaching out to me during the PFA, coming to my house, requesting I come see her, etc. Yet she tried to get me arrested in August for texting her, about the kids mind you, instead of emailing.

The attachment shows information regarding the PFA I requested. They denied it immediately because I was home with the boys who were sick, and asked my lawyer to request a continuance. As shown in the court transcripts Marisol/her lawyer immediately spoke up and said I was manipulative and was doing all of this on purpose and that I was faking that the kids are sick. She further asserted that I never contacted her about having the kids that week and that this was all a ploy. The attached paperwork is my appeal request, which also got denied, with proof showing how she lied entirely in order to again paint me as a bad person and to deceive others into believing her false narrative,

Again, I know this may be a lot of info and come off like pure drama. However, I hope you can see the importance of how frequently she lies to everyone and gets away with it. This is highly important as all of her actions are hindering me from taking action to not only protect myself but more importantly my children. She has fooled CPS already into thinking I'm the one abusing the kids, and she's fooled the court into thinking she's the abused and I'm the abuser. All because I can't give the court all the proof as it would put my job at further risk as most of it is incriminating (even though Marisol reached out to me and manipulated me, I still responded. I have done nothing more than that, but it was still wrong).

If you have any questions or need clarification please do not hesitate to ask.

Kind regards,

Ryan

Clinician and client were present. Clinician offered supportive and active listening as the client spoke about how things have been going. Client shared frustrations towards his mother for "what she did". Client reported that his mom constantly lies and is mean to him. Client stated that he recently celebrated a birthday and that his mother did not pay attention to him and "isn't a good mom". Clinician asked open ended questions to gather more information. Client was very forthcoming with information and shared that he feels that his mother, "lies all of the time and isn't a good mom". Clinician utilized CBT focusing on client's thoughts, feelings and behaviors. Clinician observed client becoming sad and starting to cry. Client stated that his missed his dad so much and does not understand why he can't see him. Client reported that his mother tells he and his sibling that his father is "busy" however client states that is untrue as they drive by dads home often and client can see all of his father's vehicles at the home. Practiced deep breathing exercise with client during his time of dysregulation. Will continue weekly therapy and work on coping strategies when client is having challenging moments. Utilized Play and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy.

Marisol reported that the kids had a tough morning. She stated that at transition time Ryan approached her car and wasn't supposed to. He wanted the kids Switch and earrings she had. Maddox brought in a painting he did and gave it to clinician to keep.

Maddox presented with a neutral mood; affect congruent, well-groomed. He was able to come into session without his mother today.

Session focused on continued rapport building and supporting Maddox in processing thoughts and emotions - used client-centered play therapy to engage Maddox. Provided reflective listening, validated emotions, provided positive encouragement. He engaged clinician in building with + Plus blocks today. He was able to talk about some things - "my mom has done a lot of bad things." He reported that police with shields and guns came to his dad's house looking for her. He talked about this morning and stated "My mom threw her earrings out the window", "she was saying mean things to my dad" "she threw my Wii on the ground." He also reported that his mom is moving in with Ben, but she isn't saying anything about it. He knew that information from his father.

Plan: Meet in two weeks, continue to provide him with a space to process emotions regarding life events. Clinician couldn't remember a couple details that Marisol shared this morning. Will send her a message to ask, should Maddox or his brother talk about it in the future.

Maddox was brought in by his father. Clinician cut his session short to share the time with his brother as there have been some things going on that have been difficult for both kids. Clinician will make this up to Maddox by giving him some of Maverick's time next week. Ryan wanted to check in and he reported the following: On August 4th, Maddox woke up screaming and crying (thinks it was night terrors), and he went to the ER. Maddox reported being around a real gun recently when he was with his older sister, Mia's husband. The husband was firing the gun off on the porch (9mm). He also reported that the pick-up this morning was difficult and he has video of what happened.

Maddox presented with a neutral mood; affect congruent, well-groomed.

Session focused on continued rapport building and supporting Maddox in processing thoughts and emotions - used client-centered play therapy to engage Maddox. He engaged clinician in the usual building of +Plus blocks as we talked and he didn't share much today. Clinician began teaching him about the fight, flight, freeze response and he was able to say his typical response is fight. Provided reflective listening, validated emotions, provided positive encouragement.

Plan: Meet in next week, continue to provide him with a space to process emotions regarding life events.

Maddox was brought in by his father. Ryan asked if he could leave 5 minutes early so that he can get Maddox to school in time for when Ryan has a call he has to take at 10am.

Maddox presented with a neutral mood; affect congruent, well-groomed. He complained of his left leg hurting (clinician communicated this to his father) and was constantly shaking his leg.

Session focused on supporting Maddox in processing thoughts and emotions - used client-centered play therapy to engage Maddox. Provided reflective listening, validated emotions as he expressed anger today toward others in his life. Provided positive encouragement to him for being able to express his feelings. He wanted to leave early, however, was able to stay when clinician let him know we still had time left. Maddox tends to function in fight mode, wanting to defend and protect himself often. Clinician talked to him about how sessions can focus on teaching him some coping strategies, however, he seemed uninterested.

Plan: Meet next week, continue to provide him with a space to process emotions regarding life events.

Maddox was brought to session by his father.

Maddox presented with an angry and guarded mood, affect congruent, well-groomed.

Session focus was to support Maddox in processing thoughts & feelings. He initially did not want to come into session. Clinician sat with him and his father for awhile and provided him with different choices - having his dad walk him in, coming in part of the time, etc. His responses were often "I don't care". He eventually made the choice to have his father come back with him. His father stayed for a bit before Maddox was okay with meeting with clinician individually. Used client-centered play therapy to engage him and eventually his mood lightened up as evidenced by him smiling and laughing. Provided reflective listening, validated emotions, provided positive encouragement. Themes of building and attack.

Plan: Meet next week - continue to support Maddox in having a place to process difficult emotions and work towards helping him to understand need for coping strategies.

Maddox was brought to session by his father. Clinician let him know that she received his email yesterday.

Maddox presented with a happy mood, affect congruent, well-groomed.

Session focus was to support Maddox in processing thoughts & feelings and in developing emotion regulation skills. Provided reflective listening, validated emotions, provided positive encouragement. Themes of building and attack in play today. Clinician introduced concept of energy and the energy thermometer Maddox was able to tie an emotion he has to one of his behaviors. There were times when clinician started a conversation and Maddox did not want to participate.

Hello...

I'm using voice to text so I hope it comes through o k. If you're able to give me a call to go over my concerns. I would appreciate it however I understand you are probably very busy.

After speaking with maddox's case manager she brought up the Facts that mom has taught the doctors into giving maddox a d h d medication. I know we've already talked about this. And I gave you my concerns but some important information came up in this meeting Which I would like to inform you of.

Attached you will find the psych evaluation done by the school. In there you will see that maddox Is knot at risk for a d h d. If the doctor would have had this when marisol saw him out to request AD. H d medication then he most likely would not have given it to him.

I can prove that marisol purposely left information out. That would prove that Maddox does not have 80 HD. And I truly believe I have an understanding as to why she is doing what she's doing.

I believe she's going to start medicating him today which breaks my heart. Again, if there's any way I can speak to you I would appreciate it. I'm on the road right now but available for a call at any time

Kind regards,

Ryan

Thank you, kristen!

I really appreciate the quick response.

After speaking with maddox's pcp i found that he was "willing" to try this adhd medication because Marisol had told him that his adhd has a substantial affect on his schooling. I don't believe she offered any information regarding that trauma he's endured or anything regarding the findings of the evaluation you sent me. Maddox's case manager stated this would be helpful to forward to his doctor, so I did just that after receiving it from you.

I have a feeling Marisol may be trying for the IEP again, in the near future, after this new "diagnosis". I will keep you in the loop if anything comes from this.

Thanks again, i really appreciate it.

Kind regards,

Ryan

Reason for Referral

Maddox Michaels is a 7-year-old, male, first grade student at Vivian E. Hussey School. He was referred for a psychoeducational evaluation in order to gain additional information about how hyperactive/impulsive behaviors may be affecting his education. Overall, the focus of this evaluation is to determine if Maddox is eligible to receive special education services as a student with an Other Health Impairment, and to gain an updated understanding of his learning experience at school.

Referral questions include:

- How are attention, executive functions, and impulsive/hyperactive behavior impacting Maddox's learning?
- What supports and/or interventions could be used to help Maddox achieve success in the school setting?

The results of this evaluation will be used to assist the team in determining eligibility under the Other Health Impairment classification.

Background Information

Background information was gathered from a review of Maddox's educational record, previous evaluations, responses on the Teacher Interview Form completed by Ms. Kohler, and responses on the Parent Interview Form completed by Maddox Michaels is a 7-year-old, male, first grade student at Vivian E. Hussey School. He currently lives with his mother and siblings in Berwick, Maine. English is Maddox's primary language and is spoken at home. During pregnancy, Maddox's mother had preeclampsia and high blood pressure that resulted in him being born after 8 and a half months. As an infant, Maddox was colicky, but enjoyed cuddling and was more active and sociable than others. He met all developmental milestones on time and accomplished walking without support early. Maddox has not had any major surgeries and there are no other medical concerns at this time. Maddox does not have any diagnoses and does not currently take any medication. There is no family history of learning or emotional problems.

Kindergarten:

Maddox attended Vivian E. Hussey School for kindergarten with Ms. Childress during the school year of 2021-2022. He was absent for a total of 20 school days throughout the year. Ms. Childress stated, "Maddox has come so far this year! I'm proud of how safe he has been. I'm proud of all the work he has done. He still has some learning to do, but I believe he is ready for that now!" On the Developmental Indicators for the Assessment of Learning, Fourth Edition (DIAL-4) given to Maddox during his kindergarten screening, he scored in the 8%ile on the motor domain, in the 17%ile on the concepts domain, and in the 26%ile on the language domain. These scores indicated a possible developmental delay in Maddox's motor skills. On his term three report card, Maddox was rated as "sometimes shows effort" on 12, and "shows consistent effort" on 1 guiding principles. In math, Maddox was progressing on 11, and meeting 5 standards. In reading, he was beginning on 3, progressing on 11, and meeting 4 standards. Maddox was reading at an independent level of AA, which was equivalent to a preschool level. Maddox did not receive any RTI interventions during kindergarten.

1st Grade:

Currently, Maddox attends Vivian E. Hussey School for first grade with Ms. Kohler. He has been absent for a total of 10 school days so far this year. During district wide NWEA testing this winter, Maddox scored a 158 (17%ile) in math and a 161 (36%ile) in reading. On his most recent report card, Maddox was rated as “sometimes shows effort” on all guiding principles. For math, he was progressing on 3 and meeting two standards. In reading, he was beginning on 4, and progressing on 8. Maddox was reading at an independent level of C, which is equivalent to the end of kindergarten. He started to receive RTI intervention for reading on 3/29/2023.

Interviews:
On the teacher interview form, completed by Ms. Kohler, Maddox’s second grade teacher, she indicated that Maddox has strengths in helping and caring for his friends at school. He also is good at math. However, he has weaknesses in controlling his emotions/behaviors and in reading/writing. She indicated that she was most concerned about Maddox’s behavior. She often sees noncompliance in her classroom. He also gets angry easily which can sometimes result in aggression or verbal threats. She also mentioned that Maddox swears a lot and discusses inappropriate topics in class. For example, he often talks about “gun games” with his friends. For accommodations in the classroom, Maddox is allowed breaks with Ms. Cates the behavior interventionist, preferential seating during lessons, modification of testing materials with sticky notes and whiteboard, and the ability to earn lunch with teachers on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. For specific skills, math, fine motor, attention, social skills, attendance, organizational, and following single step directions were all rated in the average range. Multiple areas were rated in the below average range. These included: math word problems, literacy, phonics, grade level word reading, reading comprehension, spelling, writing, hyperactivity, participation, independent work, following multi-step directions, and following classroom rules.

The parent interview form was not returned.

Systematic Observation in the Learning Environment
This examiner observed Maddox on Wednesday, April 12th, from approximately 9:05-9:35 am during his first grade class with Ms. Kohler. During the observation, there were a total of 16 peers present. The observation took place during math class.

The observation began as Ms. Kohler explained to the class that today during math there would be stations. Each student was assigned one of four different groups. The stations were: direct instruction with Ms. Kohler, fact fluency, Zearn, and a math game. Maddox’s group started with Ms. Kohler’s station. Him and four other students sat around her desk. They began working on a math worksheet. Ms. Kohler explained to them that they would be using different units to measure the length of different objects. First, students used centimeter cubes to measure the length of a feather, a box of french fries, and a firetruck. Maddox worked extremely hard during the first page. He laid out his cubes and counted them next to the object. He wrote his answer and Ms. Kohler reminded the group to write the unit next to their answers as well. “If you don't, I will assume you measured in cupcakes”, joked Ms. Kohler. Maddox continued onto the second page. This time the group measured objects using big paper clips. On the third page, the group used small paper clips. Overall, through this station Maddox was completely on-task. He worked hard and didn’t become distracted. He was the first one to finish in his group. He called for Ms.

Kohler when he was done. She checked it over and told him he did an awesome job. Students then rotated to their second station.
During the second station, Maddox's group transitioned to Zearn. Zearn is an ipad app that allows students to practice different math problems and skills as needed. Maddox sat down at his desk, grabbed his ipad, and scanned his QR code to open the app. He began working. He put his headphones on for one minute and then took them off to ask a peer for help. His peer came over to his desk and helped him with one problem. Maddox then put his headphones back on. Throughout the next several minutes, Maddox sat at his seat actively working on different problems. He took his headphones on and off multiple times but remained focused. Maddox had Zearn open and worked for the entirety of this station. As Ms. Kohler announced for rotation to the next station, Maddox instantly followed the directions by putting away his Ipad and rotated to his third station. The observation concluded at the start of the third station.

Systematic observation is a 10-second partial interval recording system, which compares Maddox's behavior to that of his peers. Every 10 seconds, I marked a behavior code and alternated between Maddox and his peer. Then, I counted codes for on-task and off-task behavior, and calculated total percentages. "Attend" includes looking toward auditory instruction or discussion, or written task, while "Fail to Attend" is looking away or becoming distracted.

	Maddox	Peers
Attend	98%	96 %
Fail to Attend	2%	4%

As the data suggest, Maddox was on-task for 98% of intervals. This was at a higher rate when compared to his peers in his class. Maddox was extremely focused during both math stations. He completed his work and I could tell he was trying hard. He displayed great rapport with Ms. Kohler and also displayed the ability to ask his peers for help. I did not observe any extreme inattentive behaviors or impulsive actions. Overall, Maddox displayed as an attentive, well-behaved student.

Assessment: BASC-3

The BASC-3 consists of two scales, which measure positive (adaptive) traits and behaviors, as well as negative (clinical) traits and behaviors. Results are presented as T-scores with a mean of 50 and a standard deviation of 10. On the clinical scale, scores 70 and above are clinically significant (bold), while scores between 60 and 69 are at-risk (italic). On the adaptive scale, scores 30 and below are considered clinically significant (bold), while scores between 31 and 40 are at-risk (italic).

The teacher scale was completed by Ms Kohler, Maddox's first grade teacher. The parent scale was not returned. All validity index scores were considered acceptable and indicative of valid results.

Composites	Description	Teacher (Kohler) Standard Score	Parent Standard Score
Externalizing Problems	Disruptive, uncontrolled behavior	65 AR
Internalizing Problems	Over-controlled behavior	65 AR
Behavioral Symptoms	General level of functioning	61 AR
School Problems	Academic difficulties	56	NA

Clinical Scales	Description	Teacher (Kohler) Standard Score	Parent Standard Score
Hyperactivity	Tendency to be overly active, rush through work, & act without thinking	57
Aggression	Tendency to act in a hostile manner that is threatening to others	66 AR
Conduct Problems	Tendency to engage in antisocial & rule-breaking behavior	68 AR
Anxiety	Tendency to be nervous, fearful, or worried about real or imagined problems	64 AR
Depression	Feelings of unhappiness, sadness, or stress	59
Somatization	Tendency to be overly sensitive to relatively minor physical problems	63 AR
Atypicality	Tendency to behave in ways that are odd or associated with psychosis	50
Withdrawal	Tendency to evade others to avoid social contact	68 AR
Attention Problems	Tendency to be easily distracted, unable to concentrate	51
Learning Problems	Presence of academic difficulties, understanding or completing homework	61 AR	NA

When interpreting these results, the Externalizing Problems, Internalizing Problems, and Behavioral Symptoms Index were all rated in the at-risk range. This indicates that Ms. Kohler endorsed slight concerns with a wide range of Maddox's behavior within her classroom. When examining specific Clinical Scales or smaller subsets of behavior, no areas were endorsed as being clinically significant. However, withdrawal, aggression, and conduct were endorsed as the biggest areas of concern. These areas were rated towards the higher end of the at-risk range. This indicates that Maddox sometimes has the tendency to avoid others, may engage in rule breaking behavior, and may act aggressively to others. Anxiety, Somatization, and learning problems were also endorsed on the low end of the at-risk range.

Content Scales	Description	Teacher (Kohler) Standard Score	Parent Standard Score
Anger Control	The tendency to become irritated and/or angry quickly and impulsively coupled with an inability to regulate affect and self-control.	68 AR
Bullying	The tendency to be intrusive, cruel, threatening, or forceful to get what is wanted through manipulation or coercion.	77 CS
Emotional Self-control	The ability to regulate one's affect and emotions in response to environmental changes.	63 AR
Executive Functioning	The ability to control behavior by planning, anticipating, inhibiting, or maintaining goal-directed activity, and by reacting appropriately to environmental feedback in a purposeful, meaningful way.	60 AR
Negative Emotionality	The tendency to react in an overly negative way to any changes in everyday activity or routines.	67 AR
Resiliency	The ability to access both internal and external support systems to alleviate stress and overcome adversity.	39 AR
ADHD Probability	An indication of the similarity between the obtained behavioral ratings and the ratings of children having ADHD	55

When examining the Content Scales, bullying was endorsed as being clinically significant. This indicates that Maddox may engage in bullying related behavior such as being intrusive, cruel, threatening, or forceful to get what is wanted through manipulation or coercion. Anger control, emotional self-control, and negative emotionality were all in the at-risk range. These scores indicate that Maddox may have a difficult time controlling his emotions. He may react negatively to changes in his routine and have difficulty with emotional regulation. He may lack the ability to access internal and external supports when needed. Maddox's ADHD probability was in the normal range and indicates that his behavioral ratings were not similar to the ratings of others with the diagnosis of ADHD.

EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONING INDEX SUMMARY

Overall Executive Functioning Index	Problem Solving Index	Attentional Control Index	Behavioral Control Index	Emotional Control Index
Not Elevated Raw Score: 46	Not Elevated Raw Score: 19	Not Elevated Raw Score: 9	Not Elevated Raw Score: 8	Elevated Raw Score: 10

On the Executive Functioning Index Summary, Maddox's behavior was not rated as elevated for overall executive functioning. This indicates that he has the ability to plan and control decisions. Additionally, the Problem Solving Index, Attention Control Index, and the Behavioral Control Index were not elevated. This provides support that Maddox problem solves and controls his attention well within the classroom environment. However, the emotional control index was in the elevated range and coincides with the at-risk scores on the Content Scales. Maddox may benefit from social and emotional training that focuses on building support for controlling emotions. Overall, these scores provide support that emotional control is impacting his learning instead of symptoms related to ADHD.

Composite	Description	Teacher (Kohler) Standard Score	Parent Standard Score
Adaptive Skills	Daily living skills	37 AR

Adaptive Scales	Description	Teacher (Kohler) Standard Score	Parent Standard Score
Adaptability	Ability to adapt readily to changes in the environment	30 CS
Social Skills	Skills necessary for interacting successfully with peers & adults	44
Functional Communication	Ability to express ideas & communicate in a way others can understand	39 AR
Leadership	Skills associated with accomplishing academic, social, or community goals	47
Study Skills	Skills conducive to strong academic performance	33 AR	NA
Activities of Daily Living	Skills associated with performing everyday tasks in an acceptable manner	N/A

When interpreting adaptive skills or daily living skills, this was a slight area of concern at school. The Adaptive Skills Composite was a 37 or in the at-risk range. Specifically, adaptability was rated in the clinically significant range with a score of 30. Ms. Kohler indicates that Maddox has difficulty with adapting to changes in his environment. Additionally, functional communication and study skills were in the at-risk range.

In the additional comments section, Ms. Kohler indicated emotional strength by stating, “Maddox is very caring and checks on his friends to make sure they are okay. He can talk about his feelings when he is in a calm mood.” For specific emotional concerns, she stated, “Maddox gets angry. He worries a lot about his home life. He can also be inappropriate with language and classroom topics.”

Assessment: Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder Test, Second Edition (ADHDT-2)

The Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder Test, Second Edition (ADHDT-2) helps clinicians and teachers quickly identify ADHD in students and estimate its severity. It meets diagnostic criteria for ADHD published in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, Fifth Edition (DSM-5). Thirty-three clearly stated items are grouped into two subscales—Inattention and Hyperactivity/Impulsivity—and describe the characteristic behaviors of individuals with ADHD. Each item is ranked on a scale of 0-Never Observed, 1-Occasionally Observed, 2-Often Observed, and 3-Very Often Observed.

Scaled Scores for each subscale have a mean of 10 and standard deviation of 3 (average scores range from 8-12). On the ADHDT-2 the higher the Scaled Score the more severe the ADHD behavior is present. An ADHD Index score is also provided from the sum of Scaled Scores that provides the probability of ADHD. The Examiner’s Manual provides evidence that the ADHDT-2 provides a reliable and valid measure of ADHD in children and adolescents.

Ms. Kohler, Maddox’s first grade teacher, completed an ADHDT-2 rating scale on Maddox's behaviors that she observes in her classroom. The parent form was not completed.

Clinical Subscales	Teacher (Kohler) Scaled Score	Percentile Rank	Parent Scaled Score	Percentile Rank
Inattention	4	2%ile
Hyperactivity/Impulsivity	6	9%ile

ADHD Index	Teacher (Kohler)	Parent
Index Score	71-Possible

Index interpretation: ≤54=Very Unlikely, 55-70=Unlikely, 71-79=Possible, 80-89=Likely, and ≥90=Very Likely

In the school setting, hyperactivity/impulsivity was slightly more endorsed when compared to inattentive behaviors. The Hyperactive/Impulsive Scale received a scale score of an 6 or in the 9th percentile when compared to other students who have a diagnosis of ADHD. However, no specific behaviors were endorsed as happening very often. The Inattentive Scale received a scaled score of a 2 or in the 2nd percentile. Similarly, no inattentive behaviors were endorsed as happening very often. Maddox's ADHD Index score was a 71 or one point into the possible range. Overall, these scores indicate that Maddox is displaying a low to below average amount of both inattentive and hyperactive/impulsive behaviors ADHD at school. These scores provide support that ADHD related behaviors are not causing an adverse effect on Maddox at score.

Summary & Diagnostic Impressions

Through a record review, observation, interview, and standardized rating assessments, this examiner has compiled an individualized psychoeducational profile for Maddox.

Indirect behavior rating scales were administered to gain supplemental information about Maddox's behaviors within the classroom. The Behavior Assessment System for Children, 3rd Edition (BASC-3) was completed by Ms. Kohler and the results indicated that she endorsed slight concerns with a wide range of Maddox's behavior within her classroom. The Externalizing Problems, Internalizing Problems, and Behavioral Symptoms Index were all rated in the at-risk range. When examining specific Clinical Scales or smaller subsets of behavior, no areas were endorsed as being clinically significant. However, withdrawal, aggression, and conduct were endorsed as the biggest areas of concern. These areas were rated towards the higher end of the at-risk range. Anxiety, Somatization, and learning problems were also endorsed on the low end of the at-risk range. When examining the Content Scales, bullying was endorsed as being clinically significant. Anger control, emotional self-control, and negative emotionality were all in the at-risk range. Maddox's ADHD probability was in the normal range and indicates that his behavioral ratings were not similar to the ratings of others with the diagnosis of ADHD. Additionally, Maddox's adaptive behavior was also a slight area of concern for Ms. Kohler as the Adaptive Behavior Composite was rated in the at-risk range. Specifically, concerns around adaptability, functional communication, and study skills were endorsed as at-risk.

To gain specific information around Maddox's behaviors related to the symptoms of ADHD, the Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder Test, Second Edition (ADHDT-2) was administered. Results indicated that in the school setting, hyperactivity/impulsivity was slightly more endorsed when compared to inattentive behaviors. The Hyperactive/Impulsive Scale received a scale score of an 6 or in the 9th percentile when compared to other students who have a diagnosis of ADHD. However, no specific behaviors were endorsed as happening very often. The Inattentive Scale received a scaled score of a 2 or in the 2nd percentile. Similarly, no inattentive behaviors were endorsed as happening very often. Maddox's ADHD Index score was a 71 or one point into the possible range. Overall, these scores indicate that Maddox is displaying a low to below average amount of both inattentive and hyperactive/impulsive behaviors ADHD at school. These scores provide support that ADHD related behaviors are not causing an adverse effect on Maddox at score

Additionally, during my observation of Maddox in his learning environment, he was on-task for 98 percent of the time. This was at a higher rate when compared to his peers in his class. Maddox was extremely focused during both math stations. He completed his work and I could tell he was trying hard. He displayed great rapport with Ms. Kohler and also displayed the ability to ask his peers for help. I did not observe any extreme inattentive behaviors or impulsive actions. Overall, Maddox displayed as an attentive, well-behaved student.

In summary, this report has gathered an updated psychoeducation profile for Maddox. Based on the results from this evaluation, emotional control and emotional adaptability appear to be causing an adverse effect on Maddox in his learning environment. ADHD related behavior, such as impulsivity, hyperactivity, and inattention, were not endorsed throughout this evaluation and do not seem to be contributing to his difficulties.

Evaluation reports shall not make either eligibility or placement determinations. These determinations are the responsibility of the IEP Team, pursuant to federal and state law.

Recommendations

To help increase Maddox's emotional control and adaptability:

- provide additional prompts to accurately identify the way he may be feeling
- Provide choices for Maddox when he becomes dysregulated to help him explain the way he feels
- Provide positive feedback when Maddox positively adapts to a change in his environment .
- Consider social and emotional learning experiences to build recognition about different emotions and build social and emotional skills.
- Consider implementing zones of regulation education for Maddox that may help him understand his level of emotionality for certain situations
- Continue to provide emotional supports for Maddox in the school setting
- Continue to allow access to Ms. Cate's classroom to help regulate emotional outbursts

To help reduce withdrawal:

- Consider implementing a peer group for Maddox that focuses on creating relationships and building social skills with same aged peers
- Positively reinforcement Maddox when he engages with peers in a productive manner
- Consider other classroom activities that may help Maddox create a positive relationship with his peers

It has been a pleasure to evaluate Maddox. Please contact me with any additional questions or concerns about the results presented in this report. For further information, please contact me at 207-698-4465 EXT 22504 or mark.leahy@msad60.org

Ms. Kolher stated that Maddox has been doing well in the classroom. He is advocating for himself. He has done well on the classroom math assessments. In addition he is doing well in his flex group. He will ask for breaks to go see Mrs. Cates. His behaviors have been improving since January.

Mrs. Cates also stated that she has seen improvements in his behaviors. He has had some sadness due to not being able to see dad, but he is not handling this with anger which is impressive. The school team has been more concerned about his behavior than attentional issues.
Mr. Leahy reviewed his assessments. The results of the evaluation indictated that Maddox does not exhibit an attention deficit hyperactivity disorder. Maddox's emotional reactivity and behavior control are impacting him more so than attention and impulsivity.

4. Describe any other options that the Team, which includes the parent, considered and the reasons why those options were rejected:

The team rejected identifying Maddox as a student with an Other Health Impairment due to ADHD as Maddox did not fit the criteria and he benefits from the services provided by Mrs. Cates, the Behavior Interventionist, and his classroom teacher to meet his emotional and behavioral needs.

5. Describe any other factors that are relevant to the SAU's proposed or refused action(s) described above:

Introductions were made.
Confidentiality was reviewed.
Purpose of the meeting was to review testing.

6. Description of the points made by the parent including the parent's description of their child's progress:

Mr. Michaels stated that it was good to hear that his behaviors are not as severe. He is glad he has some resources at school to aid him with his emotions and behaviors.

As parents of a child with a disability or (suspected disability) you have protections under the procedural safeguards of the MUSER. For initial referrals, a copy of those safeguards is enclosed. Urgent: Seeking Assistance to Address Concerns about Marisol's Abusive Actions

Dear Chelcie,

I hope this message finds you well. I am reaching out to you with a heavy heart, as I feel that my concerns regarding the well-being of my children are not being taken seriously by those involved. After not being able to speak with you as planned today, I'm unsure when I will here from you next. Marisol is already planning to withold the kids, yet again, on monday if school is cancelled due to a storm. She refuses any other civil and "safe" option. She's threatened sole custody and an emergency PFA order against me in the last day simply for communicating about maddox and the situation surrounding the update i recieved from his doctor.

Marisol's actions, including abuse of the legal system and CPS, are deeply troubling. Her deceptive tactics and manipulative behavior have allowed her to escape accountability, and she consistently discredits anyone who speaks against her. Regrettably, attempts at civil co-parenting have been unsuccessful, and I find myself embarrassed to be associated with her due to the drama and problems she brings, with little regard for how it affects our children.

Attached to this email, you will find a conversation via our parenting app regarding our child's ADHD medication. I have maintained a non-confrontational stance, yet Marisol projects her own actions onto me, making honest discussions about our children's well-being nearly impossible.

I feel helpless and frustrated as every system I've engaged with has failed to protect my children. I am seeking your guidance on additional measures I can take to escalate this matter and involve more people in uncovering the truth about Marisol's abusive actions and the detrimental impact on our children.

Your assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated. I believe that with your support, we can work towards a resolution that prioritizes the well-being of our children.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Ryan michaels

Chelcie,

I also wanted to bring to your attention a recent incident involving Marisol and the ongoing challenges I am facing in co-parenting.

Marisol reached out to me tonight and stated there may be no school on monday, which is my day with the kids. She, yet again, stated that the drop off will be at the police department. Despite expressing my disagreement with transitions at the PD repeatedly over many months, Marisol took it upon herself to contact Renee on social media upon my opposition to this request. Unfortunately, she has also perpetuated the false claim that the PD is the "safest" option for everyone involved.

Marisol's inappropriate, unstable, and toxic behavior, coupled with her inability to prioritize the well-being of the children, is deeply concerning. Her actions have infringed on my rights, freedoms, and even made false accusations publicly on social media. This has even extended to reaching out to my coworkers, my partner's ex, and my employers with damaging statements. Most statements are directly to people who are frequently around my boys.

I am concerned that Marisol's actions are hindering my ability to legally protect my kids. Seeking emergency custody now might be misconstrued as retaliation, and I fear facing additional false accusations in court. No matter what action i try to take to protect my kids it will inevitably cause immediate retaliation from Marisol and likely no help will be given.

I have requested that Renee not engage with Marisol's antics and refrain from responding. While I am tempted to address Marisol directly, I believe the best course of action is to avoid further conflict, as engaging with her has proven unproductive in the past.

I feel stuck and unsure about the next steps. Your guidance and support in navigating this challenging situation would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your understanding and assistance.

Best regards,

Ryan

Ps. I attached the screenshot of her reaching out to my partner, renee.

Yesterday's events/communications

2 messages

Hi Chelcie,

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to bring to your attention some recent developments regarding communications and childcare arrangements involving Marisol.

Attached, you'll find our exchanges from yesterday, detailing several concerning incidents:

Marisol contacted me yesterday morning regarding a matter concerning the kids before I was made aware of an incident involving the boys and their mom at YCARE.

Upon checking her phone, Renee also discovered missed calls from Marisol, despite previous requests to communicate through designated channels for the sake of maintaining healthy boundaries. Marisol's disregard for these boundaries is troubling, especially considering past instances of harassment via social media. She was never given Renee's personal phone number, and has never showed any interest in working with renee civily. If you remember the last several times she witheld the kids from me due to my refusal to meet at the PD renee had offered to pick them up and to be there for the boys. Marisol became very rude and spoke ill of renee and also stated she's not to be involved with the boys and to "stay out" of her "business". Yet now she's randomly on talking terms and feels its appropriate to seek out renees personal phone and call her? Despite the fact that renee gave her a specific phone number to use for communication? It's very tough and we are both trying so hard to avoid any drama or conflict with marisol and to simply be there for the kids.

Following the YCARE incident, I was informed by the teacher about what transpired, prompting me to document the events and reach out to you for further guidance.

Last night, Marisol contacted me regarding a summer program for the kids, a topic Renee and I had been planning to discuss with her. I proceeded to sign them up, only to receive a negative response from Marisol, escalating the situation unnecessarily.

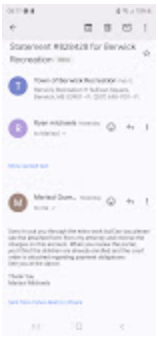

Marisol's reaction, as evidenced by her email response (also atrached), indicates a pattern of instigating drama and conflict, including baseless legal actions. It's clear that her behavior is detrimental to the well-being of the children and adds unnecessary stress to our arrangements.

I wanted to keep you informed of these developments and seek your advice on how best to address these concerns moving forward. Please let me know your thoughts on how we can handle this situation effectively.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Best regards,
Ryan

On Tuesday, March 12, 2024, at 7:55 AM, I, Jordan Godin, had a phone call with my staff member, Edith Quint. Edith was calling to inform me of an incident that took place this morning with Ryan Michael's two children.

Edith explained that Marisol, the mother of the two children, dropped off glasses forgotten by one of the children at Marisol's residence and left. A few moments later, Marisol returned, following behind the vehicle of Renee, Ryan's girlfriend.

Edith explained that Marisol demanded that we not allow Renee to drop off the children. Edith continued telling me that she told Marisol that we needed some legal documentation stating this to do this. Edith accepted both children into our beforecare program. Edith continued to explain that after interacting with Marisol, Marisol blocked Renee in the school's parking lot where our beforecare is located. Edith said that both children saw this take place.

For further questions, please contact me, Jordan Godin, at the Sanford-Springvale YMCA, (207)324-4942 or email at jgodin@sanfordymca.org.

Good afternoon,

Attached are the texts that marisol purposely sent me maliciously (i changed my number last october so she couldnt have it).

Attached you will also gind our conversation via the parenting app from yesterday as well.

Notice that instead of defending myself and responding to all of her drama and false claims I am instead detaching from all of those texts as it's never productive. She will always act in bad faith which makes things so hard, especially when she's been purposely difficult, controlling, and harrasing me about everything under the sun.

Lastly, where you able to get ahold of her yesterday? I'm curious what she said....as she began harrassing me after you mentioned you'd call her:(

Kind regards,

Ryan

I will be sending a detailed email once my kids are in bed in order to not miss out on time with them.

For now, the short story is:

1. Maddox and Maverick reported that marisol had yelled at them and broke their toy gun in front of them out of anger.

2. The boys reported that marisol, yet again, instructed the boys to stop talking to anyone about what happens in their (moms) home.

3. The boys reported, yet again, that marisol told them that their father (me) is a terrible person and openly spoke poorly of me and my "brain injury". And id like to remind you I have already given recorded proof of the boys saying similiar, and even worse, things. I have even informed you that Ycare staff has informed me multiple times of marisol speaking poorly of me in front of them, other staff, and other kids...even going as far as telling them there's an active warrant for my arrest...remember...because I had dropped macericks glasses off as stated in the prior emails.

I know none of this is new to any of you.

You're all culpable of every ounce of this detrimental abuse these two boys endure until you do your job and actually step in. Whats to stop marisol from fully snapping and hospitalizing, if not fatally, injuring these kids?

I will write a detailed note later. I write this now in hopes you guys will choose to finally take action and protect my children from this abuser.

I will also provide the recordings obtained corroborate all ive said.

Ill pray that in the mean time you guys will take meaningful action to protect these children.

However...I will again on record request a safety plan to protect my kids. You have failed to do so everytime, and yet everytime you are all presented with the opportunity to do the right thing. I hope you choose to do so sooner than later. My kids will be with their abuser for 2 whole weeks coming up and it makes me physically ill to know what they will inevitably endure for abuse...and scares me to no end that one day something could go too far. Help.my.kids.

Kind regards,

Ryan

Dear Amy,

I am writing to express my deep concern and frustration regarding the lack of response to my previous emails addressing critical issues regarding the safety and well-being of my children. It has now been over 72 hours since I reached out, and unfortunately, I have not received any acknowledgment or resolution to the concerns I raised.

As a parent committed to protecting my children from any form of abuse, I find the current situation utterly unacceptable. Despite my repeated attempts to communicate and address these pressing matters, it seems that my efforts have fallen on deaf ears.

Regarding the recordings I mentioned previously, I continue to encounter difficulties uploading them due to their size. However, I want to emphasize that these recordings contain vital information that sheds light on the challenges my family is facing. While I understand the limitations, I urge you to prioritize reviewing them at your earliest convenience.

Furthermore, I want to stress the urgency of the situation. My children's well-being is at stake, and every moment that passes without a concrete plan for their safety is deeply concerning. I have not been provided with any reassurance or support from you or the OCFS, despite my repeated requests for a safety plan.

Specifically, I would appreciate clarification on the following points:

Why have my numerous requests for a safety plan been disregarded, and what steps are being taken to address this issue?

Why are my questions and concerns consistently being overlooked or evaded?

Despite the severity of the situation, why have neither you nor the OCFS offered any resources to assist my children? Additionally, how many investigations have been conducted thus far?

What proactive measures are being implemented to safeguard my children from the ongoing abuse they have been subjected to repeatedly?

I sincerely hope to receive a prompt and comprehensive response to these inquiries. My children's safety is paramount, and I trust that you share my commitment to ensuring their well-being.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Ryan

Hi Ryan,

Thank you for the information and attachments.

I have shared your email with my direct supervisor, Amy Cilley.

We do need certified medical documents from your providers to ensure this information that you are reporting is accurate.

It would be very helpful if you would be willing to sign releases for your providers.

Would you be willing to sign any releases for us to gather that information?

Thank you,

Christina

Subject: Subject: Urgent: Request for Intervention Regarding CPS Inaction and Misconduct

Dear OCFS Leadership,

I am writing to bring to your attention a concerning issue regarding the recent interactions with Chelcie, the caseworker assigned to the case concerning Marisol's abuse, and her supervisor Christina.

Upon reviewing the email exchange between Chelcie, Christina, and myself below, it has become evident that once again, CPS is failing to take a stand against Marisol, who has a documented track record of being found guilty of domestic violence in court, including a recent conviction in 2019 for abusing her child, lying, manipulating, stalking, criminal acts such as following my kids and fiance to school and getting inside my car to intimidate my fiance and engage with the kids leading to yelling at the staff and causing a scene in front of kids, staff, and my family.

Furthermore, it is apparent that Chelcie and Christina are acting in bad faith by refusing to address the questions I have posed in good faith. Christina's refusal to respond in writing, stating a preference against emails or texts, raises serious concerns about transparency and accountability within the agency.

This ongoing inaction and misconduct are not only detrimental to my children and my family, who continue to suffer from abuse, but also exacerbate severe distress and developmental delays among my children.

I implore the leadership of OCFS to step in and address these issues promptly. It is imperative that corrective measures are taken to ensure the safety and well-being of vulnerable individuals under the care and supervision of CPS. Your intervention is crucial in bringing about positive change and restoring faith in the system.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I eagerly await your response and action on this urgent issue.

Sincerely,

Ryan Michaels

Christine,

Due to technical limitations related to email file size, I am unable to send all the of the pictures related to my condition post assault.

I also feel compelled to address a more distressing matter. Reflecting on my recent experiences and comparing them to what Mandon has allegedly endured brings to light a glaring disparity that I find both confusing and deeply troubling. My injuries from a violent assault—a broken skull, bleeding brain, facial bruises, a fractured orbital bone—were severe and visibly evident. The idea that someone could undergo a similar or worse assault without showing any physical signs strains credulity to its breaking point.

This discrepancy, in my view, underscores a significant failing in the protective measures that should safeguard our children. It's challenging to reconcile the severity of my own injuries with claims made about Mandon without concluding that there's a critical oversight in the investigation or intervention process. Much like every other process I've had to work with after the unjust arrest and cps' lies, manipulation, and breach of their own policies when concluding an investigation without even interviewing me.

I urge you, with the utmost respect and gravity, to reconsider the situation with fresh eyes. It's not just about connecting dots; it's about recognizing when the picture those dots are supposed to form doesn't match the reality we see. Our children deserve a safe environment, and it's paramount that we, as adults and protectors, do not falter in our duty to provide it.

I implore you to take immediate and decisive action to reassess the situation concerning our family's safety and well-being. My children cannot afford any further delays or inaction.

I am willing to cooperate fully and provide whatever information or documentation is necessary. However, my cooperation hinges on a mutual commitment to take concrete steps to address and rectify the dangers facing my children.

I look forward to your prompt response and action.

Next steps as in no findings again? It's no surprise. It's disgusting.

Why is following my doctors recomendations in question?

You didn't evade any questions? Let's take a look. Please see attachments.

Cps' lack of due diligence, work ethic, and morales leaves innocent people suffering. Anyone involved in all of this should be ashamed. My kids are the ones that hurt the most from your lack of follow through and refusal to take action.

I look forward to you choosing not to evade my questions and offering an explanation as to why you just claimed innocence regarding evading, yet I have so much proof you have been? I have been lied to and manipulated enough.

Fix this. Im fed up. Save my children from the hell you are allowing them to be in.

As I said, I work. And I'm no longer giving you my time. I will continue to work through the ombudsman, senators, lawyers, etc.

I have welcomed you guys everytime and begged for help.

Even now you evade my questions I asked in the last email.

None of you act in good faith and I'm done. I will deal with all of this in court.

You asked me what times I'm available for...and then I not only gave them to you but I also told you next week won't work for me.

You then reply and tell me 9am next week (which I said I will be at work, and I can't do) and tell me it works best for you?

Every decision made will be thoroughly documented, evaluated, and communicated for accountability. The evidence of Marisol's mistreatment towards my children is substantial, including stalking, harassment, and various forms of abuse. My patience has run out, and I'm fully committed to obtaining justice and holding everyone involved accountable. This won't stop with congressional inquiries; I'll reach out to lawyers, DAs, state officials, and beyond if necessary. The public will know. I demand immediate action to protect my children and hold Marisol accountable for her unbelievable behavior.

You may contact me today for a zoom. You may contact me during the times I gave you.

Hi Christina,

Thank you for your prompt response.

Regarding your inquiry about my availability, I am available for a meeting at the following times:

- Anytime tomorrow after 12 pm.

-Between 8 am to 10 am on Thursday or after 3 pm.

-All weekend.

Please note the flexibility this week is due to my VA medical appointments for injuries I endured, for which I've taken two vacation days. Next week will be more challenging as I'll be working from 6 am to 4 pm every day.

Regarding your mention of "concerns," may I inquire about the specifics? I hope it's about ensuring my boys' safety and minimizing their exposure to any potential risks.

You asked about the children's school attendance today. Is there any specific reason for this inquiry?

I provided Chelcie with these available times, but she requested that I directly convey them to you.

Lastly, I must emphasize that I've reached a point where I can no longer tolerate inaction. Inaction, in itself, is a decisive action that can have severe consequences.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon to schedule a meeting.

Best regards,

Ryan

> Hello,

So that you are aware, today is Easter and I was supposed to drop the kids off at Marisol's home which is legal per the PFA and decree. I did not drop them off out of fear she would attempt to get me arrested maliciously and without cause. This is also in line with your advice which was to stay away from her house entirely. I listened.

Please see the attachment that highlights the relevant language in the PFA. It states that I'm prohibited from repeatedly, and without reasonable cause being at her home.

Please also see attached PFA that says, " the defendant's right of contact is outlined in the divorce decree" on page three next to "(P)".

Please then see the attached divorce decree which states, " plaintiff, (dad) shall drop the children off at defendant's (moms) residence..."

In conclusion, understand that Marisol tried to get me arrested for delivering my son's glasses to her mailbox as she went off on me for not having them this past Wednesday, 5 days ago. Mailbox accessed by a public sidewalk and was there with reasonable cause and did not go there repeatedly. I was well within the law and everything done was in good faith.

Most importantly, you now see in the message from Marisol below expected me to show up at her house to drop the kids off today. She even took a picture from her car down her driveway, attached to an email from Marisol to me at 8 am this morning to show that I didn't show up to her house at the agreed upon time which was agreed on weeks attempts to get me arrested for placing my son's glasses in her mailbox with no bad intent or doing anything wrong, and yet now she expects me at her home days later?

Marisol's abuse and manipulation are clear to all. I don't cause drama. I don't abuse. I'm trying to live my life and protect my children. Yet no one does anything and i am targeted and failed by every system in place and more importantly aren't my children i've been screaming for help from everyone for years.

I hope this can make it to the DA as well.

And I also hope this further proves Marisol's insanity, abuse, manipulation, and should serve as a lesson learned to not be so trigger-happy to arrest me, distrust me, and to understand men can have trauma and be abused too.

I am done being taken advantage of and having my family's life ruined because of everyone's ignorance and failures to do their due diligence and their job. I will be filing congressional, I will not rest until Maine's PFA laws are fixed to stop enabling mentally ill abusers to further abuse people and ruin their lives. Why can't we mirror NH's PFA law? You know, the one that will drop a PFA if the plaintiff decides to violate it like Marisol did for months.

Someone in this email needs to advocate for change, for children's safety, for all people's safety.

If not, you're only becoming part of the problem by hearing and seeing further proof that my kids and I are suffering and no system is doing any due diligence to help. I will not rest until justice is served and no one else ever has to live this nightmare As I have and continue to do.

Thank you,

Ryan michaels

Oh, and please see that attached report from Ycare, the before and after school care program, that describes Marisol's criminal behavior towards my kids and my fiance. mind you this was at a school location and in front of many children and staff. This is who all of you are letting get away with anything she wants. And she wants me to suffer and also has no care for our children along the way. Marisol has been convicted of abuse towards her daughter. Her first guilty charge was in 2001, I was 9 years old at that time! People need to open their eyes and put effort into doing the RIGHT thing and protect people from this abuse.

Previously you stated that the boys would be dropped off at my place this morning at 8am.

It is now 8:10 and they haven't arrived. Has something changed? What time will the boys be coming?

Dear Amy,

I would like to express my deep concern and frustration regarding the ongoing investigations involving my family, particularly those concerning Marisol. This communication is not only a plea for help but also a quest for clarity and transparency from your department, which has been noticeably absent throughout our distressing ordeal.

I find it disconcerting that it was only after I began advocating more assertively for my children's safety, pushing beyond my limits to ensure their well-being, that I found myself under scrutiny by your team. This shift occurred after three prior investigations, during which my role and actions were never questioned. The timing raises significant concerns about the motivations and fairness of the inquiry process, especially when the primary goal should be the protection and welfare of my children.

Child Protective Services (CPS) plays a crucial role in safeguarding the most vulnerable members of our society from harm and abuse. The agency's mission is not only to investigate allegations but also to provide support, resources, and interventions necessary to ensure a safe and nurturing environment for every child. This noble purpose underscores the importance of taking every report and situation seriously, assessing needs accurately, and acting swiftly to prevent any further harm to those under your protection.

It is highly troubling that throughout the four investigations over the past year, my attempts to secure help and resources for my children were ignored. No safety plan was provided, despite my explicit requests. This lack of support and intervention not only endangers my children's well-being but also contradicts the very essence of CPS's responsibilities. My family and I are left feeling vulnerable, unsupported, and misunderstood by the very institution that should be our haven.

The absence of clear communication, guidance, and tangible support from CPS has left us in a state of uncertainty and fear. It is imperative that your department reassesses its approach to our case, ensuring that the focus remains steadfastly on the safety and well-being of my children. We need to see a commitment to transparency, with clear explanations provided for all actions taken and decisions made regarding our situation.

If CPS cannot offer the support and protection my children desperately need, or if transparency continues to be an issue, I respectfully request the contact information of your supervisor. It is my hope that escalating this matter will prompt a more thorough and compassionate response, leading to the effective intervention we have long been denied.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter. I look forward to your prompt reply and am eager to work collaboratively towards a resolution that prioritizes the safety and happiness of my children.

Sincerely,

Ryan michaels

Dear Amy,

I must express my deep disappointment at the lack of response to my previous communication dated April 3rd, 2024. It is with a heavy heart and growing concern for the safety and well-being of my children that I feel compelled to reach out to you once again.

The ongoing negligence and lack of action from your department in addressing the serious allegations of abuse against my ex-wife, Marisol, have left my family in a state of perpetual fear and uncertainty. With each passing day that goes by without a meaningful response or intervention from Child Protective Services (CPS), my boys are subjected to continued harm and trauma.

I cannot overstate the detrimental impact that this negligence is having on my children and our family as a whole. Every moment that CPS fails to act effectively and promptly, my boys are left vulnerable to further abuse and psychological distress. Their trust in the system, already fragile, is eroding with each instance of inaction or oversight. This lack of trust is being shared by me, my family, friends, ombudsman employees, lawyers, colleagues, teachers, doctors, daycare providers/directors, various health professionals, and more.

The repercussions of your department's inaction extend far beyond the immediate neglect of their duties. By disregarding our pleas for help and support, CPS is sending a clear message to my children: that their safety and well-being are not a priority, and that their cries for help fall on deaf ears. This betrayal of trust not only damages their faith in the system but also exacerbates the trauma they have already endured at the hands of their abuser.

It is imperative that you and your team understand the gravity of the situation and the urgent need for action. The longer CPS remains complacent in the face of such serious allegations, the more profound the impact on my children's physical and emotional health. Each day that passes without resolution further perpetuates their suffering and prolongs the cycle of abuse they have endured for far too long.

I implore you to prioritize the safety and well-being of my children above all else. This is not a matter to be taken lightly or brushed aside. The lives of two innocent boys hang in the balance, and every moment of delay only serves to compound their pain and suffering.

I expect, at the very least, a response acknowledging the receipt of this email and a commitment to taking immediate action to address our concerns. Anything less would be a grave disservice to my children and a failure of your duty to protect the most vulnerable members of our society.

I eagerly await your prompt response and earnestly hope that we can work together towards a resolution that prioritizes the safety and happiness of my children above all else.

Sincerely,

Ryan Michaels

Dear OCFS Leadership,

I am writing to bring to your attention a concerning issue regarding the recent interactions with Chelcie, the caseworker assigned to the case concerning Marisol's abuse, and her supervisor Christina.

Upon reviewing the email exchange between Chelcie, Christina, and myself below, it has become evident that once again, CPS is failing to take a stand against Marisol, who has a documented track record of being found guilty of domestic violence in court, including a recent conviction in 2019 for abusing her child, lying, manipulating, stalking, criminal acts such as following my kids and fiance to school and getting inside my car to intimidate my fiance and engage with the kids leading to yelling at the staff and causing a scene in front of kids, staff, and my family.

Furthermore, it is apparent that Chelcie and Christina are acting in bad faith by refusing to address the questions I have posed in good faith. Christina's refusal to respond in writing, stating a preference against emails or texts, raises serious concerns about transparency and accountability within the agency.

This ongoing inaction and misconduct are not only detrimental to my children and my family, who continue to suffer from abuse, but also exacerbate severe distress and developmental delays among my children.

I implore the leadership of OCFS to step in and address these issues promptly. It is imperative that corrective measures are taken to ensure the safety and well-being of vulnerable individuals under the care and supervision of CPS. Your intervention is crucial in bringing about positive change and restoring faith in the system.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I eagerly await your response and action on this urgent issue.

Sincerely,

Ryan Michaels

Christine,

Due to technical limitations related to email file size, I am unable to send all the of the pictures related to my condition post assault.

I also feel compelled to address a more distressing matter. Reflecting on my recent experiences and comparing them to what Mandon has allegedly endured brings to light a glaring disparity that I find both confusing and deeply troubling. My injuries from a violent assault—a broken skull, bleeding brain, facial bruises, a fractured orbital bone—were severe and visibly evident. The idea that someone could undergo a similar or worse assault without showing any physical signs strains credulity to its breaking point.

This discrepancy, in my view, underscores a significant failing in the protective measures that should safeguard our children. It's challenging to reconcile the severity of my own injuries with claims made about Mandon without concluding that there's a critical oversight in the investigation or intervention process. Much like every other process I've had to work with after the unjust arrest and cps' lies, manipulation, and breach of their own policies when concluding an investigation without even interviewing me.

I urge you, with the utmost respect and gravity, to reconsider the situation with fresh eyes. It's not just about connecting dots; it's about recognizing when the picture those dots are supposed to form doesn't match the reality we see. Our children deserve a safe environment, and it's paramount that we, as adults and protectors, do not falter in our duty to provide it.

I implore you to take immediate and decisive action to reassess the situation concerning our family's safety and well-being. My children cannot afford any further delays or inaction.

I am willing to cooperate fully and provide whatever information or documentation is necessary. However, my cooperation hinges on a mutual commitment to take concrete steps to address and rectify the dangers facing my children.

I look forward to your prompt response and action.

Also...

The police officer who saw my face bashed in and never took me to the hospital? You know...when I had a concussion, brain bleed, skull fracture, fractured orbital bone in three places, and the true assailant didnt have so much of a mark. You guys need to wake up.

So i understand,

You asked me what times I'm available for...and then I not only gave them to you but I also told you next week won't work for me.

You then reply and tell me 9am next week (which I said I will be at work, and I can't do) and tell me it works best for you?

Every decision made will be thoroughly documented, evaluated, and communicated for accountability. The evidence of Marisol's mistreatment towards my children is substantial, including stalking, harassment, and various forms of abuse. My patience has run out, and I'm fully committed to obtaining justice and holding everyone involved accountable. This won't stop with congressional inquiries; I'll reach out to lawyers, DAs, state officials, and beyond if necessary. The public will know. I demand immediate action to protect my children and hold Marisol accountable for her unbelievable behavior.

You may contact me today for a zoom. You may contact me during the times I gave you.

Hi Christina,

Thank you for your prompt response.

Regarding your inquiry about my availability, I am available for a meeting at the following times:

- Anytime tomorrow after 12 pm.

-Between 8 am to 10 am on Thursday or after 3 pm.

-All weekend.

Please note the flexibility this week is due to my VA medical appointments for injuries I endured, for which I've taken two vacation days. Next week will be more challenging as I'll be working from 6 am to 4 pm every day.

Regarding your mention of "concerns," may I inquire about the specifics? I hope it's about ensuring my boys' safety and minimizing their exposure to any potential risks.

You asked about the children's school attendance today. Is there any specific reason for this inquiry?

I provided Chelcie with these available times, but she requested that I directly convey them to you.

Lastly, I must emphasize that I've reached a point where I can no longer tolerate inaction. Inaction, in itself, is a decisive action that can have severe consequences.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon to schedule a meeting.

Best regards,

Ryan

Hello,

So that you are aware, today is Easter and I was supposed to drop the kids off at Marisol's home which is legal per the PFA and decree. I did not drop them off out of fear she would attempt to get me arrested maliciously and without cause. This is also in line with your advice which was to stay away from her house entirely. I listened.

Please see the attachment that highlights the relevant language in the PFA. It states that I'm prohibited from repeatedly, and without reasonable cause being at her home.

Please also see attached PFA that says, " the defendant's right of contact is outlined in the divorce decree" on page three next to "(P)".

Please then see the attached divorce decree which states, " plaintiff, (dad) shall drop the children off at defendant's (moms) residence..."

In conclusion, understand that Marisol tried to get me arrested for delivering my son's glasses to her mailbox as she went off on me for not having them this past Wednesday, 5 days ago.

Mailbox accessed by a public sidewalk and was there with reasonable cause and did not go there repeatedly. I was well within the law and everything done was in good faith.

Most importantly, you now see in the message from Marisol below expected me to show up at her house to drop the kids off today. She even took a picture from her car down her driveway, attached to an email from Marisol to me at 8 am this morning to show that I didn't show up to her house at the agreed upon time which was agreed on weeks attempts to get me arrested for placing my son's glasses in her mailbox with no bad intent or doing anything wrong, and yet now she expects me at her home days later?

Marisol's abuse and manipulation are clear to all. I don't cause drama. I don't abuse. I'm trying to live my life and protect my children. Yet no one does anything and i am targeted and failed by every system in place and more importantly aren't my children i've been screaming for help from everyone for years.

I hope this can make it to the DA as well.

And I also hope this further proves Marisol's insanity, abuse, manipulation, and should serve as a lesson learned to not be so trigger-happy to arrest me, distrust me, and to understand men can have trauma and be abused too.

I am done being taken advantage of and having my family's life ruined because of everyone's ignorance and failures to do their due diligence and their job. I will be filing congressional, I will not rest until Maine's PFA laws are fixed to stop enabling mentally ill abusers to further abuse people and ruin their lives. Why can't we mirror NH's PFA law? You know, the one that will drop a PFA if the plaintiff decides to violate it like Marisol did for months.

Someone in this email needs to advocate for change, for children's safety, for all people's safety. If not, you're only becoming part of the problem by hearing and seeing further proof that my kids and I are suffering and no system is doing any due diligence to help. I will not rest until justice is served and no one else ever has to live this nightmare As I have and continue to do.

Thank you,

Ryan michaels

Oh, and please see that attached report from Ycare, the before and after school care program, that describes Marisol's criminal behavior towards my kids and my fiance. mind you this was at a school location and in front of many children and staff. This is who all of you are letting get away with anything she wants. And she wants me to suffer and also has no care for our children along the way. Marisol has been convicted of abuse towards her daughter. Her first guilty charge was in 2001, I was 9 years old at that time! People need to open their eyes and put effort into doing the RIGHT thing and protect people from this abuse.

Previously you stated that the boys would be dropped off at my place this morning at 8am.

It is now 8:10 and they haven't arrived. Has something changed? What time will the boys be coming?

Dear Ms. Johnson,

Thank you for confirming the receipt of my email and for your assurance to follow up with the district staff regarding my concerns.

However, I must reiterate my deep concern regarding the lack of communication from Chelcie, Christina, and Amy and ocfs as a whole. Their silence is troubling, especially considering the urgency of the situation and how long it's been allowed to happen. Every day without action prolongs the adverse effects on my boys, who continue to suffer due to the actions of their abuser.

Could you please advise on how I can ensure consistent and timely communication with the OCFS? It is crucial for a two-way dialogue to take place promptly to address the urgent matters at hand.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Best Regards,

Ryan Michaels

Hi Amy,

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to touch base regarding your voicemail; unfortunately, I was unable to get back to you until now.

Chelcie has arranged a meeting with me and Renee for Monday at 10am, along with her supervisor, Christina. We'd really value your presence and input during this discussion. Could you join us?

Alternatively, if Monday doesn't work for you, I'm eager to receive your response to the matters outlined in my previous emails. Your input is crucial, so whether you can make it on Monday or respond via email, your involvement is greatly appreciated.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Ryan

Ps. I replied via this message for the sake of keeping communications in one place. Everyone I have emailed so far has either ignored me (in some cases it's been 3+ weeks without a response) or responses like the one you can see I recieved most recently in this email chain. As you can see, I asked Mrs. Johnson this 4 days ago, "Could you please advise on how I can ensure consistent and timely communication with the OCFS? It is crucial for a two-way dialogue to take place promptly to address the urgent matters at hand." and have yet to recieve a response.

I will also go on record, yet again, that my children are regularly abused in a variety of ways by marisol. I will also go on record, again, notating the fact that OCFS has not offered my children/my family a single resource to navigate this life altering abusive situation we are all stuck in due to unethical,wrong, and complacent behavior that OCFS and other agencies continue to engage in.

Please help my kids. Help me. Help my family. Someone please start asking questions and start digging into everything. Your effort can litterally stop child abuse, so the irony that no action is ever taken to prevent child abuse is worrisome. Please help.

Dear Ms. Johnson,

I appreciate your prompt response, although it seems to miss the mark on addressing the urgency and gravity of my situation. It's concerning that my previous communications have seemingly been overlooked or misunderstood.

It appears that my concerns have not been fully understood or acknowledged, as your response fails to address any of the critical issues I've raised regarding the safety and well-being of my children.

Despite my repeated attempts to seek assistance, I am met with a lack of response and assistance from you and your colleagues. It's disheartening to see such a quick response only after calling out the lack of responsiveness.

I want to emphasize the severity of the situation by involving various authorities and officials. The lack of action and support from the relevant parties only reinforces the validity of my concerns and the urgency of the matter.

In summary, I urgently require assistance that cannot be solely provided by the case worker. The safety and protection of my children are at stake, and I implore you to stand with me against abuse and take the necessary steps to ensure their well-being.

I would appreciate your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Ryan michaels

Hello Ryan,

I am in receipt of your email from the weekend.

There is a lot to unpack here in your email. I think it would make sense for Chelcie and I to meet with you at some point to talk about the concerns we have.

Were there any additional changes to the visit plan made after you sent this email on Sunday afternoon? Also, are the children at school today?

Thank you,

Christina

Subject: Fwd: Easter

Hello,

So that you are aware, today is Easter and I was supposed to drop the kids off at Marisol's home which is legal per the PFA and decree. I did not drop them off out of fear she would attempt to get me arrested maliciously and without cause. This is also in line with your advice which was to stay away from her house entirely. I listened.

Please see the attachment that highlights the relevant language in the PFA. It states that I'm prohibited from repeatedly, and without reasonable cause being at her home.

Please also see attached PFA that says, " the defendant's right of contact is outlined in the divorce decree" on page three next to "(P)".

Please then see the attached divorce decree which states, " plaintiff, (dad) shall drop the children off at defendant's (moms) residence..."

In conclusion, understand that Marisol tried to get me arrested for delivering my son's glasses to her mailbox as she went off on me for not having them this past Wednesday, 5 days ago. Mailbox accessed by a public sidewalk and was there with reasonable cause and did not go there repeatedly. I was well within the law and everything done was in good faith.

Most importantly, you now see in the message from Marisol below expected me to show up at her house to drop the kids off today. She even took a picture from her car down her driveway, attached to an email from Marisol to me at 8 am this morning to show that I didn't show up to her house at the agreed upon time which was agreed on weeks attempts to get me arrested for placing my son's glasses in her mailbox with no bad intent or doing anything wrong, and yet now she expects me at her home days later?

Marisol's abuse and manipulation are clear to all. I don't cause drama. I don't abuse. I'm trying to live my life and protect my children. Yet no one does anything and i am targeted and failed by every system in place and more importantly aren't my children i've been screaming for help from everyone for years.

I hope this can make it to the DA as well.

And I also hope this further proves Marisol's insanity, abuse, manipulation, and should serve as a lesson learned to not be so trigger-happy to arrest me, distrust me, and to understand men can have trauma and be abused too.

I am done being taken advantage of and having my family's life ruined because of everyone's ignorance and failures to do their due diligence and their job. I will be filing congressional, I will not rest until Maine's PFA laws are fixed to stop enabling mentally ill abusers to further abuse people and ruin their lives. Why can't we mirror NH's PFA law? You know, the one that will drop a PFA if the plaintiff decides to violate it like Marisol did for months.

Someone in this email needs to advocate for change, for children's safety, for all people's safety. If not, you're only becoming part of the problem by hearing and seeing further proof that my kids and I are suffering and no system is doing any due diligence to help. I will not rest until justice is served and no one else ever has to live this nightmare As I have and continue to do.

Thank you,

Ryan michaels

Oh, and please see that attached report from Ycare, the before and after school care program, that describes Marisol's criminal behavior towards my kids and my fiance. mind you this was at a school location and in front of many children and staff. This is who all of you are letting get away with anything she wants. And she wants me to suffer and also has no care for our children along the way. Marisol has been convicted of abuse towards her daughter. Her first guilty charge was in 2001, I was 9 years old at that time! People need to open their eyes and put effort into doing the RIGHT thing and protect people from this abuse.

Previously you stated that the boys would be dropped off at my place this morning at 8am.

It is now 8:10 and they haven’t arrived. Has something changed? What time will the boys be coming? Inline image

Good aftetnoon,

I apologize for the delay, I was at work and didn't check my email.

I would love to meet with you and discuss anything you like.

If by visit plan you mean getting the kids to ger for easter? No. I refuse to speak with her or interact in anyway until this is resolved.

And lastly, yes, the kids went to school and are now with me.

Please advise on a time that works for you and I will make it happen no matter what scheduling conflict that may exist.

Kind regards,

Ryan

Hi Christina,

Thank you for your prompt response.

Regarding your inquiry about my availability, I am available for a meeting at the following times:

- Anytime tomorrow after 12 pm.

-Between 8 am to 10 am on Thursday or after 3 pm.

-All weekend.

Please note the flexibility this week is due to my VA medical appointments for injuries I endured, for which I've taken two vacation days. Next week will be more challenging as I'll be working from 6 am to 4 pm every day.

Regarding your mention of "concerns," may I inquire about the specifics? I hope it's about ensuring my boys' safety and minimizing their exposure to any potential risks.

You asked about the children's school attendance today. Is there any specific reason for this inquiry?

I provided Chelcie with these available times, but she requested that I directly convey them to you.

Lastly, I must emphasize that I've reached a point where I can no longer tolerate inaction. Inaction, in itself, is a decisive action that can have severe consequences.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon to schedule a meeting.

Best regards,

Ryan

So i understand,

You asked me what times I'm available for...and then I not only gave them to you but I also told you next week won't work for me.

You then reply and tell me 9am next week (which I said I will be at work, and I can't do) and tell me it works best for you?

Every decision made will be thoroughly documented, evaluated, and communicated for accountability. The evidence of Marisol's mistreatment towards my children is substantial, including stalking, harassment, and various forms of abuse. My patience has run out, and I'm fully committed to obtaining justice and holding everyone involved accountable. This won't stop with congressional inquiries; I'll reach out to lawyers, DAs, state officials, and beyond if necessary. The public will know. I demand immediate action to protect my children and hold Marisol accountable for her unbelievable behavior.

You may contact me today for a zoom. You may contact me during the times I gave you.

Hello Ryan,

I think Chelcie asked about next week as there is a storm coming and will limit our time in the field if our office gets closed.

At this point, we do not have any immediate safety concerns in regards to the mother's treatment of the children.

We must and will follow the policy and laws related to assessing reports of abuse, however, presently, what you are reporting does not rise to a level of making a finding against the mother.

We are also asking for releases from your providers as you have indicated you have a TBI from a gunshot wound – and we have been told by the police who investigated this situation, that this incident did not result in you being shot. We want to ensure you are following all of your providers recommendations.

We are happy to meet to talk to you about what we see as the concerns from an outside perspective.

Are you available on Friday of this week?

Thank you,

So you're disbelieving me? Trusting the police officer who wrongfully arrested me for assault and tresspassing which I proved false? The officer who tried to arrest me last week for dropping off glasses?

I'm sorry. But cps has been useless. I welcomed you guys to stay entirely until I get this resolved.

What is me proving that i told the truth have anything to do with the safety of my children?

We were not evading your questions. The plan was to address the concerns when we met with you and talk through those concerns.

We typically ask for releases to ensure parents are following provider recommendations, and if there are concerns, to address those with you.

We will document all correspondence with you.

Next steps as in no findings again? It's no surprise. It's disgusting.

Why is following my doctors recomendations in question?

You didn't evade any questions? Let's take a look. Please see attachments.

Cps' lack of due diligence, work ethic, and morales leaves innocent people suffering. Anyone involved in all of this should be ashamed. My kids are the ones that hurt the most from your lack of follow through and refusal to take action.

I look forward to you choosing not to evade my questions and offering an explanation as to why you just claimed innocence regarding evading, yet I have so much proof you have been? I have been lied to and manipulated enough.

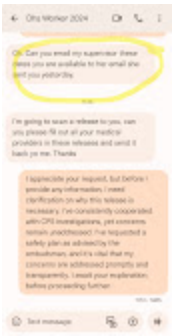

Fix this. Im fed up. Save my children from the hell you are allowing them to be in.

Christine,

Due to technical limitations related to email file size, I am unable to send all the of the pictures related to my condition post assault.

I also feel compelled to address a more distressing matter. Reflecting on my recent experiences and comparing them to what Mandon has allegedly endured brings to light a glaring disparity that I find both confusing and deeply troubling. My injuries from a violent assault—a broken skull, bleeding brain, facial bruises, a fractured orbital bone—were severe and visibly evident. The idea that someone could undergo a similar or worse assault without showing any physical signs strains credulity to its breaking point.

This discrepancy, in my view, underscores a significant failing in the protective measures that should safeguard our children. It's challenging to reconcile the severity of my own injuries with claims made about Mandon without concluding that there's a critical oversight in the investigation or intervention process. Much like every other process I've had to work with after the unjust arrest and cps' lies, manipulation, and breach of their own policies when concluding an investigation without even interviewing me.

I urge you, with the utmost respect and gravity, to reconsider the situation with fresh eyes. It's not just about connecting dots; it's about recognizing when the picture those dots are supposed to form doesn't match the reality we see. Our children deserve a safe environment, and it's paramount that we, as adults and protectors, do not falter in our duty to provide it.

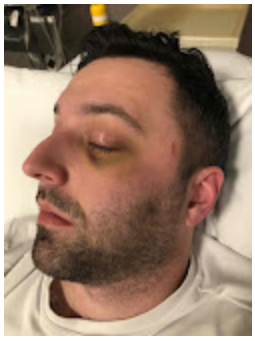

I implore you to take immediate and decisive action to reassess the situation concerning our family's safety and well-being. My children cannot afford any further delays or inaction.

I am willing to cooperate fully and provide whatever information or documentation is necessary. However, my cooperation hinges on a mutual commitment to take concrete steps to address and rectify the dangers facing my children.

I look forward to your prompt response and action.

*Just to note this is after almost a year of them not doing anything despite all of the concerns and abuse I have brought up. Reflecting I should not have been so direct/upset. not excusing it, but one could imagine someone would be upset in my situation. Also, after this is when they substantiated me which is what lead to you becoming involved.

Good afternoon Ryan,

As you are aware, we have a Case Management Conference scheduled this Friday at 3:30pm via phone.

During this proceeding we will schedule the dates for a Jeopardy Trial. The Court will need to know how many witnesses you intend to call to the stand on the day of trial. We do not need to have an exact number or provide the names of the specific people. This is a rough estimate to decide if we need one day or two for a trial. Please let me know.

Sincerely,

Good morning,

I will be off on Friday and will have another AAG covering for me for this CMC so I am hoping to finalize the order in advance.

Please review the order, let me know if it is acceptable to file with the court, and let me know your estimated number of witnesses.

Thank you!

I would estimate that roughly twelve individuals will be present as witnesses.

Regrettably, my apprehension has materialized, and they intend to re-examine my financial records, potentially resulting in the termination of my legal representation. Please understand that this is not a matter of frugality; I have been a victim of financial abuse, and these individuals have caused me significant financial hardship due to their negligence. I have spoken this all along. And dhs has "empathized" with me and then materialized all of the worst case scenarios without doing due diligence into my concerns and simply labelling me with bias accusations.

I feel profoundly unheard and have endured physical, emotional, and financial harm as a consequence of these circumstances.

I kindly request the opportunity to schedule a meeting to discuss the findings of the recent substantiation and express my concerns regarding its inaccuracies. I believe it is essential to address the core of this issue rather than being endlessly entangled in a series of processes, which has resulted in substantial legal fees amounting to tens of thousands of dollars and 0 protection for my children or myself.

kind regards,

Ryan.

Ryan,

The Court will likely not allow 12 witnesses. Are you able to narrow your witnesses to 8?

I called in to your office and asked and they said it's not in your calendar and you're in trial all day.

I'm otp with the court now, but they are saying they can't give me info over the phone because it's a "sealed case".

Hoping the pull through so I don't miss it. I'll keep you posted

Hello,

Overall, the call met my expectations.

I find it intriguing that the judge mentioned "mom" filing for parental rights and responsibilities, suggesting this may be more of a "family matter" case than a "protective custody" case.

If I understand correctly, doesn't this indicate that "jeopardy" is being used by CPS as a means to enforce parental rights and responsibilities? It's also peculiar that the intent to file originates from "mom." The level of absurdity is overwhelming, but I remain committed to the case.

I have copied Lisa, the attorney representing me in the Marisol child support motion, for alignment purposes.

Best regards,

Ryan

Subject: Urgent: Information Regarding Renee's Arrest and Related Concerns

Hi Kaleigh,

I wanted to inform you that Renee was arrested on Friday, July 12th. I have attached a Word document to this email that summarizes my concerns, includes a visual timeline, and provides an in-depth view of events from beginning to end. I understand that this is a lot of information, and I apologize for the length and detail.

Living through these events has been the most draining experience I could ever imagine. It all centers around the same person who has been keeping a black cloud over my head for many years, causing an immense amount of pain, drama, hurt, and abuse for not just me and my kids but anyone that wishes to be a part of my family.

Additionally, I have asked Marisol to watch the boys for today until I can verify that Renee was served with the PFA paperwork. I want to have 100% certainty that they will be safe being here. While I doubt Renee would show up, I have to be sure.

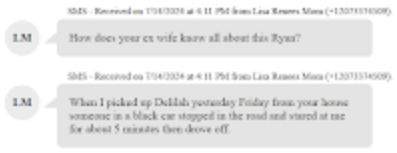

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Best regards,

Ryan Michaels

p.s. I just found out that Renee is, and has been, in the hospital! This is great news. She's been there since Friday and will be there for at least another week I guess. So she's finally getting the help she needs. It's heartbreaking that the system prevented help from coming sooner before it took her doing something like this to get her to the hospital. But it happened this way, and I'm glad she's at least getting help.

Urgent Request for Help – Systemic Failures Impacting My Children and Others

To whomever is listening,

I urge you to carefully review this email chain, including the attached documents. Please take note of the dates and times, as they provide critical context.

I am reaching out once again, pleading for your intervention—not just for myself, but most importantly for my children, whom I have not seen in over six months due to systemic failures and the corrupt actions of individuals within the very systems meant to uphold peace and justice.

This is bigger than just my case. It is about the many others who are suffering similar injustices. I am asking you to be part of a meaningful change. Helping me means helping countless others facing the same broken system.

Please, take the time to listen. If someone would finally allow me to speak and truly look at my situation, the truth would be undeniable.

I am counting on you. My children are counting on you.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Urgent Request for OCFS Leadership to Address Systemic Failures & Legal Misconduct

Dear OCFS Leadership,

I am reaching out with deep frustration and concern over the longstanding systemic failures, legal injustices, and lack of action that have severely impacted my children, my livelihood, and my basic parental rights. Despite my repeated efforts to comply with court orders, provide documentation, and report abuse, I have been met with inaction, retaliation, and financial devastation—while my children remain in the custody of an abuser who has manipulated the system at every turn.

At this moment, I am facing wrongful income imputation in a child support ruling that was based on inaccurate financial assumptions rather than my actual earnings. I was recently laid off, yet the court—at the urging of my ex-wife, Marisol Guerrero—imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear, documented evidence that this figure is incorrect. I now have days left to appeal, while simultaneously fighting a system that has stripped me of my rights, my children, and my financial stability.

I am requesting immediate review and corrective action from OCFS leadership regarding the following issues:

1. CPS's Retaliatory Actions & Failure to Protect My Children

📌 CPS substantiated allegations against me without interviewing me or reviewing key evidence.
📌 Video evidence proving my innocence was ignored.
📌 Marisol has been reported multiple times for abuse, yet CPS has failed to intervene.
📌 Reports from school staff, therapists, and childcare providers about Marisol's abuse were ignored.

Request: A formal review of all CPS actions in my case, including ignored abuse reports, fabricated claims, and unjustified jeopardy proceedings.

---

2. Marisol’s Continued Manipulation & Systemic Enabling

📌 Marisol has used CPS and the court system to enforce parental alienation and financial abuse.
📌 She has instructed my children not to talk about home life and obstructed court-ordered visits and calls.
📌 She has pursued legal action based on false financial claims, resulting in an incorrect income imputation.
📌 CPS has enabled her by failing to hold her accountable for repeated violations.

Request: Immediate enforcement of parental rights, ensuring my children are not wrongfully withheld or manipulated.

---

3. CPS's Negligence Led to My Fiancée’s Mental Health Crisis & Arrest

📌 CPS failed to act despite repeated reports about the stress and harm caused by this situation.
📌 Renee was arrested on July 12, 2024, after reaching a mental breaking point due to system failures.
📌 She is now hospitalized and receiving the care she needed long before this crisis—care that CPS failed to facilitate.

Request: An acknowledgment of CPS’s role in enabling the conditions that led to this crisis and assurance that similar failures will not occur in my case.

4. Wrongful Child Support Ruling & Financial Devastation

📌 At Marisol’s urging, the court imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear documentation proving my actual earnings were $97,000 before I was laid off.
📌 The figure was falsely based on temporary earnings and 401(k) withdrawals used for legal fees caused by Marisol’s financial abuse.
📌 I now owe over $10,000 in back child support and $2,400 per month—an impossible burden given my current financial hardship.

Request: A formal statement from OCFS acknowledging that my financial struggles are real and that CPS should not obstruct my ability to appeal the wrongful imputation.

5. OCFS Leadership’s Lack of Action & Oversight

📌 Emails prove OCFS leadership has repeatedly ignored my concerns, referring me back to caseworkers who refuse to act.
📌 CPS has repeatedly acted without proper oversight, enabling legal and financial manipulation against me.
📌 Despite multiple reports and documentation, no independent review of my case has been conducted.

Request: An immediate internal review of OCFS's handling of my case, including an independent review of CPS's actions.

🔹 What I Am Asking for Today

I am not refusing cooperation—I am requesting basic fairness and accountability. My demands are simple:

✓ A full review of CPS's handling of my case, including ignored abuse reports and retaliatory actions.
✓ An immediate plan to enforce my parental rights and stop wrongful withholding of my children.
✓ An acknowledgment that the financial burden placed on me is unjust, and OCFS will not obstruct my right to appeal.
✓ A commitment to investigating the systemic failures that led to my fiancée's crisis and wrongful arrest.

If OCFS fails to act, I will have no choice but to escalate this matter to:
✓ Maine State Legislators & the Governor's Office for systemic CPS failures.
✓ Legal action against CPS for negligence, financial harm, and civil rights violations.
✓ Media & advocacy groups to expose the unjust treatment of fathers in the system.
✓ Congressional inquiries into how CPS weaponizes jeopardy cases.

I expect a response within 10 business days detailing what actions will be taken to correct these injustices.

This is not just about me—this is about protecting my children and ensuring that no one else suffers the way I have. I have complied at every step, and I have been met with retaliation, financial devastation, and alienation from my children.

This cannot continue.

P.S. My last interaction with CPS was an attempt to facilitate a call with my children, whom Marisol has been alienating from me since CPS coerced me into signing Marisol's amended divorce decree—an agreement solely designed to abuse and control me under the threat of jeopardy. Even the judge acknowledged, 'this seems more of a family court matter than jeopardy.'

When I visited the Sanford CPS office, I waited for 30 minutes, only to be greeted by two police officers who informed me that I was trespassed. To this day, no one has explained why. This has left me afraid to contact CPS, fearing punishment, retaliation, or even jail. The agency tasked with protecting families has become my greatest source of fear. I need help. Please.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Ledoux did not even take me to the hospital with a swollen face, depressed skull fracture, three fractures in my left eye, bullet graze, etc and I wasnt even offered medical care. Instead i was judged and told my statement made no sense...even though I clearly remember telling him to check her cameras. That got left out of his report though...instead he said my statement was innaccurate at parts which was untrue. Maybe because i just got beaten half to death?

3.) dhs got involved, lied to me up front by saying i couldn't take the kids because she didnt know if my "place was safe" and had to come see me first. Know what really happened? Dhs directed my abuser to get. pfa on me and she had lied to me about this. Oh...and she never interviewed me the entire case. Just slapped me with a substantiation, took my kids due to a PFA, and refused to help in the past year despite many unbiased people reporting marisol 3 times in the past 5 months.

4.) I accepted the PFA ONLY to get my kids back after two months from my abuser and my childrens abuser.

Due to being neglected by the police, DHS, and not given an unbiased chance in court, and running out of money due to marisols abusive behavior and everyones failure to hold her accountable my life was ruined and my kids have been actively traumatized every day since.

This is all .1% of the story.

So just incase people decide to judge me, the guy with the PFA on him alleged to be a crazy abuser by someone (marisol) who factually faked a pregnancy and a still birth at the 9 month mark. I hope this can make it to the DA as well.

And I also hope this further proves Marisol's insanity, abuse, manipulation, and should serve as a lesson learned to not be so trigger-happy to arrest me, distrust me, and to understand men can have trauma and be abused too.

I am done being taken advantage of and having my family's life ruined because of everyone's ignorance and failures to do their due diligence and their job. I will be filing congressional, I will not rest until Maine's PFA laws are fixed to stop enabling mentally ill abusers to further abuse people and ruin their lives. Why can't we mirror NH's PFA law? You know, the one that will drop a PFA if the plaintiff decides to violate it like Marisol did for months.

Someone in this email needs to advocate for change, for children's safety, for all people's safety. If not, you're only becoming part of the problem by hearing and seeing further proof that my kids and I are suffering and no system is doing any due diligence to help. I will not rest until justice is served and no one else ever has to live this nightmare As I have and continue to do.

Thank you,

Ryan michaels

Oh, and please see that attached report from Ycare, the before and after school care program, that describes Marisol's criminal behavior towards my kids and my fiance. mind you this was at a school location and in front of many children and staff. This is who all of you are letting get away with anything she wants. And she wants me to suffer and also has no care for our children along the way. Marisol has been convicted of abuse towards her daughter. Her first guilty charge was in 2001, I was 9 years old at that time! People need to open their eyes and put effort into doing the RIGHT thing and protect people from this abuse.

Ryan,

Previously you stated that the boys would be dropped off at my place this morning at 8am.
It is now 8:10 and they haven't arrived. Has something changed? What time will the boys be coming? Inline image

I want to make a correction to the following :

Jul 12, 2024 (Renee's Arrest & Hospitalization)

- Renee is arrested, marking a significant escalation in her mental health struggles due to the circumstances CPS has constantly been inflicting on our family.
- Ryan finds out she has been hospitalized since July 12 and will remain for at least a week.
- Ryan expresses relief that she is finally receiving treatment but frustration that the system failed to intervene earlier."

  I Renee was hospitlized for a week last year by her own choice, and has been seeking help ever since. she is not currently in the hospital as I had mistakenly represented. in the heart of transparency and truth I wish to make this clear.

your week. :) MON, MAR 25

6:28 AM

Plans that are more important than the kids attending family day with their dad? Hm.

I'll be taking a vacation with the kids from may 27th to june 3rd (7 days). And you will see the kids on the 5th.

As for my ability to drop off this weekend, i will have the kids dropped off at your place for 8am.

10:54 AM

Hello,

So that you are aware, today is Easter and I was supposed to drop the kids off at Marisol's home which is legal per the PFA and decree. Also,

So that everyone can be on the same page...

This PFA exists against me, with 0 findings of abuse or harassment, only because I agreed to it after a severe documented brain injury I incurred after being assaulted without ever attacking my assailant back. The one who shot and grazed me and shot two other times in front of my kids. Yet i got arrested for assault and treaspassing. Both false and a terrible decision and that lead to this nightmare.

1.)arrested for crimes I didnt commit and proven so in court on both counts

2.)after the incident mr. Ledoux did not even take me to the hospital with a swollen face, depressed skull fracture, three fractures in my left eye, bullet graze, etc and I wasnt even offered medical care. Instead i was judged and told my statement made no sense...even though I clearly remember telling him to check her cameras. That got left out of his report though...instead he said my statement was innaccurate at parts which was untrue. Maybe because i just got beaten half to death?

3.) dhs got involved, lied to me up front by saying i couldn't take the kids because she didnt know if my "place was safe" and had to come see me first. Know what really happened? Dhs directed my abuser to get. pfa on me and she had lied to me about this. Oh...and she never interviewed me the entire case. Just slapped me with a substantiation, took my kids due to a PFA, and refused to help in the past year despite many unbiased people reporting marisol 3 times in the past 5 months.

4.) I accepted the PFA ONLY to get my kids back after two months from my abuser and my childrens abuser.

Due to being neglected by the police, DHS, and not given an unbiased chance in court, and running out of money due to marisols abusive behavior and everyones failure to hold her accountable my life was ruined and my kids have been actively traumatized every day since.

This is all .1% of the story.

So just incase people decide to judge me, the guy with the PFA on him alleged to be a crazy abuser by someone (marisol) who factually faked a pregnancy and a still birth at the 9 month mark. Check the divorce decree and see what I had added regarding the unborn chid that was never real.its all so messed up. Someone needs to step up and help. Its unethical, unjust, and quite honestly lazy. My kids, my family, and I deserve better. No one deserves this.

Subject: Urgent Request for OCFS Leadership to Address Systemic Failures & Legal Misconduct

Dear OCFS Leadership,

I am reaching out with deep frustration and concern over the longstanding systemic failures, legal injustices, and lack of action that have severely impacted my children, my livelihood, and my basic parental rights. Despite my repeated efforts to comply with court orders, provide documentation, and report abuse, I have been met with inaction, retaliation, and financial devastation—while my children remain in the custody of an abuser who has manipulated the system at every turn.

At this moment, I am facing wrongful income imputation in a child support ruling that was based on inaccurate financial assumptions rather than my actual earnings. I was recently laid off, yet the court—at the urging of my ex-wife, Marisol Guerrero—imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear, documented evidence that this figure is incorrect. I now have days left to appeal, while simultaneously fighting a system that has stripped me of my rights, my children, and my financial stability.

I am requesting immediate review and corrective action from OCFS leadership regarding the following issues:

1. CPS's Retaliatory Actions & Failure to Protect My Children

📌 CPS substantiated allegations against me without interviewing me or reviewing key evidence.
📌 Video evidence proving my innocence was ignored.
📌 Marisol has been reported multiple times for abuse, yet CPS has failed to intervene.
📌 Reports from school staff, therapists, and childcare providers about Marisol's abuse were ignored.

Request: A formal review of all CPS actions in my case, including ignored abuse reports, fabricated claims, and unjustified jeopardy proceedings.

---

2. Marisol’s Continued Manipulation & Systemic Enabling

📌 Marisol has used CPS and the court system to enforce parental alienation and financial abuse.
📌 She has instructed my children not to talk about home life and obstructed court-ordered visits and calls.
📌 She has pursued legal action based on false financial claims, resulting in an incorrect income imputation.
📌 CPS has enabled her by failing to hold her accountable for repeated violations.

Request: Immediate enforcement of parental rights, ensuring my children are not wrongfully withheld or manipulated.

---

3. CPS's Negligence Led to My Fiancée’s Mental Health Crisis & Arrest

📌 CPS failed to act despite repeated reports about the stress and harm caused by this situation.
📌 Renee was arrested on July 12, 2024, after reaching a mental breaking point due to system failures.
📌 She is now hospitalized and receiving the care she needed long before this crisis—care that CPS failed to facilitate.

Request: An acknowledgment of CPS’s role in enabling the conditions that led to this crisis and assurance that similar failures will not occur in my case.

4. Wrongful Child Support Ruling & Financial Devastation

📌 At Marisol's urging, the court imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear documentation proving my actual earnings were $97,000 before I was laid off.
📌 The figure was falsely based on temporary earnings and 401(k) withdrawals used for legal fees caused by Marisol's financial abuse.
📌 I now owe over $10,000 in back child support and $2,400 per month—an impossible burden given my current financial hardship.

Request: A formal statement from OCFS acknowledging that my financial struggles are real and that CPS should not obstruct my ability to appeal the wrongful imputation.

5. OCFS Leadership's Lack of Action & Oversight

📌 Emails prove OCFS leadership has repeatedly ignored my concerns, referring me back to caseworkers who refuse to act.
📌 CPS has repeatedly acted without proper oversight, enabling legal and financial manipulation against me.
📌 Despite multiple reports and documentation, no independent review of my case has been conducted.

Request: An immediate internal review of OCFS's handling of my case, including an independent review of CPS's actions.

🔹 What I Am Asking for Today

I am not refusing cooperation—I am requesting basic fairness and accountability. My demands are simple:

✓ A full review of CPS's handling of my case, including ignored abuse reports and retaliatory actions.
✓ An immediate plan to enforce my parental rights and stop wrongful withholding of my children.
✓ An acknowledgment that the financial burden placed on me is unjust, and OCFS will not obstruct my right to appeal.
✓ A commitment to investigating the systemic failures that led to my fiancée's crisis and wrongful arrest.

If OCFS fails to act, I will have no choice but to escalate this matter to:
✓ Maine State Legislators & the Governor's Office for systemic CPS failures.
✓ Legal action against CPS for negligence, financial harm, and civil rights violations.
✓ Media & advocacy groups to expose the unjust treatment of fathers in the system.
✓ Congressional inquiries into how CPS weaponizes jeopardy cases.

I expect a response within 10 business days detailing what actions will be taken to correct these injustices.

This is not just about me—this is about protecting my children and ensuring that no one else suffers the way I have. I have complied at every step, and I have been met with retaliation, financial devastation, and alienation from my children.

This cannot continue.

P.S. My last interaction with CPS was an attempt to facilitate a call with my children, whom Marisol has been alienating from me since CPS coerced me into signing Marisol's amended divorce decree—an agreement solely designed to abuse and control me under the threat of jeopardy. Even the judge acknowledged, 'this seems more of a family court matter than jeopardy.'

When I visited the Sanford CPS office, I waited for 30 minutes, only to be greeted by two police officers who informed me that I was trespassed. To this day, no one has explained why. This has left me afraid to contact CPS, fearing punishment, retaliation, or even jail. The agency tasked with protecting families has become my greatest source of fear. I need help. Please.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Urgent Request for OCFS Leadership to Address Systemic Failures & Legal Misconduct

Dear OCFS Leadership,

I am reaching out with deep frustration and concern over the longstanding systemic failures, legal injustices, and lack of action that have severely impacted my children, my livelihood, and my basic parental rights. Despite my repeated efforts to comply with court orders, provide documentation, and report abuse, I have been met with inaction, retaliation, and financial devastation—while my children remain in the custody of an abuser who has manipulated the system at every turn.

At this moment, I am facing wrongful income imputation in a child support ruling that was based on inaccurate financial assumptions rather than my actual earnings. I was recently laid off, yet the court—at the urging of my ex-wife, Marisol Guerrero—imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear, documented evidence that this figure is incorrect. I now have days left to appeal, while simultaneously fighting a system that has stripped me of my rights, my children, and my financial stability.

I am requesting immediate review and corrective action from OCFS leadership regarding the following issues:

1. CPS's Retaliatory Actions & Failure to Protect My Children

📌 CPS substantiated allegations against me without interviewing me or reviewing key evidence.
📌 Video evidence proving my innocence was ignored.
📌 Marisol has been reported multiple times for abuse, yet CPS has failed to intervene.
📌 Reports from school staff, therapists, and childcare providers about Marisol's abuse were ignored.

Request: A formal review of all CPS actions in my case, including ignored abuse reports, fabricated claims, and unjustified jeopardy proceedings.

---

2. Marisol’s Continued Manipulation & Systemic Enabling

📌 Marisol has used CPS and the court system to enforce parental alienation and financial abuse.
📌 She has instructed my children not to talk about home life and obstructed court-ordered visits and calls.
📌 She has pursued legal action based on false financial claims, resulting in an incorrect income imputation.
📌 CPS has enabled her by failing to hold her accountable for repeated violations.

Request: Immediate enforcement of parental rights, ensuring my children are not wrongfully withheld or manipulated.

---

3. CPS's Negligence Led to My Fiancée’s Mental Health Crisis & Arrest

📌 CPS failed to act despite repeated reports about the stress and harm caused by this situation.
📌 Renee was arrested on July 12, 2024, after reaching a mental breaking point due to system failures.
📌 She is now hospitalized and receiving the care she needed long before this crisis—care that CPS failed to facilitate.

Request: An acknowledgment of CPS’s role in enabling the conditions that led to this crisis and assurance that similar failures will not occur in my case.

4. Wrongful Child Support Ruling & Financial Devastation

📌 At Marisol’s urging, the court imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear documentation proving my actual earnings were $97,000 before I was laid off.
📌 The figure was falsely based on temporary earnings and 401(k) withdrawals used for legal fees caused by Marisol’s financial abuse.
📌 I now owe over $10,000 in back child support and $2,400 per month—an impossible burden given my current financial hardship.

Request: A formal statement from OCFS acknowledging that my financial struggles are real and that CPS should not obstruct my ability to appeal the wrongful imputation.

5. OCFS Leadership's Lack of Action & Oversight

📌 Emails prove OCFS leadership has repeatedly ignored my concerns, referring me back to caseworkers who refuse to act.
📌 CPS has repeatedly acted without proper oversight, enabling legal and financial manipulation against me.
📌 Despite multiple reports and documentation, no independent review of my case has been conducted.

Request: An immediate internal review of OCFS's handling of my case, including an independent review of CPS's actions.

🔹 What I Am Asking for Today

I am not refusing cooperation—I am requesting basic fairness and accountability. My demands are simple:

✓ A full review of CPS's handling of my case, including ignored abuse reports and retaliatory actions.
✓ An immediate plan to enforce my parental rights and stop wrongful withholding of my children.
✓ An acknowledgment that the financial burden placed on me is unjust, and OCFS will not obstruct my right to appeal.
✓ A commitment to investigating the systemic failures that led to my fiancée's crisis and wrongful arrest.

If OCFS fails to act, I will have no choice but to escalate this matter to:
✓ Maine State Legislators & the Governor's Office for systemic CPS failures.
✓ Legal action against CPS for negligence, financial harm, and civil rights violations.
✓ Media & advocacy groups to expose the unjust treatment of fathers in the system.
✓ Congressional inquiries into how CPS weaponizes jeopardy cases.

I expect a response within 10 business days detailing what actions will be taken to correct these injustices.

This is not just about me—this is about protecting my children and ensuring that no one else suffers the way I have. I have complied at every step, and I have been met with retaliation, financial devastation, and alienation from my children.

This cannot continue.

P.S. My last interaction with CPS was an attempt to facilitate a call with my children, whom Marisol has been alienating from me since CPS coerced me into signing Marisol's amended divorce decree—an agreement solely designed to abuse and control me under the threat of jeopardy. Even the judge acknowledged, 'this seems more of a family court matter than jeopardy.'

When I visited the Sanford CPS office, I waited for 30 minutes, only to be greeted by two police officers who informed me that I was trespassed. To this day, no one has explained why. This has left me afraid to contact CPS, fearing punishment, retaliation, or even jail. The agency tasked with protecting families has become my greatest source of fear. I need help. Please.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

The one who shot and grazed me and shot two other times in front of my kids. Yet i got arrested for assault and treaspassing. Both false and a terrible decision and that lead to this nightmare.

1.)arrested for crimes I didnt commit and proven so in court on both counts

2.)after the incident mr. Ledoux did not even take me to the hospital with a swollen face, depressed skull fracture, three fractures in my left eye, bullet graze, etc and I wasnt even offered medical care. Instead i was judged and told my statement made no sense...even though I clearly remember telling him to check her cameras. That got left out of his report though...instead he said my statement was innaccurate at parts which was untrue. Maybe because i just got beaten half to death?

3.) dhs got involved, lied to me up front by saying i couldn't take the kids because she didnt know if my "place was safe" and had to come see me first. Know what really happened? Dhs directed my abuser to get. pfa on me and she had lied to me about this. Oh...and she never interviewed me the entire case. Just slapped me with a substantiation, took my kids due to a PFA, and refused to help in the past year despite many unbiased people reporting marisol 3 times in the past 5 months.

4.) I accepted the PFA ONLY to get my kids back after two months from my abuser and my childrens abuser.

Due to being neglected by the police, DHS, and not given an unbiased chance in court, and running out of money due to marisols abusive behavior and everyones failure to hold her accountable my life was ruined and my kids have been actively traumatized every day since.

This is all .1% of the story.

So just incase people decide to judge me, the guy with the PFA on him alleged to be a crazy abuser by someone (marisol) who factually faked a pregnancy and a still birth at the 9 month mark. Check the divorce decree and see what I had added regarding the unborn chid that was never real.its all so messed up. Someone needs to step up and help. Its unethical, unjust, and quite honestly lazy. My kids, my family, and I deserve better. No one deserves this.

I no longer have anything to say. Help me or deal with marisols non sense along with me for years.

Kind regards,

Ryan Michaels

me at 8 am this morning to show that I didn't show up to her house at the agreed upon time which was agreed on weeks attempts to get me arrested for placing my son's glasses in her mailbox with no bad intent or doing anything wrong, and yet now she expects me at her home days later?

Marisol's abuse and manipulation are clear to all. I don't cause drama. I don't abuse. I'm trying to live my life and protect my children. Yet no one does anything and i am targeted and failed by every system in place and more importantly aren't my children i've been screaming for help from everyone for years.

I hope this can make it to the DA as well.

And I also hope this further proves Marisol's insanity, abuse, manipulation, and should serve as a lesson learned to not be so trigger-happy to arrest me, distrust me, and to understand men can have trauma and be abused too.

I am done being taken advantage of and having my family's life ruined because of everyone's ignorance and failures to do their due diligence and their job. I will be filing congressional, I will not rest until Maine's PFA laws are fixed to stop enabling mentally ill abusers to further abuse people and ruin their lives. Why can't we mirror NH's PFA law? You know, the one that will drop a PFA if the plaintiff decides to violate it like Marisol did for months.

Someone in this email needs to advocate for change, for children's safety, for all people's safety. If not, you're only becoming part of the problem by hearing and seeing further proof that my kids and I are suffering and no system is doing any due diligence to help. I will not rest until justice is served and no one else ever has to live this nightmare As I have and continue to do.

Thank you,

Ryan michaels

Oh, and please see that attached report from Ycare, the before and after school care program, that describes Marisol's criminal behavior towards my kids and my fiance. mind you this was at a school location and in front of many children and staff. This is who all of you are letting get away with anything she wants. And she wants me to suffer and also has no care for our children along the way. Marisol has been convicted of abuse towards her daughter. Her first guilty charge was in 2001, I was 9 years old at that time! People need to open their eyes and put effort into doing the RIGHT thing and protect people from this abuse.

Ryan,

Previously you stated that the boys would be dropped off at my place this morning at 8am.
It is now 8:10 and they haven't arrived. Has something changed? What time will the boys be coming? Inline image

I want to make a correction to the following :

Jul 12, 2024 (Renee's Arrest & Hospitalization)

- Renee is arrested, marking a significant escalation in her mental health struggles due to the circumstances CPS has constantly been inflicting on our family.
- Ryan finds out she has been hospitalized since July 12 and will remain for at least a week.
- Ryan expresses relief that she is finally receiving treatment but frustration that the system failed to intervene earlier."

  I Renee was hospitlized for a week last year by her own choice, and has been seeking help ever since. she is not currently in the hospital as I had mistakenly represented. in the heart of transparency and truth I wish to make this clear.

I want to make a correction to the following :

Jul 12, 2024 (Renee's Arrest & Hospitalization)

- Renee is arrested, marking a significant escalation in her mental health struggles due to the circumstances CPS has constantly been inflicting on our family.
- Ryan finds out she has been hospitalized since July 12 and will remain for at least a week.
- Ryan expresses relief that she is finally receiving treatment but frustration that the system failed to intervene earlier."
  I Renee was hospitlized for a week last year by her own choice, and has been seeking help ever since. she is not currently in the hospital as I had mistakenly represented. in the heart of transparency and truth I wish to make this clear.

> At this moment, I am facing wrongful income imputation in a child support ruling that was based on inaccurate financial assumptions rather than my actual earnings. I was recently laid off, yet the court—at the urging of my ex-wife, Marisol Guerrero—imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear, documented evidence that this figure is incorrect. I now have days left to appeal, while simultaneously fighting a system that has stripped me of my rights, my children, and my financial stability.
> I am requesting immediate review and corrective action from OCFS leadership regarding the following issues:

---

1. CPS's Retaliatory Actions & Failure to Protect My Children

📌 CPS substantiated allegations against me without interviewing me or reviewing key evidence.
📌 Video evidence proving my innocence was ignored.
📌 Marisol has been reported multiple times for abuse, yet CPS has failed to intervene.
📌 Reports from school staff, therapists, and childcare providers about Marisol's abuse were ignored.

Request: A formal review of all CPS actions in my case, including ignored abuse reports, fabricated claims, and unjustified jeopardy proceedings.

---

2. Marisol’s Continued Manipulation & Systemic Enabling

📌 Marisol has used CPS and the court system to enforce parental alienation and financial abuse.
📌 She has instructed my children not to talk about home life and obstructed court-ordered visits and calls.
📌 She has pursued legal action based on false financial claims, resulting in an incorrect income imputation.
📌 CPS has enabled her by failing to hold her accountable for repeated violations.

Request: Immediate enforcement of parental rights, ensuring my children are not wrongfully withheld or manipulated.

---

3. CPS's Negligence Led to My Fiancée’s Mental Health Crisis & Arrest

📌 CPS failed to act despite repeated reports about the stress and harm caused by this situation.
📌 Renee was arrested on July 12, 2024, after reaching a mental breaking point due to system failures.
📌 She is now hospitalized and receiving the care she needed long before this crisis—care that CPS failed to facilitate.

Request: An acknowledgment of CPS’s role in enabling the conditions that led to this crisis and assurance that similar failures will not occur in my case.

4. Wrongful Child Support Ruling & Financial Devastation

📌 At Marisol’s urging, the court imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear documentation proving my actual earnings were $97,000 before I was laid off.
📌 The figure was falsely based on temporary earnings and 401(k) withdrawals used for legal fees caused by Marisol’s financial abuse.
📌 I now owe over $10,000 in back child support and $2,400 per month—an impossible burden given my current financial hardship.

Request: A formal statement from OCFS acknowledging that my financial struggles are real and that CPS should not obstruct my ability to appeal the wrongful imputation.

5. OCFS Leadership’s Lack of Action & Oversight

📌 Emails prove OCFS leadership has repeatedly ignored my concerns, referring me back to caseworkers who refuse to act.
📌 CPS has repeatedly acted without proper oversight, enabling legal and financial manipulation against me.
📌 Despite multiple reports and documentation, no independent review of my case has been conducted.

Request: An immediate internal review of OCFS's handling of my case, including an independent review of CPS’s actions.

🔹 What I Am Asking for Today

I am not refusing cooperation—I am requesting basic fairness and accountability. My demands are simple:

✓ A full review of CPS's handling of my case, including ignored abuse reports and retaliatory actions.
✓ An immediate plan to enforce my parental rights and stop wrongful withholding of my children.
✓ An acknowledgment that the financial burden placed on me is unjust, and OCFS will not obstruct my right to appeal.
✓ A commitment to investigating the systemic failures that led to my fiancée's crisis and wrongful arrest.

If OCFS fails to act, I will have no choice but to escalate this matter to:
✓ Maine State Legislators & the Governor's Office for systemic CPS failures.
✓ Legal action against CPS for negligence, financial harm, and civil rights violations.
✓ Media & advocacy groups to expose the unjust treatment of fathers in the system.
✓ Congressional inquiries into how CPS weaponizes jeopardy cases.

I expect a response within 10 business days detailing what actions will be taken to correct these injustices.

This is not just about me—this is about protecting my children and ensuring that no one else suffers the way I have. I have complied at every step, and I have been met with retaliation, financial devastation, and alienation from my children.

This cannot continue.

P.S. My last interaction with CPS was an attempt to facilitate a call with my children, whom Marisol has been alienating from me since CPS coerced me into signing Marisol's amended divorce decree—an agreement solely designed to abuse and control me under the threat of jeopardy. Even the judge acknowledged, 'this seems more of a family court matter than jeopardy.'

When I visited the Sanford CPS office, I waited for 30 minutes, only to be greeted by two police officers who informed me that I was trespassed. To this day, no one has explained why. This has left me afraid to contact CPS, fearing punishment, retaliation, or even jail. The agency tasked with protecting families has become my greatest source of fear. I need help. Please.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

That got left out of his report though...instead he said my statement was innaccurate at parts which was untrue. Maybe because i just got beaten half to death?

Dhs directed my abuser to get. pfa on me and she had lied to me about this. Oh...and she never interviewed me the entire case. Just slapped me with a substantiation, took my kids due to a PFA, and refused to help in the past year despite many unbiased people reporting marisol 3 times in the past 5 months.

4.) I accepted the PFA ONLY to get my kids back after two months from my abuser and my childrens abuser.

Due to being neglected by the police, DHS, and not given an unbiased chance in court, and running out of money due to marisols abusive behavior and everyones failure to hold her accountable my life was ruined and my kids have been actively traumatized every day since.

This is all .1% of the story.

So just incase people decide to judge me, the guy with the PFA on him alleged to be a crazy abuser by someone (marisol) who factually faked a pregnancy and a still birth at the 9 month mark. Check the divorce decree and see what I had added regarding the unborn chid that was never real.its all so messed up. Someone needs to step up and help. Its unethical, unjust, and quite honestly lazy. My kids, my family, and I deserve better. No one deserves this.

I no longer have anything to say. Help me or deal with marisols non sense along with me for years.

Kind regards,

Ryan Michaels

I am done being taken advantage of and having my family's life ruined because of everyone's ignorance and failures to do their due diligence and their job. I will be filing congressional, I will not rest until Maine's PFA laws are fixed to stop enabling mentally ill abusers to further abuse people and ruin their lives. Why can't we mirror NH's PFA law? You know, the one that will drop a PFA if the plaintiff decides to violate it like Marisol did for months.

Someone in this email needs to advocate for change, for children's safety, for all people's safety. If not, you're only becoming part of the problem by hearing and seeing further proof that my kids and I are suffering and no system is doing any due diligence to help. I will not rest until justice is served and no one else ever has to live this nightmare As I have and continue to do.

Thank you,

Ryan michaels

Oh, and please see that attached report from Ycare, the before and after school care program, that describes Marisol's criminal behavior towards my kids and my fiance. mind you this was at a school location and in front of many children and staff. This is who all of you are letting get away with anything she wants. And she wants me to suffer and also has no care for our children along the way. Marisol has been convicted of abuse towards her daughter. Her first guilty charge was in 2001, I was 9 years old at that time! People need to open their eyes and put effort into doing the RIGHT thing and protect people from this abuse.

Ryan,

Previously you stated that the boys would be dropped off at my place this morning at 8am.
It is now 8:10 and they haven't arrived. Has something changed? What time will the boys be coming?

Dear Senator Rafferty,

I am reaching out once again with deep urgency, hoping that this time, my voice will finally be heard. Please take a moment to review the email I sent today—but more importantly, read the prior emails, who I sent them to, and the attached documentation.

I have spoken the truth, consistently and fearlessly, and yet my words have been met with silence. My story has the power to create real, meaningful change, not just for my family, but for countless others trapped in the same cycle of systemic failure. I just need someone to listen.

I have placed my faith in you, hoping that you will be the leader who stands up against the injustices that have plagued not only my life but the lives of so many others. I pray every day that you will be that person.

I ask you to consider this—not just for me, but for my two sons, who have been wrongfully estranged from me for over half a year. This is not speculation or assumption; it is provable fact—if only someone is willing to listen.

Across the country, members of Congress are pushing for long-overdue reforms, like the bulk legislation recently passed in Oklahoma. If similar reforms existed in Maine, I would not be suffering under these injustices today. These systems—CPS, the courts, law enforcement—were created to protect, not to be weaponized against innocent people. Yet time and time again, that is exactly what has happened.

Senator Rafferty, I implore you—please help me help us.

This is bigger than just my case. My story will—not if, but will—make a positive impact far beyond what we may realize today. Will you stand with me and be part of the solution?

Let's lead the effort toward justice, reform, and a system that truly serves the people it was meant to protect.

I am waiting for your response, and I sincerely hope that this time, I will not be met with silence.

With urgency and hope,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Urgent Request for OCFS Leadership to Address Systemic Failures & Legal Misconduct

Dear OCFS Leadership,

I am reaching out with deep frustration and concern over the longstanding systemic failures, legal injustices, and lack of action that have severely impacted my children, my livelihood, and my basic parental rights. Despite my repeated efforts to comply with court orders, provide documentation, and report abuse, I have been met with inaction, retaliation, and financial devastation—while my children remain in the custody of an abuser who has manipulated the system at every turn.

At this moment, I am facing wrongful income imputation in a child support ruling that was based on inaccurate financial assumptions rather than my actual earnings. I was recently laid off, yet the court—at the urging of my ex-wife, Marisol Guerrero—imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear, documented evidence that this figure is incorrect. I now have days left to appeal, while simultaneously fighting a system that has stripped me of my rights, my children, and my financial stability.

I am requesting immediate review and corrective action from OCFS leadership regarding the following issues:

1. CPS's Retaliatory Actions & Failure to Protect My Children

📌 CPS substantiated allegations against me without interviewing me or reviewing key evidence.
📌 Video evidence proving my innocence was ignored.
📌 Marisol has been reported multiple times for abuse, yet CPS has failed to intervene.
📌 Reports from school staff, therapists, and childcare providers about Marisol's abuse were ignored.

Request: A formal review of all CPS actions in my case, including ignored abuse reports, fabricated claims, and unjustified jeopardy proceedings.

---

2. Marisol’s Continued Manipulation & Systemic Enabling

📌 Marisol has used CPS and the court system to enforce parental alienation and financial abuse.
📌 She has instructed my children not to talk about home life and obstructed court-ordered visits and calls.
📌 She has pursued legal action based on false financial claims, resulting in an incorrect income imputation.
📌 CPS has enabled her by failing to hold her accountable for repeated violations.

Request: Immediate enforcement of parental rights, ensuring my children are not wrongfully withheld or manipulated.

---

3. CPS's Negligence Led to My Fiancée’s Mental Health Crisis & Arrest

📌 CPS failed to act despite repeated reports about the stress and harm caused by this situation.
📌 Renee was arrested on July 12, 2024, after reaching a mental breaking point due to system failures.
📌 She is now hospitalized and receiving the care she needed long before this crisis—care that CPS failed to facilitate.

Request: An acknowledgment of CPS’s role in enabling the conditions that led to this crisis and assurance that similar failures will not occur in my case.

4. Wrongful Child Support Ruling & Financial Devastation

📌 At Marisol’s urging, the court imputed my income at $133,000, despite clear documentation proving my actual earnings were $97,000 before I was laid off.
📌 The figure was falsely based on temporary earnings and 401(k) withdrawals used for legal fees caused by Marisol’s financial abuse.
📌 I now owe over $10,000 in back child support and $2,400 per month—an impossible burden given my current financial hardship.

Request: A formal statement from OCFS acknowledging that my financial struggles are real and that CPS should not obstruct my ability to appeal the wrongful imputation.

5. OCFS Leadership's Lack of Action & Oversight

📌 Emails prove OCFS leadership has repeatedly ignored my concerns, referring me back to caseworkers who refuse to act.
📌 CPS has repeatedly acted without proper oversight, enabling legal and financial manipulation against me.
📌 Despite multiple reports and documentation, no independent review of my case has been conducted.

Request: An immediate internal review of OCFS's handling of my case, including an independent review of CPS's actions.

🔹 What I Am Asking for Today

I am not refusing cooperation—I am requesting basic fairness and accountability. My demands are simple:

✓ A full review of CPS's handling of my case, including ignored abuse reports and retaliatory actions.
✓ An immediate plan to enforce my parental rights and stop wrongful withholding of my children.
✓ An acknowledgment that the financial burden placed on me is unjust, and OCFS will not obstruct my right to appeal.
✓ A commitment to investigating the systemic failures that led to my fiancée's crisis and wrongful arrest.

If OCFS fails to act, I will have no choice but to escalate this matter to:
✓ Maine State Legislators & the Governor's Office for systemic CPS failures.
✓ Legal action against CPS for negligence, financial harm, and civil rights violations.
✓ Media & advocacy groups to expose the unjust treatment of fathers in the system.
✓ Congressional inquiries into how CPS weaponizes jeopardy cases.

I expect a response within 10 business days detailing what actions will be taken to correct these injustices.

This is not just about me—this is about protecting my children and ensuring that no one else suffers the way I have. I have complied at every step, and I have been met with retaliation, financial devastation, and alienation from my children.

This cannot continue.

P.S. My last interaction with CPS was an attempt to facilitate a call with my children, whom Marisol has been alienating from me since CPS coerced me into signing Marisol's amended divorce decree—an agreement solely designed to abuse and control me under the threat of jeopardy. Even the judge acknowledged, 'this seems more of a family court matter than jeopardy.'

When I visited the Sanford CPS office, I waited for 30 minutes, only to be greeted by two police officers who informed me that I was trespassed. To this day, no one has explained why. This has left me afraid to contact CPS, fearing punishment, retaliation, or even jail. The agency tasked with protecting families has become my greatest source of fear. I need help. Please.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

This PFA exists against me, with 0 findings of abuse or harassment, only because I agreed to it after a severe documented brain injury I incurred after being assaulted without ever attacking my assailant back. The one who shot and grazed me and shot two other times in front of my kids. Yet i got arrested for assault and treaspassing. Both false and a terrible decision and that lead to this nightmare.

1.)arrested for crimes I didnt commit and proven so in court on both counts

2.)after the incident mr. Ledoux did not even take me to the hospital with a swollen face, depressed skull fracture, three fractures in my left eye, bullet graze, etc and I wasnt even offered medical care. Instead i was judged and told my statement made no sense...even though I clearly remember telling him to check her cameras. That got left out of his report though...instead he said my statement was innaccurate at parts which was untrue. Maybe because i just got beaten half to death?

3.) dhs got involved, lied to me up front by saying i couldn't take the kids because she didnt know if my "place was safe" and had to come see me first. Know what really happened? Dhs directed my abuser to get. pfa on me and she had lied to me about this. Oh...and she never interviewed me the entire case. Just slapped me with a substantiation, took my kids due to a PFA, and refused to help in the past year despite many unbiased people reporting marisol 3 times in the past 5 months.

4.) I accepted the PFA ONLY to get my kids back after two months from my abuser and my childrens abuser.

Due to being neglected by the police, DHS, and not given an unbiased chance in court, and running out of money due to marisols abusive behavior and everyones failure to hold her accountable my life was ruined and my kids have been actively traumatized every day since.

This is all .1% of the story.

So just incase people decide to judge me, the guy with the PFA on him alleged to be a crazy abuser by someone (marisol) who factually faked a pregnancy and a still birth at the 9 month mark. Check the divorce decree and see what I had added regarding the unborn chid that was never real.its all so messed up. Someone needs to step up and help. Its unethical, unjust, and quite honestly lazy. My kids, my family, and I deserve better. No one deserves this.

I no longer have anything to say. Help me or deal with marisols non sense along with me for years.

Kind regards,

Ryan Michaels

I listened.

and was there with reasonable cause and did not go there repeatedly. I was well within the law and everything done was in good faith.

Most importantly, you now see in the message from Marisol below expected me to show up at her house to drop the kids off today. She even took a picture from her car down her driveway, attached to an email from Marisol to me at 8 am this morning to show that I didn't show up to her house at the agreed upon time which was agreed on weeks attempts to get me arrested for placing my son's glasses in her mailbox with no bad intent or doing anything wrong, and yet now she expects me at her home days later?

Marisol's abuse and manipulation are clear to all. I don't cause drama. I don't abuse. I'm trying to live my life and protect my children. Yet no one does anything and i am targeted and failed by every system in place and more importantly aren't my children i've been screaming for help from everyone for years.

I hope this can make it to the DA as well.

And I also hope this further proves Marisol's insanity, abuse, manipulation, and should serve as a lesson learned to not be so trigger-happy to arrest me, distrust me, and to understand men can have trauma and be abused too.

I am done being taken advantage of and having my family's life ruined because of everyone's ignorance and failures to do their due diligence and their job. I will be filing congressional, I will not rest until Maine's PFA laws are fixed to stop enabling mentally ill abusers to further abuse people and ruin their lives. Why can't we mirror NH's PFA law? You know, the one that will drop a PFA if the plaintiff decides to violate it like Marisol did for months.

Someone in this email needs to advocate for change, for children's safety, for all people's safety. If not, you're only becoming part of the problem by hearing and seeing further proof that my kids and I are suffering and no system is doing any due diligence to help. I will not rest until justice is served and no one else ever has to live this nightmare As I have and continue to do.

Thank you,

Ryan michaels

Oh, and please see that attached report from Ycare, the before and after school care program, that describes Marisol's criminal behavior towards my kids and my fiance. mind you this was at a school location and in front of many children and staff. This is who all of you are letting get away with anything she wants. And she wants me to suffer and also has no care for our children along the way. Marisol has been convicted of abuse towards her daughter. Her first guilty charge was in 2001, I was 9 years old at that time! People need to open their eyes and put effort into doing the RIGHT thing and protect people from this abuse.

Ryan,

Previously you stated that the boys would be dropped off at my place this morning at 8am.
It is now 8:10 and they haven’t arrived. Has something changed? What time will the boys be coming? Inline image

Please share this with my son for his birthday.

Mom continues to be successful at alienating them from me 100% without cause and CPS is ignoring every call I give them, subsequently enabling all of her behavior and actions.

Please. Get my words to my son. Please.

"Happy 9th Birthday, Maddox

Today, my heart is both heavy and full. Heavy because I haven't heard your voice in 8 months. Full because no distance, no silence, and no injustice can ever change how much I love you.

Maddox, you are my son—my bright, incredible, kind-hearted boy. I want you to know, with every beat of my heart, that you did nothing wrong. None of this is your fault. You deserve to feel loved, safe, and celebrated, not just today, but every single day.

I wish I could wrap you in the biggest hug, tell you how proud I am of you, and remind you how deeply you are loved. I carry you with me in every moment, in every memory, and in every hope for the future. No matter how much time passes, I will never stop fighting for you.

So today, I celebrate you, Maddox. Your laughter, your curiosity, your strength. I hope that wherever you are, you feel even the smallest piece of the love I am sending your way. Happy 9th birthday, my son.

I love you endlessly.

Dad"

And if you'd be so kind...you can say, "dad wanted me to give you a handshake and do this"...if you squeeze his hand lightly 3 times it's our way of saying "I love you". He will know 💚

This is what matisol replies to just me with.

Take note...I've told her multiple occasions that appclose is not working for me. Nor should the focus be on making constant barriers and complications.

Please respond letting me know my boy heard my words and knows his father's loves him very much.

And although it's not man's birthday, please tell him I love him so much as well.

Thank you

And now she messages me on appclose and says this (attached).

Does anyone see what's going on?

How long before someone actually takes their mandated reporting guidelines seriously?

How long does a father have to be alienated from his two children? How long before i stop getting endless excuses, barriers, and nasty grams simply for requesting my son recieve a happy birthday message?

Someone speak with marisol about this. CPS won't do it because they hide behind their narrative themes wrote with marisols direction. And one day that truth will be exposed, and everyone will realize how much they aided this alienation.

Marisol should be aiding our kids having a relationship with their father not alienating them at all costs. Does everyone agree? OK great. So what gives?

Put my kids first and stop this abuse. Please. Someone.

And once again, she reaches out on an app I've repeatedly told her doesn't work for me.

No, Marisol. I have no benefits for the kids. I have nothing—no job, no income. I just started receiving disability pay from the VA… and yet, you had your lawyer file additional paperwork with the court to try and take that, too.

After falsely inflating my income to $136K and getting away with it. And when I appeal, pointing out that not only is that figure wildly inaccurate, but I'm also unemployed, you continue to hound me for $600 a week—completely ignoring my words when I tell you I've appealed it and need my case heard in court.

And then yesterday, I find out you filed a response to my appeal, asking for it to be dismissed—repeating the same lies. You are extorting a man you know has nothing, all while perpetuating the same cycle of abuse with no accountability and I have no way out.

Someone please help. Please.

All I wanted was for the school to convey a happy birthday message to my son because clearly Marisol is so focused on abusing me that she doesn't care what's good for her kids (as has been clearly demonstrated for a long time now...but no one dares stand up against CPS and marisol).

This is wrong. Wrong is wrong. Truth is truth. And im still to this very day fighting just simply to be heard.

My kids deserve people who advocate for them. Where are those people? Because the way i see it is imperative the only one truly advocating for what's right and I'm being systemically abused and alienated from the very kids I've spent my whole life protecting.

Where is the accountability?the transparency? Where's the help?

Subject: Urgent Plea for Help – Systemic Abuse & Financial Exploitation Enabled by the Courts

To whom ever cares to hear what I have to say,

I am reaching out in desperation, not just for myself, but for my children. My ex-wife, Marisol Guerrero, has successfully weaponized the legal system against me—using lies, financial manipulation, and systemic bias to destroy my life while keeping my children from me.

I have been fighting tirelessly to be heard, but no one will listen. Despite losing my job and repeatedly informing the courts of my actual financial situation, Marisol and her corrupt attorney, Amy Fairfield, have falsely inflated my income to $133,000—a completely fabricated figure. They just filed this week to deny my appeal, blocking me from even having my real income fairly represented.

Meanwhile, I am being financially drained while being completely alienated from my children. I have begged for phone calls, especially for my son Maddox's birthday just two days ago, and have been ignored. Yet, Marisol had no problem emailing me today—but only to ask for money (see forwarded email below). This isn't about my son and his fundraiser. This is a cruel, intentional dig—a reminder that she has power over me and the system enables her to abuse it.

CPS and law enforcement refuse to intervene, and every agency I turn to either ignores me or enables the injustice. My story is not unique—this is happening to so many good parents, and it needs to stop.

I am pleading for anyone to help guide me to someone who can actually fight this corruption and help me reunite with my children. If you or anyone you know can help me hold CPS and the courts accountable, please reach out.

I refuse to be another father erased from his children's lives by a broken, biased system.

Please help me.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

PSA: Have you ever witnessed a child being cut off from a loving parent without cause? Have you seen a child being taught to fear or resent their parent due to manipulation, rather than reality? If so, you may have witnessed parental alienation—a serious form of psychological abuse.

Parental alienation occurs when one parent actively works to turn a child against the other parent, often through lies, coercion, or emotional manipulation. This can include:

- Speaking negatively about the other parent to the child
- Blocking or restricting contact between the child and parent without valid reason
- Forcing the child to choose sides in a custody battle
- Falsely accusing the other parent of abuse to justify keeping the child away
- Interfering with court-ordered visitation or communication

Parental alienation is not just harmful—it's abusive. It can cause severe emotional damage to children, leading to long-term issues such as anxiety, depression, low self-esteem, and relationship difficulties.

So, does parental alienation rise to the level of a CPS report?

The answer is yes—if it involves psychological abuse, coercion, or emotional harm that significantly affects the child's well-being. If a parent is deliberately causing severe emotional distress, obstructing a court order, or manipulating a child into rejecting their other parent, this may be grounds for a Child Protective Services (CPS) report.

If you believe a child is being maliciously alienated from their parent in the state of Maine, you have the right to speak up.

📞 Call Maine CPS at (1-800-452-1999) to report suspected cases of parental alienation.

Every child deserves a loving, healthy relationship with both parents—free from manipulation, coercion, or control. If you see something, say something. A child's future may depend on it.

Subject: Urgent Plea for Help – Systemic Abuse & Financial Exploitation Enabled by the Courts

To whom ever cares to hear what I have to say,

I am reaching out in desperation, not just for myself, but for my children. My ex-wife, Marisol Guerrero, has successfully weaponized the legal system against me—using lies, financial manipulation, and systemic bias to destroy my life while keeping my children from me.

I have been fighting tirelessly to be heard, but no one will listen. Despite losing my job and repeatedly informing the courts of my actual financial situation, Marisol and her corrupt attorney, Amy Fairfield, have falsely inflated my income to $133,000—a completely fabricated figure. They just filed this week to deny my appeal, blocking me from even having my real income fairly represented.

Meanwhile, I am being financially drained while being completely alienated from my children. I have begged for phone calls, especially for my son Maddox's birthday just two days ago, and have been ignored. Yet, Marisol had no problem emailing me today—but only to ask for money (see forwarded email below). This isn't about my son and his fundraiser. This is a cruel, intentional dig—a reminder that she has power over me and the system enables her to abuse it.

CPS and law enforcement refuse to intervene, and every agency I turn to either ignores me or enables the injustice. My story is not unique—this is happening to so many good parents, and it needs to stop.

I am pleading for anyone to help guide me to someone who can actually fight this corruption and help me reunite with my children. If you or anyone you know can help me hold CPS and the courts accountable, please reach out.

I refuse to be another father erased from his children's lives by a broken, biased system.

Please help me.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

PSA: Have you ever witnessed a child being cut off from a loving parent without cause? Have you seen a child being taught to fear or resent their parent due to manipulation, rather than reality? If so, you may have witnessed parental alienation—a serious form of psychological abuse.

Parental alienation occurs when one parent actively works to turn a child against the other parent, often through lies, coercion, or emotional manipulation. This can include:

- Speaking negatively about the other parent to the child
- Blocking or restricting contact between the child and parent without valid reason
- Forcing the child to choose sides in a custody battle
- Falsely accusing the other parent of abuse to justify keeping the child away
- Interfering with court-ordered visitation or communication

Parental alienation is not just harmful—it's abusive. It can cause severe emotional damage to children, leading to long-term issues such as anxiety, depression, low self-esteem, and relationship difficulties.

So, does parental alienation rise to the level of a CPS report?

The answer is yes—if it involves psychological abuse, coercion, or emotional harm that significantly affects the child's well-being. If a parent is deliberately causing severe emotional distress, obstructing a court order, or manipulating a child into rejecting their other parent, this may be grounds for a Child Protective Services (CPS) report.

If you believe a child is being maliciously alienated from their parent in the state of Maine, you have the right to speak up.

📞 Call Maine CPS at (1-800-452-1999) to report suspected cases of parental alienation.

Every child deserves a loving, healthy relationship with both parents—free from manipulation, coercion, or control. If you see something, say something. A child's future may depend on it.

This response from Marisol is a textbook example of gaslighting and manipulation—twisting the reality of the situation to invalidate my legitimate concerns while pretending to take the moral high ground. (See attached)

She completely ignores:

- That I am being financially abused.
- That my children are being actively alienated from me.
- That my appeal, based on factually incorrect income assumptions, was just denied.
- That she ignored my attempts to communicate for my son's birthday but conveniently has time to respond only when it suits her.
- That she suddenly sends this message through the app she knows does not work for me—further proving that she controls the narrative and chooses when she will and won't communicate.

Her response does not acknowledge any wrongdoing. Instead, she minimizes my concerns, tries to shame me for standing up for myself, and demands that I "keep communications focused on the children" when she is the one preventing me from speaking to them.

This is exactly what systemic abuse looks like—selective enforcement, gaslighting, and legal loopholes being used to dehumanize and erase a parent from their child's life.

This response from Marisol is a textbook example of gaslighting and manipulation—twisting the reality of the situation to invalidate my legitimate concerns while pretending to take the moral high ground. (See attached)

She completely ignores:

- That I am being financially abused.
- That my children are being actively alienated from me.
- That my appeal, based on factually incorrect income assumptions, was just denied.
- That she ignored my attempts to communicate for my son's birthday but conveniently has time to respond only when it suits her.
- That she suddenly sends this message through the app she knows does not work for me—further proving that she controls the narrative and chooses when she will and won’t communicate.

Her response does not acknowledge any wrongdoing. Instead, she minimizes my concerns, tries to shame me for standing up for myself, and demands that I “keep communications focused on the children” when she is the one preventing me from speaking to them.

This is exactly what systemic abuse looks like—selective enforcement, gaslighting, and legal loopholes being used to dehumanize and erase a parent from their child’s life.

> Subject: Urgent Plea for Help – Systemic Abuse & Financial Exploitation Enabled by the Courts

To whom ever cares to hear what I have to say,

I am reaching out in desperation, not just for myself, but for my children. My ex-wife, Marisol Guerrero, has successfully weaponized the legal system against me—using lies, financial manipulation, and systemic bias to destroy my life while keeping my children from me.

I have been fighting tirelessly to be heard, but no one will listen. Despite losing my job and repeatedly informing the courts of my actual financial situation, Marisol and her corrupt attorney, Amy Fairfield, have falsely inflated my income to $133,000—a completely fabricated figure. They just filed this week to deny my appeal, blocking me from even having my real income fairly represented.

Meanwhile, I am being financially drained while being completely alienated from my children. I have begged for phone calls, especially for my son Maddox's birthday just two days ago, and have been ignored. Yet, Marisol had no problem emailing me today—but only to ask for money (see forwarded email below). This isn't about my son and his fundraiser. This is a cruel, intentional dig—a reminder that she has power over me and the system enables her to abuse it.

CPS and law enforcement refuse to intervene, and every agency I turn to either ignores me or enables the injustice. My story is not unique—this is happening to so many good parents, and it needs to stop.

I am pleading for anyone to help guide me to someone who can actually fight this corruption and help me reunite with my children. If you or anyone you know can help me hold CPS and the courts accountable, please reach out.

I refuse to be another father erased from his children's lives by a broken, biased system.

Please help me.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

PSA: Have you ever witnessed a child being cut off from a loving parent without cause? Have you seen a child being taught to fear or resent their parent due to manipulation, rather than reality? If so, you may have witnessed parental alienation—a serious form of psychological abuse.

Parental alienation occurs when one parent actively works to turn a child against the other parent, often through lies, coercion, or emotional manipulation. This can include:

- Speaking negatively about the other parent to the child
- Blocking or restricting contact between the child and parent without valid reason
- Forcing the child to choose sides in a custody battle
- Falsely accusing the other parent of abuse to justify keeping the child away
- Interfering with court-ordered visitation or communication

Parental alienation is not just harmful—it's abusive. It can cause severe emotional damage to children, leading to long-term issues such as anxiety, depression, low self-esteem, and relationship difficulties.

So, does parental alienation rise to the level of a CPS report?

The answer is yes—if it involves psychological abuse, coercion, or emotional harm that significantly affects the child's well-being. If a parent is deliberately causing severe emotional distress, obstructing a court order, or manipulating a child into rejecting their other parent, this may be grounds for a Child Protective Services (CPS) report.

If you believe a child is being maliciously alienated from their parent in the state of Maine, you have the right to speak up.

📞 Call Maine CPS at (1-800-452-1999) to report suspected cases of parental alienation.

Every child deserves a loving, healthy relationship with both parents—free from manipulation, coercion, or control. If you see something, say something. A child's future may depend on it.

Motion for Reconsideration Filed with the Court

Dear Amy and Marisol,

I am writing to inform you that I have mailed my Motion for Reconsideration to the court today, and I have attached a copy for your reference.

Amy, I am deeply disheartened that you have repeatedly ignored my voice in every call we have had, as well as in my written communication outlining my actual salary. Instead of acknowledging the truth, I have been met with both you and Marisol persistently pushing to have my income wrongfully inflated for your own benefit.

I have already provided Lisa with all necessary documentation, and if she failed to forward it, that is not a reflection of my actions or willingness to comply. I have done everything in my power to be transparent and forthcoming, yet I continue to face a mountain of accusations while living a life without my children, who have been wrongfully taken from me. You can claim otherwise, but just like this court proceeding I've been denied due process and the ability to be heard. And Amy, this truth isn't something that disappears simply because you represent someone who opposes me.

While I endure consistent barriers being placed between me and my children, all I see from you both is an endless stream of legal filings aimed at extracting money I do not even make or have. This is not justice—it is manipulation, and I refuse to remain silent while my life is torn apart.

However, instead of ruminating on the sad reality I'm constantly forced to live in, i will simply continue looking forward to the opportunity to be heard in court, where fairness and due process are fundamental to justice. When that time comes, I will be ready and willing to answer any and all questions you may have with honesty and transparency. In that same spirit, I trust that you, too, will be prepared to answer mine. Everyone deserves the chance to present their truth, and I remain hopeful that through open and fair proceedings, clarity and justice will prevail.

Marisol,

I have already provided my financial documents to my attorney, and if they were not forwarded to you, that is not a reflection of my willingness to comply. I have made every effort to be transparent in this process and have complied with the court's discovery requirements to the best of my ability.

If there are specific documents that you believe are missing, please provide a clear and reasonable request, and I will review accordingly. However, I will not engage in redundant or excessive demands meant to place unnecessary burdens on me.

I trust that the court will assess all relevant information fairly, and I remain focused on ensuring a just and accurate resolution.

Ryan,

As previously stated, the request was for you to provide your bank statements, which have not been submitted. I also have documentation from your attorney confirming that she informed you the documents you provided were not actual bank statements.

If you would like to provide the requested bank statements for discovery, please feel free to do so. If not, I don't believe there is anything further for us to discuss.

Have a great day!

Marisol,

I want to be clear that I do not feel safe communicating with you directly. Your constant conflict, aggressive language, and adversarial approach are extremely detrimental to my mental health. Every interaction with you is triggering, and I wish that you could approach this situation with civility and mutual respect rather than continued hostility.

I have repeatedly expressed that I am struggling financially and no longer have an attorney to handle these matters on my behalf. This is not new information—I have said this for months. Despite this, you continue to push and escalate conflict rather than showing any consideration for the difficult position I am in.

At this point, I only feel comfortable discussing legal matters in court, in front of a judge, or through proper legal channels. I am not comfortable engaging in direct communication with you, and I would appreciate if you ceased this aggressive behavior.

If the court requires additional documentation from me, I will provide it directly to the court as needed. I will not continue to engage in this toxic back-and-forth, as it serves no purpose other than causing me unnecessary distress.

Marisol, Amy, and Phoebe,

I noticed that Marisol removed Amy and Phoebe from the conversation before sending her last response. (Screenshot attached) Given the importance of transparency and accurate documentation, I am adding them back in so that all communications remain professional and above board.

Marisol, while I appreciate any sentiment of concern, I find it deeply disingenuous and harmful when it is paired with a long-standing pattern of manipulation, projection, and control. I have been healing, growing, and fighting for fairness despite the relentless legal and personal attacks I continue to endure. It is not me who needs to reflect on my actions, but rather the person who continues to exploit, distort, and harm others under the guise of righteousness.

Going forward, I ask that all necessary communications remain on record and in the presence of legal professionals. I will no longer engage in direct discussions that lack accountability.

Subject: Urgent: Communication Barriers & Misrepresentation of Income in Child Support Case

Dear Ms. Fairfield, Marisol, and Paralegal,

I am reaching out to formally address the ongoing communication challenges Marisol has created and the continued financial strain resulting from the misrepresentation of my income in the child support order.

Attached are screenshots showing my attempts to communicate, despite AppClose not allowing me to reply. I have clearly informed Marisol of this issue, yet she continues to selectively message me through the app while also engaging via text. Instead of working toward a resolution, this creates additional barriers to effective communication.

Additionally, I have appealed the child support order, which was based on an inaccurate income figure. Despite my repeated attempts to clarify my actual earnings, my statements were disregarded in court. Now, after already experiencing significant financial hardship—including the loss of my job—Marisol continues to demand nearly $600 weekly, along with additional expenses, knowing full well that I currently have no income.

This situation is no longer about ensuring financial support for my children—it has become a pattern of financial coercion and legal overreach. I request that all future discussions regarding financial matters be handled through legal channels rather than direct communication from Marisol. If there are concerns to be addressed, I expect them to be resolved through the court system.

Furthermore, Ms. Fairfield, I want to ensure that due process is followed moving forward, and that any financial determinations accurately reflect my true earnings rather than assumptions. Given the inconsistencies in how my income was calculated, I intend to seek full transparency in how these figures were determined.

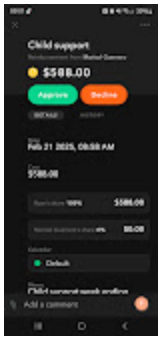

I look forward to addressing this properly in court and request confirmation that my appeal is being processed accordingly. In the meantime, I ask that direct financial demands from Marisol cease, as they are contributing to ongoing distress and an already challenging situation.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

As I have already stated to Ryan, per the court order, all communication is to go through AppClose. If he is having issues with the app, he is free to send another link or resolve the issue on his end Regarding Ryan's selective screenshots, I will be obtaining the official transcripts from my phone company and from AppClose, which will reflect the full conversation rather than the small portions he has chosen to share. These will be available for the next court date.

I will continue to send weekly invoices for the court-ordered child support through AppClose, as I have been. This ensures proper documentation of payments or lack thereof in an organized manner.

Have a great day!

Subject: Re: Communication & Ongoing Financial Harassment

Marisol, Amy, and Pheobe,

It is clear from your response that, once again, my words are being dismissed. Since informing you that I have been laid off and am actively contesting an unjust child support order—one that was based on knowingly false financial assumptions—Marisol has continued to harass me for over $1,800 in payments.

This is financial, emotional, and mental abuse.

Marisol, you are intentionally making communication more difficult by forcing it through an app I have repeatedly stated does not work. I have provided evidence that it is not functional, yet you continue to weaponize this as an excuse to create further barriers. The reality is that the medium of communication is irrelevant when the substance of my words is ignored.

Additionally, your threat to obtain “official transcripts” is laughable at best. Nothing I have shared is taken out of context. In fact, I encourage you to pull the full records—because they will only further prove the financial abuse, manipulation, and obstruction you have engaged in while simultaneously refusing to let me see or even hear from my children.

Let me be clear:

- I do not owe what you claim, and this will be addressed in court.
- I will not engage in back-and-forth games while you continue to refuse any meaningful resolution.
- Your continued demands for money, despite knowing my financial situation, are nothing short of coercion and abuse.
- Until a fair and just resolution is reached in court, I will not entertain further harassment.

Fixing AppClose is not my priority—nor should it have to be. My focus remains on fighting for my rights as a father and ending this ongoing injustice.

Your continued refusal to acknowledge my words will not go unnoticed. See you in court.

Subject: Urgent: Continued Parental Alienation, Financial Harassment & Legal Abuse

Dear Amy, Marisol, and Phoebe,

I am once again forced to follow up on Marisol's continued parental alienation, financial harassment, and blatant legal abuse, all of which remain unaddressed.

The attached images further prove her deliberate obstruction—not only is she ignoring my direct requests for something as basic as my children's clothing sizes or the ability to hear their voices, but she is also now creating additional barriers between my children and their grandfather, my father. She is playing both sides—demanding that my father reach out to her for communication, only to ignore his messages when he does. This is manipulation, plain and simple.

At the same time, she continues to harass me for child support payments that are based on knowingly false financial information—figures that I have actively appealed and made clear are inaccurate. I have repeatedly stated that I am currently unemployed, yet these demands persist, even though the matter is still unresolved in court.

Amy, when are you going to step in? Are you going to continue enabling your client's ongoing abuse, or are you finally going to address the fact that she is:

1. Refusing to allow me any contact with my children, despite multiple documented attempts.
2. Ignoring basic requests that would allow me to provide for my children, such as their clothing sizes.
3. Creating additional barriers for my father while actively alienating my children from their family.
4. Relentlessly pursuing financial demands that are both unjust and knowingly based on incorrect data, despite my clear appeals and documentation of financial hardship.

This cannot continue. Marisol is not just withholding my children—she is using them as leverage while abusing the system to maintain financial and emotional control over me.

I demand an immediate explanation and resolution regarding:

- The ongoing parental alienation and why it continues unchecked.
- Why financial demands are being made when I have clearly contested the figures and am unemployed.
- Why Marisol is being allowed to manipulate communication with both me and my father.

This is harassment, coercion, and a violation of my parental rights. I am done being ignored. I expect an urgent response.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Response to Opposition & Continued Violations of My Rights

Dear Amy, Marisol, and Phoebe, Michelle,

It is both appalling and entirely unsurprising to receive yet another document filled with blatant misrepresentations and continued attempts to obstruct my right to a fair hearing.

Let me be very clear:

1. The child support order was based on knowingly false financial figures—figures that I explicitly contested and continue to appeal. I have repeatedly made it known that my actual income was misrepresented, yet your client continues to exploit this falsehood to financially abuse and harass me.

2. I have been actively denied access to my children for their entire third-grade year—not a single call, not a single visit—despite my dozens of civil and reasonable requests. I have begged to hear my children's voices, even for a moment, and have been stonewalled at every turn. This is textbook parental alienation, and Marisol is weaponizing the legal system to carry it out unchecked.

3. Marisol selectively controls communication—she has ignored requests for basic information (such as my children's clothing sizes when I was trying to purchase birthday gifts) while simultaneously demanding financial payments. Even my own father, who reached out in good faith, was met with deflection and refusal. This is deliberate obstruction, and it is unacceptable.

4. The claim that I failed to comply with discovery is false—I provided documentation, and the court's decision was made without affording me the opportunity to fully present my case. The assertion that I "chose" not to be present is a complete distortion of reality.

Your office continues to enable systemic abuse, financial coercion, and legal harassment, and this latest filing is just another attempt to silence me while allowing Marisol to continue violating both the letter and spirit of the law.

I will not be intimidated. I will not allow these tactics to erase my role as a father, nor will I allow Marisol's ongoing abuse and alienation to go unchallenged. I will continue to demand a fair hearing, and I will continue to expose every instance of wrongdoing that has taken place in this case.

I will be attaching documented proof of my ignored communication attempts, financial hardship, and the ongoing alienation. The fact that these issues are not only being ignored but outright denied in your latest response is further proof of the corruption I am fighting against.

I expect a formal response addressing these ongoing violations of my parental rights. Failing that, this will be included as further evidence of your client's ongoing misconduct and your firm's complicity in these abuses.

Mind keeping me in the loop on what that is?

I see you filed an order to block my appeal claiming I lied. Yet again...denying my attempts to be heard. And still driving after getting me to pay as if I make 133,000 (36k more than I ever have) .

Really sick and tired of the games here.

Maybe you could...I don't know...let my kids call me for the first time since July of last year? Maybe let me say a happy birthday for tomorrow?

This is sick. And I can't wait until the truth of everything is out and your abuse of power and control is gone. My kids deserve better.

They deserve a dad in their life. Remember that.

Subject: Immediate Action Required: Ongoing Financial Abuse and Retaliatory Harassment

Amy, Marisol, and All Concerned Parties,

Marisol's latest message is nothing more than a blatant attempt to silence me while she continues to financially abuse me, alienate my children, and manipulate the legal system to her advantage. I will not be intimidated into silence while my rights—and my children's rights—are repeatedly violated.

To be clear:

- Marisol has knowingly led the court to deny my appeal based on false financial information that grossly inflates my income.

- She is now filing to go after my VA disability—the only income I have left—despite full knowledge that I am unemployed and drowning in debt due to her legal warfare.

- She continues to demand outrageous sums of money—over $2,400 per month—which is not only unrealistic for an unemployed person but also an intentional financial attack meant to keep me powerless.

- She has ignored every single attempt I have made to communicate civilly about my children—including my requests to speak with them on my son's birthday—yet she has time to send me fundraiser requests for donations?

This is systemic abuse. This is harassment. This is retaliation for simply standing up for myself.

Amy, you have a responsibility to speak against abuse. You are an officer of the court, and you have witnessed first-hand how this system is being weaponized against me. By remaining silent, you are complicit in enabling this abuse.

I demand:

1. That all future financial requests cease immediately until my appeal is properly heard and based on factual financials.

2. That my VA disability is left untouched, as it is protected income for a disabled veteran—an issue that should never even be up for discussion.

3. That I am given immediate and fair access to my children, as this ongoing alienation is nothing short of cruel and inexcusable.

Enough is enough. If this continues, I will pursue every legal and public avenue available to ensure that this corruption, abuse, and outright harassment is exposed for what it is.

I expect a response. This cannot and will not continue.

Subject: Ongoing Communication Barriers and Intentional Obstruction

Marisol,

Once again, you are deliberately using an app that I have repeatedly stated does not work for me, ensuring that I cannot properly respond or engage in necessary discussions regarding my children and financial matters. This is an intentional barrier and further proof of your ongoing manipulation and obstruction.

If you truly intended to resolve matters, you would engage in consistent and accessible communication rather than strategically using platforms that you know prevent me from responding.

Addressing your claims:

1. Supervised Visitation:
- I have made every effort to comply, yet you have continuously presented unreasonable, unavailable, or costly supervision options that are not in line with what the court ordered.
- You have rejected reasonable, court-compliant alternatives, effectively ensuring that I cannot see my children while blaming me for "inaction." This is calculated alienation.

2. Child Support and Financial Abuse:
- You are fully aware that my income was grossly inflated by the court, based on false financials you and your attorney misrepresented and manipulated to gain advantage.
- You are also aware that I am unemployed and that you are now seeking to take my only remaining income—VA disability benefits—which are protected funds.
- Despite this, you continue to submit outrageous and relentless financial demands, knowing that I cannot and should not be paying based on these false figures. That is financial abuse.

3. Communication Issues:
- You ignore my texts and emails when I request information about my children.
- You refuse to acknowledge my attempts to engage in fair and open discussions about visitations and financial obligations.
- Yet, you strategically reach out only when it benefits you, using methods that prevent me from responding—then claim that I am "refusing" to communicate.

This pattern of obstruction and manipulation must stop. I am demanding a single, accessible method of communication where these issues can be addressed transparently and fairly. If you continue to isolate me from my children, falsely accuse me, and abuse the system to financially devastate me, I will escalate this legally and publicly.

You cannot continue to manipulate reality and expect to avoid accountability. The more you try to silence me, the more evident your actions become.

Ryan Michaels

Subject: Continued Harassment & Need for Immediate Intervention

Dear Amy,

It has been made abundantly clear that Marisol is choosing to ignore my repeated requests for communication to remain focused solely on when I will see or hear from my children. Despite my explicit and well-documented statements that AppClose has not been working for me—and my repeated attempts to communicate this—she continues to use it as a means to control the narrative and dismiss my concerns. I have also provided evidence of the issues I have encountered, yet she persists in gaslighting me and pretending as though this is a "choice" rather than a technical limitation that I have repeatedly documented.

Additionally, she is continuing her targeted harassment and financial abuse, despite full knowledge that I am unemployed, financially devastated, and fighting an appeal based on fabricated financial records that she and her legal team knowingly submitted. Rather than showing any good faith or humanity in this process, she continues to demand outrageous sums of money and use the legal system as a weapon to further harm and dehumanize me.

I am once again requesting that ALL communication be strictly limited to updates regarding when I will see or speak to my children. If there are no updates, then I am waiting for the courts to schedule our hearing so I can formally present all of this evidence and expose the systemic manipulation and abuse that is being allowed to continue. There is no need for any further communication beyond this. Anything else is unnecessary harassment and an attempt to provoke, control, or manipulate the situation further.

Amy, as Marisol’s legal representative, you have a professional responsibility to step in and advise her to cease all non-essential communication immediately. If there is no update on my ability to see my children, there is no reason for her to continue reaching out with anything else.

This situation has gone beyond what is acceptable, and I will continue to document every instance of targeted harassment, financial abuse, and deliberate obstruction of my parental rights.

I expect acknowledgment of this request and for it to be taken seriously.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Continued Harassment, False Accusations & Demand for Immediate Cease of Non-Essential Contact

Dear Amy,

Marisol has once again chosen to escalate her harassment by making baseless accusations regarding my financial situation, child support, and communication. Her latest message is yet another example of her gaslighting, manipulation, and outright misrepresentation of facts.

She continues to ignore my repeated and documented issues with AppClose and instead falsely claims that I have not provided sufficient evidence. She has had every opportunity to acknowledge the issue in good faith but instead continues to use it as an excuse to antagonize and control communication. I have provided screenshots, informed all relevant parties, and made multiple efforts to engage through alternative means that actually work—yet she refuses to engage constructively unless it serves her narrative.

Now, she has escalated further by outright lying about my financial circumstances, accusing me of dishonesty regarding my income, and implying that I have willfully neglected my responsibilities. These claims are patently false, as she is fully aware that my financial information was misrepresented in court, she intentionally chose to file paperwork in an attempt to block my appeal and request for a fair hearing to be had, and I am currently unemployed. She and her legal counsel are well aware of these facts, yet she persists in demanding payments that are beyond my financial ability.

Her continued insistence that I am "choosing not to contribute" is not only false but a blatant attempt to portray me as neglectful, when in reality, she is leveraging the legal system to financially and emotionally break me while withholding access to my children. This is financial abuse, legal abuse, and parental alienation, and it needs to stop immediately.

I am formally requesting once again that Marisol cease all communications unless it pertains directly to when I will be seeing or speaking with my children. If there is no update, then there is no need for contact.

Amy, as her legal representative, you have a professional and ethical responsibility to advise your client to stop this harassment. If she continues with these abusive messages, I will continue documenting everything and presenting it in court when the time comes.

This behavior is unacceptable, and I expect you to acknowledge and act on this request.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Urgent: Continued Harassment, False Accusations, and Obstruction of Visitation

Dear Amy,

Marisol has once again escalated her harassment, making false claims, misrepresenting reality, and continuing her relentless financial and legal abuse. Her latest messages are clear evidence of her intentional efforts to alienate me from my children, financially cripple me, and manipulate the system to maintain control.

1. Supervised Visitation
Marisol falsely claims that I have made no effort to set up supervised visits. The reality is that I did attempt to set up visits through Triumph, but they failed to follow through, and Marisol actively worked to put up additional barriers, including calling my therapist to question her professional note. I was also told I had to pay for a minimum of two hours, yet Marisol refused to allow even 30-minute visits despite having full control over these decisions. This is not about the well-being of the children—it is about control and continued abuse.

2. Child Support and Financial Abuse
She is demanding over $2,400 per month from an unemployed, 100% disabled veteran, knowing full well that I lost my job and that my disability is a direct result of the abuse she inflicted on me. She is actively trying to push me into financial ruin while refusing to acknowledge the fraudulent financial numbers that were used against me in court. She and her lawyer knowingly led the court to block my appeal based on false financial information. This is financial abuse in its purest form.

3. Communication & Harassment
Marisol is continuing to send unnecessary, antagonistic messages that serve no purpose other than to control, gaslight, and harass. I have asked repeatedly that communication be limited to matters regarding when I will see or hear from my children. If there are no updates, there is no need for contact. Yet, she continues sending inflammatory and abusive messages that do nothing to resolve anything.

Amy, I am demanding that you advise your client to cease all non-essential communication immediately. Marisol is fully aware of what she is doing. Her actions are intentional, and her continued behavior only further proves the extent of her abuse.

If this continues, I will pursue every legal avenue necessary to expose this manipulation, obstruction, and ongoing abuse. I expect a response regarding when I will see or speak to my children again—anything outside of that is harassment and will be documented accordingly.

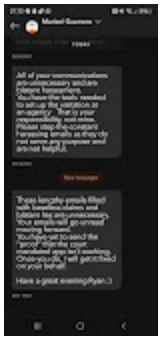

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Ongoing Communication Barriers, AppClose Issues & Continued Obstruction

Dear Marisol, Amy, and all relevant parties,

I am writing to formally address the ongoing obstruction of my communication and court-ordered access to my children. Marisol's recent attempts to shift the narrative—both regarding AppClose technical difficulties and visitation arrangements—demonstrate a continued pattern of manipulation rather than a genuine effort to co-parent.

Key Issues & Contradictions

1. Misrepresentation of Communication Issues & AppClose Support Inquiry

- Marisol only contacted AppClose support on March 9, 2025, despite my repeated reports that the app was not working for me.
- In prior AppClose messages (March 7 and earlier), she accused me of refusing to communicate instead of acknowledging the legitimate technical issue she now admits to.
- AppClose Support (Yesenia) at 2:13 PM on March 9 confirmed that they need ME to reach out for assistance—meaning Marisol still does not have confirmation that the app is working for me, yet she continues to insist on using it as the sole communication method.
- If her concern were genuine, she would have ensured the issue was resolved before continuing to weaponize communication as a barrier rather than a tool for co-parenting.

2. Misrepresentation of Visitation Efforts & Intentional Delays

Since Marisol has previously misrepresented the facts about my ability to see my children, I want to set the record straight for everyone included in this email:

- Triumph Family Services confirmed that they were unable to find a monitor in my area, which is the real reason in-person visits have not occurred—not due to any refusal or failure on my part.
- I requested alternative options, including Zoom calls, which were later offered as a temporary solution. Marisol originally claimed the children lacked a suitable device, yet multiple alternatives existed (AppClose, supervised calls via a neutral party, etc.), proving this was just another unnecessary obstacle.
- I agreed to all conditions presented to facilitate visitation, including suggested supervisors and scheduled times. Yet, despite my full compliance, the delays continued.
- When I questioned why I was being required to pay for Zoom calls that could have been done for free, Triumph Family Services avoided answering.
- My father—who Marisol originally approved as a supervisor—was later blocked from contacting the children, further demonstrating how this process has been weaponized.
- Marisol suddenly agreed to Sunday Zoom calls only after I began presenting undeniable evidence of her contradictions and manipulations. This was after months of unnecessary roadblocks, proving these barriers were never about the children's best interests, but about control.
- Triumph Family Services ultimately withdrew from facilitating visits, citing my "negative remarks" after I repeatedly called out the blatant inconsistencies and financial burdens being placed on me unjustly.

At no point have I refused to cooperate. The record speaks for itself—I have done everything asked of me, only to be met with continuous delays, excuses, and contradictions from Marisol.

3. Selective Communication & Control

- Marisol continues to ignore direct requests (e.g., my request for Maddox to call me on his birthday) while selectively sending accusatory messages via AppClose.
- Despite knowing I have technical difficulties with AppClose, she refuses to allow alternative communication methods (SMS/email) while freely using them herself when it suits her.
- She has failed to ensure that the AppClose issue is resolved yet insists on using it as a barrier, not a solution.

Beyond this, I have made multiple direct requests for information regarding the care my boys have been receiving. Each time, I have received nothing. Yet, Marisol had no issue sending me three more bills yesterday, demonstrating how she conveniently prioritizes financial demands over transparency about my children's well-being.

Amy, I have continuously raised concerns about Marisol's behavior, her contradictions, and her blatant misuse of the legal system against me. You have ignored these concerns every single time. I have asked, more than once, for a meaningful conversation about my children, yet I am still waiting. I am jobless, waiting to appeal knowingly false income numbers, and still waiting to hear from or see my kids.

At this point, the burden is on you to explain why the only communication I receive is related to money, while every request I make about my children's well-being is met with silence. I expect an actual response addressing these ongoing concerns.

p.s.

Parental alienation is not just a personal struggle—it is a recognized form of emotional and psychological abuse. The actions described in this email fit the definition of such abuse and are directly harming my children. Given that some of the individuals copied here may be considered mandated reporters in the state of Maine, I want to take a moment to highlight what the law says about this issue and the obligations it places on professionals who are aware of it.

Parental Alienation & Mandated Reporting PSA (Maine)

What is Parental Alienation?
Parental Alienation occurs when one parent actively works to damage the relationship between a child and their other parent, often through manipulation, psychological coercion, and false narratives. It is recognized as a form of emotional abuse because it deprives children of a healthy bond with a fit and willing parent.

Signs of Parental Alienation Include:

- Refusing communication between the child and the other parent (e.g., ignoring calls, blocking messages).
- Making false allegations to authorities or third parties to justify limiting contact.
- Guilt-tripping the child into believing the alienated parent is dangerous, unloving, or abandoning them.
- Ignoring court-ordered visitation or communication.

Why This Matters Legally:
In Maine, emotional abuse—including psychological manipulation that causes distress to a child—can meet the definition of child abuse under state law.

Furthermore, Maine law requires all mandated reporters (teachers, therapists, counselors, medical professionals, law enforcement, and CPS workers) to report suspected child abuse, including emotional and psychological harm. Failing to report such abuse is a violation of professional and legal obligations.

Mandated Reporters Have a Legal Duty to Act.
If an individual is aware of parental alienation causing psychological harm to a child, they are legally obligated to report it. Neglecting to do so can result in civil or criminal liability under Maine's mandated reporting statutes.

This is not just a personal matter—it is a recognized form of abuse. Continuing to ignore these concerns is not only unethical but potentially illegal.

I ask that everyone copied on this email, particularly those in legal or professional positions, consider their obligations seriously.

Subject: Continued Communication Manipulation & Misrepresentation

Dear Amy,

Marisol has now shifted the blame yet again while failing to acknowledge the ongoing obstruction and abuse that I have repeatedly documented.

Her latest response continues to ignore:

- That I have clearly demonstrated issues with AppClose, yet she refuses to use a functional alternative or acknowledge the problem.
- That she is actively controlling the narrative by dictating when and how communication happens, while falsely portraying me as unwilling.
- That supervised visitation is a condition she pushed for, not one I agreed to under fair terms, and that she continues to create roadblocks to prevent it from happening.

She is now suggesting filing a motion to change communication methods—which she could have done at any time instead of weaponizing a broken app against me. This is more proof that her intent has never been to facilitate communication, but rather to create a barrier and then blame me for it.

Furthermore, calling my emails "harassment" while simultaneously demanding $2,400 a month from an unemployed, 100% disabled veteran is an outrageous and deliberate act of financial and emotional abuse.

Amy, you have a responsibility to advise Marisol against using legal processes as a weapon. I am once again demanding that she:

1. Stop unnecessary communication unless it directly relates to me seeing or speaking to my children.
2. Acknowledge that AppClose is not working for me and commit to a fair alternative for communication.
3. Cease the continued misrepresentation of my financial situation and stop making baseless accusations.

If none of this happens, then I will continue to document every single instance of manipulation, obstruction, and financial abuse so that when this does go to court, there will be no doubt about the pattern of misconduct and intent behind these actions.

I expect a response clarifying how this will be addressed.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Ryan:

You are in the position you are in because of your own choices. DHHS stepped in and Marisol was instructed as to how your contact with the children was to go; in other words, Marisol had no choice.

As for child support, every non-custodial parent has to pay child support to the parent who primarily has the children with very few exceptions. Throughout the process, you refused to provide required documentation and then you failed to show up at hearing.

I am done communicating with you. STOP emailing me!

Subject: Response to Misrepresentations & Ongoing Abuse Facilitation

Amy,

Your response is both misleading and deeply troubling, given your documented history of professional misconduct. As recently as last year, you were reprimanded and placed on probation by the Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar for making “unfounded and inflammatory” allegations. Now, here you are again, engaging in the same unethical behavior—misrepresenting my financial situation and perpetuating the ongoing abuse and legal harassment that Marisol has weaponized against me.

Let’s be clear:

- You have deliberately misrepresented my income in court, knowing full well that I am a 100% disabled veteran, unemployed due to the systemic failures and abuse I have endured. You are fully aware that my past earnings included a one-time 401(k) withdrawal to cover legal fees—yet you are complicit in using this against me to justify an outrageous, unsustainable child support order.
- The court proceedings have been riddled with financial and legal manipulation, orchestrated by Marisol and enabled by you. Despite my numerous attempts to secure fair visitation, I have faced constant barriers, refusal of reasonable accommodations, and outright obstruction—all while you falsely claim that my access to my children is in my own hands.
- Your law firm has a long-documented history of unethical practices, financial exploitation, and poor legal representation—as confirmed by multiple reviews and your own disciplinary record. Your continued involvement in this case only serves to reinforce the corruption that has plagued this entire process.

Additionally, your attempt to deflect responsibility by blaming DHHS does not hold up. Marisol was not forced into these actions—she has repeatedly acted with intent to control, financially drain, and alienate me from my children. DHHS has failed to act, but that does not absolve you or Marisol of your own deliberate misconduct.

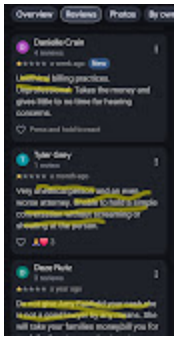

I find it highly telling that after repeatedly asking you, as seen in this very email chain, to inform your client to stop harassing, gaslighting, and financially attacking me, you have remained silent. Yet the one time you do speak, it is not to address the continued harassment I endure, but instead to demand that I stop emailing you. Let me be abundantly clear—I will email you as many times as necessary when your client is harassing me, especially since you have made it clear you refuse to take any action to stop it.

Kind regards,

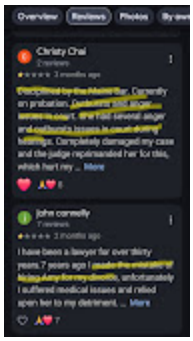

Ryan Michaels

Subject: Urgent: Stop Your Client's Continued Financial Harassment

Amy and others,

I am reaching out yet again because this blatant financial abuse needs to stop, and it needs to stop now.

Marisol has now requested that I cover 100% of her attorney fees—$250—on top of the $135 in reimbursement requests I just paid her this morning. This is in addition to the $2,400 per month in child support that she is relentlessly pursuing despite being a 100% disabled, unemployed veteran—a child support order that was issued without my presence in court.

It should be a given that she is responsible for her own legal fees. Yet, she continues to abuse every system available to her to financially suffocate me while I struggle just to survive. This is not just unethical—it is outright harassment.

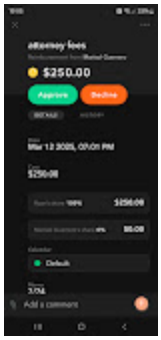

Amy, this is your client. This needs to stop. I am asking you to step up and put an end to this continued financial and legal manipulation.

I should not have to continuously beg for relief while I am being drained and exploited. This is not justice—it is targeted financial abuse, and I will not remain silent while this continues.

Take action. Stop your client from weaponizing the system to harass me any further.

Ryan,

You have been asked multiple times to stop sending these types of emails. This ongoing behavior is harassment, and it needs to stop immediately.

The court awarded both child support and attorney's fees. Fulfilling your legal obligations is not harassment. However, your continued disrespectful and hostile emails are. They will not be tolerated.

This is not the only email chain in which you continue to send baseless accusations. Your repeated attempts to misrepresent the situation and harass me through email need to stop. Do not contact me again unless it is necessary and relevant.

Have a great evening,
Marisol

Subject: Response to Ongoing Harassment & Financial Abuse

Marisol,

Fulfilling court-ordered obligations does not mean I have to accept being financially abused or harassed under the guise of legal obligations. You continue to make excessive and unreasonable demands, including attorney fees that should be your responsibility, all while I am unemployed, a 100% disabled veteran, and struggling under the financial burden of over $2,400 a month in child support—an amount that was determined without my presence in court and without regard to my actual financial situation.

You are in no position to lecture me about harassment while you continue to engage in financial manipulation, obstruction, and bad-faith legal tactics that prevent me from seeing my own children. Your repeated attempts to paint yourself as the victim while exploiting the system to drain me financially and emotionally will not go unchecked.

I will not tolerate these abusive and predatory financial requests. You have no grounds to demand that I cover your legal fees, and your ongoing efforts to weaponize the system against me while silencing my valid concerns only further prove the pattern of coercion and manipulation that has defined this case from the beginning.

Moving forward, unless you are prepared to engage in good faith communication regarding our children, I will not entertain further financial abuse disguised as legal obligation. Your behavior will be documented accordingly.

Ryan,

Your claims about financial hardship due to child support are completely disingenuous, given that you have not actually paid any child support. You cannot blame an obligation you've ignored for your financial difficulties. If you are struggling, it is a direct result of your own choices, not court orders you refuse to follow.

Your VA status has nothing to do with this issue. You are not a combat veteran, and while your mental health challenges are evident, they predate your time in the military by quite some time. Attempting to use your veteran status as a shield against legal and financial responsibilities is both irrelevant and insulting to those who fulfill their obligations despite hardships.

If you wish to discuss matters related to the children in a productive and respectful way, I am open to that. However, I will not entertain baseless accusations or continued attempts to shift blame

STOP emailing everyone, it's unnecessary and unproductive. You have been told multiple times to stop

Berwick Town Manager <townmanager@berwickmaine.org>

Dear Governor Janet Mills,

📌 Summary (For Immediate Attention):

My name is Ryan Michaels — a 100% disabled veteran, a father, and a Maine business owner. I am writing to report a verified abuse of power by Jean Haynes, Associate Director of OCFS, who knowingly lied to law enforcement on March 11, 2025, resulting in an unlawful no-trespass order against me. This act is part of a broader pattern of retaliation, discrimination, and silencing by Maine CPS. I have attached over 20 exhibits of evidence — including video, audio, emails, and sworn statements — proving systemic misconduct, denial of due process, and political bias across agencies. I respectfully request an independent investigation into these actions and stand ready to provide full cooperation. The truth is here. Please don't look away.

I am writing to you not only as a father, but as a deeply concerned citizen of Maine—one who still holds hope that truth and accountability can prevail in a system that has abandoned both.

This letter demands your immediate attention to a grave abuse of authority by Jean Haynes, Associate Director of Maine's Office of Child and Family Services—second in command only to Bobbi Johnson herself. On March 11, 2025, Jean Haynes knowingly lied to law enforcement to justify having me trespassed from DHHS property without cause. That single act—calculated, manipulative, and caught on record—should send shockwaves through every corner of OCFS.

Her conduct is not a misunderstanding. It is a willful and unlawful act by one of the highest-ranking child welfare officials in Maine. And it should alarm you, Governor, as it strikes at the very heart of what public service is supposed to represent.

🚨 Jean Haynes Lied—And the Whole System Followed

On March 11, 2025, I entered Biddeford DHHS peacefully and respectfully, asking a simple, reasonable question: Why was I trespassed from Sanford CPS three months earlier without warning or explanation?

Jean Haynes refused to answer—and within seconds, she called the police to have me removed. I complied fully. I left when asked. I did not raise my voice or cause any disruption.

And yet, days later, I was informed that I had been no-trespassed from Biddeford DHHS as well. When I called Officer Shortill of the Biddeford Police Department—whose name appeared on the order—he confirmed what I feared:

> Jean Haynes told police I was "calling over 100 times a day," that I had been "disorderly in the lobby," and that I was being trespassed for "the same reasons as Sanford."

Every single one of these statements is false. And Jean Haynes—a public official entrusted with protecting families—knew they were false when she said them.

Her lies are documented. The proof exists. And yet the system that should be holding her accountable has stayed silent. See Exhibits towards the tail end of this email proving Jean Haynes abusing her power to coerce law enforcement to carry out orders based on knowingly false allegations on 3-11-25.

❗ This Is Not an Isolated Incident—It's a Pattern

The actions of Jean Haynes on March 11 are not just a personal injustice—they represent the very same tactics CPS has used against me and my family for over eight months:

- Lies and manipulation to fabricate false narratives
- Coercion of law enforcement and legal actors to do their bidding without due process
- Suppression of truth through no-trespass orders meant to silence and intimidate
- Complete disregard for evidence and facts

This is not speculation. It is not opinion. It is provable.

On December 3, 2024, Sanford CPS attempted to have me arrested based on a trespass order they falsely claimed had been issued weeks prior. It had not. Officer Chaunard of Sanford PD confirmed that and prevented my wrongful arrest—then served me on the spot with no reason provided.

Then, on March 14, I was handed a printed image of a benign social media post by a Portland CPS worker. That very post, according to a letter from Amy Cilley dated March 16, 2025, was the justification for my Sanford trespass.

The system has relied on cut-and-paste misinformation and deliberate misrepresentation of my character to punish and alienate me—not because I did anything wrong, but because I dared to ask questions.

🧩 A Coordinated Campaign of Defamation and Control

On November 21, 2024, screenshots from my partner, Renee Marchand, showed that Marisol Guerrero (my ex-wife), Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston (Renee's ex-husband) were spreading false rumors that I planned to kidnap children—claims that are not only outrageous but criminally defamatory.

They were emboldened and enabled by the very system that should have dismissed such baseless fearmongering outright.

Even more concerning? Marisol and Tyler Boston share the same attorney—Amy Fairfield—a lawyer with a known history of unethical behavior and an active bar complaint against her for misconduct in my case.

⚠️ Law Enforcement Obeys, But Never Questions

Multiple officers have told me they do not question CPS directives. They simply enforce them.

> "If CPS gives us a no-trespass, we assume they have a valid reason."

This blind allegiance—without review, without evidence, and without any due process—has created a system ripe for abuse and retaliation.

🔥 The System Should Be Ashamed—And Speaking Out

Jean Haynes's behavior on March 11 was a flagrant abuse of power, carried out by someone at the top of the CPS hierarchy. That she did this with such ease, knowing her lies would be accepted without review, is terrifying.

The entire CPS system should be ashamed of her actions.

They should be speaking out against this—not protecting it.

Every silent colleague, every complicit supervisor, and every DHHS employee who continues to support this corrupt internal culture is an accessory to the emotional, financial, and legal devastation this has caused to me and countless other families.

💔 The Human Cost: 8 Months Without My Children

I have not seen or spoken to my sons since Father's Day 2024.

Not because of anything I've done.

But because CPS has weaponized lies, coercion, and systemic manipulation to keep me away—while simultaneously extorting me for over $2,400 per month in child support as a disabled, unemployed veteran.

This is state-sanctioned abuse. And Jean Haynes is the poster child of how far it's gone.

⚠️ This Is Just the Tip of the Iceberg

What I've shared in this letter is only a fraction of the unethical, unlawful, and retaliatory behavior my family has suffered at the hands of Maine CPS employees. This is just the tip of the iceberg.

I have dozens of documents, videos, call recordings, screenshots, witness statements, and internal communications proving a much larger, deeply disturbing pattern of abuse of power.

✊ Final Demand for Justice and Systemic Reform

Governor Mills, I am calling on you to:

1. Immediately launch an independent investigation into the conduct of Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025.

2. Conduct a full review of the CPS actions against me and my family, including those of Amy Fairfield, Marisol Guerrero, Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston.

3. Reform how no-trespass orders are issued and enforced by DHHS to prevent further misuse and abuse of power.

4. Hold those who lie to law enforcement accountable—no matter their rank or title.

I am prepared to provide every piece of evidence I have to your office, to legislators, to the media, and to every oversight body that will listen.

This isn't just my story—it's a call to action. And it's one I will keep making until someone finally listens.

📎 Glossary of Exhibits (Attached or Linked)

Exhibit A – Letter from Amy Cilley (Received March 16, 2025)

Confirms that a vague, peaceful social media post was the sole justification for my Sanford DHHS no-trespass order. There was no investigation, no context, and no legal basis.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit B – Printout of Social Media Post (Received March 14, 2025, Portland DHHS)

Shows the misrepresented post used to justify the trespass. There were no threats, no misconduct — just CPS weaponizing distress and using social media as an excuse to silence a grieving father.

Exhibit C – Audio Recording of Officer Shortill Call (Biddeford PD)

Confirms Jean Haynes lied to police — stating I called "over 100 times a day" and was "disorderly in the lobby." Officer Shortill acknowledges this in our recorded call.

Exhibit P – Letter from YCARE Official in Springvale (March 12, 2024)

This letter, written by an official at YCARE in Springvale, described serious concerns about Marisol Guerrero's stalking and abusive behavior. Instead of addressing it, CPS ignored the report entirely and continued to paint me as the problem — all while law enforcement followed along blindly. The very agency entrusted to protect my children used their power to conceal abuse and retaliate against the parent who sought help.

Exhibit Q – Email Chain with Andy, CEO of Sanford YMCA (Post-Public Exposure)

For nearly a year, I received no response from YCARE after their own staff documented abuse from Marisol. Only after I went public did the CEO, Andy, reach out. I recorded our call — which revealed deeply concerning conduct and a dismissive tone about what had been reported. He promised follow-up and resolution. But like everyone else in this system, he went silent again, leaving my children vulnerable and my voice ignored.

Exhibit R – 🚨 Sanford CPS Finally Answered… Then Hung Up on Me! (Video Post)

After months of being ignored by Sanford CPS, I called them using a different number. They answered immediately — confirming they were intentionally avoiding my usual number. The receptionist pretended not to know who I was, despite previously acknowledging one of my calls. When I asked why I was no-trespassed on December 3, 2024 — she refused to answer, then hung up on me.
This video proves:

- Intentional call-blocking
- Refusal to answer lawful questions
- Stonewalling around no-trespass orders
- Condescending deflection instead of concern for child well-being
- Proof CPS officials know they've acted unlawfully — and are trying to avoid accountability

Exhibit S – 🚨 Exposing the Double Standards: Law Enforcement Selectively Enforces No-Trespass Orders (Video Post)

This video post exposes how multiple Maine law enforcement agencies — including Berwick PD, Sanford PD, and Laconia PD — are actively enforcing no-trespass orders without question when they are issued against me, yet are refusing to grant or enforce the same protections when I lawfully request them.

On-record calls prove that law enforcement across departments is acting based on:

- Personal bias
- Political discretion
- Systemic deference to power

🛑 Here's the key issue: This is not about why I requested no-trespass orders for certain individuals. In fact, I've intentionally chosen not to disclose the "why" — not out of secrecy or avoidance, but because law enforcement has made it explicitly clear that in Maine:

> "Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we'll serve it. No questions asked."

That standard — quoted and upheld by multiple officers, across multiple departments — has been applied blindly when no-trespass orders were issued against me. So why is it suddenly different when I, a registered Maine business owner and 100% disabled veteran, try to request one?

📌 Why am I being questioned, scrutinized, and denied, while CPS has never once been asked to justify theirs?

👮 Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD even stated on record:

- "There's no way I'm going to serve a no-trespass order to the Governor of Maine."
- "We're not going to serve any of those no-trespass orders."
- CPS staff are "left-leaning people" who are "easily offended," implying political bias was a valid basis for action.

This is where the issue becomes systemic:

- CPS was allowed to issue retaliatory no-trespass orders based on fabricated claims.

- Sanford PD enforced those orders without explanation.
- Berwick PD enforced a no-trespass order against me from Laconia PD, for a location I've never even been to and from a person I've never met.
- Yet when I attempted to follow the same policy, I was told my business location (a home office) "doesn't count" and that the status or title of the individuals I named made them "off-limits."

  This isn't about legal policy — it's about power protecting power, and law enforcement becoming an extension of that protection.

📌 My attempts to use the same tools that have been used against me are being denied solely based on who I am and who they are.
📌 That is selective enforcement, plain and simple.
📌 And it's the same selective behavior we saw from Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025, when she used her position to lie to police and trespass me without justification — because she believed no one would challenge her.

This exhibit is critical because it lays bare the discriminatory double standard at play:

- One rule for CPS and the politically connected.
- Another for a father trying to protect himself.

📌 If they don't need to explain, then neither should I.
📌 And if I do, then so should they.
📌 This isn't justice. It's a façade.

Exhibit T – Officer Jim Baccon Serves Me a Laconia No-Trespass Order With No Cause or Connection (Video Post – January 16, 2025)

This video shows Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD serving me with a no-trespass order on January 16, 2025, on behalf of Laconia PD — for a property I had never visited, from a person I had never met, and in a city I had never been to.

📌 In the video, I express my confusion and concern:

- I had never heard of the person requesting the order.
- I had no prior knowledge of Laconia, NH.
- I had no known connection to the address or the alleged complaint.

Yet Officer Baccon proceeds to serve me anyway — mocking my confusion and hardship — and tells me:

> "Well, just don't go there and you won't have a problem."

This is more than a procedural failure — it's a dismissive and dehumanizing response to a father being targeted without explanation, rights, or defense.

But what makes this even more concerning is what I later discovered:

📌 The individual who requested this no-trespass is now the custodial guardian of Renee Marchand's oldest daughter — a decision that followed CPS's questionable and ultimately harmful placement of her with Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant.

Andrea is the same person who:

- Made false claims to CPS that I was going to kidnap children
- Spread fear-mongering messages
- Participated in the smear campaign alongside Marisol Guerrero and Tyler Boston

- Is now directly connected to the new guardian of Renee's daughter — who joined this campaign as well

Though the harm caused to Renee and her daughter isn't my full story to tell, it must be noted that CPS's gross mishandling of her case, their retaliatory approach toward both of us, and the enabling of known abusers and conspirators has ripped families apart, including hers. After Andrea's placement failed, CPS handed Renee's daughter over to the biological father — a man who had never seen her a single day in her 13 years of life.

That same man has since joined the CPS-enabled smear campaign against me — alongside Tyler, Marisol, and Andrea. This group has been emboldened and protected by the very system that:

- Refuses to answer my questions
- Silences me with no-trespass orders
- Labels me as a threat for speaking the truth

📌 In early December 2024, CPS even called Renee to tell her she would not be seeing her kids again if she stayed with me — a direct act of coercion and control meant to separate and destabilize our family further.

I now believe that this Laconia no-trespass order was influenced — if not orchestrated — by CPS as part of their ongoing abuse of power, retaliatory silencing, and manipulation of every agency they can reach.

📌 Meanwhile, I — a Maine business owner, father, and 100% disabled veteran — am left voiceless, stripped of protections, and handed orders that others never have to justify.

Exhibit U – 🚨 When Law Enforcement Brings Politics Into Justice (Video Post)

This post features a recorded phone conversation with Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD, in which he openly admits that political bias plays a role in how CPS officials interpret and respond to communication — and, by extension, how law enforcement upholds or ignores your rights.

📌 In the call, Officer Baccon justifies CPS's decision to no-trespass and avoid me by saying:

> "DHS is focused with a lot of liberal-leaning people. You may not mean it in a threatening manner, but they receive it."

Let that sink in:

- A law enforcement officer did not assess the facts of the situation.
- He did not review my emails, statements, or video evidence.
- Instead, he justified their refusal to respond based on a perceived political identity of the agency.

This isn't just dismissive — it's deeply unconstitutional.

📌 Justice should not depend on whether someone is "liberal-leaning" or "conservative."
📌 Law enforcement's duty is to enforce the law fairly and equally, not interpret it through political lens or protect the reputations of public agencies at the expense of citizens.

But it goes further:

📌 Officer Baccon also refused to honor my no-trespass request as a Maine business owner, despite Sanford PD confirming that "any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass for any reason."

When I pointed out the contradiction, he replied:

> "If you disagree, you can call my supervisor after 3."

✅ I did. I was promised a call back — no one ever called.
✅ I called again later — suddenly, no one in Berwick PD would speak to me except Officer Baccon.

This isn't law enforcement.
This is a circle of protection, silence, and bias, built around shielding CPS and suppressing anyone who challenges their misconduct.

📌 I am not being treated equally under the law.
📌 My business rights are ignored.
📌 My calls are filtered.
📌 My voice is denied — not because I broke the law, but because I asked why others were allowed to.

🚨 If CPS and law enforcement officials are acting based on political perception — not policy or law — then we are no longer dealing with a justice system. We are dealing with a culture of protectionism and corruption.

Exhibit V – 🔥 Police Admit Businesses Can BAN Anyone Without Reason – But Not Me (Video Post)

In this post and accompanying video, Officer Chouinard of the Sanford Police Department confirms that any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass order for any reason and that police will enforce it without question or justification.

This is the exact same policy that was used to justify multiple no-trespass orders against me — yet when I, as a business owner of a registered LLC (Together We Grow), attempted to exercise the same right, I was denied.

📌 Officer Chouinard said plainly:

> "Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we enforce them."

But when I attempted to issue my own, I was:

- Told to contact a different department
- Given excuses, deflections, and stonewalls
- Ultimately denied the right to exercise the same legal action used against me

📌 Why was I trespassed from a public CPS building with no justification — yet CPS, and even officials themselves, are protected from the same process?
📌 Why does the law apply to some and not to others?
📌 Why am I being scrutinized and silenced for using a policy others can use without explanation?

This video is especially important because it features Officer Chouinard, the same officer who responded on December 3, 2024, when Sanford CPS called police in an attempt to have me arrested for "trespassing."
Instead of immediately arresting me, he listened, investigated, and confirmed I had never previously been served with a no-trespass order — proving I was telling the truth.

And yet, he still had to serve me that day, because:

> "Police always enforce CPS orders without question."

He told me the only thing I could do was to keep contacting them and seeking answers — despite knowing I had already been ignored for months.

This post confirms what several officers across departments have already admitted:

- The law is enforced blindly when it protects state agencies.
- But when I try to use that same law for protection, I'm denied.

This isn't just a double standard — it's a system that enforces policy based on who you are and who you're standing up to.

📌 I am a registered business owner in Maine.
📌 But my rights, under this system, are conditional — and denied whenever inconvenient to those in power.

Exhibit W – 🚨 Formal Bar Complaint Against Attorney Amy Fairfield: Confirmation Received (Post & Documentation)

This exhibit features an update confirming that my formal bar complaint against Attorney Amy Fairfield has been officially received by the Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar and is now under review by Bar Counsel.

Amy Fairfield is no stranger to misconduct—she was already placed on probation for professional violations in 2024. Yet despite this, she has continued to engage in highly unethical and harmful behavior in my case, including:

- Misrepresenting my income to the court, knowingly inflating figures while ignoring my 100% disabled and unemployed status
- Obstructing my ability to appeal false financial claims
- Aiding the legal harassment of both me and my partner through manipulation, delays, and silence
- Dismissing critical evidence while selectively enforcing court orders that work only in favor of her clients — my abuser and Renee's abuser

📌 What makes this exhibit especially important is that it confirms what I've been showing all along:

> Every system I've encountered — CPS, law enforcement, the courts, and now legal representation itself — has reflected the same pattern of bias, corruption, and retaliation.

Amy Fairfield has consistently acted not as an officer of the court, but as a tool for weaponizing legal proceedings against victims — all while holding power over outcomes that shape my access to my children, my financial future, and my ability to fight back.

This isn't just about one unethical attorney. This is about a legal system that enables and protects people like her — even when they've already been found guilty of violating their professional code.

💬 In this public post, I have called on local media, including the Portland Press Herald, to investigate further and shine a light on what's happening behind closed courtroom doors — because what's happening to me is not isolated. It's systemic.

Exhibit X – Call Log Screenshot: Sanford CPS Call History (Nov 2024 – Mar 2025)

This exhibit displays a verifiable call log from my phone to the Sanford CPS office (207-490-5400). The log spans from November 25, 2024, through March 11, 2025, and clearly contradicts Jean Haynes' statement to Officer Shortill of Biddeford PD.

Haynes falsely claimed I had been "calling over 100 times a day" — yet this call history proves:

- My calls were limited and spaced out, never excessive.
- Only a few calls per day were made on the busiest days.
- Zero evidence of the kind of harassment or over-contact Haynes described.

This is a direct lie made on record to a law enforcement officer in order to justify a retaliatory no-trespass order — an abuse of power and a criminally unethical act by a senior OCFS official.

The system didn't verify. The police didn't ask for proof.
They just obeyed.

📌 This call log is visual evidence of truth being ignored — and retaliation being carried out without due process, fact-checking, or lawful justification.

🛑 This Is About More Than Me—It's About Every Family Like Mine

Governor Mills,

This is not just a personal tragedy—it is a systemic failure. It is a betrayal of the values that Maine claims to uphold: justice, transparency, and the protection of children and families.

When someone as high-ranking as Jean Haynes can knowingly lie to law enforcement—and when those lies are blindly enforced without question by police departments, while oversight bodies like the Ombudsman choose silence—the system is no longer broken. It is complicit.

For over eight months, I have lived a nightmare not because of anything I've done, but because of a coordinated effort by CPS to silence, discredit, and punish me for speaking the truth and seeking help. This is coercion. This is abuse. And this is happening under the authority of your administration.

I am one voice. But I represent countless others who are too afraid to speak, too overwhelmed to fight, or too broken by the system to keep going. I'm still here—because I refuse to let my children grow up thinking I gave up on them.

Now I'm asking you not to give up on us.
Hold Jean Haynes accountable. Investigate OCFS. Expose the corruption that has been allowed to fester in silence.
Because if you don't—who will?

I am ready to testify. I am ready to provide evidence. And I am ready to stand for every family this system has failed.

Please don't look away.
The truth is here. The time to act is now.

📩 CC List Statement for Your Email:

> The list of recipients below represents every official, agency, advocate, and oversight body I've chosen to include in this message. I gathered them to the best of my ability in hopes that this email reaches at least one person brave enough to stand for truth, transparency, and justice — not just for me, but for every family in Maine who has been wronged, silenced, or destroyed by corrupt government officials entrusted to protect them.

📂 CC RECIPIENTS BY CATEGORY:

🏛️ Maine State Government Officials

Why they were included: These are the key leaders who oversee the state's executive agencies, including DHHS and OCFS. They are responsible for policy enforcement, oversight of public services, and upholding ethical standards in public administration. They have the power to investigate, intervene, and initiate systemic reform. Included contacts:

- Governor Janet Mills
- Attorney General Aaron Frey
- DHHS Commissioner Jeanne Lambrew
- OCFS Director Bobbi Johnson
- OCFS Associate Director Jean Haynes
- Child Welfare Ombudsman Christine Alberi
- State Auditor Matthew Dunlap
- Secretary of State Shenna Bellows
- State Treasurer Henry Beck
- Commissioner of Public Safety Michael Sauschuck
- Commissioner of Education Pender Makin

🏛️ Maine Legislative Leadership and Committee Members

Why they were included: These are elected legislators with the authority to conduct hearings, push forward child welfare reforms, and hold state agencies accountable through law. Several of them sit on Judiciary and Health & Human Services committees. Included contacts:
Dozens of representatives and senators across both parties — each of whom has a duty to protect Maine families, uphold civil liberties, and address abuses of government power. Their inclusion ensures this crisis is not buried in bureaucracy.

⚖️ Judicial and Legal Oversight Authorities

Why they were included: These bodies oversee judicial ethics, access to legal services, and the conduct of attorneys and state actors. My concerns include judicial neglect, mishandling of substantiations, and an active bar complaint. Included contacts:

- Chief Justice Valerie Stanfill
- Judicial Branch Communications Office
- Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services

- Board of Overseers of the Bar
- Commission on Governmental Ethics and Election Practices

🔍 State and Federal Investigative Bodies

Why they were included: My story contains allegations of civil rights violations, ADA discrimination, abuse of authority, and documented lies to law enforcement. These agencies are responsible for auditing public systems, upholding civil justice, and responding to patterns of abuse. Included contacts:

- OPEGA (Office of Program Evaluation & Government Accountability)
- Maine Human Rights Commission
- U.S. DOJ Civil Rights Division
- U.S. HHS Office of Inspector General
- FBI (Portland Field Office)

👮 Law Enforcement Agencies

Why they were included: Officers from Berwick PD, Sanford PD, and others have been directly involved in enforcing unlawful or misleading no-trespass orders based on CPS's manipulation. These departments deserve transparency — and bear responsibility for blind enforcement without review. Included contacts:

- Berwick Police Department Command and Officers
- Sanford Police Department (referenced in exhibits)

👨‍👧 Parental Rights and Fatherhood Advocacy Organizations

Why they were included: As a father denied access to his children despite having no criminal findings and being 100% disabled, my case highlights the devastating impact of CPS retaliation against fit, loving parents. These groups exist to fight that very injustice. Included contacts:

- The Fathers' Rights Movement
- National Parents Organization
- Fathers Helping Fathers

- Maine Parent Federation

⚖️ Civil Rights, Disability, and Justice Advocacy

Why they were included: These organizations advocate for due process, disability protections, mental health justice, and ethical conduct in government. My case involves discrimination against my PTSD diagnosis and weaponization of my disability to discredit my parental role. Included contacts:

- ACLU of Maine
- Disability Rights Maine
- Maine Equal Justice
- Pine Tree Legal Assistance
- Maine Coalition to End Domestic Violence

🗞️ Maine-Based News Media

Why they were included: This story belongs in the public eye. These outlets were chosen to hold public officials accountable and help bring public awareness to the systemic failures harming families like mine. Included contacts:

- Portland Press Herald
- Bangor Daily News
- Maine Public
- WMTW, WCSH6, WGME
- Lewiston Sun Journal, Central Maine, Times Record

🗞️ National Media & Journalism Outlets

Why they were included: If no one in Maine will act, the nation needs to know. This is about state-sponsored retaliation, systemic corruption, and the silencing of a father who simply sought help. These outlets can amplify this story nationwide. Included contacts:

- The New York Times

- Washington Post
- NPR
- CNN, NBC, CBS, ABC
- Reuters, Associated Press

⚠️ Disclaimer

The exhibits I have included and presented here today do not represent the entirety of the evidence I have gathered, nor do they fully reflect the extensive emotional, mental, physical, and financial toll this ongoing injustice and abuse of power has taken on me as a father, veteran, and human being.

These materials serve as a foundational record — a starting point for transparency, truth, and accountability. But there is more. Much more.

I remain ready and willing to provide any additional documentation, context, or recorded communications to support a fair and thorough investigation. I welcome and encourage follow-up questions and will cooperate fully with any unbiased, comprehensive review of the facts, actions, and failures described throughout this timeline.

My only request is that a formal investigation be opened, with the mutual and honest intention to uncover the truth, restore justice, and ensure that what happened to me — and continues to happen — never happens to another parent, partner, or child again.

With all the strength I have left, I write this not just as a plea for justice, but as a testament to love.

I've been lied about, silenced, and shut out — not because I failed, but because I refused to stop fighting for my children. I have walked through fire, not to burn bridges, but to light the way for truth.

And still — I believe in something better.

I believe that even now, there are people in power with the courage to do the right thing. People who see past titles and politics and choose to listen. People who understand that justice isn't real unless it's real for everyone — including fathers like me, and children like mine.

So if you're reading this, I ask only one thing:

Be the person my sons will one day be proud to know stood up.
Because I will never stop standing — for them, for truth, and for every family who's been broken but refuses to be buried.

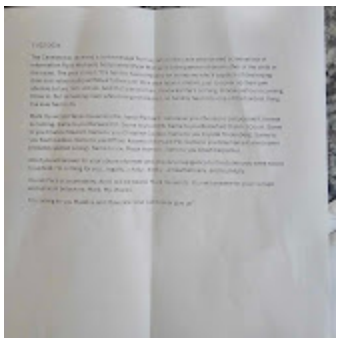

With unwavering hope,
Ryan Michaels

Delivery has failed to these recipients or groups:

Googins, Gina (Gina.Googins@maine.gov)

Your message couldn't be delivered. The Domain Name System (DNS) reported that the recipient's domain does not exist.

Contact the recipient by some other means (by phone, for example) and ask them to tell their email admin that it appears that their domain isn't properly registered at their domain registrar. Give them the error details shown below. It's likely that the recipient's email admin is the only one who can fix this problem.

For more information and tips to fix this issue see this article: https://go.microsoft.com/fwlink/?LinkId=389361.

Subject: URGENT: Maine OCFS Director Caught Lying to Police – Evidence Enclosed

Dear Governor Janet Mills,

📌 Summary (For Immediate Attention):

My name is Ryan Michaels — a 100% disabled veteran, a father, and a Maine business owner. I am writing to report a verified abuse of power by Jean Haynes, Associate Director of OCFS, who knowingly lied to law enforcement on March 11, 2025, resulting in an unlawful no-trespass order against me. This act is part of a broader pattern of retaliation, discrimination, and silencing by Maine CPS. I have attached over 20 exhibits of evidence — including video, audio, emails, and sworn statements — proving systemic misconduct, denial of due process, and political bias across agencies. I respectfully request an independent investigation into these actions and stand ready to provide full cooperation. The truth is here. Please don't look away.

I am writing to you not only as a father, but as a deeply concerned citizen of Maine—one who still holds hope that truth and accountability can prevail in a system that has abandoned both.

This
letter demands your immediate attention to a grave abuse of authority by Jean Haynes, Associate Director of Maine's Office of Child and Family Services—second in command only to Bobbi Johnson herself.
On March 11, 2025,
Jean Haynes knowingly lied to law enforcement to justify having me trespassed from DHHS property without cause. That single act—calculated, manipulative, and caught on record—should send shockwaves through every corner of OCFS.

Her
conduct is not a misunderstanding. It is a willful and unlawful act by one of the highest-ranking child welfare officials in Maine. And it should alarm you, Governor, as it strikes at the very heart of what public service is supposed to represent.

Jean Haynes Lied—And the Whole System Followed

On
March 11, 2025, I entered Biddeford
DHHS peacefully and respectfully, asking a simple, reasonable question: Why was I trespassed from Sanford CPS three months earlier without warning or explanation?

Jean
Haynes refused to answer—and within seconds, she called the police to have me removed. I complied fully. I left when asked. I did not raise my voice or cause any disruption.

And
yet, days later, I was informed that I had been no-trespassed
from Biddeford DHHS as well.
When I called Officer Shortill of the Biddeford Police Department—whose name appeared on the order—he confirmed what I feared:

Jean
Haynes told police I was “calling over 100 times a day,” that I had been “disorderly in the lobby,” and that I was being trespassed for “the same reasons as Sanford.”

Every single one of these statements is false.
And Jean Haynes—a public official entrusted with protecting families—knew they were false when she said them.

Her
lies are documented. The proof exists. And yet the system that should be holding her accountable has stayed silent. See Exhibits towards the tail end of this email proving Jean Haynes abusing her power to coerce law enforcement to carry out orders based on knowingly false allegations on 3-11-25.

! This Is Not an Isolated Incident—It’s a Pattern

The actions of Jean Haynes on March 11 are not just a personal injustice—they represent the very same tactics CPS
has used against me and my family for over eight months:

- Lies and manipulation
  to fabricate false narratives
- Coercion of law enforcement and legal actors to do their bidding
  without due process
- Suppression of truth
  through no-trespass orders meant to silence and intimidate

- Complete disregard for evidence and facts

This
is not speculation. It is not opinion. It is provable.

On
December 3, 2024,
Sanford CPS attempted to have me arrested based on a trespass order they falsely claimed had been issued weeks prior. It had not.
Officer Chaunard of Sanford
PD confirmed that and prevented my wrongful arrest—then served me on the spot with no reason provided.

Then,
on March 14,
I was handed a printed image of a benign social media post by a Portland CPS worker. That very post, according to a letter from
Amy Cilley
dated March 16, 2025,
was the justification for my Sanford trespass.

The
system has relied on cut-and-paste
misinformation and deliberate misrepresentation
of my character to punish and alienate me—not because I did anything wrong, but because I dared to ask questions.

🧩 A Coordinated Campaign of Defamation and Control

On
November 21, 2024,
screenshots from my partner, Renee Marchand, showed that Marisol
Guerrero (my ex-wife), Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston (Renee's
ex-husband) were spreading false rumors that I planned to kidnap children—claims that are not only outrageous but criminally defamatory.

They were emboldened and enabled by the very system that should have dismissed such baseless fearmongering outright.

Even more concerning? Marisol and Tyler Boston share the same attorney—Amy Fairfield—a lawyer with a known history of unethical behavior and an active bar complaint against her for misconduct in my case.

Law Enforcement Obeys, But Never Questions

Multiple
officers have told me they do not question CPS directives. They simply enforce them.

> “If
> CPS gives us a no-trespass, we assume they have a valid reason.”

This
blind allegiance—without review, without evidence, and without any due process—has created a system ripe for abuse and retaliation.

The System Should Be Ashamed—And Speaking Out

Jean
Haynes’s behavior on March 11 was a flagrant abuse of power, carried out by someone at the top of the CPS hierarchy. That she did this with such ease, knowing her lies would be accepted without review, is terrifying.

The entire CPS system should be ashamed of her actions.

They should be speaking out against this—not protecting it.

Every
silent colleague, every complicit supervisor, and every DHHS employee who continues to support this corrupt internal culture is an accessory to the emotional, financial, and legal devastation
this has caused to me and countless other families.

The Human Cost: 8 Months Without My Children

I have not seen or spoken to my sons since Father's Day 2024.

Not because of anything I've done.

But
because CPS has weaponized lies, coercion, and systemic manipulation to keep me away—while simultaneously extorting me for over $2,400 per month in child support as a disabled, unemployed veteran.

This
is state-sanctioned abuse. And Jean Haynes is the poster child of how far it's gone.

This Is Just the Tip of the Iceberg

What
I've shared in this letter is only a fraction of the unethical, unlawful, and retaliatory behavior my family has suffered at the hands of Maine CPS employees.
This is just the tip of the iceberg.

I
have dozens of documents, videos, call recordings, screenshots, witness statements, and internal communications proving a much larger, deeply disturbing pattern of abuse of power.

Final Demand for Justice and Systemic Reform

Governor
Mills, I am calling on you to:

1. Immediately launch an independent investigation into the conduct of Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025.

2. Conduct a full review of the CPS actions against me and my family, including those of Amy Fairfield, Marisol Guerrero, Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston.

3. Reform how no-trespass orders are issued and enforced by DHHS to prevent further misuse and abuse of power.

4. Hold those who lie to law enforcement accountable—no matter their rank or title.

I am prepared to provide every piece of evidence I have to your office, to legislators, to the media, and to every oversight body that will listen.

This isn't just my story—it's a call to action. And it's one I will keep making until someone finally listens.

📎 Glossary of Exhibits (Attached or Linked)

Exhibit A – Letter from Amy Cilley (Received March 16, 2025)

Confirms that a vague, peaceful social media post was the sole justification for my Sanford DHHS no-trespass order. There was no investigation, no context, and no legal basis.

Exhibit B – Printout of Social Media Post (Received March 14, 2025, Portland DHHS)

Shows the misrepresented post used to justify the trespass. There were no threats, no misconduct — just CPS weaponizing distress and using social media as an excuse to silence a grieving father.

Exhibit C – Audio Recording of Officer Shortill Call (Biddeford PD)

Confirms Jean Haynes lied to police — stating I called "over 100 times a day" and was "disorderly in the lobby." Officer Shortill acknowledges this in our recorded call.

Exhibit P – Letter from YCARE Official in Springvale (March 12, 2024)

This letter, written by an official at YCARE in Springvale, described serious concerns about Marisol Guerrero's stalking and abusive behavior. Instead of addressing it, CPS ignored the report entirely and continued to paint me as the problem — all while law enforcement followed along blindly. The very agency entrusted to protect my children used their power to conceal abuse and retaliate against the parent who sought help.

Exhibit Q – Email Chain with Andy, CEO of Sanford YMCA (Post-Public Exposure)

For nearly a year, I received no response from YCARE after their own staff documented abuse from Marisol. Only after I went public did the CEO, Andy, reach out. I recorded our call — which revealed deeply concerning conduct and a dismissive tone about what had been reported. He promised follow-up and resolution. But like everyone else in this system, he went silent again, leaving my children vulnerable and my voice ignored.

Exhibit R – 🚨 Sanford CPS Finally Answered... Then Hung Up on Me! (Video Post)

After months of being ignored by Sanford CPS, I called them using a different number. They answered immediately — confirming they were intentionally avoiding my usual number. The receptionist pretended not to know who I was, despite previously acknowledging one of my calls. When I asked why I was no-trespassed on December 3, 2024 — she refused to answer, then hung up on me.
This video proves:

- Intentional call-blocking
- Refusal to answer lawful questions
- Stonewalling around no-trespass orders
- Condescending deflection instead of concern for child well-being
- Proof CPS officials know they've acted unlawfully — and are trying to avoid accountability
  🔗 Watch Video on Facebook

Exhibit S – 🚨 Exposing the Double Standards: Law Enforcement Selectively Enforces No-Trespass Orders (Video Post)

This video post exposes how multiple Maine law enforcement agencies — including Berwick PD, Sanford PD, and Laconia PD — are actively enforcing no-trespass orders without question when they are issued against me, yet are refusing to grant or enforce the same protections when I lawfully request them.

On-record calls prove that law enforcement across departments is acting based on:

- Personal bias
- Political discretion
- Systemic deference to power

🔴 Here's the key issue: This is not about why I requested no-trespass orders for certain individuals. In fact, I've intentionally chosen not to disclose the "why" — not out of secrecy or avoidance, but because law enforcement has made it explicitly clear that in Maine:

> "Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we'll serve it. No questions asked."

That standard — quoted and upheld by multiple officers, across multiple departments — has been applied blindly when no-trespass orders were issued against me. So why is it suddenly different when I, a registered Maine business owner and 100% disabled veteran, try to request one?

📌 Why am I being questioned, scrutinized, and denied, while CPS has never once been asked to justify theirs?

👮 Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD even stated on record:

- "There's no way I'm going to serve a no-trespass order to the Governor of Maine."
- "We're not going to serve any of those no-trespass orders."
- CPS staff are "left-leaning people" who are "easily offended," implying political bias was a valid basis for action.

This is where the issue becomes systemic:

- CPS was allowed to issue retaliatory no-trespass orders based on fabricated claims.
- Sanford PD enforced those orders without explanation.
- Berwick PD enforced a no-trespass order against me from Laconia PD, for a location I've never even been to and from a person I've never met.
- Yet when I attempted to follow the same policy, I was told my business location (a home office) "doesn't count" and that the status or title of the individuals I named made them "off-limits."

  This isn't about legal policy — it's about power protecting power, and law enforcement becoming an extension of that protection.

📌 My attempts to use the same tools that have been used against me are being denied solely based on who I am and who they are.
📌 That is selective enforcement, plain and simple.
📌 And it's the same selective behavior we saw from Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025, when she used her position to lie to police and trespass me without justification — because she believed no one would challenge her.

This exhibit is critical because it lays bare the discriminatory double standard at play:

- One rule for CPS and the politically connected.
- Another for a father trying to protect himself.

📌 If they don't need to explain, then neither should I.
📌 And if I do, then so should they.
📌 This isn't justice. It's a façade.

Exhibit T – Officer Jim Baccon Serves Me a Laconia No-Trespass Order With No Cause or Connection (Video Post – January 16, 2025)

This video shows Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD serving me with a no-trespass order on January 16, 2025, on behalf of Laconia PD — for a property I had never visited, from a person I had never met, and in a city I had never been to.

📌 In the video, I express my confusion and concern:

- I had never heard of the person requesting the order.
- I had no prior knowledge of Laconia, NH.
- I had no known connection to the address or the alleged complaint.

Yet Officer Baccon proceeds to serve me anyway — mocking my confusion and hardship — and tells me:

> "Well, just don't go there and you won't have a problem."

This is more than a procedural failure — it's a dismissive and dehumanizing response to a father being targeted without explanation, rights, or defense.

But what makes this even more concerning is what I later discovered:

📌 The individual who requested this no-trespass is now the custodial guardian of Renee Marchand's oldest daughter — a decision that followed CPS's questionable and ultimately harmful placement of her with Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant.

Andrea is the same person who:

- Made false claims to CPS that I was going to kidnap children
- Spread fear-mongering messages
- Participated in the smear campaign alongside Marisol Guerrero and Tyler Boston
- Is now directly connected to the new guardian of Renee's daughter — who joined this campaign as well

Though the harm caused to Renee and her daughter isn't my full story to tell, it must be noted that CPS's gross mishandling of her case, their retaliatory approach toward both of us, and the enabling of known abusers and conspirators has ripped families apart, including hers. After Andrea's placement failed, CPS handed Renee's daughter over to the biological father — a man who had never seen her a single day in her 13 years of life.

That same man has since joined the CPS-enabled smear campaign against me — alongside Tyler, Marisol, and Andrea. This group has been emboldened and protected by the very system that:

- Refuses to answer my questions
- Silences me with no-trespass orders
- Labels me as a threat for speaking the truth

📌 In early December 2024, CPS even called Renee to tell her she would not be seeing her kids again if she stayed with me — a direct act of coercion and control meant to separate and destabilize our family further.

I now believe that this Laconia no-trespass order was influenced — if not orchestrated — by CPS as part of their ongoing abuse of power, retaliatory silencing, and manipulation of every agency they can reach.

📌 Meanwhile, I — a Maine business owner, father, and 100% disabled veteran — am left voiceless, stripped of protections, and handed orders that others never have to justify.

Exhibit U – 🚨 When Law Enforcement Brings Politics Into Justice (Video Post)

This post features a recorded phone conversation with Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD, in which he openly admits that political bias plays a role in how CPS officials interpret and respond to communication — and, by extension, how law enforcement upholds or ignores your rights.

📌 In the call, Officer Baccon justifies CPS's decision to no-trespass and avoid me by saying:

> "DHS is focused with a lot of liberal-leaning people. You may not mean it in a threatening manner, but they receive it."

Let that sink in:

- A law enforcement officer did not assess the facts of the situation.
- He did not review my emails, statements, or video evidence.
- Instead, he justified their refusal to respond based on a perceived political identity of the agency.

This isn't just dismissive — it's deeply unconstitutional.

📌 Justice should not depend on whether someone is "liberal-leaning" or "conservative."
📌 Law enforcement's duty is to enforce the law fairly and equally, not interpret it through political lens or protect the reputations of public agencies at the expense of citizens.

But it goes further:

📌 Officer Baccon also refused to honor my no-trespass request as a Maine business owner, despite Sanford PD confirming that "any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass for any reason."

When I pointed out the contradiction, he replied:

> "If you disagree, you can call my supervisor after 3."

✅ I did. I was promised a call back — no one ever called.
✅ I called again later — suddenly, no one in Berwick PD would speak to me except Officer Baccon.

This isn't law enforcement.
This is a circle of protection, silence, and bias, built around shielding CPS and suppressing anyone who challenges their misconduct.

📌 I am not being treated equally under the law.
📌 My business rights are ignored.
📌 My calls are filtered.
📌 My voice is denied — not because I broke the law, but because I asked why others were allowed to.

🚨 If CPS and law enforcement officials are acting based on political perception — not policy or law — then we are no longer dealing with a justice system. We are dealing with a culture of protectionism and corruption.

Exhibit V – 🔥 Police Admit Businesses Can BAN Anyone Without Reason – But Not Me (Video Post)

In this post and accompanying video, Officer Chouinard of the Sanford Police Department confirms that any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass order for any reason and that police will enforce it without question or justification.

This is the exact same policy that was used to justify multiple no-trespass orders against me — yet when I, as a business owner of a registered LLC (Together We Grow), attempted to exercise the same right, I was denied.

📌 Officer Chouinard said plainly:

> "Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we enforce them."

But when I attempted to issue my own, I was:

- Told to contact a different department
- Given excuses, deflections, and stonewalls
- Ultimately denied the right to exercise the same legal action used against me

📌 Why was I trespassed from a public CPS building with no justification — yet CPS, and even officials themselves, are protected from the same process?
📌 Why does the law apply to some and not to others?
📌 Why am I being scrutinized and silenced for using a policy others can use without explanation?

This video is especially important because it features Officer Chouinard, the same officer who responded on December 3, 2024, when Sanford CPS called police in an attempt to have me arrested for "trespassing."
Instead of immediately arresting me, he listened, investigated, and confirmed I had never previously been served with a no-trespass order — proving I was telling the truth.

And yet, he still had to serve me that day, because:

> "Police always enforce CPS orders without question."

He told me the only thing I could do was to keep contacting them and seeking answers — despite knowing I had already been ignored for months.

This post confirms what several officers across departments have already admitted:

- The law is enforced blindly when it protects state agencies.
- But when I try to use that same law for protection, I'm denied.

This isn't just a double standard — it's a system that enforces policy based on who you are and who you're standing up to.

📌 I am a registered business owner in Maine.
📌 But my rights, under this system, are conditional — and denied whenever inconvenient to those in power.

Exhibit W – 🚨 Formal Bar Complaint Against Attorney Amy Fairfield: Confirmation Received (Post & Documentation)

This exhibit features an update confirming that my formal bar complaint against Attorney Amy Fairfield has been officially received by the Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar and is now under review by Bar Counsel.

Amy Fairfield is no stranger to misconduct—she was already placed on probation for professional violations in 2024. Yet despite this, she has continued to engage in highly unethical and harmful behavior in my case, including:

- Misrepresenting my income to the court, knowingly inflating figures while ignoring my 100% disabled and unemployed status

- Obstructing my ability to appeal false financial claims
- Aiding the legal harassment of both me and my partner through manipulation, delays, and silence
- Dismissing critical evidence while selectively enforcing court orders that work only in favor of her clients — my abuser and Renee's abuser

📌 What makes this exhibit especially important is that it confirms what I've been showing all along:

> Every system I've encountered — CPS, law enforcement, the courts, and now legal representation itself — has reflected the same pattern of bias, corruption, and retaliation.

Amy Fairfield has consistently acted not as an officer of the court, but as a tool for weaponizing legal proceedings against victims — all while holding power over outcomes that shape my access to my children, my financial future, and my ability to fight back.

This isn't just about one unethical attorney. This is about a legal system that enables and protects people like her — even when they've already been found guilty of violating their professional code.

💬 In this public post, I have called on local media, including the Portland Press Herald, to investigate further and shine a light on what's happening behind closed courtroom doors — because what's happening to me is not isolated. It's systemic.

Exhibit X – Call Log Screenshot: Sanford CPS Call History (Nov 2024 – Mar 2025)

This exhibit displays a verifiable call log from my phone to the Sanford CPS office (207-490-5400). The log spans from November 25, 2024, through March 11, 2025, and clearly contradicts Jean Haynes' statement to Officer Shortill of Biddeford PD.

Haynes falsely claimed I had been "calling over 100 times a day" — yet this call history proves:

- My calls were limited and spaced out, never excessive.
- Only a few calls per day were made on the busiest days.
- Zero evidence of the kind of harassment or over-contact Haynes described.

This is a direct lie made on record to a law enforcement officer in order to justify a retaliatory no-trespass order — an abuse of power and a criminally unethical act by a senior OCFS official.

The system didn't verify. The police didn't ask for proof.
They just obeyed.

📌 This call log is visual evidence of truth being ignored — and retaliation being carried out without due process, fact-checking, or lawful justification.

🛑 This Is About More Than Me—It's About Every Family Like Mine

Governor
Mills,

This
is not just a personal tragedy—it is a systemic failure. It is a betrayal of the values that Maine claims to uphold: justice, transparency, and the protection of children and families.

When
someone as high-ranking as Jean
Haynes can knowingly lie to law enforcement—and when those lies are blindly enforced without question by police departments, while oversight bodies like the Ombudsman choose silence—the system is no longer broken. It is complicit.

For
over eight months, I have lived a nightmare not because of anything I've done,
but because of a coordinated effort by CPS to silence, discredit, and punish me for speaking the truth and seeking help. This is coercion. This is abuse. And this is happening under the authority of your administration.

I am one voice. But I represent countless others who are too afraid to speak, too overwhelmed to fight, or too broken by the system to keep going. I'm still here—because I refuse to let my children grow up thinking I gave up on them.

Now
I'm asking you not to give up on us.

Hold Jean Haynes accountable.
Investigate OCFS. Expose the corruption that has been allowed to fester in silence.

Because if you don't—who will?

I am ready to testify. I am ready to provide evidence. And I am ready to stand for every family this system has failed.

Please
don't look away.

The
truth is here. The time to act is now.

Dear Governor Janet Mills,

📌 Summary (For Immediate Attention):

My name is Ryan Michaels — a 100% disabled veteran, a father, and a Maine business owner. I am writing to report a verified abuse of power by Jean Haynes, Associate Director of OCFS, who knowingly lied to law enforcement on March 11, 2025, resulting in an unlawful no-trespass order against me. This act is part of a broader pattern of retaliation, discrimination, and silencing by Maine CPS. I have attached over 20 exhibits of evidence — including video, audio, emails, and sworn statements — proving systemic misconduct, denial of due process, and political bias across agencies. I respectfully request an independent investigation into these actions and stand ready to provide full cooperation. The truth is here. Please don't look away.

I am writing to you not only as a father, but as a deeply concerned citizen of Maine—one who still holds hope that truth and accountability can prevail in a system that has abandoned both.

This
letter demands your immediate attention to a grave abuse of authority by Jean Haynes, Associate Director of Maine's Office of Child and Family Services—second in command only to Bobbi Johnson herself.
On March 11, 2025,
Jean Haynes knowingly lied to law enforcement to justify having me trespassed from DHHS property without cause. That single act—calculated, manipulative, and caught on record—should send shockwaves through every corner of OCFS.

Her
conduct is not a misunderstanding. It is a willful
and unlawful act by one of the highest-ranking child welfare officials in Maine. And it should alarm you, Governor, as it strikes at the very heart of what public service is supposed to represent.

Jean Haynes Lied—And the Whole System Followed

On
March 11, 2025, I entered Biddeford
DHHS peacefully and respectfully,
asking a simple, reasonable question: Why
was I trespassed from Sanford CPS three months earlier without warning or explanation?

Jean
Haynes refused to answer—and within seconds, she called the police to have me removed. I complied fully. I left when asked. I did not raise my voice or cause any disruption.

And
yet, days later, I was informed that I had been no-trespassed

from Biddeford DHHS as well.
When I called Officer Shortill of the Biddeford Police Department—whose name appeared on the order—he confirmed what I feared:

> Jean
> Haynes told police I was “calling over 100 times a day,” that I had been “disorderly in the lobby,” and that I was being trespassed for “the same reasons as Sanford.”

Every
single one of these statements is false.
And Jean Haynes—a public official entrusted with protecting families—knew they were false when she said them.

Her
lies are documented. The proof exists. And yet the system that should be holding her accountable has stayed silent. See Exhibits towards the tail end of this email proving Jean Haynes abusing her power to coerce law enforcement to carry out orders based on knowingly false allegations on 3-11-25.

! This Is Not an Isolated Incident—It’s a Pattern

The actions of Jean Haynes on March 11 are not just a personal injustice—they represent the very same tactics CPS
has used against me and my family for over eight months:

- Lies and manipulation
  to fabricate false narratives
- Coercion of law enforcement and legal actors to do their bidding
  without due process
- Suppression of truth
  through no-trespass orders meant to silence and intimidate

- Complete disregard for evidence and facts

This
is not speculation. It is not opinion. It is provable.

On
December 3, 2024,
Sanford CPS attempted to have me arrested based on a trespass order they falsely claimed had been issued weeks prior. It had not.
Officer Chaunard of Sanford
PD confirmed that and prevented
my wrongful arrest—then served me on the spot with no reason provided.

Then,
on March 14,
I was handed a printed image of a benign social media post by a Portland CPS worker. That very post, according to a letter from
Amy Cilley
dated March 16, 2025,
was the justification for my Sanford trespass.

The
system has relied on cut-and-paste
misinformation and deliberate misrepresentation
of my character to punish and alienate me—not because I did anything wrong, but because I dared to ask questions.

🧩 A Coordinated Campaign of Defamation and Control

On
November 21, 2024,
screenshots from my partner, Renee Marchand, showed that Marisol
Guerrero (my ex-wife), Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant,
and Tyler Boston (Renee's
ex-husband) were spreading

false rumors that I planned to kidnap children—claims that are not only outrageous but criminally defamatory.

They were emboldened and enabled by the very system that should have dismissed such baseless fearmongering outright.

Even more concerning? Marisol and Tyler Boston share the same attorney—Amy Fairfield—a lawyer with a known history of unethical behavior and an active bar complaint against her for misconduct in my case.

Law Enforcement Obeys, But Never Questions

Multiple officers have told me they do not question CPS directives. They simply enforce them.

> "If CPS gives us a no-trespass, we assume they have a valid reason."

This blind allegiance—without review, without evidence, and without any due process—has created a system ripe for abuse and retaliation.

The System Should Be Ashamed—And Speaking Out

Jean Haynes's behavior on March 11 was a flagrant abuse of power, carried out by someone at the top of the CPS hierarchy. That she did this with such ease, knowing her lies would be accepted without review, is terrifying.

The entire CPS system should be ashamed of her actions.

They should be speaking out against this—not protecting it.

Every silent colleague, every complicit supervisor, and every DHHS employee who continues to support this corrupt internal culture is an accessory to the emotional, financial, and legal devastation this has caused to me and countless other families.

The Human Cost: 8 Months Without My Children

I have not seen or spoken to my sons since Father's Day 2024.

Not because of anything I've done.

But
because CPS has weaponized lies, coercion, and systemic manipulation to keep me away—while simultaneously extorting me for over $2,400 per month in child support as a disabled, unemployed veteran.

This
is state-sanctioned abuse. And Jean Haynes is the poster child of how far it's gone.

This Is Just the Tip of the Iceberg

What
I've shared in this letter is only a fraction of the unethical, unlawful, and retaliatory behavior my family has suffered at the hands of Maine CPS employees.
This is just the tip of the iceberg.

I
have dozens of documents, videos, call recordings, screenshots, witness statements, and internal communications proving a much larger, deeply disturbing pattern of abuse of power.

Final Demand for Justice and Systemic Reform

Governor
Mills, I am calling on you to:

1. Immediately launch an independent investigation into the conduct of Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025.

2. Conduct a full review of the CPS actions against me and my family, including those of Amy Fairfield, Marisol Guerrero, Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston.

3. Reform how no-trespass orders are issued and enforced by DHHS to prevent further misuse and abuse of power.

4. Hold those who lie to law enforcement accountable—no matter their rank or title.

I am prepared to provide every piece of evidence I have to your office, to legislators, to the media, and to every oversight body that will listen.

This isn't just my story—it's a call to action. And it's one I will keep making until someone finally listens.

📎 Glossary of Exhibits (Attached or Linked)

Exhibit A – Letter from Amy Cilley (Received March 16, 2025)

Confirms that a vague, peaceful social media post was the sole justification for my Sanford DHHS no-trespass order. There was no investigation, no context, and no legal basis.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit B – Printout of Social Media Post (Received March 14, 2025, Portland DHHS)

Shows the misrepresented post used to justify the trespass. There were no threats, no misconduct — just CPS weaponizing distress and using social media as an excuse to silence a grieving father.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit C – Audio Recording of Officer Shortill Call (Biddeford PD)

Confirms Jean Haynes lied to police — stating I called "over 100 times a day" and was "disorderly in the lobby." Officer Shortill acknowledges this in our recorded call.

Exhibit D – Full Video of March 11, 2025 Visit to Biddeford DHHS

Proves I was calm, peaceful, and compliant during my visit. Directly contradicts Jean Haynes' statements to police.

Exhibit E – Screenshots from Renee Marchand (Nov 21, 2024)

Shows Marisol Guerrero, Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston conspiring to spread malicious falsehoods that I planned to kidnap children — a claim so outrageous it reveals deliberate defamation.

Exhibit F – Officer Chaunard's Statement (Sanford PD, Dec 3, 2024)

Confirmed I had not been trespassed prior. Prevented my wrongful arrest — but still served me without cause.

Exhibit G – Email to Berwick PD BEFORE Being Served

Details my legal objections and concerns. I requested an investigation and clarification — instead, I was ignored.

Exhibit I – Call with Officer Jim Baccon, Berwick PD

Reveals Berwick PD's blind allegiance to CPS — no questions, no review, just obedience to the agency's claims.

Exhibit J – Ombudsman's Refusal to Help & My Unanswered Response

Christine Alberi from the Ombudsman's Office explicitly told me not to reschedule or call again — despite my continued requests for help, clarity, and due process.

Exhibit K – Texts with Marisol Guerrero (Nov 19, 2024)

Shows me begging Marisol to let me speak to my children. Her response references a self-written court order she never followed. This moment triggered the emotional post CPS later used to paint me as a threat.

Exhibit L – Formal Bar Complaint Against Attorney Amy Fairfield (March 10, 2025)

Filed with the Board of Overseers of the Bar. Describes Fairfield's simultaneous representation of both my abuser (Marisol Guerrero) and my partner's abuser (Tyler Boston), and her unethical interference throughout my case.

Exhibit M – Emails to Governor Janet Mills's Office (February 5, 2025)

Shows I made direct, respectful appeals for help — and was met with silence.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit N – Unanswered Emails to Chelcie Stewart and Christina Codere

Multiple formal requests for clarification on the unlawful trespass orders. Never answered. Never justified.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit O – Emails Regarding My CPS Substantiation Appeal

Shows I followed proper appeal protocol, yet was denied notice of my hearing — violating my due process rights as a parent.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit P – Letter from YCARE Official in Springvale (March 12, 2024)

This letter, written by an official at YCARE in Springvale, described serious concerns about Marisol Guerrero's stalking and abusive behavior. Instead of addressing it, CPS ignored the report entirely and continued to paint me as the problem — all while law enforcement followed along blindly. The very agency entrusted to protect my children used their power to conceal abuse and retaliate against the parent who sought help.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit Q – Email Chain with Andy, CEO of Sanford YMCA (Post-Public Exposure)

For nearly a year, I received no response from YCARE after their own staff documented abuse from Marisol. Only after I went public did the CEO, Andy, reach out. I recorded our call — which revealed deeply concerning conduct and a dismissive tone about what had been reported. He promised follow-up and resolution. But like everyone else in this system, he went silent again, leaving my children vulnerable and my voice ignored.

Exhibit R – 🚨 Sanford CPS Finally Answered... Then Hung Up on Me! (Video Post)

After months of being ignored by Sanford CPS, I called them using a different number. They answered immediately — confirming they were intentionally avoiding my usual number. The receptionist pretended not to know who I was, despite previously acknowledging one of my calls. When I asked why I was no-trespassed on December 3, 2024 — she refused to answer, then hung up on me.
This video proves:

- Intentional call-blocking
- Refusal to answer lawful questions
- Stonewalling around no-trespass orders
- Condescending deflection instead of concern for child well-being
- Proof CPS officials know they've acted unlawfully — and are trying to avoid accountability

Exhibit S – 🚨 Exposing the Double Standards: Law Enforcement Selectively Enforces No-Trespass Orders (Video Post)

This video post exposes how multiple Maine law enforcement agencies — including Berwick PD, Sanford PD, and Laconia PD — are actively enforcing no-trespass orders without question when they are issued against me, yet are refusing to grant or enforce the same protections when I lawfully request them.

On-record calls prove that law enforcement across departments is acting based on:

- Personal bias
- Political discretion
- Systemic deference to power

🔴 Here's the key issue: This is not about why I requested no-trespass orders for certain individuals. In fact, I've intentionally chosen not to disclose the "why" — not out of secrecy or avoidance, but because law enforcement has made it explicitly clear that in Maine:

> "Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we'll serve it. No questions asked."

That standard — quoted and upheld by multiple officers, across multiple departments — has been applied blindly when no-trespass orders were issued against me. So why is it suddenly different when I, a registered Maine business owner and 100% disabled veteran, try to request one?

📌 Why am I being questioned, scrutinized, and denied, while CPS has never once been asked to justify theirs?

👮 Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD even stated on record:

- "There's no way I'm going to serve a no-trespass order to the Governor of Maine."
- "We're not going to serve any of those no-trespass orders."
- CPS staff are "left-leaning people" who are "easily offended," implying political bias was a valid basis for action.

This is where the issue becomes systemic:

- CPS was allowed to issue retaliatory no-trespass orders based on fabricated claims.
- Sanford PD enforced those orders without explanation.
- Berwick PD enforced a no-trespass order against me from Laconia PD, for a location I've never even been to and from a person I've never met.
- Yet when I attempted to follow the same policy, I was told my business location (a home office) "doesn't count" and that the status or title of the individuals I named made them "off-limits."

  This isn't about legal policy — it's about power protecting power, and law enforcement becoming an extension of that protection.

📌 My attempts to use the same tools that have been used against me are being denied solely based on who I am and who they are.
📌 That is selective enforcement, plain and simple.
📌 And it's the same selective behavior we saw from Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025, when she used her position to lie to police and trespass me without justification — because she believed no one would challenge her.

This exhibit is critical because it lays bare the discriminatory double standard at play:

- One rule for CPS and the politically connected.
- Another for a father trying to protect himself.

📌 If they don't need to explain, then neither should I.
📌 And if I do, then so should they.
📌 This isn't justice. It's a façade.

Exhibit T – Officer Jim Baccon Serves Me a Laconia No-Trespass Order With No Cause or Connection (Video Post – January 16, 2025)

This video shows Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD serving me with a no-trespass order on January 16, 2025, on behalf of Laconia PD — for a property I had never visited, from a person I had never met, and in a city I had never been to.

📌 In the video, I express my confusion and concern:

- I had never heard of the person requesting the order.
- I had no prior knowledge of Laconia, NH.
- I had no known connection to the address or the alleged complaint.

Yet Officer Baccon proceeds to serve me anyway — mocking my confusion and hardship — and tells me:

> "Well, just don't go there and you won't have a problem."

This is more than a procedural failure — it's a dismissive and dehumanizing response to a father being targeted without explanation, rights, or defense.

But what makes this even more concerning is what I later discovered:

📌 The individual who requested this no-trespass is now the custodial guardian of Renee Marchand's oldest daughter — a decision that followed CPS's questionable and ultimately harmful placement of her with Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant.

Andrea is the same person who:

- Made false claims to CPS that I was going to kidnap children
- Spread fear-mongering messages
- Participated in the smear campaign alongside Marisol Guerrero and Tyler Boston
- Is now directly connected to the new guardian of Renee's daughter — who joined this campaign as well

Though the harm caused to Renee and her daughter isn't my full story to tell, it must be noted that CPS's gross mishandling of her case, their retaliatory approach toward both of us, and the enabling of known abusers and conspirators has ripped families apart, including hers. After Andrea's placement failed, CPS handed Renee's daughter over to the biological father — a man who had never seen her a single day in her 13 years of life.

That same man has since joined the CPS-enabled smear campaign against me — alongside Tyler, Marisol, and Andrea. This group has been emboldened and protected by the very system that:

- Refuses to answer my questions
- Silences me with no-trespass orders
- Labels me as a threat for speaking the truth

📌 In early December 2024, CPS even called Renee to tell her she would not be seeing her kids again if she stayed with me — a direct act of coercion and control meant to separate and destabilize our family further.

I now believe that this Laconia no-trespass order was influenced — if not orchestrated — by CPS as part of their ongoing abuse of power, retaliatory silencing, and manipulation of every agency they can reach.

📌 Meanwhile, I — a Maine business owner, father, and 100% disabled veteran — am left voiceless, stripped of protections, and handed orders that others never have to justify.

Exhibit U – 🚨 When Law Enforcement Brings Politics Into Justice (Video Post)

This post features a recorded phone conversation with Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD, in which he openly admits that political bias plays a role in how CPS officials interpret and respond to communication — and, by extension, how law enforcement upholds or ignores your rights.

📌 In the call, Officer Baccon justifies CPS's decision to no-trespass and avoid me by saying:

> "DHS is focused with a lot of liberal-leaning people. You may not mean it in a threatening manner, but they receive it."

Let that sink in:

- A law enforcement officer did not assess the facts of the situation.
- He did not review my emails, statements, or video evidence.
- Instead, he justified their refusal to respond based on a perceived political identity of the agency.

This isn't just dismissive — it's deeply unconstitutional.

📌 Justice should not depend on whether someone is "liberal-leaning" or "conservative."
📌 Law enforcement's duty is to enforce the law fairly and equally, not interpret it through political lens or protect the reputations of public agencies at the expense of citizens.

But it goes further:

📌 Officer Baccon also refused to honor my no-trespass request as a Maine business owner, despite Sanford PD confirming that "any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass for any reason."

When I pointed out the contradiction, he replied:

> "If you disagree, you can call my supervisor after 3."

✅ I did. I was promised a call back — no one ever called.
✅ I called again later — suddenly, no one in Berwick PD would speak to me except Officer Baccon.

This isn't law enforcement.
This is a circle of protection, silence, and bias, built around shielding CPS and suppressing anyone who challenges their misconduct.

📌 I am not being treated equally under the law.
📌 My business rights are ignored.
📌 My calls are filtered.
📌 My voice is denied — not because I broke the law, but because I asked why others were allowed to.

🚨 If CPS and law enforcement officials are acting based on political perception — not policy or law — then we are no longer dealing with a justice system. We are dealing with a culture of protectionism and corruption.

Exhibit V – 🔥 Police Admit Businesses Can BAN Anyone Without Reason – But Not Me (Video Post)

In this post and accompanying video, Officer Chouinard of the Sanford Police Department confirms that any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass order for any reason and that police will enforce it without question or justification.

This is the exact same policy that was used to justify multiple no-trespass orders against me — yet when I, as a business owner of a registered LLC (Together We Grow), attempted to exercise the same right, I was denied.

📌 Officer Chouinard said plainly:

> "Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we enforce them."

But when I attempted to issue my own, I was:

- Told to contact a different department
- Given excuses, deflections, and stonewalls
- Ultimately denied the right to exercise the same legal action used against me

📌 Why was I trespassed from a public CPS building with no justification — yet CPS, and even officials themselves, are protected from the same process?
📌 Why does the law apply to some and not to others?
📌 Why am I being scrutinized and silenced for using a policy others can use without explanation?

This video is especially important because it features Officer Chouinard, the same officer who responded on December 3, 2024, when Sanford CPS called police in an attempt to have me arrested for "trespassing."
Instead of immediately arresting me, he listened, investigated, and confirmed I had never previously been served with a no-trespass order — proving I was telling the truth.

And yet, he still had to serve me that day, because:

> "Police always enforce CPS orders without question."

He told me the only thing I could do was to keep contacting them and seeking answers — despite knowing I had already been ignored for months.

This post confirms what several officers across departments have already admitted:

- The law is enforced blindly when it protects state agencies.
- But when I try to use that same law for protection, I'm denied.

This isn't just a double standard — it's a system that enforces policy based on who you are and who you're standing up to.

📌 I am a registered business owner in Maine.
📌 But my rights, under this system, are conditional — and denied whenever inconvenient to those in power.

Exhibit W – 🚨 Formal Bar Complaint Against Attorney Amy Fairfield: Confirmation Received (Post & Documentation)

This exhibit features an update confirming that my formal bar complaint against Attorney Amy Fairfield has been officially received by the Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar and is now under review by Bar Counsel.

Amy Fairfield is no stranger to misconduct—she was already placed on probation for professional violations in 2024. Yet despite this, she has continued to engage in highly unethical and harmful behavior in my case, including:

- Misrepresenting my income to the court, knowingly inflating figures while ignoring my 100% disabled and unemployed status

- Obstructing my ability to appeal false financial claims
- Aiding the legal harassment of both me and my partner through manipulation, delays, and silence
- Dismissing critical evidence while selectively enforcing court orders that work only in favor of her clients — my abuser and Renee's abuser

📌 What makes this exhibit especially important is that it confirms what I've been showing all along:

> Every system I've encountered — CPS, law enforcement, the courts, and now legal representation itself — has reflected the same pattern of bias, corruption, and retaliation.

Amy Fairfield has consistently acted not as an officer of the court, but as a tool for weaponizing legal proceedings against victims — all while holding power over outcomes that shape my access to my children, my financial future, and my ability to fight back.

This isn't just about one unethical attorney. This is about a legal system that enables and protects people like her — even when they've already been found guilty of violating their professional code.

💬 In this public post, I have called on local media, including the Portland Press Herald, to investigate further and shine a light on what's happening behind closed courtroom doors — because what's happening to me is not isolated. It's systemic.

Exhibit X – Call Log Screenshot: Sanford CPS Call History (Nov 2024 – Mar 2025)

This exhibit displays a verifiable call log from my phone to the Sanford CPS office (207-490-5400). The log spans from November 25, 2024, through March 11, 2025, and clearly contradicts Jean Haynes' statement to Officer Shortill of Biddeford PD.

Haynes falsely claimed I had been "calling over 100 times a day" — yet this call history proves:

- My calls were limited and spaced out, never excessive.
- Only a few calls per day were made on the busiest days.
- Zero evidence of the kind of harassment or over-contact Haynes described.

This is a direct lie made on record to a law enforcement officer in order to justify a retaliatory no-trespass order — an abuse of power and a criminally unethical act by a senior OCFS official.

The system didn't verify. The police didn't ask for proof.
They just obeyed.

📌 This call log is visual evidence of truth being ignored — and retaliation being carried out without due process, fact-checking, or lawful justification.

🛑 This Is About More Than Me—It's About Every Family Like Mine

Governor
Mills,

This
is not just a personal tragedy—it is a systemic failure. It is a betrayal of the values that Maine claims to uphold: justice, transparency, and the protection of children and families.

When
someone as high-ranking as Jean
Haynes can knowingly lie
to law enforcement—and when those lies are blindly enforced without question by police departments, while oversight bodies like the Ombudsman choose silence—the system is no longer broken. It is complicit.

For
over eight months, I have lived a nightmare not because of anything I've done,
but because of a coordinated effort by CPS to silence, discredit, and punish me for speaking the truth and seeking help. This is coercion. This is abuse. And this is happening under the authority of your administration.

I am one voice. But I represent countless others who are too afraid to speak, too overwhelmed to fight, or too broken by the system to keep going. I'm still here—because I refuse to let my children grow up thinking I gave up on them.

Now
I'm asking you not to give up on us.

Hold Jean Haynes accountable.
Investigate OCFS. Expose the corruption that has been allowed to fester in silence.

Because if you don't—who will?

I am ready to testify. I am ready to provide evidence. And I am ready to stand for every family this system has failed.

Please
don't look away.

The
truth is here. The time to act is now.

📂 CC RECIPIENTS BY CATEGORY:

Maine State Government Officials

Why
they were included: These are the key leaders who oversee the state's executive agencies, including DHHS and OCFS. They are responsible for policy enforcement, oversight of public services, and upholding ethical standards in public administration. They have the power to investigate, intervene, and initiate systemic reform. Included contacts:

- Governor Janet Mills
- Attorney General Aaron Frey
- DHHS Commissioner Jeanne Lambrew

- OCFS Director Bobbi Johnson
- OCFS Associate Director Jean Haynes
- Child Welfare Ombudsman Christine Alberi
- State Auditor Matthew Dunlap
- Secretary of State Shenna Bellows
- State Treasurer Henry Beck
- Commissioner of Public Safety Michael Sauschuck

Commissioner of Education Pender

Maine Legislative Leadership and Committee Members

Why
they were included: These are elected legislators with the authority to conduct hearings, push forward child welfare reforms, and hold state agencies accountable through law. Several of them sit on Judiciary and Health & Human Services committees.
Included contacts:

Dozens of representatives and senators across both parties — each of whom has a duty to protect Maine families, uphold civil liberties, and address abuses of government power. Their inclusion ensures this crisis is not buried in bureaucracy.

Judicial and Legal Oversight Authorities

Why
they were included: These bodies oversee judicial ethics, access to legal services, and the conduct of attorneys and state actors. My concerns include judicial neglect, mishandling of substantiations, and an active bar complaint.

I am writing to report a verified abuse of power by Jean Haynes, Associate Director of OCFS, who knowingly lied to law enforcement on March 11, 2025, resulting in an unlawful no-trespass order against me. This act is part of a broader pattern of retaliation, discrimination, and silencing by Maine CPS. I have attached over 20 exhibits of evidence — including video, audio, emails, and sworn statements — proving systemic misconduct, denial of due process, and political bias across agencies. I respectfully request an independent investigation into these actions and stand ready to provide full cooperation. The truth is here. Please don't look away.

On March 11, 2025, Jean Haynes knowingly lied to law enforcement to justify having me trespassed from DHHS property without cause. That single act—calculated, manipulative, and caught on record—should send shockwaves through every corner of OCFS.

Every single one of these statements is false. And Jean Haynes—a public official entrusted with protecting families—knew they were false when she said them.

Her lies are documented. The proof exists. And yet the system that should be holding her accountable has stayed silent. See Exhibits towards the tail end of this email proving Jean Haynes abusing her power to coerce law enforcement to carry out orders based on knowingly false allegations on 3-11-25.

❗ This Is Not an Isolated Incident—It's a Pattern

The actions of Jean Haynes on March 11 are not just a personal injustice—they represent the very same tactics CPS has used against me and my family for over eight months:

- Lies and manipulation to fabricate false narratives
- Coercion of law enforcement and legal actors to do their bidding without due process
- Suppression of truth through no-trespass orders meant to silence and intimidate
- Complete disregard for evidence and facts

This is not speculation. It is not opinion. It is provable.

On December 3, 2024, Sanford CPS attempted to have me arrested based on a trespass order they falsely claimed had been issued weeks prior. It had not. Officer Chaunard of Sanford PD confirmed that and prevented my wrongful arrest—then served me on the spot with no reason provided.

Then, on March 14, I was handed a printed image of a benign social media post by a Portland CPS worker. That very post, according to a letter from Amy Cilley dated March 16, 2025, was the justification for my Sanford trespass.

The system has relied on cut-and-paste misinformation and deliberate misrepresentation of my character to punish and alienate me—not because I did anything wrong, but because I dared to ask questions.

🧩 A Coordinated Campaign of Defamation and Control

On November 21, 2024, screenshots from my partner, Renee Marchand, showed that Marisol Guerrero (my ex-wife), Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston (Renee's ex-husband) were spreading false rumors that I planned to kidnap children—claims that are not only outrageous but criminally defamatory.

They were emboldened and enabled by the very system that should have dismissed such baseless fearmongering outright.

Even more concerning? Marisol and Tyler Boston share the same attorney—Amy Fairfield—a lawyer with a known history of unethical behavior and an active bar complaint against her for misconduct in my case.

⚠️ Law Enforcement Obeys, But Never Questions

Multiple officers have told me they do not question CPS directives. They simply enforce them.

> "If CPS gives us a no-trespass, we assume they have a valid reason."

This blind allegiance—without review, without evidence, and without any due process—has created a system ripe for abuse and retaliation.

🔥 The System Should Be Ashamed—And Speaking Out

Jean Haynes's behavior on March 11 was a flagrant abuse of power, carried out by someone at the top of the CPS hierarchy. That she did this with such ease, knowing her lies would be accepted without review, is terrifying.

The entire CPS system should be ashamed of her actions.

They should be speaking out against this—not protecting it.

Every silent colleague, every complicit supervisor, and every DHHS employee who continues to support this corrupt internal culture is an accessory to the emotional, financial, and legal devastation this has caused to me and countless other families.

💔 The Human Cost: 8 Months Without My Children

I have not seen or spoken to my sons since Father's Day 2024.

Not because of anything I've done.

But because CPS has weaponized lies, coercion, and systemic manipulation to keep me away—while simultaneously extorting me for over $2,400 per month in child support as a disabled, unemployed veteran.

This is state-sanctioned abuse. And Jean Haynes is the poster child of how far it's gone.

⚠️ This Is Just the Tip of the Iceberg

What I've shared in this letter is only a fraction of the unethical, unlawful, and retaliatory behavior my family has suffered at the hands of Maine CPS employees. This is just the tip of the iceberg.

I have dozens of documents, videos, call recordings, screenshots, witness statements, and internal communications proving a much larger, deeply disturbing pattern of abuse of power.

✊ Final Demand for Justice and Systemic Reform

Governor Mills, I am calling on you to:

1. Immediately launch an independent investigation into the conduct of Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025.

2. Conduct a full review of the CPS actions against me and my family, including those of Amy Fairfield, Marisol Guerrero, Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston.

3. Reform how no-trespass orders are issued and enforced by DHHS to prevent further misuse and abuse of power.

4. Hold those who lie to law enforcement accountable—no matter their rank or title.

I am prepared to provide every piece of evidence I have to your office, to legislators, to the media, and to every oversight body that will listen.

This isn't just my story—it's a call to action. And it's one I will keep making until someone finally listens.

Exhibit A – Letter from Amy Cilley (Received March 16, 2025)

Confirms that a vague, peaceful social media post was the sole justification for my Sanford DHHS no-trespass order. There was no investigation, no context, and no legal basis.

Exhibit B – Printout of Social Media Post (Received March 14, 2025, Portland DHHS)

Shows the misrepresented post used to justify the trespass. There were no threats, no misconduct — just CPS weaponizing distress and using social media as an excuse to silence a grieving father.

Exhibit C – Audio Recording of Officer Shortill Call (Biddeford PD)

Confirms Jean Haynes lied to police — stating I called "over 100 times a day" and was "disorderly in the lobby." Officer Shortill acknowledges this in our recorded call.

Exhibit P – Letter from YCARE Official in Springvale (March 12, 2024)

This letter, written by an official at YCARE in Springvale, described serious concerns about Marisol Guerrero's stalking and abusive behavior. Instead of addressing it, CPS ignored the report entirely and continued to paint me as the problem — all while law enforcement followed along blindly. The very agency entrusted to protect my children used their power to conceal abuse and retaliate against the parent who sought help.

Exhibit Q – Email Chain with Andy, CEO of Sanford YMCA (Post-Public Exposure)

For nearly a year, I received no response from YCARE after their own staff documented abuse from Marisol. Only after I went public did the CEO, Andy, reach out. I recorded our call — which revealed deeply concerning conduct and a dismissive tone about what had been reported. He promised follow-up and resolution. But like everyone else in this system, he went silent again, leaving my children vulnerable and my voice ignored.

Exhibit R – 🚨 Sanford CPS Finally Answered... Then Hung Up on Me! (Video Post)

After months of being ignored by Sanford CPS, I called them using a different number. They answered immediately — confirming they were intentionally avoiding my usual number. The receptionist pretended not to know who I was, despite previously acknowledging one of my calls. When I asked why I was no-trespassed on December 3, 2024 — she refused to answer, then hung up on me.
This video proves:

- Intentional call-blocking
- Refusal to answer lawful questions
- Stonewalling around no-trespass orders
- Condescending deflection instead of concern for child well-being
- Proof CPS officials know they've acted unlawfully — and are trying to avoid accountability
  🔗 Watch Video on Facebook

Exhibit S – 🚨 Exposing the Double Standards: Law Enforcement Selectively Enforces No-Trespass Orders (Video Post)

This video post exposes how multiple Maine law enforcement agencies — including Berwick PD, Sanford PD, and Laconia PD — are actively enforcing no-trespass orders without question when they are issued against me, yet are refusing to grant or enforce the same protections when I lawfully request them.

On-record calls prove that law enforcement across departments is acting based on:

- Personal bias
- Political discretion
- Systemic deference to power

🛑 Here's the key issue: This is not about why I requested no-trespass orders for certain individuals. In fact, I've intentionally chosen not to disclose the "why" — not out of secrecy or avoidance, but because law enforcement has made it explicitly clear that in Maine:

> "Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we'll serve it. No questions asked."

That standard — quoted and upheld by multiple officers, across multiple departments — has been applied blindly when no-trespass orders were issued against me. So why is it suddenly different when I, a registered Maine business owner and 100% disabled veteran, try to request one?

📌 Why am I being questioned, scrutinized, and denied, while CPS has never once been asked to justify theirs?

👮 Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD even stated on record:

- "There's no way I'm going to serve a no-trespass order to the Governor of Maine."
- "We're not going to serve any of those no-trespass orders."
- CPS staff are "left-leaning people" who are "easily offended," implying political bias was a valid basis for action.

This is where the issue becomes systemic:

- CPS was allowed to issue retaliatory no-trespass orders based on fabricated claims.
- Sanford PD enforced those orders without explanation.
- Berwick PD enforced a no-trespass order against me from Laconia PD, for a location I've never even been to and from a person I've never met.
- Yet when I attempted to follow the same policy, I was told my business location (a home office) "doesn't count" and that the status or title of the individuals I named made them "off-limits."

  This isn't about legal policy — it's about power protecting power, and law enforcement becoming an extension of that protection.

📌 My attempts to use the same tools that have been used against me are being denied solely based on who I am and who they are.
📌 That is selective enforcement, plain and simple.
📌 And it's the same selective behavior we saw from Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025, when she used her position to lie to police and trespass me without justification — because she believed no one would challenge her.

This exhibit is critical because it lays bare the discriminatory double standard at play:

- One rule for CPS and the politically connected.
- Another for a father trying to protect himself.

📌 If they don't need to explain, then neither should I.
📌 And if I do, then so should they.
📌 This isn't justice. It's a façade.

Exhibit T – Officer Jim Baccon Serves Me a Laconia No-Trespass Order With No Cause or Connection (Video Post – January 16, 2025)

This video shows Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD serving me with a no-trespass order on January 16, 2025, on behalf of Laconia PD — for a property I had never visited, from a person I had never met, and in a city I had never been to.

📌 In the video, I express my confusion and concern:

- I had never heard of the person requesting the order.
- I had no prior knowledge of Laconia, NH.
- I had no known connection to the address or the alleged complaint.

Yet Officer Baccon proceeds to serve me anyway — mocking my confusion and hardship — and tells me:

> "Well, just don't go there and you won't have a problem."

This is more than a procedural failure — it's a dismissive and dehumanizing response to a father being targeted without explanation, rights, or defense.

But what makes this even more concerning is what I later discovered:

📌 The individual who requested this no-trespass is now the custodial guardian of Renee Marchand's oldest daughter — a decision that followed CPS's questionable and ultimately harmful placement of her with Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant.

Andrea is the same person who:

- Made false claims to CPS that I was going to kidnap children
- Spread fear-mongering messages
- Participated in the smear campaign alongside Marisol Guerrero and Tyler Boston
- Is now directly connected to the new guardian of Renee's daughter — who joined this campaign as well

Though the harm caused to Renee and her daughter isn't my full story to tell, it must be noted that CPS's gross mishandling of her case, their retaliatory approach toward both of us, and the enabling of known abusers and conspirators has ripped families apart, including hers. After Andrea's placement failed, CPS handed Renee's daughter over to the biological father — a man who had never seen her a single day in her 13 years of life.

That same man has since joined the CPS-enabled smear campaign against me — alongside Tyler, Marisol, and Andrea. This group has been emboldened and protected by the very system that:

- Refuses to answer my questions
- Silences me with no-trespass orders
- Labels me as a threat for speaking the truth

📌 In early December 2024, CPS even called Renee to tell her she would not be seeing her kids again if she stayed with me — a direct act of coercion and control meant to separate and destabilize our family further.

I now believe that this Laconia no-trespass order was influenced — if not orchestrated — by CPS as part of their ongoing abuse of power, retaliatory silencing, and manipulation of every agency they can reach.

📌 Meanwhile, I — a Maine business owner, father, and 100% disabled veteran — am left voiceless, stripped of protections, and handed orders that others never have to justify.

🔗 Watch the Video on Facebook

Exhibit U – 🚨 When Law Enforcement Brings Politics Into Justice (Video Post)

This post features a recorded phone conversation with Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD, in which he openly admits that political bias plays a role in how CPS officials interpret and respond to communication — and, by extension, how law enforcement upholds or ignores your rights.

📌 In the call, Officer Baccon justifies CPS's decision to no-trespass and avoid me by saying:

> "DHS is focused with a lot of liberal-leaning people. You may not mean it in a threatening manner, but they receive it."

Let that sink in:

- A law enforcement officer did not assess the facts of the situation.
- He did not review my emails, statements, or video evidence.
- Instead, he justified their refusal to respond based on a perceived political identity of the agency.

This isn't just dismissive — it's deeply unconstitutional.

📌 Justice should not depend on whether someone is “liberal-leaning” or “conservative.”
📌 Law enforcement’s duty is to enforce the law fairly and equally, not interpret it through political lens or protect the reputations of public agencies at the expense of citizens.

But it goes further:

📌 Officer Baccon also refused to honor my no-trespass request as a Maine business owner, despite Sanford PD confirming that “any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass for any reason.”

When I pointed out the contradiction, he replied:

> “If you disagree, you can call my supervisor after 3.”

✅ I did. I was promised a call back — no one ever called.
✅ I called again later — suddenly, no one in Berwick PD would speak to me except Officer Baccon.

This isn’t law enforcement.
This is a circle of protection, silence, and bias, built around shielding CPS and suppressing anyone who challenges their misconduct.

📌 I am not being treated equally under the law.
📌 My business rights are ignored.
📌 My calls are filtered.
📌 My voice is denied — not because I broke the law, but because I asked why others were allowed to.

🚨 If CPS and law enforcement officials are acting based on political perception — not policy or law — then we are no longer dealing with a justice system. We are dealing with a culture of protectionism and corruption.

Exhibit V – 🔥 Police Admit Businesses Can BAN Anyone Without Reason – But Not Me (Video Post)

In this post and accompanying video, Officer Chouinard of the Sanford Police Department confirms that any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass order for any reason and that police will enforce it without question or justification.

This is the exact same policy that was used to justify multiple no-trespass orders against me — yet when I, as a business owner of a registered LLC (Together We Grow), attempted to exercise the same right, I was denied.

📌 Officer Chouinard said plainly:

> “Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we enforce them.”

But when I attempted to issue my own, I was:

- Told to contact a different department
- Given excuses, deflections, and stonewalls
- Ultimately denied the right to exercise the same legal action used against me

📌 Why was I trespassed from a public CPS building with no justification — yet CPS, and even officials themselves, are protected from the same process?
📌 Why does the law apply to some and not to others?
📌 Why am I being scrutinized and silenced for using a policy others can use without explanation?

This video is especially important because it features Officer Chouinard, the same officer who responded on December 3, 2024, when Sanford CPS called police in an attempt to have me arrested for “trespassing.”
Instead of immediately arresting me, he listened, investigated, and confirmed I had never previously been served with a no-trespass order — proving I was telling the truth.

And yet, he still had to serve me that day, because:

> “Police always enforce CPS orders without question.”

He told me the only thing I could do was to keep contacting them and seeking answers — despite knowing I had already been ignored for months.

This post confirms what several officers across departments have already admitted:

- The law is enforced blindly when it protects state agencies.
- But when I try to use that same law for protection, I’m denied.

This isn’t just a double standard — it’s a system that enforces policy based on who you are and who you’re standing up to.

📌 I am a registered business owner in Maine.
📌 But my rights, under this system, are conditional — and denied whenever inconvenient to those in power.

Exhibit W – 🚨 Formal Bar Complaint Against Attorney Amy Fairfield: Confirmation Received (Post & Documentation)

This exhibit features an update confirming that my formal bar complaint against Attorney Amy Fairfield has been officially received by the Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar and is now under review by Bar Counsel.

Amy Fairfield is no stranger to misconduct—she was already placed on probation for professional violations in 2024. Yet despite this, she has continued to engage in highly unethical and harmful behavior in my case, including:

- Misrepresenting my income to the court, knowingly inflating figures while ignoring my 100% disabled and unemployed status
- Obstructing my ability to appeal false financial claims
- Aiding the legal harassment of both me and my partner through manipulation, delays, and silence
- Dismissing critical evidence while selectively enforcing court orders that work only in favor of her clients — my abuser and Renee’s abuser

📌 What makes this exhibit especially important is that it confirms what I’ve been showing all along:

> Every system I’ve encountered — CPS, law enforcement, the courts, and now legal representation itself — has reflected the same pattern of bias, corruption, and retaliation.

Amy Fairfield has consistently acted not as an officer of the court, but as a tool for weaponizing legal proceedings against victims — all while holding power over outcomes that shape my access to my children, my financial future, and my ability to fight back.

This isn’t just about one unethical attorney. This is about a legal system that enables and protects people like her — even when they’ve already been found guilty of violating their professional code.

💬 In this public post, I have called on local media, including the Portland Press Herald, to investigate further and shine a light on what’s happening behind closed courtroom doors — because what’s happening to me is not isolated. It’s systemic.

Exhibit X – Call Log Screenshot: Sanford CPS Call History (Nov 2024 – Mar 2025)

This exhibit displays a verifiable call log from my phone to the Sanford CPS office (207-490-5400). The log spans from November 25, 2024, through March 11, 2025, and clearly contradicts Jean Haynes’ statement to Officer Shortill of Biddeford PD.

Haynes falsely claimed I had been “calling over 100 times a day” — yet this call history proves:

- My calls were limited and spaced out, never excessive.
- Only a few calls per day were made on the busiest days.
- Zero evidence of the kind of harassment or over-contact Haynes described.

This is a direct lie made on record to a law enforcement officer in order to justify a retaliatory no-trespass order — an abuse of power and a criminally unethical act by a senior OCFS official.

The system didn't verify. The police didn't ask for proof.
They just obeyed.

📌 This call log is visual evidence of truth being ignored — and retaliation being carried out without due process, fact-checking, or lawful justification.

🛑 This Is About More Than Me—It's About Every Family Like Mine

Governor Mills,

This is not just a personal tragedy—it is a systemic failure. It is a betrayal of the values that Maine claims to uphold: justice, transparency, and the protection of children and families.

When someone as high-ranking as Jean Haynes can knowingly lie to law enforcement—and when those lies are blindly enforced without question by police departments, while oversight bodies like the Ombudsman choose silence—the system is no longer broken. It is complicit.

For over eight months, I have lived a nightmare not because of anything I've done, but because of a coordinated effort by CPS to silence, discredit, and punish me for speaking the truth and seeking help. This is coercion. This is abuse. And this is happening under the authority of your administration.

I am one voice. But I represent countless others who are too afraid to speak, too overwhelmed to fight, or too broken by the system to keep going. I'm still here—because I refuse to let my children grow up thinking I gave up on them.

Now I'm asking you not to give up on us.
Hold Jean Haynes accountable. Investigate OCFS. Expose the corruption that has been allowed to fester in silence.
Because if you don't—who will?

I am ready to testify. I am ready to provide evidence. And I am ready to stand for every family this system has failed.

Please don't look away.
The truth is here. The time to act is now.

📩 CC List Statement for Your Email:

> The list of recipients below represents every official, agency, advocate, and oversight body I've chosen to include in this message. I gathered them to the best of my ability in hopes that this email reaches at least one person brave enough to stand for truth, transparency, and justice — not just for me, but for every family in Maine who has been wronged, silenced, or destroyed by corrupt government officials entrusted to protect them.

📂 CC RECIPIENTS BY CATEGORY:

🏛️ Maine State Government Officials

Why they were included: These are the key leaders who oversee the state's executive agencies, including DHHS and OCFS. They are responsible for policy enforcement, oversight of public services, and upholding ethical standards in public administration. They have the power to investigate, intervene, and initiate systemic reform. Included contacts:

- Governor Janet Mills
- Attorney General Aaron Frey
- DHHS Commissioner Jeanne Lambrew
- OCFS Director Bobbi Johnson
- OCFS Associate Director Jean Haynes
- Child Welfare Ombudsman Christine Alberi
- State Auditor Matthew Dunlap
- Secretary of State Shenna Bellows
- State Treasurer Henry Beck
- Commissioner of Public Safety Michael Sauschuck
- Commissioner of Education Pender Makin

🏛️ Maine Legislative Leadership and Committee Members

Why they were included: These are elected legislators with the authority to conduct hearings, push forward child welfare reforms, and hold state agencies accountable through law. Several of them sit on Judiciary and Health & Human Services committees. Included contacts:
Dozens of representatives and senators across both parties — each of whom has a duty to protect Maine families, uphold civil liberties, and address abuses of government power. Their inclusion ensures this crisis is not buried in bureaucracy.

⚖️ Judicial and Legal Oversight Authorities

Why they were included: These bodies oversee judicial ethics, access to legal services, and the conduct of attorneys and state actors. My concerns include judicial neglect, mishandling of substantiations, and an active bar complaint. Included contacts:

- Chief Justice Valerie Stanfill
- Judicial Branch Communications Office
- Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services
- Board of Overseers of the Bar
- Commission on Governmental Ethics and Election Practices

🔍 State and Federal Investigative Bodies

Why they were included: My story contains allegations of civil rights violations, ADA discrimination, abuse of authority, and documented lies to law enforcement. These agencies are responsible for auditing public systems, upholding civil justice, and responding to patterns of abuse. Included contacts:

- OPEGA (Office of Program Evaluation & Government Accountability)
- Maine Human Rights Commission
- U.S. DOJ Civil Rights Division
- U.S. HHS Office of Inspector General
- FBI (Portland Field Office)

👮 Law Enforcement Agencies

Why they were included: Officers from Berwick PD, Sanford PD, and others have been directly involved in enforcing unlawful or misleading no-trespass orders based on CPS's manipulation. These departments deserve transparency — and bear responsibility for blind enforcement without review. Included contacts:

- Berwick Police Department Command and Officers
- Sanford Police Department (referenced in exhibits)

👫 Parental Rights and Fatherhood Advocacy Organizations

Why they were included: As a father denied access to his children despite having no criminal findings and being 100% disabled, my case highlights the devastating impact of CPS retaliation against fit, loving parents. These groups exist to fight that very injustice. Included contacts:

- The Fathers' Rights Movement
- National Parents Organization
- Fathers Helping Fathers
- Maine Parent Federation

⚖️ Civil Rights, Disability, and Justice Advocacy

Why they were included: These organizations advocate for due process, disability protections, mental health justice, and ethical conduct in government. My case involves discrimination against my PTSD diagnosis and weaponization of my disability to discredit my parental role. Included contacts:

- ACLU of Maine
- Disability Rights Maine
- Maine Equal Justice
- Pine Tree Legal Assistance
- Maine Coalition to End Domestic Violence

🗞️ Maine-Based News Media

Why they were included: This story belongs in the public eye. These outlets were chosen to hold public officials accountable and help bring public awareness to the systemic failures harming families like mine. Included contacts:

- Portland Press Herald
- Bangor Daily News
- Maine Public
- WMTW, WCSH6, WGME

- Lewiston Sun Journal, Central Maine, Times Record

🗞️ National Media & Journalism Outlets

Why they were included: If no one in Maine will act, the nation needs to know. This is about state-sponsored retaliation, systemic corruption, and the silencing of a father who simply sought help. These outlets can amplify this story nationwide. Included contacts:

- The New York Times
- Washington Post
- NPR
- CNN, NBC, CBS, ABC
- Reuters, Associated Press

⚠️ Disclaimer

The exhibits I have included and presented here today do not represent the entirety of the evidence I have gathered, nor do they fully reflect the extensive emotional, mental, physical, and financial toll this ongoing injustice and abuse of power has taken on me as a father, veteran, and human being.

These materials serve as a foundational record — a starting point for transparency, truth, and accountability. But there is more. Much more.

I remain ready and willing to provide any additional documentation, context, or recorded communications to support a fair and thorough investigation. I welcome and encourage follow-up questions and will cooperate fully with any unbiased, comprehensive review of the facts, actions, and failures described throughout this timeline.

My only request is that a formal investigation be opened, with the mutual and honest intention to uncover the truth, restore justice, and ensure that what happened to me — and continues to happen — never happens to another parent, partner, or child again.

With all the strength I have left, I write this not just as a plea for justice, but as a testament to love.

I've been lied about, silenced, and shut out — not because I failed, but because I refused to stop fighting for my children. I have walked through fire, not to burn bridges, but to light the way for truth.

And still — I believe in something better.

I believe that even now, there are people in power with the courage to do the right thing. People who see past titles and politics and choose to listen. People who understand that justice isn't real unless it's real for everyone — including fathers like me, and children like mine.

So if you're reading this, I ask only one thing:

Be the person my sons will one day be proud to know stood up.
Because I will never stop standing — for them, for truth, and for every family who's been broken but refuses to be buried.

With unwavering hope,

Subject: Thank You — Intake Form Submitted & Gratitude for Your Response

Dear Kit,

Thank you so much for taking the time to respond to my email — your message meant more to me than I can express.

Out of the 100+ individuals I reached out to in hopes of finding someone willing to listen, you were the first and only one to reply. That act of humanity did not go unnoticed, and I want to sincerely thank you for it.

I have officially completed and submitted the online intake form through the link you provided. I've also included a brief summary in the form along with a notation that additional documentation is available upon request. I will gladly provide whatever supporting evidence is needed for a fair and thorough review.

As a disabled veteran, a father fighting for access to his children, and someone who has endured months of systemic silencing, coercion, and discrimination, your willingness to acknowledge my voice and guide me to the next step offered a much-needed moment of hope.

Thank you, Kit — not just for your help, but for being a reminder that there are still people within the system who care.

With heartfelt gratitude,
Ryan Michaels

I am writing to report a verified abuse of power by Jean Haynes, Associate Director of OCFS, who knowingly lied to law enforcement on March 11, 2025, resulting in an unlawful no-trespass order against me. This act is part of a broader pattern of retaliation, discrimination, and silencing by Maine CPS. I have attached over 20 exhibits of evidence — including video, audio, emails, and sworn statements — proving systemic misconduct, denial of due process, and political bias across agencies. I respectfully request an independent investigation into these actions and stand ready to provide full cooperation. The truth is here. Please don't look away.

That single act—calculated, manipulative, and caught on record—should send shockwaves through every corner of OCFS.

> Every single one of these statements is false. And Jean Haynes—a public official entrusted with protecting families—knew they were false when she said them.

Her lies are documented. The proof exists. And yet the system that should be holding her accountable has stayed silent. See Exhibits towards the tail end of this email proving Jean Haynes abusing her power to coerce law enforcement to carry out orders based on knowingly false allegations on 3-11-25.

❗ This Is Not an Isolated Incident—It's a Pattern

The actions of Jean Haynes on March 11 are not just a personal injustice—they represent the very same tactics CPS has used against me and my family for over eight months:

- Lies and manipulation to fabricate false narratives
- Coercion of law enforcement and legal actors to do their bidding without due process
- Suppression of truth through no-trespass orders meant to silence and intimidate
- Complete disregard for evidence and facts

This is not speculation. It is not opinion. It is provable.

On December 3, 2024, Sanford CPS attempted to have me arrested based on a trespass order they falsely claimed had been issued weeks prior. It had not. Officer Chaunard of Sanford PD confirmed that and prevented my wrongful arrest—then served me on the spot with no reason provided.

Then, on March 14, I was handed a printed image of a benign social media post by a Portland CPS worker. That very post, according to a letter from Amy Cilley dated March 16, 2025, was the justification for my Sanford trespass.

The system has relied on cut-and-paste misinformation and deliberate misrepresentation of my character to punish and alienate me—not because I did anything wrong, but because I dared to ask questions.

🧩 A Coordinated Campaign of Defamation and Control

On November 21, 2024, screenshots from my partner, Renee Marchand, showed that Marisol Guerrero (my ex-wife), Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston (Renee's ex-husband) were spreading false rumors that I planned to kidnap children—claims that are not only outrageous but criminally defamatory.

They were emboldened and enabled by the very system that should have dismissed such baseless fearmongering outright.

Even more concerning? Marisol and Tyler Boston share the same attorney—Amy Fairfield—a lawyer with a known history of unethical behavior and an active bar complaint against her for misconduct in my case.

⚠️ Law Enforcement Obeys, But Never Questions

Multiple officers have told me they do not question CPS directives. They simply enforce them.

> "If CPS gives us a no-trespass, we assume they have a valid reason."

This blind allegiance—without review, without evidence, and without any due process—has created a system ripe for abuse and retaliation.

🔥 The System Should Be Ashamed—And Speaking Out

Jean Haynes's behavior on March 11 was a flagrant abuse of power, carried out by someone at the top of the CPS hierarchy. That she did this with such ease, knowing her lies would be accepted without review, is terrifying.

The entire CPS system should be ashamed of her actions.

They should be speaking out against this—not protecting it.

Every silent colleague, every complicit supervisor, and every DHHS employee who continues to support this corrupt internal culture is an accessory to the emotional, financial, and legal devastation this has caused to me and countless other families.

💔 The Human Cost: 8 Months Without My Children

I have not seen or spoken to my sons since Father's Day 2024.

Not because of anything I've done.

But because CPS has weaponized lies, coercion, and systemic manipulation to keep me away—while simultaneously extorting me for over $2,400 per month in child support as a disabled, unemployed veteran.

This is state-sanctioned abuse. And Jean Haynes is the poster child of how far it's gone.

⚠️ This Is Just the Tip of the Iceberg

What I've shared in this letter is only a fraction of the unethical, unlawful, and retaliatory behavior my family has suffered at the hands of Maine CPS employees. This is just the tip of the iceberg.

I have dozens of documents, videos, call recordings, screenshots, witness statements, and internal communications proving a much larger, deeply disturbing pattern of abuse of power.

✊ Final Demand for Justice and Systemic Reform

Governor Mills, I am calling on you to:

1. Immediately launch an independent investigation into the conduct of Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025.

2. Conduct a full review of the CPS actions against me and my family, including those of Amy Fairfield, Marisol Guerrero, Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant, and Tyler Boston.

3. Reform how no-trespass orders are issued and enforced by DHHS to prevent further misuse and abuse of power.

4. Hold those who lie to law enforcement accountable—no matter their rank or title.

I am prepared to provide every piece of evidence I have to your office, to legislators, to the media, and to every oversight body that will listen.

This isn't just my story—it's a call to action. And it's one I will keep making until someone finally listens.

📎 Glossary of Exhibits (Attached or Linked)

Exhibit A – Letter from Amy Cilley (Received March 16, 2025)

Confirms that a vague, peaceful social media post was the sole justification for my Sanford DHHS no-trespass order. There was no investigation, no context, and no legal basis.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit B – Printout of Social Media Post (Received March 14, 2025, Portland DHHS)

Shows the misrepresented post used to justify the trespass. There were no threats, no misconduct — just CPS weaponizing distress and using social media as an excuse to silence a grieving father.
📎 [Attachment included]

Exhibit C – Audio Recording of Officer Shortill Call (Biddeford PD)

Confirms Jean Haynes lied to police — stating I called "over 100 times a day" and was "disorderly in the lobby." Officer Shortill acknowledges this in our recorded call.

Exhibit P – Letter from YCARE Official in Springvale (March 12, 2024)

This letter, written by an official at YCARE in Springvale, described serious concerns about Marisol Guerrero's stalking and abusive behavior. Instead of addressing it, CPS ignored the report entirely and continued to paint me as the problem — all while law enforcement followed along blindly. The very agency entrusted to protect my children used their power to conceal abuse and retaliate against the parent who sought help.

Exhibit Q – Email Chain with Andy, CEO of Sanford YMCA (Post-Public Exposure)

For nearly a year, I received no response from YCARE after their own staff documented abuse from Marisol. Only after I went public did the CEO, Andy, reach out. I recorded our call — which revealed deeply concerning conduct and a dismissive tone about what had been reported. He promised follow-up and resolution. But like everyone else in this system, he went silent again, leaving my children vulnerable and my voice ignored.

Exhibit R – 🚨 Sanford CPS Finally Answered... Then Hung Up on Me! (Video Post)

After months of being ignored by Sanford CPS, I called them using a different number. They answered immediately — confirming they were intentionally avoiding my usual number. The receptionist pretended not to know who I was, despite previously acknowledging one of my calls. When I asked why I was no-trespassed on December 3, 2024 — she refused to answer, then hung up on me.
This video proves:

- Intentional call-blocking
- Refusal to answer lawful questions
- Stonewalling around no-trespass orders
- Condescending deflection instead of concern for child well-being
- Proof CPS officials know they've acted unlawfully — and are trying to avoid accountability

Exhibit S – 🚨 Exposing the Double Standards: Law Enforcement Selectively Enforces No-Trespass Orders (Video Post)

This video post exposes how multiple Maine law enforcement agencies — including Berwick PD, Sanford PD, and Laconia PD — are actively enforcing no-trespass orders without question when they are issued against me, yet are refusing to grant or enforce the same protections when I lawfully request them.

On-record calls prove that law enforcement across departments is acting based on:

- Personal bias
- Political discretion
- Systemic deference to power

🔴 Here's the key issue: This is not about why I requested no-trespass orders for certain individuals. In fact, I've intentionally chosen not to disclose the "why" — not out of secrecy or avoidance, but because law enforcement has made it explicitly clear that in Maine:

> “Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we’ll serve it. No questions asked.”

That standard — quoted and upheld by multiple officers, across multiple departments — has been applied blindly when no-trespass orders were issued against me. So why is it suddenly different when I, a registered Maine business owner and 100% disabled veteran, try to request one?

📌 Why am I being questioned, scrutinized, and denied, while CPS has never once been asked to justify theirs?

👮‍♂️ Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD even stated on record:

- “There’s no way I’m going to serve a no-trespass order to the Governor of Maine.”
- “We’re not going to serve any of those no-trespass orders.”
- CPS staff are “left-leaning people” who are “easily offended,” implying political bias was a valid basis for action.

This is where the issue becomes systemic:

- CPS was allowed to issue retaliatory no-trespass orders based on fabricated claims.
- Sanford PD enforced those orders without explanation.
- Berwick PD enforced a no-trespass order against me from Laconia PD, for a location I’ve never even been to and from a person I’ve never met.
- Yet when I attempted to follow the same policy, I was told my business location (a home office) “doesn’t count” and that the status or title of the individuals I named made them “off-limits.”

  This isn’t about legal policy — it’s about power protecting power, and law enforcement becoming an extension of that protection.

📌 My attempts to use the same tools that have been used against me are being denied solely based on who I am and who they are.
📌 That is selective enforcement, plain and simple.
📌 And it’s the same selective behavior we saw from Jean Haynes on March 11, 2025, when she used her position to lie to police and trespass me without justification — because she believed no one would challenge her.

This exhibit is critical because it lays bare the discriminatory double standard at play:

- One rule for CPS and the politically connected.
- Another for a father trying to protect himself.

📌 If they don’t need to explain, then neither should I.
📌 And if I do, then so should they.
📌 This isn’t justice. It’s a façade.

Exhibit T – Officer Jim Baccon Serves Me a Laconia No-Trespass Order With No Cause or Connection (Video Post – January 16, 2025)

This video shows Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD serving me with a no-trespass order on January 16, 2025, on behalf of Laconia PD — for a property I had never visited, from a person I had never met, and in a city I had never been to.

📌 In the video, I express my confusion and concern:

- I had never heard of the person requesting the order.
- I had no prior knowledge of Laconia, NH.
- I had no known connection to the address or the alleged complaint.

Yet Officer Baccon proceeds to serve me anyway — mocking my confusion and hardship — and tells me:

> "Well, just don't go there and you won't have a problem."

This is more than a procedural failure — it's a dismissive and dehumanizing response to a father being targeted without explanation, rights, or defense.

But what makes this even more concerning is what I later discovered:

📌 The individual who requested this no-trespass is now the custodial guardian of Renee Marchand's oldest daughter — a decision that followed CPS's questionable and ultimately harmful placement of her with Andrea Catanzano-Bonenfant.

Andrea is the same person who:

- Made false claims to CPS that I was going to kidnap children
- Spread fear-mongering messages
- Participated in the smear campaign alongside Marisol Guerrero and Tyler Boston
- Is now directly connected to the new guardian of Renee's daughter — who joined this campaign as well

Though the harm caused to Renee and her daughter isn't my full story to tell, it must be noted that CPS's gross mishandling of her case, their retaliatory approach toward both of us, and the enabling of known abusers and conspirators has ripped families apart, including hers. After Andrea's placement failed, CPS handed Renee's daughter over to the biological father — a man who had never seen her a single day in her 13 years of life.

That same man has since joined the CPS-enabled smear campaign against me — alongside Tyler, Marisol, and Andrea. This group has been emboldened and protected by the very system that:

- Refuses to answer my questions
- Silences me with no-trespass orders
- Labels me as a threat for speaking the truth

📌 In early December 2024, CPS even called Renee to tell her she would not be seeing her kids again if she stayed with me — a direct act of coercion and control meant to separate and destabilize our family further.

I now believe that this Laconia no-trespass order was influenced — if not orchestrated — by CPS as part of their ongoing abuse of power, retaliatory silencing, and manipulation of every agency they can reach.

📌 Meanwhile, I — a Maine business owner, father, and 100% disabled veteran — am left voiceless, stripped of protections, and handed orders that others never have to justify.

Exhibit U – 🚨 When Law Enforcement Brings Politics Into Justice (Video Post)

This post features a recorded phone conversation with Officer Jim Baccon of Berwick PD, in which he openly admits that political bias plays a role in how CPS officials interpret and respond to communication — and, by extension, how law enforcement upholds or ignores your rights.

📌 In the call, Officer Baccon justifies CPS's decision to no-trespass and avoid me by saying:

> "DHS is focused with a lot of liberal-leaning people. You may not mean it in a threatening manner, but they receive it."

Let that sink in:

- A law enforcement officer did not assess the facts of the situation.
- He did not review my emails, statements, or video evidence.
- Instead, he justified their refusal to respond based on a perceived political identity of the agency.

This isn't just dismissive — it's deeply unconstitutional.

📌 Justice should not depend on whether someone is "liberal-leaning" or "conservative."
📌 Law enforcement's duty is to enforce the law fairly and equally, not interpret it through political lens or protect the reputations of public agencies at the expense of citizens.

But it goes further:

📌 Officer Baccon also refused to honor my no-trespass request as a Maine business owner, despite Sanford PD confirming that "any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass for any reason."

When I pointed out the contradiction, he replied:

> "If you disagree, you can call my supervisor after 3."

✅ I did. I was promised a call back — no one ever called.
✅ I called again later — suddenly, no one in Berwick PD would speak to me except Officer Baccon.

This isn't law enforcement.
This is a circle of protection, silence, and bias, built around shielding CPS and suppressing anyone who challenges their misconduct.

📌 I am not being treated equally under the law.
📌 My business rights are ignored.
📌 My calls are filtered.
📌 My voice is denied — not because I broke the law, but because I asked why others were allowed to.

🚨 If CPS and law enforcement officials are acting based on political perception — not policy or law — then we are no longer dealing with a justice system. We are dealing with a culture of protectionism and corruption.

Exhibit V – 🔥 Police Admit Businesses Can BAN Anyone Without Reason – But Not Me (Video Post)

In this post and accompanying video, Officer Chouinard of the Sanford Police Department confirms that any business in Maine can issue a no-trespass order for any reason and that police will enforce it without question or justification.

This is the exact same policy that was used to justify multiple no-trespass orders against me — yet when I, as a business owner of a registered LLC (Together We Grow), attempted to exercise the same right, I was denied.

📌 Officer Chouinard said plainly:

> "Any business can issue a no-trespass order for any reason, and we enforce them."

But when I attempted to issue my own, I was:

- Told to contact a different department
- Given excuses, deflections, and stonewalls
- Ultimately denied the right to exercise the same legal action used against me

📌 Why was I trespassed from a public CPS building with no justification — yet CPS, and even officials themselves, are protected from the same process?
📌 Why does the law apply to some and not to others?
📌 Why am I being scrutinized and silenced for using a policy others can use without explanation?

This video is especially important because it features Officer Chouinard, the same officer who responded on December 3, 2024, when Sanford CPS called police in an attempt to have me arrested for "trespassing."
Instead of immediately arresting me, he listened, investigated, and confirmed I had never previously been served with a no-trespass order — proving I was telling the truth.

And yet, he still had to serve me that day, because:

> "Police always enforce CPS orders without question."

He told me the only thing I could do was to keep contacting them and seeking answers — despite knowing I had already been ignored for months.

This post confirms what several officers across departments have already admitted:

- The law is enforced blindly when it protects state agencies.
- But when I try to use that same law for protection, I'm denied.

This isn't just a double standard — it's a system that enforces policy based on who you are and who you're standing up to.

📌 I am a registered business owner in Maine.
📌 But my rights, under this system, are conditional — and denied whenever inconvenient to those in power.

Exhibit W – 🚨 Formal Bar Complaint Against Attorney Amy Fairfield: Confirmation Received (Post & Documentation)

This exhibit features an update confirming that my formal bar complaint against Attorney Amy Fairfield has been officially received by the Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar and is now under review by Bar Counsel.

Amy Fairfield is no stranger to misconduct—she was already placed on probation for professional violations in 2024. Yet despite this, she has continued to engage in highly unethical and harmful behavior in my case, including:

- Misrepresenting my income to the court, knowingly inflating figures while ignoring my 100% disabled and unemployed status
- Obstructing my ability to appeal false financial claims
- Aiding the legal harassment of both me and my partner through manipulation, delays, and silence
- Dismissing critical evidence while selectively enforcing court orders that work only in favor of her clients — my abuser and Renee's abuser

📌 What makes this exhibit especially important is that it confirms what I've been showing all along:

> Every system I've encountered — CPS, law enforcement, the courts, and now legal representation itself — has reflected the same pattern of bias, corruption, and retaliation.

Amy Fairfield has consistently acted not as an officer of the court, but as a tool for weaponizing legal proceedings against victims — all while holding power over outcomes that shape my access to my children, my financial future, and my ability to fight back.

This isn't just about one unethical attorney. This is about a legal system that enables and protects people like her — even when they've already been found guilty of violating their professional code.

💬 In this public post, I have called on local media, including the Portland Press Herald, to investigate further and shine a light on what's happening behind closed courtroom doors — because what's happening to me is not isolated. It's systemic.

Exhibit X – Call Log Screenshot: Sanford CPS Call History (Nov 2024 – Mar 2025)

This exhibit displays a verifiable call log from my phone to the Sanford CPS office (207-490-5400). The log spans from November 25, 2024, through March 11, 2025, and clearly contradicts Jean Haynes' statement to Officer Shortill of Biddeford PD.

Haynes falsely claimed I had been “calling over 100 times a day” — yet this call history proves:

- My calls were limited and spaced out, never excessive.
- Only a few calls per day were made on the busiest days.
- Zero evidence of the kind of harassment or over-contact Haynes described.

This is a direct lie made on record to a law enforcement officer in order to justify a retaliatory no-trespass order — an abuse of power and a criminally unethical act by a senior OCFS official.

The system didn’t verify. The police didn’t ask for proof.
They just obeyed.

📌 This call log is visual evidence of truth being ignored — and retaliation being carried out without due process, fact-checking, or lawful justification.

🛑 This Is About More Than Me—It’s About Every Family Like Mine

Governor Mills,

This is not just a personal tragedy—it is a systemic failure. It is a betrayal of the values that Maine claims to uphold: justice, transparency, and the protection of children and families.

When someone as high-ranking as Jean Haynes can knowingly lie to law enforcement—and when those lies are blindly enforced without question by police departments, while oversight bodies like the Ombudsman choose silence—the system is no longer broken. It is complicit.

For over eight months, I have lived a nightmare not because of anything I’ve done, but because of a coordinated effort by CPS to silence, discredit, and punish me for speaking the truth and seeking help. This is coercion. This is abuse. And this is happening under the authority of your administration.

I am one voice. But I represent countless others who are too afraid to speak, too overwhelmed to fight, or too broken by the system to keep going. I’m still here—because I refuse to let my children grow up thinking I gave up on them.

Now I’m asking you not to give up on us.
Hold Jean Haynes accountable. Investigate OCFS. Expose the corruption that has been allowed to fester in silence.
Because if you don’t—who will?

I am ready to testify. I am ready to provide evidence. And I am ready to stand for every family this system has failed.

Please don’t look away.
The truth is here. The time to act is now.

📩 CC List Statement for Your Email:

> The list of recipients below represents every official, agency, advocate, and oversight body I’ve chosen to include in this message. I gathered them to the best of my ability in hopes that this email reaches at least one person brave enough to stand for truth, transparency, and justice — not just for me, but for every family in Maine who has been wronged, silenced, or destroyed by corrupt government officials entrusted to protect them.

📂 CC RECIPIENTS BY CATEGORY:

🏛️ Maine State Government Officials

Why they were included: These are the key leaders who oversee the state's executive agencies, including DHHS and OCFS. They are responsible for policy enforcement, oversight of public services, and upholding ethical standards in public administration. They have the power to investigate, intervene, and initiate systemic reform. Included contacts:

- Governor Janet Mills
- Attorney General Aaron Frey
- DHHS Commissioner Jeanne Lambrew
- OCFS Director Bobbi Johnson
- OCFS Associate Director Jean Haynes
- Child Welfare Ombudsman Christine Alberi
- State Auditor Matthew Dunlap
- Secretary of State Shenna Bellows
- State Treasurer Henry Beck
- Commissioner of Public Safety Michael Sauschuck
- Commissioner of Education Pender Makin

🏛️ Maine Legislative Leadership and Committee Members

Why they were included: These are elected legislators with the authority to conduct hearings, push forward child welfare reforms, and hold state agencies accountable through law. Several of them sit on Judiciary and Health & Human Services committees. Included contacts:
Dozens of representatives and senators across both parties — each of whom has a duty to protect Maine families, uphold civil liberties, and address abuses of government power. Their inclusion ensures this crisis is not buried in bureaucracy.

⚖️ Judicial and Legal Oversight Authorities

Why they were included: These bodies oversee judicial ethics, access to legal services, and the conduct of attorneys and state actors. My concerns include judicial neglect, mishandling of substantiations, and an active bar complaint. Included contacts:

- Chief Justice Valerie Stanfill
- Judicial Branch Communications Office

Everyone,

Please forgive me if this message catches you off guard. At this point, I can't recall who has or hasn't been included in previous messages—not only due to some memory issues, but also because after months of reaching out for help and hearing nothing back, I've begun to lose hope.

I want to share something that's very difficult for me. Up until now, I had every intention of attending the Muddy Mile event tomorrow to see my boys. A month ago, the thought of it filled me with so much joy. It felt like the only chance I had to see them after every other attempt has been obstructed by Marisol. But as the day got closer, the excitement turned into something else—something much heavier.

After sitting with it tonight, I've decided I won't be going tomorrow. Please know that this is not because I don't want to see my sons—on the contrary, there is nothing in this world I want more. But I've come to accept that my presence could stir up emotions in them, and I would never want to disrupt a day that is meant to be about them. They deserve joy, not confusion or conflict.

So I will stay back, and continue doing what I've been doing: fighting, praying, and raising my voice louder in the hope that someone, somewhere, will finally listen and help reunite us.

The sadness I feel is indescribable. This pain—being kept from my children—is the source of everything I'm struggling with. It's not drama, it's not exaggeration: if my heart gives out, it will be because it has been broken too many times. Not by choice, but by grief.

If you see my boys tomorrow, please show them a little extra love. And if your policies and procedures allow, please tell them their father loves them deeply, misses them endlessly, and hopes they have the best time at the event.

With sincerity and hope,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: MANDATED REPORT REQUIRED – Misconduct by OCFS Director Jean Haynes

To Whom It May Concern,

Yesterday, I spoke with one of your intake workers, who instructed me to send this email and submit the materials I had originally prepared to provide on a thumb drive. As requested, I have attached those materials here.

During our conversation, the intake worker stated that she would be writing a report and requesting that a case be opened based on what I shared. I appreciate that step—but I want to be crystal clear:

> A report must be made on Jean Haynes—District Director of OCFS—after reviewing the evidence I have submitted and verifying the truth of my statements, which are fully documented and verifiable.

I am not making vague accusations. I have provided proof that Jean Haynes knowingly gave false information to law enforcement to justify an unlawful, retaliatory no-trespass order. That is misconduct. That is retaliation. And that is illegal.

What you do next matters.

I don't care if you report her to law enforcement, her superior Bobbi Johnson, internal affairs, the Office of Program Evaluation and Government Accountability, or any other authority. That's not my job. That is yours.

📜 THE LAW IS CLEAR

Under Title 22, §4011-A of the Maine Child and Family Services and Child Protection Act, every employee of a state agency working with children is a mandated reporter.

You are required by law to report any suspected abuse, neglect, or institutional misconduct that may place a child's safety or a parent's lawful rights at risk—including actions taken by individuals in leadership positions.

Failure to report is a Class E crime in the State of Maine.

Now that you have received this report—backed by formal documentation and direct evidence—you are no longer shielded by internal chain of command. You are legally obligated to act.

🚨 THIS IS YOUR CHOICE

You now have a decision to make:

- You can fulfill your duty as a mandated reporter, take my evidence seriously, and report Jean Haynes for misconduct.
- Or you can remain silent, ignore your obligation, and break the law yourself.

There is no third option.

I am making this clear not out of hostility, but because I have been repeatedly silenced, obstructed, and retaliated against by this system. That ends now.

What you do—or fail to do—from this point forward will be recorded and remembered.

I stand for truth and transparency and for the protection of children and families. Do you?

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

To those who have chosen to be complicit with the crimes committed for many months:

I am forwarding the email I submitted to the OCFS intake line as instructed by their worker earlier this week. That message is attached in full for your awareness.

Let me be clear: this is not the first time I've raised these concerns.

I previously submitted a formal notarized letter, which was signed for and received. You are already aware of what Jean Haynes has done. You've had the opportunity to act. Instead, you've chosen to ignore, deflect, and stonewall—for months.

You've made a deliberate decision not to engage with the truth.
You've decided that silence is easier than accountability.
But silence will no longer protect you.

This message is not a request. It is a formal notice.

The original email I am forwarding speaks for itself. The evidence is clear. The law is explicit. And your obligation is real.

I've been civil. I've been patient. I've been peaceful.
And still—I've been silenced, obstructed, and retaliated against by your system.

Have you noticed I'm still here? I'm not going anywhere.

You are out of time, out of excuses, and out of cover.

What you choose to do next will be seen, documented, and remembered.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Fwd: Subject: MANDATED REPORT REQUIRED – Misconduct by OCFS Director Jean Haynes

To those who have chosen to be complicit with the crimes committed for many months:

I am forwarding the email I submitted to the OCFS intake line as instructed by their worker earlier this week. That message is attached in full for your awareness.

Let me be clear: this is not the first time I've raised these concerns.

I previously submitted a formal notarized letter, which was signed for and received. You are already aware of what Jean Haynes has done. You've had the opportunity to act. Instead, you've chosen to ignore, deflect, and stonewall—for months.

You've made a deliberate decision not to engage with the truth.
You've decided that silence is easier than accountability.
But silence will no longer protect you.

This message is not a request. It is a formal notice.

The original email I am forwarding speaks for itself. The evidence is clear. The law is explicit. And your obligation is real.

I've been civil. I've been patient. I've been peaceful.
And still—I've been silenced, obstructed, and retaliated against by your system.

Have you noticed I'm still here? I'm not going anywhere.

You are out of time, out of excuses, and out of cover.

What you choose to do next will be seen, documented, and remembered.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Subject: Subject: MANDATED REPORT REQUIRED – Misconduct by OCFS Director Jean Haynes
To: <Intakereports.dhhs@maine.gov>

To: Intakereports.dhhs@maine.gov

To Whom It May Concern,

Yesterday, I spoke with one of your intake workers, who instructed me to send this email and submit the materials I had originally prepared to provide on a thumb drive. As requested, I have attached those materials here.

During our conversation, the intake worker stated that she would be writing a report and requesting that a case be opened based on what I shared. I appreciate that step—but I want to be crystal clear:

> A report must be made on Jean Haynes—District Director of OCFS—after reviewing the evidence I have submitted and verifying the truth of my statements, which are fully documented and verifiable.

I am not making vague accusations. I have provided proof that Jean Haynes knowingly gave false information to law enforcement to justify an unlawful, retaliatory no-trespass order. That is misconduct. That is retaliation. And that is illegal.

What you do next matters.

I don't care if you report her to law enforcement, her superior Bobbi Johnson, internal affairs, the Office of Program Evaluation and Government Accountability, or any other authority. That's not my job. That is yours.

📜 THE LAW IS CLEAR

Under Title 22, §4011-A of the Maine Child and Family Services and Child Protection Act, every employee of a state agency working with children is a mandated reporter.

You are required by law to report any suspected abuse, neglect, or institutional misconduct that may place a child's safety or a parent's lawful rights at risk—including actions taken by individuals in leadership positions.

Failure to report is a Class E crime in the State of Maine.

Now that you have received this report—backed by formal documentation and direct evidence—you are no longer shielded by internal chain of command. You are legally obligated to act.

🚨 THIS IS YOUR CHOICE

You now have a decision to make:

- You can fulfill your duty as a mandated reporter, take my evidence seriously, and report Jean Haynes for misconduct.
- Or you can remain silent, ignore your obligation, and break the law yourself.

There is no third option.

I am making this clear not out of hostility, but because I have been repeatedly silenced, obstructed, and retaliated against by this system. That ends now.

What you do—or fail to do—from this point forward will be recorded and remembered.

I stand for truth and transparency and for the protection of children and families. Do you?

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

To those who have chosen to be complicit with the crimes committed for many months:

I am forwarding the email I submitted to the OCFS intake line as instructed by their worker earlier this week. That message is attached in full for your awareness.

Let me be clear: this is not the first time I've raised these concerns.

I previously submitted a formal notarized letter, which was signed for and received. You are already aware of what Jean Haynes has done. You've had the opportunity to act. Instead, you've chosen to ignore, deflect, and stonewall—for months.

You've made a deliberate decision not to engage with the truth.
You've decided that silence is easier than accountability.
But silence will no longer protect you.

This message is not a request. It is a formal notice.

The original email I am forwarding speaks for itself. The evidence is clear. The law is explicit. And your obligation is real.

I've been civil. I've been patient. I've been peaceful.
And still—I've been silenced, obstructed, and retaliated against by your system.

Have you noticed I'm still here? I'm not going anywhere.

You are out of time, out of excuses, and out of cover.

What you choose to do next will be seen, documented, and remembered.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

To Whom It May Concern,

Yesterday, I spoke with one of your intake workers, who instructed me to send this email and submit the materials I had originally prepared to provide on a thumb drive. As requested, I have attached those materials here.

During our conversation, the intake worker stated that she would be writing a report and requesting that a case be opened based on what I shared. I appreciate that step—but I want to be crystal clear:

> A report must be made on Jean Haynes—District Director of OCFS—after reviewing the evidence I have submitted and verifying the truth of my statements, which are fully documented and verifiable.

I am not making vague accusations. I have provided proof that Jean Haynes knowingly gave false information to law enforcement to justify an unlawful, retaliatory no-trespass order. That is misconduct. That is retaliation. And that is illegal.

What you do next matters.

I don't care if you report her to law enforcement, her superior Bobbi Johnson, internal affairs, the Office of Program Evaluation and Government Accountability, or any other authority. That's not my job. That is yours.

📜 THE LAW IS CLEAR

Under Title 22, §4011-A of the Maine Child and Family Services and Child Protection Act, every employee of a state agency working with children is a mandated reporter.

You are required by law to report any suspected abuse, neglect, or institutional misconduct that may place a child's safety or a parent's lawful rights at risk—including actions taken by individuals in leadership positions.

Failure to report is a Class E crime in the State of Maine.

Subject: URGENT: Follow-Up – Mandated Report of OCFS Misconduct – No Response After 7 Days

To Whom It May Concern,

On 05/31/25, I submitted a formal report to this intake address, as instructed by an OCFS intake worker. That email included extensive, well-documented evidence of serious misconduct by Jean Haynes, District Director of OCFS, including:

* Knowingly providing false information to law enforcement;
* Retaliatory misuse of no-trespass authority;
* Violations of my civil rights and state law protections as a parent and disabled veteran.

The intake worker I spoke with stated she would write a report and request a case be opened. She also informed me that if I did not hear back within 3 business days, it would indicate that no case had been opened.

It has now been over 7 days. I have received no reply, no acknowledgment of receipt, no case number, and no communication from anyone at OCFS or DHHS. This silence is not just procedural failure—it is a willful evasion of your legal obligations as mandated reporters.

Let me remind you of your duty under Title 22 §4011-A of the Maine Child and Family Services and Child Protection Act:

"All employees of state agencies... who know or have reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been or is likely to be abused or neglected... must immediately report."

This includes institutional misconduct by leadership that results in the unlawful restriction of a parent’s rights or the obstruction of child welfare.

Failure to report is a Class E crime.

I am now formally requesting:

1. Immediate written confirmation that my report was received and logged;
2. A case number and contact person assigned to this matter;
3. Confirmation that a mandated report has been filed regarding Jean Haynes' conduct;
4. If a case has not been opened, a written explanation for why this report was not acted upon in accordance with state law.

If I do not receive a response within 48 hours, I will assume that this office is actively suppressing mandated reports and will pursue further legal and public oversight remedies. This includes direct escalation to the Governor’s Office, the Office of Program Evaluation and Government Accountability (OPEGA), and the media.

Let me also be clear: any agency or official who chooses to ignore, delay, or suppress the truth will be added to the growing list of those who will be held accountable—when that day comes.

It should come as no surprise when those who remained complicit, silent, or obstructive face the very scrutiny, investigation, and consequences that this broken system was supposed to prevent.

History does not look kindly on those who watched injustice unfold and chose to do nothing. I will continue to stand for truth. Whether you choose to stand with me—or against me—is up to you.

This report, your inaction, and this follow-up will be documented and preserved.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels

Hi Chelcie, this is Ryan Michaels. I'm reaching out regarding the upcoming administrative hearing scheduled for July 1st. I respectfully request that I be provided with copies of all findings and reports related to my case(s) prior to the hearing so I can adequately prepare. I also want to note that I am 100% VA disabled and currently without legal representation, and trying to navigate this on my own has been extremely difficult. Your timely response would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Urgent: Newly Obtained Body Cam Footage Proves Retaliatory Misconduct – Request for Immediate Action

Dear Bobbi Johnson,

I am writing as a 100% disabled veteran and father who has been fighting for over 12 months to regain contact with my children. I am reaching out with deep urgency, following the recent receipt of body cam footage from Officer Shortill's response to the March 11, 2025 incident at Biddeford DHHS.

This footage, alongside my own recording of my visit that day, provides irrefutable, side-by-side proof that OCFS employee Amy Cilley knowingly misrepresented facts to law enforcement, including falsely portraying me as dangerous and "not in touch with reality." These lies directly led to my second unlawful no-trespass order—further barring me from accessing public offices critical to addressing the welfare of my children.

Key facts supported by video evidence:

🔴 Gross Misrepresentation of Events
Amy Cilley's statements on body cam footage were 180 degrees from what actually occurred during my peaceful visit. She falsely described my demeanor, intentions, and mental state—gaslighting law enforcement into treating me as a threat.

🔴 Denial of Due Process
I was never notified of any allegations or given the chance to respond before these orders were issued, violating my rights under the 14th Amendment (due process) and Maine Civil Rights Act (5 M.R.S.A. §4681 et seq.), which prohibits retaliation for exercising constitutional rights.

🔴 First Amendment Violations
OCFS leadership has weaponized my lawful advocacy and protected speech—peacefully seeking answers for my children—as grounds to silence and punish me, violating my First Amendment rights to free speech and to petition for redress.

🔴 Disability Discrimination
As a veteran with service-connected PTSD and related disabilities, Amy Cilley's on-camera remarks questioning the legitimacy of my disability and belittling my mental health are deeply troubling. These actions may violate ADA Title II (42 U.S.C. §12132), which requires public agencies to provide fair, nondiscriminatory treatment and reasonable accommodations.

🔴 Systemic Pattern of Retaliation
This incident is not isolated; rather, it reflects a consistent pattern of OCFS retaliating against me for demanding answers about my children, including the original no-trespass issued in Sanford on December 3, 2024—also without any notice, explanation, or opportunity to contest.

I am now formally requesting your immediate intervention to:

✅ Review the body cam footage from March 11, 2025, alongside my recording of the same day's events, to see firsthand the disparity between truth and OCFS' narrative.

✅ Conduct an impartial investigation into Amy Cilley's false statements, the misuse of no-trespass orders, and OCFS' broader efforts to silence me through intimidation.

✅ Take corrective action to rescind these unjust no-trespass orders and ensure I am no longer prevented from accessing public DHHS offices necessary for resolving the welfare of my children.

✅ Provide me with a clear path forward to address the documented misconduct, reunite with my children, and restore my rights.

The stakes could not be higher: my relationship with my children, their well-being, my well-being, and the credibility of the system meant to protect families are all on the line. I have exhausted every avenue in good faith, reaching out to the Ombudsman, legislators, and law enforcement—yet my rights continue to be trampled.

I ask for your leadership to ensure these abuses stop now. Please confirm receipt of this email.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Respectfully,
Ryan Michaels

p.s. The newly acquired body cam footage, along with every other interaction, has been documented in a timeline found here for your review:

Subject: Urgent Inquiry: Status of Administrative Hearing Notification

Dear Chelcie and Christine,

I am reaching out to inquire about the status of my administrative hearing regarding the latest false allegations of child abuse made against me. It has been several months, yet I have received no notification by mail, email, or any other means regarding the scheduling of this hearing.

As I take these matters very seriously and look forward to the opportunity to speak under oath and formally defend myself, I would appreciate confirmation that I am being afforded due process and that my right to a fair hearing is not being obstructed or delayed.

Please provide me with an update on when I can expect to receive formal notification of the hearing, along with any relevant case details I should be aware of.

Thank you for your time, and I look forward to your prompt response.

This is a forwarded email...

Its a conversation between me and Christina codere. Shes the supervisor of the OCFS case worker at the center of all this drama.

Shes ignored me all year. This isn't the only email shes ignored...but its an example.

And I bring this up now because I wanted to tell someone this...

See the attached screenshots from today.

I never look at this part of facebook...I never monitor who's watching. But now I have to. Because today I found that Christina codere is stalking my personal facebook page.

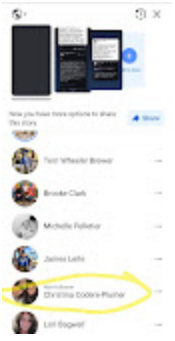

She can ignore all of my pleas for help for my children and I...but she can stalk my personal social media.

These people are causing me so much harm:(

Follow-Up – Ongoing Harassment and Social Media Stalking

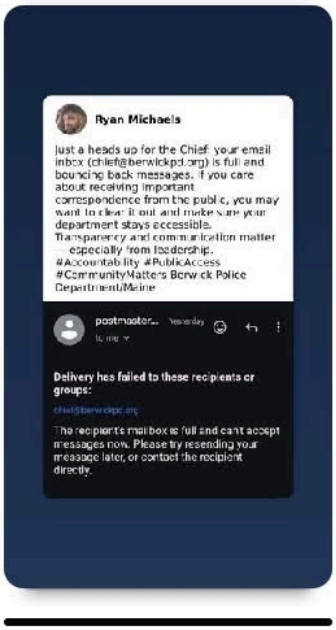

Hi Jimenez,

I'm following up on the email I sent earlier where I explained how Christina Codere — who ignored my concerns all year — was caught stalking my personal Facebook page.

I now just discovered that Chelcie Stewart, another OCFS worker directly tied to this entire situation, is now also stalking my personal social media. These are the same people who have ignored every plea I've made for help. The same people who have fabricated lies about me to cover the truth that is their misconduct. They won't answer my concerns, they won't act on legitimate reports of abuse, but they have no problem tracking my personal accounts.

This is becoming a clear pattern of targeted harassment. They continue to ignore my rights, silence my voice, and now actively monitor me in retaliation for speaking out. These are public servants weaponizing their positions to intimidate and monitor a parent who's trying to hold them accountable.

I’m exhausted, angry, and frankly terrified by how far this has gone. I wanted to make sure you had the full picture 💞

Formal Request for Clarification of False Statements Made to Law Enforcement on March 11, 2025

Dear Ms. Cilley,

I am writing to formally address and request clarification regarding multiple false and misleading statements you made to law enforcement during the incident on March 11, 2025, which was documented on body cam footage.

Specifically, you informed the responding officer that I was “out of touch with reality” and expressed uncertainty about my disability status. I have attached my official VA disability determination, which clearly confirms that I am a 100% Permanently and Totally Disabled Veteran, with multiple federally recognized service-connected conditions, including PTSD, TBI, and related diagnoses.

In addition to these false statements, you mischaracterized me as a threat or disruption. I am requesting that you clarify and explain the basis of these statements, as they directly contradict multiple recorded and independently verified interactions from that same day:

- Upon arrival, the officer spoke to the front desk receptionist, who acknowledged that I was not being a problem, and further stated that even she would be upset at being treated the way I was treated.
- The receptionist also informed the officer that Jean Haynes refused to allow me to speak to anyone, a fact corroborated by my personal audio recording and the officer’s conversation with the receptionist—which included her comment that “even she would be upset being treated that way.”
- The officer then spoke to a second staff member—the first person I spoke to upon arrival—who described me simply as “a tattooed guy who seemed harmless,” further confirming my calm and respectful conduct.
- Meanwhile, your characterization of events painted me as unstable and dangerous, with no factual basis, despite multiple witnesses—including your own colleagues—confirming otherwise.

Given the factual record available through body cam footage, witness testimony, and my own recordings, I am requesting:

- The specific evidence you relied upon to falsely portray me as out of touch with reality;
- An explanation for your misstatement about my disability status despite federally adjudicated VA documentation;
- A clear account of why you provided the officer with a version of events that is wholly inconsistent with multiple other staff members’ accounts and objective recordings.

These false representations have directly contributed to damaging false narratives about me, to the detriment of my rights, parental relationship, and public record. This correspondence is being formally recorded and preserved for accountability purposes.

I am providing you the opportunity to respond to these concerns in writing prior to further escalation.

Thank you,
Ryan Michaels

Follow-Up Request for Clarification of Misstatements on March 11, 2025:

Dear Ms. Cilley,

I am following up on my July 15, 2025, correspondence, in which I respectfully requested clarification regarding multiple false and misleading statements you made to responding law enforcement during the March 11, 2025 incident. As of today, I have not received any acknowledgment or response.

Given the seriousness of these inaccuracies—particularly concerning my federally adjudicated disability status and the mischaracterization of my behavior, both contradicted by objective recordings and witness accounts—I am continuing to extend an opportunity for you to clarify these statements directly before I pursue further accountability measures.

I remain committed to resolving these concerns transparently and expect a response within a reasonable timeframe.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
Ryan Michaels
